Norway and Worried.

Mr. Archibald Sutherland, Principal South Bar School, Sydney, N.S., writes, "I was greatly troubled with nervous dyspepsia, and after meals I often felt like vomiting, and my stomach was sore. I was nervous and worried, frequently had headaches and shortness of breath. When several doctors failed I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it has entirely cured me. I shall be glad to be the means of bringing this medicine to the notice of any one who is suffering as I did."

THE GOLDEN GIRL.

A WIDOW who had two daughters lived in a certain country, on the edge of a certain village, boys and girls. One was homely, ill-tempered and lazy, but the mother loved her, while for the other—her stepdaughter—she cared very little, although this daughter was beautiful, kind and willing to work.

The beautiful daughter had to work very hard from sunrise till sunset, and her daily work was to sit by a well out on the highway and spin.

Now the spindle cut her fingers, and one day it was so covered with blood-drops that she dipped it in the well to rinse it clean. But, alas! she missed her hold on it, and it fell to the bottom.

Knowing how her stepmother would scold her if she found the spindle was lost, the poor girl threw herself into the well after the spindle.

Then everything turned black and she knew nothing more until after a while she opened her eyes, to find herself in a beautiful meadow all covered with pretty flowers.

As she walked wonderingly across it, she saw a baker's oven which was full of delicious-smelling new bread. "Oh, beautiful girl, pull us out, please," cried the loaves; "pull us out, or we will surely burn, for we are baked brown already."

And the beautiful girl willingly opened the oven and took all of the loaves out.

Then she walked on and presently came to an apple tree, which called out: "Oh, beautiful girl, shake me, please, for my apples are all ripe."

So she shook the tree and brought all of the apples down to the ground.

At last she came to a house where lived old Dame Holley, who spied her from the door and smiled at her, but her huge teeth looked so frightful that the girl's heart fairly quaked with fear.

"Come live with me, my girl, and do my work," said the dame.

So the girl did, and she worked very hard and very well, shaking the old Dame's feather beds till the feathers flew about like snow. The dame was very much pleased, and treated her very kindly, giving her plenty of good food and wine also.

But the beautiful girl loved her stepmother, despite her unkindness, and finally grew so homesick that she spoke to the dame.

Instead of being displeased, the Dame said: "You are a good girl, indeed, and I will myself show you how to get back to your home."

Just as she was being led out to the highway the girl found herself beshowered with gold which covered her from head to foot and clung to her.

"Your reward, my dear," smiled the dame, and then she surprised the girl by giving her the long-lost spindle as well.

A short walk brought the girl home, and when the cock spied her from the gatepost he crowed loudly: "Cock-a-doodle-doo! here comes our golden girl home again!"

The stepmother was filled with wonder and joy, and for once had kind words for her beautiful stepdaughter. When she heard what had happened to the girl and how she got her gold, she hastened out to her own daughter and, placing a spindle in her hand, told her to try her fortune with Dame Holley.

So the homely, cross-tempered, lazy girl went and spun by the well, but in order to produce spots of blood she deliberately pricked her fingers on the thornbushes.

Then she dropped her spindle down the well and threw herself down after it.

Like her beautiful stepsister, she soon found herself on a charming, flower-decked meadow and presently heard the loaves in the baker's oven plead to be taken out. But she shook her head and walked past, not caring to soil her lily fingers by touching the sooty oven.

When the apples begged to be shaken down she shrugged her shoulders and declined to do them that little favor.

And when at last she came to Dame Holley's house she not only was not afraid when she saw the dame's huge teeth, but did not even wait to be asked to live with her or work for her. Instead of that, she offered the services, not because she wanted to work, but because she was greedy for gold.

The dame accepted her offer, but after the first day the girl proved so lazy and ill-temered and generally useless and the feather beds were so neglected that the dame told her to go back home and offered to show her the way.

With great glee the girl was following the dame out to the highway, when she suddenly found herself beshowered—not with gold, but with dreadful drops of nasty black pitch, which covered her from head to foot and stuck there.

"Your punishment!" announced the old dame, and closed the gate on her.

The lazy girl crept home, and when the cock spied her from the wall, he crowed: "Cock-a-doodle-doo! Here comes our goosey girl home again!"

And as long as she lived the lazy girl never got rid of the pitch which stuck to her hair and her clothes.

Polly Evans' Puzzles

WHO of you boys and girls can give the correct answers to these five picture puzzles? Three of them represent three of Dickens' works, one a work of Dumas, and one the name of a famous Western writer.

Can better descry
Than you or I
On how many toes
A pussy cat goes?

Another Riddle.

What number is the answer to this riddle?
My number, definite and known,
Is ten times ten, told ten times o'er;
Though half of me is one alone,
And half exceeds all count and score.

A Numeral Riddle.

Twice ten and six of us,
Six are but three of us,
Nine are but four of us,
What can we possibly be?
Would you know more of us,
I'll tell you more of us:
Twelve are but six of us,
Five are but four; do you see?

Finds the World Kind.

NOT far from Washington there lives a boy who has to bear the heavy burden of deformity, but so bravely does he bear it that he is the very heart of his home, the brightest and the cheeriest and most helpful one in the household.

A while ago he went out and hunted for a situation for himself, so that he might pay his share of the family expenses.

Somebody asked him, "Don't you find it rather disagreeable, going about as you have to now?"

He looked up with his bright, flashing smile, and answered quickly, "Oh, no; everybody is kind to a fellow in my fix," with a slight gesture toward his back.

There is plenty of love and sympathy in the world after all, if your eyes are open to see them.—Selected.

SQUEECHY'S CIRCUS

BARNUM'S circus had been to town, and everybody except Parson Gay and a few old deacons had been to see it—everybody, that is, who by good fortune was not a member of the parson's family or one of the deacons'.

Among the unfortunates, sad to say, was the brightest, liveliest boy in town, Samuel Gay, the parson's son, popularly known as "Squeechy."

Gazing, tearful and ecstatic, at the gorgeous show pictures blazoned on billboards and fences, barns and the sides of store buildings, how Squeechy had regretted his unfortunate birth as a parson's son! How he had envied "Bug" Jernigan, who, though only the son of a poor shoemaker, had the privilege of walking in with the rest of the town to see the thrilling stunts done within the mysterious, enormous tent.

It was some consolation, however, to be able to rise early the following morning and go with "Lenny" Griggs to watch the circus pack up and prepare to leave town.

"Oo! Hear the lions roar!" cried Squeechy, ecstatically.

"Yes, 'n there's one of the elephants trumpeting! Hear?" said Len.

"'N' see that giraffe's long, long neck!" exclaimed Squeechy.

"Ah, there's the crack tightrope-walker," cried Len, suddenly, pointing out one of the men who were passing by.

"'N' there's the fellow that tumbled to beat the band, and oh! looky, Squeech, there's the jim-crack bareback rider I was tellin' you about!"

"If only I had anything but a preacher for a father!" groaned Squeechy, his heart swelling at the enormity of the self-denial which the accident of his birth had forced upon him, "then I might have seen all those glorious things!"

"It is too bad!" sympathized Len.

Walking back home for breakfast, after a preliminary dip in the swimming hole, a sudden thought popped into Squeechy's mind.

"Len! let us have a circus!"

"Where?"

"In your barn. That big, empty loft is just the place!"

"Sure it is! All right, Squeech, I'm in for it."

"'N' we'll charge pins, won't we?"

"Sure!"

"'N' tell the boys to begin practicing right away, 'n' that we'll pick out the best of them for our performers."

"Good!"

So it was settled, and the new excitement did much to sweeten the bitterness in Squeechy's heart.

In no time at all the word spread over town, and by night every boy with the least spark of boy in him was practicing for all he was worth—back of the barn, on his bed in the house, on the clothesline stretched tight between the fence post and the lawn hydrant, or in the woodhouse.

Next day every boy was swapping notes with every other boy.

"Hello, Bug! bet you can't do my stunts!"

"What?"

"Turn a handspring, 'n' skin the cat."

"Huh! Just look at me do 'em!"

And Bug both turned a handspring and skinned the cat three times.

"Oh, but you changed hands!" criticised the other boy.

"Only once—like to see YOU skin the cat three times without changing your hands once, anyway. Try it!"

But the other boy wisely "shut up," contenting himself with a resolution to practice until he could beat Bug "all to pieces."

All the while Squeechy and Len kept their eyes open and spotted the most promising candidates for the final honors; but when they came to the point of telling this boy he could perform and that boy that HE couldn't perform in the circus, they found themselves in all sorts of trouble.

"Why can't I, I'd like to know?" demanded an angry rejected candidate.

"Cause Tim does setter 'n you!" explained Len.

"He don't! You're favoring him. Who cares for your old circus anyway? I'll get up one of my own."

"Ah, come now."

cozed Squeechy, "you can be gatekeeper and take in tickets. Can't he, Len?"

"Yes, and he can have one of my white mice," added Len, and his extra generosity quite won the recreant over to their side.

The great day of the circus arrived, and by 2 P. M. boys and girls, all on the tiptoe of excitement, filed past the important gatekeeper, delivering the tickets which they had purchased at twenty pins apiece, and clambered up the stairs to the hayloft, where they stood or sat around along three sides, while the fourth was screened by a calico curtain behind which mysterious motions and excited whispers could now and then be detected.

Ben Jenks, the official curtain raiser, shouted: "The circus is ready!" and with an elaborate flourish drew the curtain to one side, disclosing Squeechy in a cast-off silk hat and top boots of his parson father's, with a long whip in hand, in the part of chief ringmaster.

"Billy Heiser, first performer," he announced, and Billy came out in his shirt sleeves and stocking feet, delivered a short bow, then, hoe in hands as a balancer, gave a neat exhibition of tight-rope walking, which brought forth richly merited applause from the enthusiastic audience.

"Next, Jimmy Gates," announced Squeechy. Jimmy waddled out, his little head and short legs almost hidden by an enormously padded body.

"Oh, what a fine fatty," squealed the delighted audience. And then Jimmy gave them an exhibition of his powers as an ear and scalp wriggler.

After Jimmy came Ray Graham, who took hold of the trapeze and whirled around it like greased lightning, then reversed, and finally hung by the toes. He could do other and more difficult stunts, but was saving them until his second appearance on the programme.

Seven other boys were down on the programme to follow "Bug" Jernigan, whose turn was now called out by Ringmaster Squeechy.

But the cruel Fates ordained that the seven and Ray Graham, too, should meet with bitter disappointment through the altogether unexpected and ungenerous actions of "Bug" Jernigan.

What do you suppose he did?

He was only down in the programme to give an exhibition of handsprings and skinning the cat, which he did, but after that was done, instead of giving place to the other boys on the programme, he kept on and did other stunts that nobody had asked him to do!

He walked on his hands; he stood on his head a whole half minute; he straddled the floor so wide everybody wondered he didn't split; he did all—every blessed one!—of Ray Graham's reserve trapeze performances, and more, too, for he chinned the trapeze, and hung by his knees, and by one elbow, and swung himself around with his feet between his hands.

"That's my stunt!" wailed one outraged performer after another, as "Bug" performed his way through every boy's cherished repertory.

"You mean thing!" snapped all seven, and Ray Graham, too, when "Bug" finally, breathless and triumphant, bowed himself out of the presence of the thundering audience and backed into the hostile circle of his wrathful fellow-performers.

"You've spoiled the circus," groaned Len, whose duties had consisted chiefly in coaching the performers, but who had been billed for the straddling stunt himself. "Hadn't you any more sense 'n' to show off like that?"

"I wasn't showin' off!" yelled Bug, and there would have been a fight right there if Squeechy had not dragged Len away and made him help explain to the disrusted audience that the show was over.

"And we paid twenty whole pins to see just four performers!" sniffed Helen Hight.

"Your show's no good!" cried Benny Dale. "Come on, kids, let's go."

So the audience shuffled out, and thus ended Squeechy's circus.

Tom Tit's Experiments

JIMMY JENKS writes Tom Tit the following account of a squirtgun that he has made, sending with it an outline sketch for other boys to follow:

"I made my squirtgun out of a joint from an old fishing pole (a cane one).

Into one end I carefully put a quill toothpick (which is hollow, you know, and makes a first-rate tube).

"I made a pusher or plunger, for the other end out of a pine stick—whittled it with my jackknife, and wound a rag around one end of it—thick enough to make a good, close-fitting swab. Then I put the pusher into the other end of the squirtgun.

"You know how to use a squirtgun, of course. Put the quill end in water, push the pusher clear in, then pull it out slowly until the gun is filled up. Then aim it at something and give the pusher a good push, which will send the water out through the quill in a splendid squirt. The quill makes the water go a long way."

Another boy, who has written to Tom Tit, describes a whipbow that he has made.

"It is a dandy," he says. "It is not quite like an ordinary bow, nor very different, either. I made the bow part like an ordinary bow, only more pointed at one end, like a whiphandle, from a piece of sapling (which is elastic).

"Then I made several arrows out of a shingle. I made them good and straight, and the ends blunt, with a nail point driven in to make them sharp. And in one side of each arrow I cut a little notch, like the notch in mamma's spools of cotton and silk, to keep the thread from unwinding.

"I knotted the end of my bowstring and slipped the string into the notch. The knot keeps the arrow on the string until I am ready to throw it.

"I hold the bow as I would a whiphandle, in my right hand, and the arrow at the notch in my left hand swung back to the left as far as the string will stretch.

"Then I sway my body from left to right (to gather force, you know) while I am taking aim and suddenly let go with my left hand, at the same time swinging out my right as far and forcibly as I possibly can.

"It makes the arrow shoot like a rocket. My! it would kill a kid if he happened to be in the way."

Boys who make whipbows must be very careful not to use them where there is any danger of hurting anybody."

The Baker's Dozen

"OF COURSE, you boys and girls have heard of "the baker's dozen"—that is, thirteen counted as one dozen.

But, how do you suppose it originated?

One might guess that there is a good story about its origin, and so there is, told in the baker's great book in the Astor Library, of New York.

Jan Pietersen, of Amsterdam, was a good churchman, but, nevertheless, he was afraid of being bewitched. On the last night of 1654 he sat in his baker shop trying to keep out the evil spirits by priming himself with a glass of good spirits. Sales had been brisk. There were no customers in the shop at the moment, and he sat back, meditating on the gains he would make on the morrow, when the fresh New Year's cakes were put on sale. He was startled by a sudden rap. An ugly woman pushed the door open.

"Give me a dozen New Year's cookies!" she cried in a shrill voice.

The shrillness of her voice did not mean anything to his slow Dutch mind. It only annoyed him.

"Well, then, you needn't speak so loud!" said Jan. "I'm not deaf!"

"A dozen!" she screamed. "Give me a dozen. Here are only twelve!"

"Well, then, twelve is a dozen!"

"One more! I want a dozen!"

"Well, then, if you want another go to the Devil and get it!"

The hag left the shop, but from that night Jan had trouble. The shop seemed to be bewitched. His cakes were stolen. Either his bread was so light that it soared up the chimney, or so heavy that the supports of the oven gave way beneath the burden. His wife became deaf; his children went wild. His trade took wings and settled in the shops of his rivals. Three times the old woman returned, and each time was directed to the Devil's sanctum.

At last, in despair, the baker called upon St. Nicholas to assist him. The venerable patron of Dutch feasts delivered a lecture on charity, telling the trembling man to be more generous in the future. Then he vanished, and in his place stood the hag, who repeated her demand for one more cake. Jan acceded, whereupon she exclaimed, "The spell is broken; from this time one dozen is thirteen!" Taking from the counter a gingerbread effigy of St. Nicholas, she made the subdued Dutchman lay his hand upon it and swear to give more liberal measure in the future. Since that time thirteen has been called a baker's dozen.

Games of Mesmerism

EVERYBODY, big and little, enjoys an exhibition of mesmeric power, and surprisingly few people know the "trick."

Game I—After an elaborate speech describing your unusual power of mesmerism, ask your assembled friends for the privilege of trying your powers on them.

Tell them to select a certain playing card out of a pack, hide it, and then call you in.

Ask them all to be thinking about it, while you go around the circle, pressing your hands on each one's temples and brow in turn. Unknown to them, there must be one of the company who is your confederate. By a prearranged system he will signal to you thus: by pressing his back teeth tightly together and then relaxing them he can cause the muscle of his temples to counteract so that you can plainly feel it under the pressure of your fingers. Let one contraction indicate hearts, two diamonds, three spades, four clubs. Then a pause. Then one, two or three, etc., to correspond with the number of spots on the card. Or if it is a picture card, four quick contractions for the king, three for the queen and two for the knave.

Game II—This comes near to being mesmerism. No one can explain how it works, but in ninety-nine case out of a hundred it does work.

Choose five cards out of a pack, select one in your mind, then spread all five out fan fashion, faces down, and, grasping some one's right hand in your own, tell him to close his eyes and command him to draw the particular card you have in mind. Somehow or other he will almost invariably pick out the very card you commanded him to draw.

Half the Truth.

Whately: Half the truth will very often amount to absolute falsehood.

June Entertainment Ideas

SOME weeks ago Polly Evans gave you some suggestions for a fine entertainment and promised additional ideas a little later.

Suppose next, after the active game which was last proposed, you have a restful game? Invite all your guests to the piazza or some other suitable place and have a game of flower conundrums.

Scatter articles of many sorts about—on chairs, tables, steps, etc.—each one bearing a number.

Give the boys and girls cards, with pencils, and ask them to write after each number what flower they think is represented by the article bearing the corresponding number.

Here are suggested articles for your conundrums:

A little clock—"four-o'-clock."
Cupful of butter—"buttercup."
Gilt paper sun—"daisy" (day's eye.) or "morning glory."
Pair of slippers—"lady's slippers."
Box of pills marked "quinine"—"bitter sweet."
Piece of rose-colored tissue paper—"pink."
Shelled peas dusted with sugar—"sweet peas."

After this have some fortune telling. Have all your guests congregate on the lawn, where the fortune teller should be seated in a daisy-decorated chair or settee, wearing a wreath of daisies and even more elaborately decorated with daisies if you wish. In her hand she should have a bunch of large paper daisies (which you can buy ready-made) and every one should be invited to go to her to have his character read and fortune told.

Let each one in turn pull off a petal from the first flower. This tells what his chief virtue is. He will find it printed on the under side of the petal.

Next have each one pull a petal from the second flower. This tells each one his greatest fault.

The next flower's petals tell them their favorite occupations.

The next tells their fates or fortunes.

A Delightful Little Girl.

TWO good stories are told of a little English girl:

She was riding with her aunt outside one of the Hastings electric trams. As it was proceeding at a rather good pace down a steep declivity the aunt was obviously a little nervous. The child, observing this, looked up sweetly into her aunt's face and said: "Are you frightened, auntie. Because, you can take hold of my hand if you are!"

On another occasion this little girl's grandmother had the misfortune to have the leg of the sofa on which she was reclining give way, and although it was repaired, it gave way a second time. Thereupon a chair sufficiently firm to support the aged and rather infirm woman was bought, a fact which her grandchild remembered in her prayers that evening, as follows: "I thank Thee, good Lord, for having at last found a chair that my dear grannie can sit down upon."

The "Black Sheep" Hornet

ONE hot July morning the children were sitting on the porch with their Aunt Amelia trying to keep cool, when, bum! a portly hornet flew by them, almost grazing Helen's nose.

"Oh, the horrid hornet!" she exclaimed, striking at it with her fan, and at once there was a scamper for the hall door. After remaining in the hall a little while, upon peering cautiously out and not seeing the hornet anywhere around, they all ventured out and sat down again, Aunt Amelia and Helen resuming their fancy work.

Presently Joe spied the dreaded hornet on the ceiling, twirling a fly in his front feet, which doubtless he was preparing for a baby hornet in one of the cells of a paper nest, not far distant.

The children were about to beat again a hasty retreat, fearing they might be stung, when Aunt Amelia said:

"Why, children, there is no need for alarm; so long as you do not molest the hornet, he will not trouble you. He is simply going about his business and not minding us."

"Yes, but, Aunt Amelia, everybody is afraid of hornets, and you know they have a reputation for bad temper and being mad all the time," said Helen.

"That is quite true, they have a bad reputation, but they really do not deserve it. The hornet has suffered very much from prejudice; in fact, he is under the ban, an outlaw and the black sheep of the insect fraternity—a source of suspicion, shunned by man and stoned by boys. In short, Josh Billings voiced the popular verdict of the hornet when he said:

"The hornet is a red-hot child ov Nature, ov sudden impreshuns and a sharp konklusion. The hornets alwus fites at short range and never argy a case. They settle all ov their disputes bi letting their javelin fly, an' are as certain an' as anxious tew hit as a mule is. Hornets bild their nest wherever they take a noshun to, an' seldom are asked to move; for what good is it tew murder 99 hornets an' have the one hundred one hit you with his javelin? I don't tell you just tew a day how long a hornet kan live, but I know from experience that every bug, be he hornet or somebody else, who is mad all the time, an' stings every chance he kan git, generally outlives all ov his nabors."

"Oh, what a funny description of the hornet!" exclaimed Helen, and she and Joe laughed heartily over it. "And still you claim that the hornet has some good in him, after all?"

"Indeed, I do," answered Aunt Amelia, "although 'as mad as a hornet' has passed into a proverb, which dates back perhaps hundreds of years, for the ancient Greeks and Latins appreciated the 'warlike hornet.' Of course, he is mad and will sting when his nest is attacked by mischievous boys."

"You bet, I'm not around shying any stones at a hornets' nest," said Joe, "I did that once, one day, when John Hunter and I were fishing, and we happened to spy a big nest hanging to a tree along the creek. Those hornets certainly did make a beeline for us, and we had to run for dear life. It's a wonder we didn't get more stings than we did."

"Well, just as I told you," said Aunt Amelia, "if you let the hornet alone, he will go on about his business and let you alone. And his business is about the same as that of other insects—getting something to eat, building his nest and caring for the young."

"What do hornets feed upon, Aunt Amelia?" asked Helen.

"Largely upon other insects—flies, big blue-bottle flies, caterpillars and even butterflies fall a prey to him, his scimitar-like jaws cutting from the body the beautiful wings in a twinkling."

"I wonder where they get the paper for their nests?" said Joe. "They look like big gray paper balls."

"The nests are made by the females who survive the winter, and the papery material used is a mixture of saliva and timber scraped from old gray boards and fences; and, by the way, these insects were the first makers of paper known to the world. In the spring these hornets, or, more properly, wasps, begin the nest by building a tiny comb, in each cell of which an egg is laid, soon hatching into a minute white grub, the sides of the cells being continued to accommodate its growth and the comb being gradually inclosed in the paper covering. The grub at maturity closes the cell with a silken veil and in a few days emerges a perfect hornet. Several broods are reared in a season, the combs being extended in several layers, each suspended by a single stalk from the centre of the one above. A nest sometimes contains as many as six or seven tiers."

"Is this the hornet which stings the cicada?" asked Helen. "I have read that they are sometimes killed by hornets."

"Oh, no; that is the sand hornet, a much fiercer insect. They are called sand hornets because they make their nests in the ground, generally in a sandy soil. The female digs a burrow, rather narrow, except at the bottom, where it widens into a chamber.

"Her home being ready, she starts out for prey; perhaps she gets a spider or caterpillar or an unfortunate cicada in the midst of his shrill song, and, paralyzing them with her terrible sting, she drags the lifeless insects into her nest, where they become food for her young ones.

"There are many interesting items in this and other countries, and their nests vary greatly in construction, but some time again I will tell you more about them."

Fun With Musical Signs

SOME time ago Polly Evans talked with you boys and girls about the funny pictures that can be made simply by combining musical signs.

Here are several more examples which you will enjoy looking at.

Game of Pass Along

THIS is a first-rate outdoor game. Arrange two lines of boy and girl players, each headed by a captain.

At the right of each captain place a clothes basket or hamper full of all sorts of odds and ends—books, balls, clothespins, pencils, tincups, tinpans, cushions, spools, brushes, thimbles, buttonhooks, etc. At the other end of each line place an empty clothes basket or hamper.

Behind each line place a guard.

At a signal from the hostess, the two lines get furiously busy. Each captain snatches anything at all from his full basket, passes it to the player standing next to him, and that one passes it along to the next, etc. The end player throws it into his empty basket.

Meanwhile, the guard watches closely, and if any player, through nervousness or carelessness, drops the article that has been handed him to pass along, the guard pounces down upon it and takes it back to the full basket to be passed over again.

The side which first transfers everything from its full basket to its empty basket wins. The more "footers" there are to encourage the rival sides, the jollier the contest.

Each member of the winning side should receive a souvenir as a prize.

Nailed to a Goose's Egg.

A Hungarian blacksmith recently sent as a present to the Emperor of Austria a horseshoe, a pair of pincers, a file and a knife, all ingeniously nailed to a goose's egg without the egg being broken. The emperor sent in return his photograph, a gold medal and fifty florins.

FOR SUNDAY READING

S. S. LESSON FOR JUNE 10.

Lesson XI. — June 10. — Peter's Great Confession. Matt. 16:13-28.

GOLDEN TEXT.

Thou art the Christ, the son of the living God.—Matt. 16:16.

NOTES.

From the regions of Tyre and Sidon, Jesus returned to the east side of the lake, "through the midst of the borders of Decapolis" (Mark 7:31); many were beheld, one cure, that of a deaf man, being detailed by Mark only (Mark 7:32-35). The feeding of the four thousand followed; then a return to the west side of the lake (Magadan, Dalmanutha). As renewed opposition occurred, another withdrawal to the eastern shore followed, when, owing to the disciples' forgetting to take bread, a warning against the "leaven" of the Pharisees and Sadducees was spoken. Mark narrates at this point a gradual healing of a blind man (Mark 8:22-26).

Place.—Near Cesarea Philippi an important city about twenty miles north of the Sea of Galilee, near the headquarters of the upper Jordon at the base of Mt. Hermon.

Time — Summer of the year of Rome 782; A.D. 29.

CRITICAL NOTES.

Verse 13.—Into the parts of Cesarea Philippi: The journey was from Bethsaida Julias, due north.

Verse 14.—Jeremiah: Probably because Jesus' preaching had become severe in reproof.

Verse 16.—Simon Peter: Taking the lead, as usual.—Thou art the Christ; The Messiah.—The Son of the living God: Peculiar to Matthew. That the word "Son" has here a specific, unique sense, is clear from the context, as well as from the entire Gospel story.

Verse 17.—Bar-Jonah: Son of Jonah, probably equivalent to "Son of John;" see John 1:42. Revised Version.

Verse 18.—I also: "Also" should not be joined with "say".—Thou art Peter (petros), and upon this rock (petra): The two Greek words are slightly different in form. In Aramaic this difference would not exist, but in Greek the grammar required the slight change. The play on words is obvious, and it is unlikely that petros means a piece of rock, and petra a large solid rock. Hence the best modern commentators refer "this rock" to Peter. The earlier Protestant view applied the term to Peter's confession, but his spoils the figure, and is objectionable for many other reasons. What Protestants consider the improper inference from the reference to Peter may be met in other ways. Augustine thought our Lord pointed to himself as "this rock", but there is no hint of this in the passage.—My Church: In the Gospels this term occurs only here and in chapter 18:17 The two senses of th qword are the invisible church, and the local assembly of believers. Only once (Acts 9:31, revised text) does it seem to apply to a wide ecclesiastical organization. In the New Testament it never means an edifice.—The gates of Hades: Not "Gehenna." The reference is not to the power of Satan, but to decay and destruction. Christ's church cannot perish.

Verse 19.—Unto thee: But compare 18: 18.—The keys of the kingdom of heaven: Not the keys of the church, nor the keys of heaven, but of the new rule of Christ, beginning on earth in the Christian dispensation. Peter was the first to open this kingdom by preaching, and to exclude from it by discipline (Annalas and Sapphira).—Whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth: "Thou is not emphatic. "Bind" and "loose" imply the judicial and legislative functions of the apostles.

Verse 20.—Then charged he: A strong expression. The diciples were not yet prepared to preach, and the people not ready to hear.

Verse 22.—Be it far from thee: Literally, "propitious to thee", paraphrased in the Revised Version margin, "God have mercy on thee."—Never: Or, "In no wise."

Verse 23.—Said unto Peter: Mark, "rebuked Peter".—Get thee behind me, Satan: As in the temptation (chap. 4:10).—Stumbling-block: Not, "offense."

Verse 24.—If any any man would: "Willeth" or "desireth". So in verse 25.—Deny himself, and take up his cross: The tenses indicate single acts. Luke adds, "daily."—Follow me: Continue to do so.

Verse 26.—Forfeit: Not the same word as "lose"—Life: In the higher sense. "Soul" is inappropriate, giving a third sense; compare Luke, "lose or forfeit his own self." The phrase "lose the soul", though so frequently used is not in accordance with biblical phychology.—Give in exchange: To buy back the true life, which has been forfeited.

Verse 27.—The Son of man shall come: Referring to the Second Advent or parousia.

Verse 28.—The Son of man coming in his kingdom: A different coming from that spoken of in verse 27. Mark uses a tense pointing to a permanent coming. The prediction shows that this "coming" was near at hand. Hence it points to the establishment of the new dispensation; either at the day of Pentecost or more probably, at the destruction of Jerusalem.—S. S. Times.

The Robbers Returned The Victim's Teeth

Were Knocked From Des Moines Man's Head, Then Carefully Kept.

Examiner Special.

Des Moines, Ia., June 8.—The following note, wrapped around five teeth, the whole inclosed in a purse taken by footpads from James Morgan, of Des Moines, was found by detectives and given to Mr. Morgan:—

Dear Sir,—Please find enclosed the teeth which we unintentionally knocked from your mouth Tuesday night. We hope that you will be able to have them set in a plate. Sincerely yours,
A. AND B.

Morgan was set upon and robbed by two highwaymen at East Third and the "Q" tracks, Tuesday night. The thugs have not as yet been apprehended.

Morgan is an elderly man. He was returning to his home about 10 o'clock. In haste to reach his home, he started down the "Q" tracks. Just as he was crossing Third street on the east side two men jumped up in front of him. One of them cried:—

"Hold up your hands and be in a hurry about it."

Morgan made a rush for the men when one of them threw a heavy rock. The aged man was struck squarely in the mouth. He was knocked unconscious, and fell, rolling down the steep embankment. The thugs ran down to him, went through his pockets, taking a purse containing a small amount of money, a knife and a few small articles of little value. He was badly bleeding at the mouth, where he was struck by the rock. It was found that seven teeth had been knocked from the gums. A physician was called who dressed his wounds.

Pastor Condemns The Peek-a-Boo

A Rochester Priest Tells Congregation to Take Ofi Bathing Suits.

Examiner Special.

Rochester, Pa., June 8.—"I want no unseemly show of vulgarity in the house of God," announced Rev. Father George M. Schoener, pastor of St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic church. "Young women, go home, take off those bathing suits. This is no bathing resort," he continued.

And the women with "peek-a-boo" waists bowed their heads in blushes. "The church of God is no place for a display of gaudy colours worn by impertinent women, who come here to make a display of their forms and not to worship God."

Must Get That Grant From The City Council

Directors of West Peterborough Agricultural Society Decided to Ask for $600 or Guarantee of $1000 From Council—If Grant is Not Forthcoming Neither Will the Fair Be—The Matter Was Discussed at Length.

The directors of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society at their meeting, last night, took a firm stand in regard to the grant they have requested the city to give them and came to the conclusion that if they are not given a grant of $600 or a guarantee of $1,000 there will be no Industrial Exhibition in Peterborough this fall. The directors of the Society while not in the least discouraged are of the opinion that the city council and the citizens generally should take far more interest in the Peterborough Fair than they have done and unless this is done it is practically impossible to hold the fair and to conduct it on a money making basis without financial assistance from the city is altogether out of the question.

The meeting was held in the office of the president, Mr. D. Hughes Charles, at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and the others present were Messrs. K. Eardley-Wilmot, F. J. A. Hall, secretary; E. M. Elliott, J. H. Garbutt, Alex. Elliott and H. C. Winch. The issue was a live one and considerable discussion took place. Every member in attendance was of the opinion that the outlook for the success of the fair was very optimistic if pecuniary aid could be secured from the town, but the meeting was also unanimous on the point that it was impossible to carry it on successfully without such aid.

Mr. Charles spoke of waiting on the council with regard to the grant but stated he had been informed by Ald. Mason, chairman of the Finance Committee, that that body had been too busy to consider the matter, and as far as he could understand no grant of $600 would be made. Ald Elliott was willing to give $200 and Ald. Hall $400, the former on condition that the county also gave $300 and the latter on condition that the society get all the printing done in the city. Mr. Charles thought the city should own its own grounds and buildings, and provide a good liberal grant every year. Personally he did not think there should be an exhibition next fall unless a grant of $600 was made.

Mr. Garbutt said, "If we'd have a couple of rainy days we'd go behind and we need some more money.

"The city council doesn't seem to take any interest in the exhibition," said Mr. Charles, "I gave all its members badges last year and didn't see any on hand.

Mr. Ed. M. Elliott said that the show in its palmy days was considered the best between Toronto and Montreal. The citizens in the past have responded liberally and the lack of attendance and smallness of exhibits must be credited to the county. The Fair has been good and has pleased the spectators but exhibitors are afraid to show on account of their lack of confidence in its financial condition. The council should give a grant. They have not done enough in the past to help the exhibition. The city council should see that by bettering the farmers and uplifting the exhibition that bigger crowds come to the city and more business is left with the merchants.

Mr. Alex. Elliott re-echoed the sentiments of the former speaker. He didn't think the city council was using the society right. He for one wanted to drop out if the grant was not forthcoming and was not prepared to incur any personal liability.

The only asset the society has is $150 paid by the Turf Club for the use of the grounds and stables for all the year except the three days of the exhibition. The rent of the grounds that the society has to pay is $250 per year, the lease expiring a year from next fall. It was moved and seconded that the Superintendent Mr. H. C. Winch be instructed to see President Munro of the Turf Club and get a guarantee for the annual rental fee of the Club, $150.

Mr. Charles said the fair brought people into town that would not have come under any other circumstances.

Mr. Alex. Elliott thought the council should make an effort to keep the citizens in town on every holiday.

"From 8,000 to $10,000 of our good money," he said, "goes to outside towns on public holidays."

Mr. Ed. M. Elliott moved that Messrs. Charles, Fair, Winch and Elliott be a committee to wait on the city council and ask for a grant of $600 or a guarantee of $1,000. Mr. Eardley-Wilmot thought the secretary should be instructed to write to the city council on the subject and the general opinion of the meeting seemed to be the same so Mr. Elliott amended his motion to that effect. If the council does not decide by Tuesday next to comply with the condition of the motion the matter will be dropped. Mr. Charles, the President, is going to the Northwest in a few days and it is necessary that the council should take immediate action—before he leaves.

Closing Exercises Conservatory Of Music

A Grand Finale for the Season and the Grand Opera House on Wednesday Evening, June 20th—A Most Interesting, Artistic and Varied Programme to be Presented.

The interests of musical progress and improvement and culture in Peterborough are strikingly represented by the closing exercises of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, which take place in the Grand Opera House on Wednesday evening, June 20th. It is to be understood that it is not an ordinary recital, but a practical demonstration of the results of the work done in this excellent institution during the little more than a year of its existence and operation. This, as remarked, will not be the usual recital, but the presentation of a varied and interesting programme, consisting of solo work and a large proportion of ensemble work. A Conservatory orchestra of thirty pieces will render excerpts from the works of great masters — from Flotow's immortal "Martha," the wedding music from Lohengrin, and selections from Balfe's ever-tuneful "Bohemian Girl." A Conservatory madrigal club will be a delightful musical innovation, and will render something in the way of old English glees. The madrigal is the highest form of unaccompanied vocal music, in which each part is a melody in itself. A mandolin club, twenty in number, with Mr. Louis Mendel as leader, will give selections. A chorus of 100 voices will also contribute to the programme, and there will be besides vocal solos and duets by pupils of Henr Wilbemj and Mr. Van der Water. There will also be given piano solos, duets, and an eight-hand selection — Mozart's "Zauberflaute." The entertainment will be a musical demonstration, and is not necessarily intended to be for financial gain. A nominal fee of 25 cents admits to all parts of the house, and seats may be reserved without extra charge. To those interested in the promotion of musical culture, and in making Peterborough as important a musical, as it is an industrial and commercial centre, this occasion will be an encouraging event. It will demonstrate that to secure the best of musical training it is not necessary to incur the large expense of visiting Toronto to secure it; but that first-class facilities exist at our doors.

POLICE WILL PATROL THE JACKSON PARK

At the meeting of the Police Commissioners, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to instruct the Chief of Police to have one of his staff patrol Jackson Park. In view of the many complaints which had been received from citizens about the unbecoming conduct of the frequenters of this park, the Commissioners decided that some protection should be given, hence the order as recorded. It is not expected that there will be any further grounds for complaint.

The Carters' By-law was considered, but no action was taken in reference to it.

The Chief was instructed to see that linemen working for electric light and telephone companies did not injure trees, or litter limbs on the treets.

HAS PURCHASED RAINY POINT

Mr. Henry DeLany has bought Rainy Point on Rice Lake, and is out improving it. He will spend the greater part of the season out there. It is the most picturesque spot on the lake. Mr. DeLany, wife and child, leave this week for their new home to spend a month or so.—Cobourg Sentinel-Star.

Armour's Hill Ably Attacked And Bravely Defended By 57th's Red-Coated Warriors

The Rangers Played the War Game Last Night in the Presence of Col. Gordon of Kingston—Inspection Was Thoroughly Satisfactory to the Regiment—Words of Praise From the Inspecting Officer and Lieut.-Col. Miller—Both Sides Claim Victory in the Sham-Battle.

The annual Battle of Armour's Hill was fought again in all its old time vigour by the doughty red-coats of the 57th Regiment last night. The effect was realistic in the extreme; it was war, with the carnage left out. Despite the terrific volleys fired on both sides, no deaths are reported, and the regiment returned to the armouries without losing a man. The spectacular manoeuvres were witnessed by a large number of citizens who watched with great interest the movements of defence and attack. The spectacle afforded as the red-coated warriors swarmed up the steep green slopes of the hill amid of rifle fire, was a brilliant and inspiring one which will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed the affray.

There were no umpires, and so both sides have theories to advance as what would have happened if it had been real warfare. The defence, in command of Major Hayes and Capts. Bennett and Mills, claimed that they would have annihilated the attacking force long before they reached the brow of the hill; while the attacking party claimed that they outflanked the enemy, and captured the hill.

The defending party, shortly after six o'clock, moved off from the armouries in command of Major Hayes, and consisting of Companies 3 and 5, under the command of Captains Mills and Bennett. Reaching the Ashburnham side of the river they divided, Capt. Bennett and his company proceeding in quick order to the north-west brow of the hill, where they took a position protected by a clump of trees and bushes, and commanding a view of the country to the north of the hill.

The attack was made in two divisions. Four companies, 2, 6, 7 and 8, under Capts. Clegg, McLean, McWilliams and Clarke, crossed the river by the London street bridge, while the remaining companies, 1 and 4, in command of Lt.-Col. Miller and Capts. Cluxton and Hounsell, crossed by means of the Hunter street bridge. The band accompanied this section as far as Queen street.

The engagement began as soon as the smaller section of the attacking party had crossed the bridge. The skirmishers of the assaulting corps came in contact with the rear guard of the defence. Major Hayes had stationed several sections of Capt. Mills' company along the G. T.R. siding, from the cover of which they kept up a galling fire on the attack. Meanwhile the engagement was going on in another quarter. Captains Clegg, McWilliams and Clarke, rushed their men across the bridge at London street, where they were opposed by one section of No. 3 Company. The defence at both points stubbornly resisted the advance of the attack, but gradually retiring before the overwhelming numbers of the enemy.

The plan of the attack was to draw the fire of the defence towards the south of the hill, where the companies under the command of Captains Hounsell, Cluxton and McLean made an attack. The latter company crossed the London street dam in the rear of the other half of the attacking party, and moved towards the hill on Douro street.

In the meantime, Captains Clegg, McWilliams and Clarke, had moved their companies towards the north-west of the position, with the intention of turning the enemy's flank. The three companies, screened by orchards and fences, made their way to the foot of th hill, and took possession of the north-west corner.

Capt. Bennett was in charge of the defence at this point. The attacking party claims to have outmanoeuvred and out-flanked their opponents, while the defence contend that they had to give up their position in the face of superior numbers.

The attack continued in front with volley after volley of musketry. The defence held the hill gallantly and bravely, but were forced to retire gradually until they reached the summit of the hill, which ended the manoeuvres.

Col. Gordon of Kingston, the inspecting officer, watched the assault from a point of vantage on the top of the ascent. After the manoeuvres were concluded the regiment was drawn up on the mountain top, and addressed by the inspecting officer.

Colonel Gordon in his address stated that it was the second time that he had inspected the regiment, and expressed his pleasure at seeing that it had not fallen off any since he had seen it before. The uniforms were not up to the mark, but that was no fault of the Colonel or the men themselves. He hoped that before they took their trip on July 1st they would have better uniforms. He had noticed that the men were very steady in the armouries. He expressed himself as being well pleased with the attack. The chief fault he found was that the men did not take full advantage of the cover afforded. Some of the attacking party had done so, but the defence had not. The colonel remarked that he had even seen one man standing upon a stone to fire a shot. He was well pleased with the inspection and hoped that the men would have an enjoyable outing, and when away from Peterborough keep the good name they had earned.

The regiment then marched back to the drill hall, headed by the band. The marching of the troops was very soldierly and evoked the admiration of the many people who lined the route of parade last night.

Reaching the parade ground the regiment was addressed by Lt.-Col. Miller, who congratulated the men upon their excellent showing, and thanked them for the way in which they had carried out their orders, and for the good attendance throughout the drills already held. He hoped that this would continue until the trip to Brantford, where, he said, the men would meet one of the best regiments in the west.

The men were then dismissed after the contents of the lemonade canteen had been raided.

The inspection of the regiment took before the attack on the hill, and was very brief. The regiment was drawn up in the drill hall and received Colonel Gordon with the usual salute. The inspecting officer passed up and down the lines and the ceremony was over.

The turn-out last night was very creditable, in view of the unfavourable weather at the hour of parade. The total number of all ranks on parade was 355.

The parade state showed:

Field officers, 3.
Staff-officers, 4.
Captains, 8.
Bandsmen, 38.
Bugle Band, 39.
Total non-coms. and men, 329.

No. 6 Company, under the command of Captain McLean, had the largest turn-out of the evening. Following was the strength of the various companies:

A Company..... 35
B Company..... 31
C Company..... 33
D Company..... 35
E Company..... 36
F Company..... 39
G Company..... 30
H Company..... 30

The officers and men of the 57th, are to be congratulated upon the excellent showing they made last night. They are an organization of which the city might well be proud, and which is destined to win fresh laurels on the occasion of their July 1st trip to Brantford.

Wash-out On The G. T. R. Main Line Sends The Trains Over Midland Line

Freight Train Reported to Have Sunk Four Feet Into Ground—Wreck West of Port Hope—Blocks Main Line for Passenger and Freight Traffic—Trains Go Over This Line.

Last night and to-day the Midland Division of the G.T.R., has seen more traffic, both passenger and freight, than in any period of the same length of time in years.

The rain last night did considerable damage to the main line track west of Port Hope, where considerable new roadbed has been laid recently, and a heavy freight train is reported to have sunk four feet into the softened earth, as a result. The consequence was that traffic on both up and down tracks was impossible, and in order to move the passenger and freight trains the Midland Division was used. It was expected that the trains would go through Peterborough, but they used the Bethany line, branching off at Millbrook, going north and at Omemee going south.

The late trains from Toronto last night, and those going west, were run over this division, which has recently been used by local traffic largely.

It is not learned that any fatal results followed the wreck, but the tracks were rendered unfit for traffic. Every effort is being made to get the track repaired as speedily as possible.

LIFT LOCK WORKS SATISFACTORILY

The Lift Lock is now open, and is working perfectly. Yesterday a number of lockages were made, including the steamer Empire, which passed up and down a number of times and the dredge Emmerson.

The Stoney Lake came down last night for the Cordage Company's excursion, and went up this morning, when a record lockage was made, the steamer leaving the Wolfe street wharf at 9 o'clock, and at 9.35 she was above the Norwood Road.

Everything about the lock is in perfect shape, and unless something unforseen occurs should go through the season without a mishap.

WILL CARRY FREIGHT FOR LAKEFIELD

The steamer Water Lily will make a trip to Lakefield on Monday afternoon, June 11th, leaving Wolfe street wharf at 2 pm. Parties having lumber to ship or any other kind of freight, for Lakefield, can have it delivered promptly at left at the wharf in time for loading. W. H. White, Captain, 110 Simcoe street.

Last Night's Big Storm Did Considerable Damage

Mr. Wm. Leslie's Narrow Escape—House Struck by Lightning and He Was Thrown Ten Feet—Barns Struck in Douro and Dummer—Outfall Sewer Caves In—Other Damage Reported.

The storm which swept over Peterborough and vicinity last night was marked by severe thunder and lightning and the heaviest rain experienced for some time. The disturbance began at 9.30 p.m., and the rain fell nearly all night.

Considerable damage followed in its track, and from several parts of the country come reports of barns struck. In Dummer and in Douro, the ends were knocked out of barns, which did not, however, catch fire.

In the city itself a very narrow escape from death is recorded. The residence of William Leslie, Smith street, was struck. Mr. Leslie was thrown ten feet by the electric current, which descended the stove-pipe. He has lost his hearing in one ear as a result.

The weather authorities state that the rainfall during the twenty-four hours of yesterday was exactly one inch. The people who were caught at the circus last night are willing to swear that a foot of rain fell at that point in ten minutes.

The Ashburnham outfall sewer, the bone of contention between Mr. Jas. Bogue and the city council, suffered through the rain. Near Hunter street a section of the bank about 15 feet in length slid into the trench, half filling the latter, and leaving a gaping hole in the bank. Contractor Robson, who is constructing the sewer on Hunter street, reports no damage to the work there, though he stated that it was a bad night for sewers.

Mr. Leslie Injured.

Peterborough did not wholly escape the depredations done by last night's storm. Probably the greatest loser in the city is Mr. Wm. Leslie of 403 Smith street, who was injured by lightning in his own house and who this morning is void of hearing in one ear, besides being painfully conscious of injuries in the head and body.

Mr. Leslie was sitting in his house at the time of the storm, with a friend, when just at ten minutes to ten o'clock, a ball of electricity, many inches in diameter, struck the chimney, passed down through the stovepipes and stove, went through the floor, and out through the stonework in the foundation, where it grounded. The chimney was burst from top to bottom, and this morning is a mass of ruins. The stove pipes were turned inside out, and strewn over the floor. There was no fire in the stove at the time or probably the house would have been burned, but the stove itself, valued at $54, was split in several directions, and is practically destroyed.

The house which is a plastered one, was also damaged. Several cracks in one corner are visible this morning, and gaps large enough for a person's hand testify to the ravages of the electric current. Two lamps which were sitting on the table were extinguished, and the house filled with smoke from the burning soot.

Mr. Leslie, who was sitting a few feet away from an elbow of the pipes received a shock which knocked him ten feet, or more, against the wall. This morning hearing from one ear was gone, and his head and side ached. The friend who was in the house talking to him, was uninjured but terribly frightened.

Barn in Douro Struck.

Douro, June 9. — Lightning struck a barn belonging to Mr. Edward Carlow last night, knocking out both the gable ends. The roof was also considerably damaged, and a dog lying in the barn was stunned by the shock.

The rain poured down in torrents, and it was probably due to this that fire did not break out and destroy the building. The storm was among the fiercest that ever visited Douro.

Smith Farmer's Loss.

Smith township was swept last night by one of the severest storms in its history, and from reports coming into the city, it appears that it suffered more severely than the neighbouring townships.

Besides shattering a stable belonging to Mr. McConkey, at Selwyn, lightning struck a log barn owned by Mr. Richard Heard, on the 7th line, burning it to the ground. The shed and stable leaning against the barn shared the same fate, and the loss to Mr. Heard will be heavy. A frame barn and the house, which are situated not far from the barn, miraculously escaped.

Dummer Barn Burned.

Warsaw, June 9. — The barn of Mr. Alex. Watts, butcher, who lives just outside the village, was struck by lightning last night. The end of the building was damaged considerably but otherwise the loss was not severe.

Stable Shattered.

Selwyn, June 9. — The stable belonging to Mr. F. McConkey, who lives a short distance from here, was struck last night by lightning, which badly shattered one corner of it. The happened during the five o'clock storm.

Ennismore Barn Struck.

Persons in the city from Ennismore to-day state that the storm there was one of the most severe in the recollection of even the oldest resident. No buildings, so far as could be learned, were burned, but a barn belonging to Mr. James Hegart was struck and considerably damaged. Although there were a number of fat cattle in the stable under the barn at the time, fortunately none were injured.

At Springville.

The lightning here last night was severe, but beyond some trees split by the electric fluid, no damage was done.

Big Excursion From East Toronto

Orangemen and Their Friends Invaded Peterborough.

The city was invaded at 10.30 this morning by 500 Orangemen and their friends representing the District Orange Lodge of East Toronto. The lift lock will be seen by many this afternoon. Wm. Steen is District Master of the Order and Jas. Winnett, Deputy Master.

"An Eskimo called on a woman in New Hampshire to tell her of her son's death in the Klondike.

Some Reminiscences Of Fenian Raid Of '66

Two Local Men Who Passed Through it Talk to The Examiner of Some of the Incidents—An Interesting Story of the Conflict—Forty Years Ago Last Saturday Five Companies Left Peterborough—Took Part in Battle of Ridgeway.

Very few citizens will remember much about the stirring times of '66, and out of a fine company of 55, that went from this place to Fort Erie, only five survive that eagerly took up arms to protect the land of the Maple Leaf from the hated Fenians; they are, Messrs. John Kylie, Colonel J. W. Miller, M. McCue, Wm. Langford and F. R. J. Mitchell.

The Examiner interviewed Messrs. Kylie and Miller, concerning their part during the celebrated raid, and they told an interesting story of going to the front to fight the foe, and while the gallant company (Captain Kennedy's) they were with, were always on the lookout for trouble, and would have liked nothing better than to get at close quarters with the enemy they were not given the privilege of actual fighting.

And what a company they were! "You see no men like them nowadays," said Mr. Kylie, "mostly ranging from six feet to six feet six tall, and built in proportion. They were strong as lions and lithe as panthers, and the majority of them would rather fight than eat. As for fear, they never knew the meaning of the word. That feats of strength many of their kind performed in those times, would have caused the natives of the present day to gaze in wonderment. Of course there are strong men in Peterborough and vicinity nowadays, but the physical giants of the times when lumbering was in its prime, were many times greater in the matter of size and strength.

It was just forty years ago last Saturday that five companies, (150) of willing volunteers left Peterborough, enthusiastic with the military fever. And can their enthusiasm be wondered at? The whole country was in a state of great excitement over the rumours that were going round that Canada was in danger of being overwhelmed by the Fenians. When the mere call for aid was given, the loyal sons of the English families fairly itched to get at the despicable foe. At the time of the first alarm, Col. Miller (then a private) was on a visit to his brother in Omemee. He was determined to enlist, and as he could secure no conveyance to take him to Peterborough, he had to walk all the way to the town, a distance of fifteen miles. Fifteen miles is a considerable distance in itself over any roads, but Colonel Miller's journey was fraught with great difficulties, and the snow was waist-deep, and a terrible storm was raging. After a harrassing walk the recruit reached his destination, drenched to the skin, but his ardour was not in the least dampened. This was at the first call for aid, but the volunteers did not leave, as before noted, until some time afterwards.

The troops left on the train in the evening for Port Hope, stopping there and at Cobourg, Toronto and Kingston, where a stay of ten days was made. Then Kennedy's company was moved to Oshawa, as it was rumoured the Fenians were going to come into the country at this point, The alarm, however, was a false one, and in a short time the gallant volunteers from Peterborough were sent home again, but only for a short time, for on the first of July word was received that two companies were required to take the place of a couple of companies of the 16th regulars which were stationed at Fort Erie, together with the Bay Battery. Two companies of the regulars had been transferred to Halifax, and besides Captain Kennedy's men, a company from Uxbridge was pushed to the front to fill up the gap. They had been there only a night or two, when the bugle sounded, calling them to arms. They equipped themselves for the fray and rushed out, only to find the regulars there before them, fully dressed and in perfect order. It was only a ruse to test the speed of the recruits, and was repeated several times. Before leaving Fort Erie the recruits were pretty well initiated and managed to find their feet as quickly as any of them. They remained at Fort Erie for about two weeks. Then the country got quieted down and they returned to their homes. They were never called upon to do any fighting. Of course, there was the battle of Ridgeway, but the Queen's Own made the scene of the engagement before the 16th, and consequently had the glory all to themselves. As soon as word was received that the Fenians had crossed, the Queen's Own were sent for at Toronto and hurried to the scene of action, more quickly, in fact, than the orders called for. But they were ambitious and can hardly be blamed although the 16th were just dying to engage in combat with the meddlesome foreigners.

Many were the reminiscences related by Col. Miller and Mr. Kylie about those troublous times. Their many mishaps, adventures and tales of pain and mirth would, if space permitted, make very entertaining reading. They dwelt with emphasis upon the splendid physique of the volunteers, and one man in particular, Private "Bob" Loucks, was recalled for his Herculean feats of strength. Louks was a man of splendid military appearance, standing six feet six inches and weighing over 250 pounds. While out at the front he achieved a reputation for his marvellous feats of strength. He could handle an ordinary man with the ease that an ordinary man would manipulate a 10-year-old boy. And there were many others who were fit rivals for him. Col. Miller was easily the smallest man in the company, and Mr. Kylie among the most diminutive.

Although the events of the celebrated Fenian Raid happened years ago, they are still as fresh in the minds of its veterans as if they had occurred but yesterday.

Summer Garb Of Glenwood Cottage

That Popular House is Undergoing Improvements.

Glenwood Island, Stony Lake, is now looking like the very picture of beauty. Mrs. Breeze, the owner of the popular boarding-house, "Glenwood," has been at her cottage during the past week overseeing the improvements made to the building, which is beginning to assume a very attractive appearance. It has been painted green and red with white trimmings, and certainly makes quite an improvement on the place.

Mrs. Breeze has already a large number of guests booked for the tourist season, and expects the year to be a prosperous one from the present outlook. Boschink is one of the prettiest portions of Kawartha dom, and dively Glenwood greatly assists to make it so.

The painting of the cottage has been looked after by Messrs. B. Smith and Alex. McCready. A yacht belonging to the latter is at Glenwood, and this no doubt will form a no small part of the amusements around Boschink this summer.

LITTLE BELL BIOGRAPHIES

C. Rubinstein

ANTON GREGOR RUBINSTEIN continues the line of the so-called "brilliant" pianists that began with Liszt and ends with Paderewski. He was born of Jewish parents in Russia, 1829, and died in 1894. Receiving instruction only from his mother and a teacher named Villoing, he progressed so rapidly that in 1839, at the age of 10, he made a concert tour as far as Paris, where he remained to study technic under Liszt, and later composition at Berlin.

As a composer, Rubinstein wrote in every department of music. His compositions are full of pure and genial melody and natural harmony. But with the exception of his "Ocean Symphony," his chamber-music and songs are his only genuinely popular works. In particular, his setting to Heine's "Du Bist Wie Eine Blume" and his "Melodie" (in F.)—sometimes called the "Thumb Melodie"—besides other piano pieces like "Kamenoi-Ostrow," are universal favorites.

It was, however, as a concert pianist that he achieved marvelous success. After several tours in the European Continent and England, he came to America in 1873, where he was popularly appreciated as the "Lion Pianist." But while in technic the only rival of Liszt and the most remarkable virtuoso of his time, he was no mere technician. If he could make the piano roar, he could also play with such tenderness a simple piece from Haydn or Mozart as to bring forth the tears of pure joy and sympathy. All this was possible because at the time he had to hand an instrument that later reached the acme of perfection in

What he might have done, assisted by the beautiful and tuneful Bell Art Piano, we may partly guess. But certainly he would have pronounced it The Perfect Concert Piano.

Bachelor Was Moved to Gifts By Remorse

Frisco Millionaire Who Is to Outfit 5,000 Needy Women Tells Reasons for Doing So.

Examiner Special.

San Francisco, June 8. — Raphael Weill, local millionaire merchant and philanthropist, who has imposed a bachelor tax upon himself, hopes to liquidate at one stroke his debt to the gentler sex. Beginning on Thursday 5,000 needy women will be made happy with complete outfits of clothing from head to foot. No questions will be asked, and the recipients of Mr. Weill's generosity need not even give their names. To 50 charitable women he has given the task of selecting those to be outfitted, and a card from any one of the judges will entitle the holder to dresses, cloaks, shoes and lingerie.

"I summoned an extraordinary session of my own legislature and levied a special tax on a bachelor," in the humourous way in which Mr. puts it. "I happened to be the bachelor. This is one tax levy that there is no way to veto.

"You see that I have never had the pleasure of providing for a wife. In a time of stress such as this, when heads of families have been put to their wits' ends in attending to the wants of those dependent upon them, my conscience has troubled me somewhat, so I decided to levy the tax. When 5,000 needy women shall have been supplied with complete outfits of clothing I shall feel that I have done something of my duty toward the other sex. This is not a matter of philanthropy, except toward myself—I want to free myself of an accusing conscience."

Mr. Weill was asked whether he believed other bachelors ought to follow his example.

"That is a question which they must settle in their own minds," said he. "If they feel that they owe a debt to the women of the land, and have the means wherewith to meet the obligation, I suppose they ought to settle. This is a good time for the San Francisco bachelor to square up and balance his books."

Mr. J. H. Hallowell, Starkville, was very much surprised Tuesday evening to see a large 25-lb. porcupine moving about his yard—a class of animal rarely seen in our township within recent years. Grand Trunk surveyors have been busy in this locality laying out the route for the branch line of railway soon to be constructed for the purpose of carrying freight from the west. The item in last week's issue of The Herald regarding the football match was not altogether to the point. The Campbellford players were gentlemen, that's true. IN EIGHT YEARS, JOHN D. SCOOPED $113,500,000

This Estimated Sum Comprehends Only Mr. Rockefeller's Fat Dividends Received From the Flourishing Standard Oil Company.

New York, June 8.—If, as has been reported, John D. Rockefeller owns 13 per cent. of the capital stock of the Standard Oil Co., he has received in dividends since Jan. 1, 1898, approximately $113,500,000.

Statistics bearing upon the stupendous dividend disbursements of the great oil trust were made public in Wall street, apropos of the Standard Oil dividend of $9 a share, declared recently for the past quarter. These figures showed that since Jan. 1, 1898, the Standard Oil Co. has disbursed to stockholders $341,043,000 in dividends, or nearly three and one-half times its authorized capitalization of $100,000,000.

The company pays more in dividends to its stockholders than any corporation in existence. The United States Steel Corporation, when it was declaring dividends on its common stock, distributed more than the Standard Oil Co., but no dividends on Steel common have been paid for two or three years. The dividend and interest payments combined are, however, considerably in excess of the dividend disbursements of the Standard Oil.

Thus far this year, the latter has declared about 24 per cent. or about $24,000,000, in dividends to its stockholders, or the same amount as was disbursed in the corresponding period last year. The total dividends last year were nearly $40,000,000.

The following table gives the dividend record of the Standard Oil Co. since Jan. 1, 1898:—

	Per Cent. Dividend.	Amount Disbursed.
So far in 1906	24	$24,350,000
Year 1905	40	39,200,000
Year 1904	36	36,200,000
Year 1903	44	43,124,000
Year 1902	45	44,100,000
Year 1901	48	47,040,000
Year 1900	48	47,040,000
Year 1899	33	33,360,000
Year 1898	30	29,400,000
Totals	946	$341,043,000

A WISE HORSE THIS; HE PREVENTED SUICIDE

Examiner Special.

Pittsburg, June 8.—John Devenny, a farmer near Duquesne, bent on suicide, had some sense kicked into him by his faithful old horse. He is suffering a little from the hoofmarks, but his neck is not stretched so long as it might have been.

Devenny went to his barn while despondent over a mining venture, which had gone into the ground. He adjusted a noose about his neck and swung off from a beam.

In doing so he bumped the horse, which he had raised from a colt. The horse kicked—kicked him through the side of the barn—and broke the rope he was hanging with. His family saw him come out of the barn and went to his assistance, saving the life.

He has made up his mind life is not so dreary, after all.

Wrangling By The Commoners In Committee

By Members of Parliament In the Agriculture Committee.

A. F. JURY ON STAND AGAIN

Tells What He Knows of the Labor Bureau—Vanity One Cause of Differences Between W. T. R. Preston and His Agents in England—Evidence Characterized as Not Genuine—Witness Sarcastic.

Ottawa, June 9.—The meeting of the Parliamentary Committee on Agriculture yesterday morning witnessed some lively altercations between members and scraps of spicy evidence from the witness, Mr. Alfred Jury.

At the opening of the committee Mr. Jury explained that he was in error at a former examination when he said that he had asked Mr. MacDonald of Pictou to put certain questions to him and that the member declined.

Mr. Monk asked him to explain what he meant by saying he had applied for shares in the North Atlantic Trading Co., and Mr. Jury replied by reading a letter he sent to Mr. Preston, asking, sarcastically, for some shares. It was obviously not a sincere application. Mr. Monk asked the reason of the disagreeable relationship between Mr. Jury and Mr. Preston.

"I object to that question," interposed Mr. Carvell.

"Are you solicitor for the defence?" asked Dr. Sproule.

"I am a member of the committee," replied Mr. Carvell, somewhat warmly.

"You're too cross," said Mr. Derbyshire.

Some Vanity in It.

Mr. Jury went on to say that he learned from the agents that Mr. Preston would not advertise their official positions, while he always advertised his own.

"Some vanity in it?" suggested a member.

"Yes," said Mr. Jury, "some vanity on both sides."

Mr. Wright of Muskoka made a little speech to the effect that the committee should not insist on ascertaining how the witness knew things. As long as he knew them it was all right.

"Very good," commented Mr. Derbyshire on these remarks.

"Oh, we don't care for that elephantine wit," retorted Mr. Wright. "I think this gentleman's physical development surpasses his mental development."

"You've got a swelled hat this morning," answered Mr. Derbyshire, not disconcerted, "but you did very well, better than I thought."

Not Genuine Evidence.

Mr. Monk asked if Mr. Jury could tell why Mr. Preston took so much interest in Leopold's labor bureau.

Mr. MacDonald, Mr. Ethier, and Mr. Carvell all contended that this answer could not be genuine evidence. Mr. Jury's opinion as to a man he disliked should not be taken.

Mr. Jury read a letter which he thought was a threat by Mr. Preston that he would establish more labor bureaus.

Mr. Carvell would not let the witness pass judgment of this kind.

"Are you and Mr. Preston enemies?" asked Mr. Blain.

"Not very friendly," said the witness.

"Don't call me Preston," added the witness a moment later, when he was inadvertently given that name by Mr. Carvell.

Mr. Jury took issued with Mr. Preston's statement that Louis Leopold was owner of the Canadian Labor Bureau in London. Mr. Jury claimed to have seen Leopold booking passengers behind the backs of the proper owners of this bureau.

Preston's Property.

"Who does own the bureau?" asked Mr. Blain.

"Mr. W. T. R. Preston or Preston & Co.," answered the witness.

Mr. Jury read a letter from Rev. Leonard Dewsan, in which it was stated that Mr. Preston recommended him to go to Leopold for his ticket.

"Preston is gone to Canada to get your scalp," was the advice Jury said a friend gave him with regard to his traveling expenses.

Mr. Jury said Mr. Preston did not at once report him after he first learned of his plan of charging first-class fare and traveling third-class.

"I always travel first-class now," said Mr. Jury, "and charge it up. The country does not make anything out of it. They only do me out of my treating money—that's all."

Preston Should Fly.

He did not know how Mr. Preston traveled, "but I think he should fly," said the witness, "he is so good, you know. He has wings."

Mr. Jury was of opinion that immigration propaganda ought to be carried on just as well by booking agents as by the North Atlantic Trading Co.

Mr. Jury was discharged as a witness.

A motion of Mr. Monk's, to recommend the adoption of means to protect Canadian labor from the operations of the Labor Bureau in London, was defeated. An amendment carried reporting the evidence at once to the House as it has been taken.

THE FARMERS' TARIFF.

Mr. Clements Raises the Question in the House.

Ottawa, June 9.—There is no tariff revision this session, but once in a while the slumbering spirit of high protection awakens and lifts its voice. Yesterday Mr. Clements, member for West Kent, pleaded for a tariff as high as that of the United States on agricultural products. He was promptly met by the opposite view from several Liberals, who claimed more accurately to represent public sentiment. Some progress was made on the Marine and Mounted Police estimates, under comparatively quiet conditions.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE CATARRH OF KIDNEYS AND DON'T KNOW IT.

Backache, a Warning Symptom of Kidney Trouble.

Pe-ru-na Is Invaluable in Such Cases.

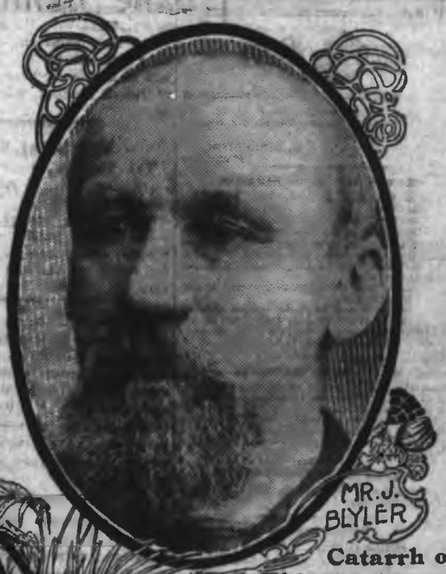
Prominent Persons Who Have Been Cured.

Mr. J. Blyler, 1505 Ohio street, Des Moines, Ia., writes:

"I wish to state my appreciation of your excellent remedy.

"I have always enjoyed excellent health, except frequent and painful attacks of bladder trouble, which doctors failed to relieve or cure.

"Upon recommendation I used Peruna to my utter satisfaction, not having had an attack now for four or five years."—J. Blyler.



Catarrh of Kidneys Caused Much Suffering.

Mr. Leopold Brandl, 246 Bleecker street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I was sick three months with catarrh of the kidneys and lungs. I was treated by my home physician and relieved to some extent, but after I had worked again for two weeks, my old suffering—backache and pains in the right lung—returned. The dreadful cough which bothered me day and night lasted six months and no one could help me.

"I tried three different patent medicines, without avail. I could scarcely eat anything and slept only a few hours each night.

"A friend told me to take Peruna. I did so and the second day my appetite had improved. I took a teaspoonful of Peruna every hour, day and night, for three weeks. Now I have taken five bottles. I can eat enough for two people and am able to sleep well.

"Whenever I meet a sick person, I advise him to take Peruna. I thank you a thousand times for your medicine, as it was the only remedy that saved me. We continue to keep it in our family."—Leopold Brandl.

Dangerous Kidney Diseases Cured.

WHEN the kidneys become affected by catarrh, either from colds, overwork, or an extension of catarrh from some other organ, they fail to perform their normal functions.

It is the work of the kidneys to excrete from the blood many of the poisons which accumulate in the body.

If the kidneys fail in their work, the poisons accumulate to such an extent as to cause convulsions, which often prove fatal.

Peruna, by relieving the kidneys of their congested and catarrhal conditions, leaves them free to act in a normal manner.

It also strengthens the action of the heart, equalizing the circulation of the blood in all parts of the system.

A remedy that relieves catarrhal derangements of the kidneys should certainly be considered a household remedy. Peruna is such a remedy.

High Commendation For Pe-ru-na.

Mr. C. B. Fizer, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes:

"I have suffered with kidney and bladder trouble for ten years past.

"Last March I commenced using your Peruna and continued for three months.

"I have not used it since, nor have I felt a pain.

"I believe that I am well and I therefore give my highest commendation to the curative qualities of Peruna."

Neglected catarrh of the kidneys is apt to develop into Bright's Disease or diabetes, when a cure is almost an impossibility.

We have on file many testimonials like the ones given here.

We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month.

No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.

Address Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio, for free medical advice.

Chicago, June 8.—Diplomas certifying that the recipients are qualified to "keep house" for husbands receiving $10 per week were given yesterday to several young women at Chicago Commons. The graduates, all of whom are to be married soon, were members of a class in economical housekeeping and cooking.

The economical graduates offered theses in the way of exhibits of breakfasts, luncheons and dinners that were attractive, had cost little and were palatable. A breakfast was shown that was prepared at an expense of 19 cents, and would suffice for four persons. Dinners were more expensive, one consisting of meat, two vegetables, a salad and a pudding for four costing 41 cents.

WHY?

Experience and observation have shown us that, on the principle of the proverb which says that no news is good news, when moral reformers and those most deeply concerned with temperance interests, find no fault with the manner in which the license law in West Peterborough or elsewhere is enforced, there is no cause for complaint. And when the head of the Board of License Commissioners finds no fault with the manner in which the license law is enforced, there is no cause for complaint, and no cause for a demand for Mr. Cochrane's resignation. Upon what grounds, therefore, did Mr. T. E. Bradburn, M.P.P., demand the resignation? The Ministerial Association and the Moral Reform League made no such demand, and we all know that if there had been any laxness in enforcing the law—if Mr. Cochrane had been neglecting his duty — we should have heard of it. The chairman and the majority of the members of the License Board, and the public, are with Mr. Cochrane. There is no visible demand for his resignation from those who have an interest on the grounds of official relations or interest in the public welfare, or in the temperance movement. Then the demand must come from some source which has some other interest in having Mr. Cochrane's place vacated. That there is no ground for his dismissal on the plea of better enforcement of the act is further shown by the successor said to have been provided? Why should Mr. Stewart be appointed? What has he ever done to single him out as a better man for the position—in preference to a man of sound judgment, long experience, and trustworthiness of public confidence, and long experience and familiarity with the work? What has Mr. Stewart done, as politician or a policeman, to deserve this signal honour and establish a claim to a salary of $600 per year? Why has the town to pay a half of increased salary just to please policeman Stewart? What are his peculiar qualifications? What is his knowledge of the conditions in the back townships? Could he find his way, without piloting, to Bobcaygeon or Nogey's Creek? In a word, what qualification for the efficient discharge of the duties of License Inspector does Policeman Stewart possess that are not possessed in tenfold greater degree by the capable man he is displacing, at the back and bid of a few nonentities, and in the face of the general sentiment of the best elements of the city and county? A change in the inspectorship in West Peterborough is only justified by the substitution of a better man for the position. Has an improvement been made? There can be only on answer to that question. Then if the change is not being made in the interests of the better enforcement of the law, it is either made for purely political and partisan reasons, or in the interests of a happy-go-lucky enforcement of the license law. Here are some questions that are pertinent and deserve a satisfactory answer.

WHAT IS "ROT?"

The president of the National Live Stock Association of the United States, says that President Roosevelt's action in regard to abuses in connection with the packing industry of the Western United States, meant an irreparable loss, both at home and abroad, upon producers of live stock. The producers of live stock, if they suffer injury from the "revelation," should blame only the offending packers, who created the conditions, and not blame President Roosevelt, who only exposed these conditions. If there is anything serious in these "revelations," live stock dealers should benefit. If the packers are not allowed to work up into tinned beef, rope ends, and sick steers, there should be a better demand for sound stock. It is claimed that these "revelations" of packing methods don't amount to anything. A large Omaha live stock producer and dealer, who was in the city yesterday, was asked how the stock trade would be affected by the "revelations." His answer was, "You may print us as saying that they are all rot." The reader is left to decide for himself in the light of recent reading, what "rot" refers to.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Toronto Street Railway has its fitting home in Hogtown — vide Hamilton papers. The company won't provide enough cars to give seats to the public, and now they propose fining the public ten dollars for riding on the footboards of open cars.

Mr. Huldane, British Secretary of War, thought that tinned meats for army use should be bought in the colonies—a proper view to take. The work of bringing the colonies into the position of being the supply source for the Mother Country must be gradual, and the action suggested by the Secretary of War is one of the steps.

It is estimated that the packing business of the United States, which is estimated to amount to 1,500 million dollars a year, will suffer a loss of 150 millions as a result of the agitation in connection with President Roosevelt's crusade against "doctored" meats. The loss represents 10 per cent. on the volume of business done. If the packers are guilty of the crimes alleged it would be less than justice if they lost the whole of their trade as a punishment for their criminal practices.

Prince Edward Island has become an orthopedic paradox. Although "completely surrounded by water," it is "dry." The whole of that Province is now under prohibition. Here is a splendid chance for prohibitionists to succeed, for it is not easy to smuggle drink from wet places in the vicinity, and in the winter Prince Edward is sometimes cut off altogether from connection with the mainland—Nova Scotia or New Brunswick.

The Moral Reform League of Peterborough has another chance to "get busy." The League seems to recognize no call to duty in the fact of an efficient license inspector being dismissed for political reasons, to be dismissed by a "good" party nominee, who does not seem to possess any qualifications for the responsible office. Does the league know that it is living in a fool's paradise, fancying that the House of Commons bar, Ottawa, has been banished. The League is reminded that by a solemn vote of the House a newspaper man, who had enough temptation to drink in the ordinary course of his duty was invited to the bar.

Clever Young Norwoodites Gave Concert

"Ruth" Cantata Very Creditably Given Last Night.

Examiner Special.

Norwood, June 9.—Last night one of the most successful local concerts in the history of the town was held in the Opera House, when the cantata, "Ruth" was given by a number of clever young ladies and gentlemen. The house was filled and the receipts were in the neighbourhood of $30, a most satisfactory figure. In addition to the cantata, a good programme of music was given. All those taking part acquitted themselves most creditably and are being warmly complimented on their good work.

The programme was as follows:

Chorus... ... ..."The Civic Song
Messrs. Duffield, Pickard, Garlic, Leighton, Johnston, Mills and Callendar.
Solo... ... ...Miss Ina Watson
Solo... ... ...Miss Pearce
Recitation... ... ...Miss Gjurdrum
Solo... ... ...Mrs. Milton Callendar
Solo... ... ...Miss Watson
Solo... ... ...Miss Pearce
Recitation... ... ...Miss Gjurdrum
Solo... ... ...Miss Callender
Cantata... ... ..."Ruth, the Gleaner."

The list of characters are:

Ruth—Miss Una Duffield.
Naomi—Mrs. W. W. Fry.
Orpha—Miss Edna Watson.
Head Reaper—Mr.. Duffield.
Reapers—Messrs. Pickard, Garlic, Leighton, Johnston and Callender.
Gleaners—Mesdames Howson and Garlic and Misses. Gjurdrum, Buck, Bert, McMillan and Eakens.
Boaz—Mr. Geo. E. Mills.
Miriam—Miss Eakens.
Mourners—Misses Peters, Foster, Buck, MacLachlan and Mrs. Junise.

The accompanist of the evening was Miss Lillie, whose work was much praised.

Biggest Selling Books.

"Lady Baltimore," by Owen Wister. Toronto booksellers say they never had a new novel go so well from the very start. "Far better in every way than 'The Virginians'" "Fenwick's Career," by Mrs. Humphrey Ward — an engrossing tale. Mrs. Ward has made her novel markedly different from its predecessors. These books are on sale at the Peterborough Bookstore. A. H. Stratton & Co.

PARK MEETING FOR TO-MORROW

Commencing to-morrow, a feature which has become very popular in the large American cities, will be introduced here. Sunday afternoon Gospel services have become regular features in some cities during the summer months, and it will be inaugurated here. To-morrow at 4 o'clock an open air meeting will be held in the Central Park, when from the band stand a number of addresses will be given. The meeting will open with a hymn, "Blessed Assurance," sung by the gathering, after which Mr. G. W. Mulligan will sing a solo, "The Redemption Song." After the addresses which will be short, Mr. Mulligan will again sing a solo.

THE MAN WHO LOOKS INTO THE EYE

IS COMING TO THE CITY

Our enterprising jewellers, Messrs. W. A. Sanderson & Co., have greatly enlarged their Optical Department, and have built a new sight testing dark room, and intend to make their optical business one of the leading store features.

To perfect themselves in the new and wonderful method of sight testing known as "The Looking Into the Eye" method, they have engaged Dr. Wm. E. Montgomery, the Toronto expert, who will begin his course of lectures in their store on Monday, June 11th. He will also each day, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., conduct free examinations for the public.

Persons requiring glasses pay for lens grinding and material only. Messrs. Sanderson & Co. extend a most cordial invitation to the entire public to come and consult this specialist, who is having such wonderful success by the new system which he teaches and practices.

He straightens cross eyes with glasses. This is a grand opportunity and no doubt the public will respond to this invitation coming from our leading jewellery and optical house.

TO RAISE STUMPS IN SCUGOG RIVER

Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Canal, went to Lindsay on the noon train to-day. From there he will go to the Scugog River, where considerable work will be done under his supervision. A number of stumps in that river will be removed to-night, the gang working up to midnight to complete the work. Considerable work will also be done at Bobcaygeon and at Rosedale.

Mr. McClellan expects to be home sometime during Monday.

THE WEATHER

As mentioned in yesterday's issue, the temperature soared to high figures. At noon the thermometer registered 86 degrees in the shade, while later in the afternoon six more degrees were added to those figures, making the reading 92 degrees. This is the highest this summer to date, and it is quite possible may constitute the record for 1906. In addition to the high temperature the atmosphere was very humid or damp, which made the weather exceedingly oppressive. The lowest temperature was 69 degrees. Rain fell to the depth of .23 of an inch. Another heavy thunderstorm occurred last evening. For the information of those who were drenched at the circus grounds or on their way home, and who imagined that there must have been at least a foot of rain on the level, it may be interesting, and surprising, to those persons to be informed that the official measurement gave .77 of an inch, or a total of exactly one inch for the 24 hours.

DREDGE EMMERSON WORKING AT NASSAU

The dredge Emmerson was locked through the Lift Lock yesterday, and proceeded to Nassau, where it will be engaged in dredging from that point towards Lakefield, in the river, during the present season. It is expected that there will be sufficient work to keep the dredge busy all season, when the river will be in good shape for navigation.

Circus-Goers Caught In Last Night's Deluge

Some Unpleasant Incidents as a Result of the Storm—Ruined Hats and Dresses This Morning—Outside of This Circumstance the Show Was Enjoyed.

Ruined hats, and coloured shirt waists, that were white before, were, this morning silent, but none the less eloquent reminders of the fact that there was a circus in the city last night. There were various other reminders, as wardrobes were surveyed this morning too, and the milliners and ladies' ready-to-wear stores today did a good business.

The evening performance was witnessed by a fair sized crowd, and there were evidences that they enjoyed it, until increasingly frequent thunder claps warned the occupants of the big tent that a storm was brewing. As a consequence towards the close of the show the attendance gradually dwindled, those leaving early, intending to reach home before the rain fell—some succeeded.

At the conclusion of the main show there was a mad rush for the street cars, every one of which were crowded in a way which would have warmed the cockles of Manager Larmouth's heart. But there were not enough cars to go around, and some were caught in the deluge. The official records show that .77 of an inch of rain fell last night, but it would be pretty hard to make some people believe that there was not 77-hundredths of a foot.

It was those who were out to make a night of it, however, and who stayed to the usual 10 cent concert at the end, who got the worst ducking. Before the after-performance was nicely started the rain began to fall in torrents, and while for some time the canvas protected those inside, the water gradually worked its way through, and every once in a while one would feel a drop of water trickling down one's back.

At the close of the shows, the rain still fell, but, as long as possible the 300 or so persons who remained kept under the friendly cover of the canvas, even until the tent was partly on the ground, and they had been warned that they had better "get out."

Then it was a dash for home, and the frequent lightning flashes revealed men, women and children in the pouring rain, running along the centre of the road in mud and water—for the street car line—or anywhere to get shelter.

Young ladies and their escorts were the greatest sufferers and more than one couple fell sprawling in the mud and water, in some places 10 inches or a foot deep.

Outside of this disturbing element the show was good, and was thoroughly enjoyed. Cole Brothers gave the people a good show, worth the price of admission.

Dandruff is Caused by a Germ That Saps the Hair's Vitality.

It is now a settled fact that dandruff is caused by a germ. Falling hair and baldness are the result of dandruff. Dr. E. J. Beardsley, of Champaign, Ill., got hold of the new hair preparation, Newbro's Herpicide—the only one that kills the dandruff germ. He says:—"I used Herpicide for my dandruff and falling hair, and I am well satisfied with the result." Dr. J. T. Fugate, of Urbana, Ill., says:—"I have used Herpicide for dandruff with excellent results. I shall prescribe it in my practice." Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. A RED TAIL ON BLACK SQUIRREL

A black squirrel with a red tail was the curiosity which Mr. Fred. Jopling, of Bridgenorth brought into the city this morning. Mr. Jopling's brother, James, while out shooting in Chemong Park Thursday secured the lucky prize, which is arousing considerable interest among those who have seen it.

The Examiner representative, who saw the animal this morning, suggested that the tail might have been dyed, but the owner firmly stated to much for the contrary. He intends to have the freak mounted.

$55.25 Was The Penalty For Netting Bass During The Close Season

Deputy Inspector Guerin Investigates Piscatorial Surroundings of Woodduck Creek—Seized Net in Which Were Four Bass—Nurse Claimed He Found Fish He Had in His Possession.

Divide $55.25 by three and you have the price per fish that Wm. A. Nurse, of South Monaghan, had to pay for having three bass in his possession on May 25th last. The prosecution was conducted by Fishery Inspector Dave Johnson, and his deputy, Mr. Terence Guerin. The accused pleaded not guilty. The evidence was of an interesting character and the most damaging was that of Henry Clemens, to whose house Nurse came with the three fish. This proved that the defendant had the fish in his possession while it was not proven that he owned the net that Deputy Inspector Guerin seized in Wood-duck Creek and in the meshes of which were four small bass.

Nelson Nurse, brother of the accused saw defendant at Wood-duck Creek on May 25th at Harry Clemens' house. He didn't see him fishing nor did he see any fish in his possession. Harry Clemens was at Wood-duck Creek on the 25th of May. Did not see anybody with fish. Albert Nurse, (the name Wm. A. Nurse is commonly known by,) came to his house with three bass. He didn't know where he got the fish and didn't see him until he came to the door of his house. He didn't know that he came to his house for any special reason. He didn't know where the fish were caught. He saw the fish that Deputy Guerin had in the net in the boat. Didn't know whose net it was. To His Worship witness said he couldn't say whether or not there's much netting going on in the district where the net referred to was seized.

George Watkins was another man who saw the net in Guerin's boat. He saw some bass in the net but couldn't say how many. He did not know who owned the net.

Mr. Guerin, Deputy Inspector, who seized the net, testified, himself, next. He heard that fish were being taken out of season in Wood-duck Creek, and went to investigate. He hugged the shore and tried to conceal himself as much as possible. He saw several people in canoes working at a net. He paddled rapidly towards them. When they noticed his approach, they became alarmed and made for the bridge where they landed and ran up the road. He lifted the net and found in it four yellow bass of medium size. When he got to the shore he saw the canoe that Albert Nurse had used all spring. While he was there Nurse came running back to the bridge with his knees all wet. There was water in the bottom of the canoe and witness presumed Nurse got his knees wet from kneeling in the bottom of the canoe. "I've got you at last," he said to Nurse, who wanted him to come to his boathouse and have a drink, saying he had a keg there. Witness refused, fearing that in his absence the net might be taken.

Henry Clemens was recalled by His Worship and said that the accused brought fish to his house two hours before Guerin took the net and that he therefore could not have been one of the men in the canoe. To Nurse he said that he (Nurse) was in his house when the inspector was in the creek.

Nurse in his defence said that he found the bass at the bridge and thought they had been left there the day previous. "I don't want to be punished for something I am not guilty of," he said.

His Worship in giving judgment severely condemned illicit fishing and said the act didn't allow people to have fish in their possession out of season. South Monaghan had for years defied the law, he said, and putting out nets and catching fish in close season is not only unsportsmanlike in the extreme, but also takes away the fish at the season they are most necessary. He expressed his intention to set an example for South Monaghan offenders who had for years systematically broken the law, and imposed a penalty of $40 and costs, $55.25 in all, to be paid forthwith. The money was forthcoming.

That is the normal condition of a healthy baby. If your baby is thin, pale and peevish there is something radically wrong, and ten to one the trouble is with its food. What is absolutely necessary in such a case is a concentrated and nourishing food, and, at the same time, easily digested.

Blossom's Little Pal

By Ethel Barrington

Copyright, 1906, by E. C. Parcells

When John Blossom became blind the mainspring of his life was snapped. Embittered and sensitive, he shunned companionship, his small annuity sufficing for a cheap lodging and meals at a neighboring restaurant. It was terrible beyond expression to be blind, to be dragged back to life when the fever had so denuded him. Existence was barren, useless, hopeless, and when he prayed it was for death.

One day, tripping as he climbed the stairs, he felt the help of baby hands. "You counted wrong," reproved a childish voice. "I did t'uver night in the dark."

"What's your name?" he demanded shortly.

"Dora. Who's you?"

"John Blossom."

"Pretty name. Bend down." Then whispering in his ear, "I shall call you Blossom," she scampered away, singing back mischievously, "Blossom—B-l-o-s-s-o-m."

It was a week before they met again. The man's mood was desperate. "You is frownin' awful, Blossom," piped the shrill voice, "but you can't frighten me."

"If you are not scared come and talk to me a bit."

"Muver don't 'low me in lodgers' rooms." Blossom felt the rebuff, and, reaching the top floor, stumbled into his room and slammed the door. Seated on his cot he clinched his hands in the agony of his helplessness.

"Come," he cried sharply in answer to a timid rap, whereat some one entered, whom he could not recognize. "What is it?" he half shouted, his nerves strained to the point of frenzy.

"Just me, Blossom. Muver says you is axceptions." Then in the silence the child's eyes roved over the room and lighted on the table littered with papers. "Does you write?" Her tone betokened interest. Blossom's hands moved aimlessly. "Write, write? That's precisely what I can't do, curse it!" There before him lay the work begun in pride and hope, now shattered by a darkness worse than death. He was recalled to the present by the pressure of small arms resting on his knees as the child looked up into his despairing face.

"Poor dear!" she sympathized in an old fashioned manner.

"It's dark, Dora—never any light. That's why I cannot write." His voice broke with a half sob.

"I'm dreadful sorry. Let me do it for you. I print now, and I learn fast. See if I don't." She tossed the papers aside and climbed into a chair, sucking loudly at the pencil to make it black. "What will we write, Blossom?" Receiving no answer, she looked up. Her companion's head was pillowed on his arms. His shoulders heaved. Could a man cry even as she sometimes did? Dora scrambled to her feet and hurried from the room, to return a few minutes later flushed and breathless.

"Here's Miss Arabella!" she cried, thrusting a doll into the man's hands. "When I get cryin' I just hold her tight. She comforts lots. Muver's calling. Hold Arabella close, Blossom."

The doll became the first link in a strange friendship, which grew with years. For the child's amusement Blossom brought wonderful tales out of the storehouse of his imagination, frequently in verse that he strung together during wakeful hours of the night. Dora listened and remembered. As she had said, she learned fast. She was barely twelve when she recalled her promise. "I write truly now. Tell me what to write."

Blossom smiled sadly, declaring the desire dead, but she insisted and coaxed until he yielded, repeating some of the phrasings that haunted him, and the dormant passion revived. It was new birth to the man, and the girl became his eyes, as the gift that had been smothered in darkness and uncertainty suddenly developed, and the poet came into his own. In time "our poetry," as Dora called it, verses with exquisite rhythm, in round childish chirography, found their way into editors' hands and gained comment.

So the years passed, and Blossom counted each anniversary as it came. "Fifteen today," he said on one occasion, sighing heavily. "I wish so I could see you once—just once."

Dora raised her head from copying; it was unusual for Blossom to chat before the dictation was completed. "How do you look?" continued the blind man, directing his sightless gaze toward her.

"Whose decision shall I render?" Dora laughed deliciously. "Mother says a 'big girl,' Aunt Helen 'gawky,' but Tom insists 'pretty.'"

"Of course Tom is right. Well, here is my remembrance." Fumbling in his pocket, he brought out a little case, disclosing a gold locket with a diamond set in its heart shape.

"Oh, Blossom, how lovely! But what extravagance. You can't afford it."

"You mistake. I have more money than I need, little pal."

The girl slipped the slender chain about her neck and gave the clasp into his hands; then as he clumsily fitted it together she threw her arms about his neck and kissed him. His pulses throbbed riotously at the warm touch of her lips, and he hardly dared trust himself to kiss her in return.

Strangely enough, it was the last caress she offered. From that birthday she seemed to leave childhood behind, and the man suffered in the change. He grew to dread the succeeding years. His pal was growing into womanhood, and so farther away from him. He could have lived luxuriously had he desired, but he clung to the old lodging. Critics and public alike acknowledged his genius, yet the whole world was bound up in Dora to the blind author—Dora, whose voice was as music, whose step he could distinguish in a million. He encouraged her to talk about her friends, her ambitions, and—yes, he made her tell him about Tom, too—Tom, who had grown to be a man and on whom Dora's mother looked with favor.

"I must be going now," said Dora, after a fruitless afternoon, Blossom having been unable to settle to the task.

"Tom coming?"

"Yes." Her voice was a little tired. Blossom noticed it.

"You have not quarreled?"

"Tom never will. Blossom, do you want me to marry Tom?"

"Marry!" The attack was sudden. "Marry! It's beautiful when young people love enough for that. But your mother were better consulted. I am only an old bachelor."

"You are my pal," persisted the girl impatiently. "Mother married young. She thinks I should, but—I don't want to be hurried."

"Quite right," began Blossom quickly. Then, pulling himself together, "Tom's a nice boy. He will make a good husband"—

"He is all you say. I suppose I shall take him. Blossom, I know he is going to ask me tonight." The girl hung over the back of her friend's chair. He could feel her breath on his cheek, but it was a pity he could not see the look in her eyes. Blossom gripped the arm rests as if for support.

"God bless you both, little pal," he said steadily. "I knew you will be a good wife. Tom's a lucky fellow."

"You think I had better take him—You wish me to"— The girl bent still closer; her hair brushed his forehead.

"I wish—only your happiness."

"Dora! Dora!" It was her mother calling. Dora moved hesitatingly toward the door. "We will always be pals—always just the same?"

Blossom lifted his head. "Always," he promised. "Don't think about me. You love Tom."

"I love Tom—yes"— Then the door closed, and Blossom sank back in his chair. Misery showed livid in his face and stooping shoulders. Dora loved Tom! It had come at last. It seemed as if this second loss were greater, more terrible than that of his sight. He was doubly bereft. He had promised the girl they would remain pals, but new ties, new duties would arise; the old must be laid aside; he must school himself to be alone. The sweat broke on his forehead as he clinched his hands; then with a groan he folded his arms on his knees and hid his face. He crouched motionless, taking no notice of the passage of time.

Softly, timidly, some one touched him on the shoulders. The man thrilled; his soul leaped out to meet that other self. Passionately his arms opened and claimed the girlish figure of his pal. He felt her throbbing in response, the trembling of her hands as she clung to him.

"Blossom—Blossom, speak to me!" she whispered. "Tell me you love me."

"Love you? With all my being! Dora, who is there in all the world like you?"

"Why did you make me suffer—why did you make me speak?" she questioned, half sobbingly.

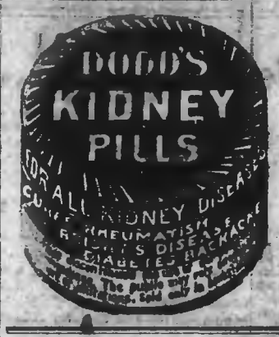
"I thought it was Tom"—

"I love Tom—as a brother." She clung still closer. "Men are so stupid."

"But, child, I fear I do you wrong. I'm growing old; I'm always helpless, blind"—

"I love you, only you, Blossom, just [illegible] and—hold me close; it comforts—lots."

And Blossom, stooping, kissed her on the mouth.



A MERE COWBOY

By HONORE WILLSIE

Copyright, 1905, by Beatrix Reade

To Edith's eastern eyes the ranch was a most fascinating place. The wide, rolling stretches of plain, flat and brown under the autumn skies; the lean cottonwoods, whose scant shade was a mere joke, and the ranch house itself, roomy, low and ugly, were all beautiful in her eyes.

If you had told Edith that this strange fascination was due to the undeniable charms of a certain tall cowboy who had recently been made foreman of her brother's ranch she would have tossed her pretty head at you and denied your insinuations scornfully.

"What," she had exclaimed when her sister-in-law had slyly remarked on the regularity of Edith's morning rides under the foreman's tutelage—"what! I have more than an ordinary interest, founded on curiosity, for a cowboy! Why, Alice, you forget where I was born and bred."

At this pretty Mrs. Alcott had laughed merrily.

"'Born and bred,'" she had repeated. "My dear child, when you come west you must forget that you were born and bred. I did so five years ago. The fact that you are a college girl won't help you half so much as the fact that you are unlearning your eastern method of saddle riding. These westerners don't give a rap concerning your parents or your grandparents. Their interests are all in the present, not the past. As Jimmy says, 'One man is as good as another here and a heap better.' So leave off your condescending airs with Harry Esterly. They are quite lost on him, I assure you."

Edith listened in silence to Mrs. Alcott and watched her as she moved quietly about the living room of the ranch house, which was as cozy and homelike as the exterior was dreary; then she picked up her riding whip, pulled the latch of her sombrero under her chin and with a disdainful little sniff walked out toward the corral, where Harry Esterly awaited her.

Harry watched her keenly as she strolled slowly toward him.

"Gad," he said to himself, "she's well put up!"

And she was—erect and lithe as a young Indian, with hair that shone bronze in the sun, with skin that glowed with health after the morning tub, and with an uptilt to her beautiful head that would well give a thrill of pride to any man on whom she bestowed her friendship.

"Is that Josephine?" she called to Harry as she drew within hailing distance.

"Yes, that's Josephine," answered Harry, patting the smaller horse. "Isn't she a beauty?"

"She is indeed," said the girl, smoothing the soft nose of the pretty mare. "Are you sure she isn't part broncho? Brother Jim says that if a horse has ever so little a drop of broncho blood in him, ever so far back, he's bound to buck at least once in his life. And I don't want to be the one to discover that one drop!"

Harry shook his head. "Well, of course," he said, "it's hard to pick up a horse around here that you can vouch for. But really, Miss Alcott, I think Josephine is as safe as a cradle."

Edith hung her whip on the saddle pommel and, motioning away Harry's offered hand, swung herself into the saddle.

"This morning," he said, "I'm going to take you to my particular pet spot. It's only half an hour's ride from here."

Out they raced across the dusty plain, the horses taking the barbed wire fences as lightly as birds. They drew rein on a lonely little hillock, the only break in the level of the plain for miles around.

"Look," said Harry. "See how one side is scooped out. Some Indian made himself a shelter here some time from a dust storm. And now stand here on top for a moment and you will see why I like this place."

Edith looked. The slight eminence gave a surprising sweep of view—the far ranch house, with the distant grazing herds, the blue line of haze that marked the mountains and, farther still, the brown of the plain, merging into the blue of the desert. Toward the desert Harry looked apprehensively.

"Miss Edith," he said, "I believe that we'll have a dust storm here in an hour or so. The air felt like it this morning, with this scorching wind, and now I can see it gathering out there on the desert. I wonder if you would be willing to ride in to the ranch alone while I ride out to speak to Mr. Alcott?"

Edith blushed a little. "Why, yes, of course I'll go, but—but I wish you would let me ride your horse back, Mr. Esterly. I'm afraid Josephine will buck."

"Why, she's as safe as a church. And Billy here used to buck like a jack rabbit. Of course, he's all right now, though."

"Please!" pleaded the girl.

Harry jumped from his horse and helped Edith from the saddle.

"Let me change saddles quickly," he said. "We've no time to waste." And in a few minutes Edith was cantering swiftly toward the ranch house, while Harry rode out toward the distant herd.

Half an hour after Edith reached the house the dust storm was upon them. Whirlpools of dust were hurled upon the house by a howling wind that shook the very rafters.

Hour after hour of intense dry heat, combined with the screeching of the wind, warped the nerves almost to the breaking point. Edith strolled restlessly from room to room, watching the dust sift in through the closed window and under the doors. Finally she approached Mr. Alcott, who had come in just after the storm broke.

"Has Mr. Esterly come in?" she asked. "Would you mind looking, Jimmy?"

Mr. Alcott sighed patiently and went out into the storm. In a few minutes he returned, looking a little anxious.

"He's not there," he said. "He told me he'd reach here by the time the storm broke. It's letting up a little, and I'll send some of the men out soon, though nothing could have happened to an old timer like Harry."

Edith said nothing, but as the wind lessened she stole softly from the room and out toward the stables. Dusk was just beginning to deepen as she rode swiftly out toward the stopping place of the morning.

"If he got caught he made for that little shelter, I know," she said to herself. "But I know that that Josephine has done something, even if he is a cowboy, and it's all my fault."

She drew rein by the hillock. Back in its shadows sat Harry, pale, but calmly smoking, until he saw the startled eyes of the girl. Edith gave him no time for questions.

"Oh," she moaned, "I knew Josephine would do something!"

Harry glanced in an embarrassed way at his ankle, about which he had awkwardly tied a handkerchief.

"All my own carelessness," he said. "I stood in the saddle to look for the herd and if the blamed little imp didn't buck without a word of warning and threw me. I'll never hear the end of this at the ranch. First horse that's thrown me in five years. They'll find us in a little while. They know this place."

But Edith could not see the humor of the situation.

"I was a selfish, cruel thing," she moaned. "Oh, you poor, poor boy!"

Harry looked at her closely. Then he leaned forward and quietly took possession of her hand.

"Edith," he said softly, "Edith, do you care?"

Edith looked out into the dusk. "A cowboy," she thought, "just a plain cowboy! What would they say?" Then with a deep blush she looked into his face. "Yes," she half whispered, "I'm afraid I do. You see, I always said I'd never marry any but a college man."

"Is that so?" chuckled Harry. "Well, you're keeping your vow. I have a sheepskin kicking around in my stuff somewhere."

"And you never told me!" Edith exclaimed.

Harry looked up in surprise. "Gee," he said, "I'd forgotten all about it."

And he sighed in absolute content as he felt Edith's face against his coat sleeve.

Storms on the Sun.

The velocity with which solar storms move is very great, and they sometimes extend over a space several times as large as the whole of the earth's surface. In common parlance they are called "sun spots," but as they are known to have a rotary motion exactly similar to terrestrial cyclones they may be regarded as true solar storms. It has been computed by eminent astronomers that these sun storms move with the astonishing velocity of 120 miles per second, and we can best form an adequate conception of what the force of such a storm must be by comparing it to an earth storm moving at 100 miles an hour, which is indeed a terrible hurricane. Carlington and Hodgson, the English astronomers, described a sun storm which traveled 35,000 miles in five minutes, and in 1871 Professor Young of Cincinnati witnessed one that traveled 166 miles per second for forty-five minutes and constantly threw sheets of flame and fiery matter to a height of not less than 200,000 miles above the sun's disturbed surface!

The Dress of the Highlanders.

The highland dress, without a rival in picturesqueness, unique in its longevity and remarkable for the manner in which it has been employed to distinguish the different families or clans of one race, appears to be a survival of the ordinary Roman dress and a relic of Cæsar's invasion of Britain. From the time when it was first adopted and while fashion has been busy with changes in other parts of the world the costume seems to have undergone little modification. That this dress should have been selected and adhered to as the national garb is due to its undeniable utility. Wrapped in his plaid, the highlander was indifferent alike to soaking mist and violent storm; he was prepared to pass the night in defiance of the most inclement weather, while the loose undergarment would have been difficult to improve upon when wading mountain torrents or climbing the steep sides of ravine and glen.

Timepieces.

The earliest contrivance for keeping time was the hourglass, which, of uncertain antiquity, was still employed at the beginning of the present century and indeed is now in use on some reading desks in the English churches. On the pulpit of the queen's chapel at Windsor there is a twenty minute glass, which time the orator for the Sunday is advised not to exceed. The clepsydra, or water clock of the Romans, was invented by Scipio Nasica 158 B. C., and toothed wheels were introduced into these pieces of mechanism by Cteslibius about 140 B. C. The earliest complete clock of which there is certain record was made by a Saracen mechanic in the thirteenth century. The most celebrated clock in the world is that of the cathedral at Strassburg, which tells not only the hour, but the day of the week, the month, the day of the month and the year. It contains a large number of automatons, figures of angels, saints and animals, which appear at regular intervals, and a crowd always assembles at the hour of noon to witness the procession of automatons at that time.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

Thousands of women suffer untold miseries every day with aching backs that really have no business to ache. A woman's back wasn't made to ache. Under ordinary conditions it ought to be strong and ready to help her bear the burdens of life.

It is hard to do housework with an aching back. Hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause in the world.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it's not to be wondered that they get out of order. Backache is simply their cry for help.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

will help you. They're helping sick, overworked kidneys—all over the world—making them strong, healthy and vigorous. Mrs. P. Ryan, Douglas, Ont., writes: "For over five months I was troubled with lame back and was unable to move without help. I tried all kinds of plasters and liniments but they were no use. At last I heard tell of Doan's Kidney Pills and after I had used three-quarters of the box my back was as strong and well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

Why Tea Quality Varies

YOU know how the quality of strawberries from the same patch will sometimes vary from one day to another.

One day sweet, compact, well ripened, well colored, richly flavored—next day it rains, is cloudy,—following picking is soggy, sour, green, coarsely-flavored, poor.

Tea, also, on account of its volatility of flavor, after picking and during the curing process is very susceptible to weather changes. A few hours of sunshine or bad weather after picking may make the difference between good and poor tea.

So that while one picking may be first class, the next from the same garden may be very poor.

I select only the pickings which come up to the Red Rose standards of richness and strength in Indian, and delicacy and fragrance in Ceylon teas, and thus that "rich, fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea is produced and maintained.

Red Rose Tea is good Tea

Southern Ontario Was Visited By A Terrific Tornado During Yesterday

From Brockville to Sarnia and Detroit River—Many Buildings Wrecked—Ambitious City's Loss is Estimated to be about $250,000—Niagara Falls, St. Thomas, Chatham and Sarnia Suffered Severely—Trees, Electric Lines and Fences Levelled—Buildings Blown Down.

Toronto, June 9.—A storm of wind, rain and lightning swept over Western Ontario yesterday between Hamilton and the border line, and did enormous damage. In Toronto, although the electrical display in the afternoon, and again at night, was vivid, and the downpour heavy, no great damage is reported, except to the telephone and telegraph services, which were badly demoralized.

The observatory reported that, "in Ontario and Quebec thunderstorms during the day were both numerous and of marked severity. An important depression which has been hovering over the Northwestern States for the past few days is gradually breaking up."

Boy Drowned At Belle Isle.

A Detroit boy on the way to a Canadian summer resort was blown off Belle isle bridge and drowned.

One man was crushed by a falling tree near London and may die. Two men are reported to be killed near Springfield.

The 90-foot elevator tower at Port Stanley was blown over.

East of Windsor all wires were down and marks of the storm's devastation were everywhere in evidence.

The cyclone swept through Rodney, West Lorne, Dutton, Sheddon, Zorra and Fingal, lifting everything movable in its course.

Maxwell Church, on the sixth line of Plympton, was struck by lightning, which tore a hole in the roof.

$250,000 Damage At Hamilton.

Damage is reported as follows:

Hamilton—Damage estimated at $250,000; roofs of brick houses blown off, chimneys or roof at Deering Works blown off; trees and windows innumerable broken; yachts smashed.

St. Thomas—Magnificent avenue of trees on Wellington street nearly all ruined; M. C. R. shops unroofed. Trinity Church damaged; shop struck by lightning; man's skull fractured by falling tree.

Rodney—Bender Hotel and Patterson House unroofed; walls of store collapse; trees foot thick broken.

Aylmer—Magnificent $7,000 barn blown down.

Chatham Suffers Severely.

Chatham—Storm terrific; Park street Methodist Church steeple blown down; trees suffer greatly; Dowsley Axle Works roof riddled by hail; livery stable destroyed; telephone and telegraph poles and wires blown over; many buildings unroofed.

Sarnia—1,700 square feet of roof at lumber mill ripped off; trees uprooted and blown against house; new house blown over; lightning sets fire to one shop. Fishermen reached shore with great difficulty.

Niagara Falls—Two wings of General Hospital, under construction, crushed in; ten workmen narrowly escape.

Brockville—Storm unequalled in last 40 years. Timely discovery of a washout of a large section of the track of the Brockville, Westport and Northwestern Railway by a farm hand saved the passenger train, which he took prompt measures to stop.

Beamsville—Several barns were struck by lightning, and that of H. Cousins was burned with all its contents. Only one team of horses were saved. Loss $5,000.

Imperial Life Company Now Investigated

Company Senator Cox Formed For His Son.

THE INSURANCE INQUIRY

Practically All the Stock is Held by the Central Canada Loan and Savings Co., Although There is a Lot of Dummy Shareholders—Mr. Bradshaw, Actuary, Was the Chief Witness of the Day.

Toronto, June 9.—The Imperial Life Insurance Co., which Hon. George A. Cox said he brought into existence so that his son, Frederick W. Cox, might be general manager of an insurance corporation, is now under investigation by the Dominion Insurance Commission. Mr. Thomas Bradshaw, the actuary of the company was on the stand throughout yesterday. A large number of members of the staff of the different Cox financial corporations were set down as shareholders in the Imperial despite the fact that all of the dividends were paid the Central Canada Loan and Savings Co., which owned a large percentage of these shares.

The complaints of policyholders of the Canada Life were confined to certian subjects, and Mr. Shepley selected several as being generally representative of all the rest. He said that the grievances of policyholders were set forth in hundreds of letters which had reached the commissioners. These complaints could not be investigated individually, but he thought those selected would cover the entire ground. The first selected was that of Policyholder Keenan, who in 1887, at the age of 65, accepted $5,000 insurance, paying annual premiums of $449.80 When the amount paid reached $6,782.90 the policy lost. Early this year the company offered a surrender value of $2,949.

Another man wrote that within six months the Canada Life had offered him three different surrender values. Mr. Sanderson said that in this case the agent was charged by the policyholder with making misrepresentations, and the company was anxious to settle.

The Salary List.

On the stand in the afternoon, Mr. Bradshaw told of the duties of the executive committee, which met three times a month. They looked after investments, etc.

The salary list was taken up by Mr. Tilley. F. G. Cox, managing director prior to 1905, received $6,000, and in that year his salary was raised to $8,000. Mr. Bradshaw, secretary and actuary, received $2,500 from 1897 to 1898; $3,500, 1899 to 1902; $5,000, 1902 to 1905, when it was raised to $6,000, his present salary. The directors received $7.50 for each meeting they attended but no other fees.

Mr. Bradshaw explained their agents' balances in Mr. Blackadar's report. At the end of 1901 there was $3,412.44 agents' balances, but this was taken off the books by Vice-President Ames giving his cheque for the amount. At the beginning of the next year this was transferred back. The result was to keep the item out of the blue books. At the end of 1902, over $8,000 was advanced to agents. In 1903 the agents' balances amounted to $11,464.02. Mr. Ames, however, had dropped out of the company and witness said that Senator Cox took his place and paid the cheque, to square the balance.

Making Things "Seem."

"Was this paid back to Senator Cox at the beginning of the year?" asked Mr. Tilley.

"No, it was not paid back until Aug. 3, 1904," answered Mr. Bradshaw.

"Why was this?" queried Mr. Tilley.

"The minutes will show that," said witness.

Mr. Tilley read the resolution of a meeting of the executive held Aug. 3, by which Senator Cox was paid back his loan, with interest.

"How was that money treated in the books after Senator Cox was paid?"

"An individual account was opened, and later written off as an expenditure."

"The item then appeared in the blue book of 1904 amounting to $95.12," said Mr. Tilley.

"What happened in 1905?" asked Mr. Tilley.

"The account was considerably reduced, to $6,546.85," said witness, "of which the company hold a paid-up life policy of $5,000, and two other policies amounting to $3,000."

"Is that shown in the annual statement?"

"No; it was written off. Other houses would treat them as bad debts."

Commissioner Kent wanted to know if no returns were required by the Government, would these transactions have taken place?

Mr. Bradshaw admitted that they would not.

Would It?

"Would it be fair to call this 'juggling?'" laughed the commissioner.

S. H. Blake, K. C., appearing for the Imperial Life, asked witness, through Mr. Tilley, if he considered Mr. Ames' guarantee in 1901 was flimsy. Witness answered that it was the best guarantee, as Mr. Ames was a man of wealth.

Mr. Tilley then asked witness of further payments made to the company by Mr. Ames.

Mr. Bradshaw said that Mr. Ames gave $25,000 to assist the company to meet expenditures in 1901. He explained that when the company commenced business, Messrs. Senator Cox, A. E. Ames and J. W. Flavelle paid amounts to the company from time to time to assist in the establishment of business. For these payments the company was under obligation. The amounts were as follows: In 1898, $700; in 1899, $10,000; in 1900, $5,000; in 1901, $10,000; in 1902, $35,000; in 1903, $24,000.

Mr. Tilley could not find these amounts in the returns. Mr. Bradshaw explained that these were gifts to the company.

"Was the object to keep down these items in the company's accounts?" asked Mr. Tilley.

Mr. Bradshaw became excited. He leaned far over the edge of the witness box.

A Generous Act.

"It was an exceedingly generous act. We were proud of it. It was never done in Canada before. It was all done for the benefit of the policyholders."

"Now, will you answer my question?"

Mr. Bradshaw admitted that the money was received to help the company keep down its expenses.

The revelation of investments was touched upon. Mr. Bradshaw said that in reference to Sao Paulo loans, he considered these bonds a perfectly authorized investment, for the reason that the company was incorporated in Canada. In December, 1900, $20,000 was advanced on Sao Paulo bonds; also, on Jan. 2, another loan, through the National Trust Co., of $70,000. The $100,000 was paid back in July, 1902.

Mr. Tilley went over all the dealings of the Imperial Life in the Sao Paulo Light and Tramway stocks. The stocks were kept out of the return by the transfer of cheques as per usual.

Mr. Tilley asked if any other stocks had been treated in the same way. Mr. Bradshaw did not know of any.

Sentence was suspended, and Sinclair was released on his own recognisance. He pleaded not guilty. The other three deputy returning officers were not present, and their whereabouts are unknown.

Long Terms For Robbers.

Toronto, June 9.—Douglas Dyson, for highway robbery in Stanley Park and shooting at a G. T. R. constable, was yesterday sentenced to five years in Kingston Penitentiary on each charge. James Douglas, for assisting in the hold-up said "Thank you, sir," for a sentence of three years.

Butter Sells at 20 Cents—Hay Getting Cheaper.

On account of the scarcity of eggs at the market this morning the price advanced 1c. and they sold to-day at 17c per dozen. Butter still decreases in price and to-day large quantities were offered for 20c. This was not the only price, some selling at 21c. and 22c. per lb.

The market was a small one, due to the poor state of the roads after the big storm last night. Several bags of potatoes were offered, averaging $1. The quantity of hay was large and the prospects are that it will decrease in value. The general price this morning was $14 per ton. Young pigs, ranging from a month to six weeks old, sold at 5.50 to $6.00 per pair.

A number of spring chickens were offered, and, although not large in size, sold at 75c. per pair.

UNSETTLED RUSSIA.

Grows No Better As the Days Go By—Czar and Goremykin.

St. Petersburg, June 9.—According to reliable reports from Peterhof, Emperor Nicholas has about decided to retire Premier Goremykin.

A sensation has been caused by the disclosures of M. Vladimiroff, a correspondent of The Twentieth Century, formerly The Russ, who declares that six out of the eight men executed at Riga were innocent, and adds that they were forced to confess by tortures which put the Spanish inquisition to shame.

In the Lower House of Parliament yesterday M. Sipiaguine of Sebastopol, a nephew of the late Minister of the Interior of that name, proposed a resolution instructing President Mourimhoff to go to Peterhof in the name of the House and request the Emperor to suspend all death sentences.

After an exciting debate the House rejected M. Sipiaguine's proposition and passed the Constitutional Democratic resolution offered by M. Nabouhoff.

POISON CAUSES ALLEN'S DEATH.

Proceedings Against Man and Woman Dropped, Murder Not Proved.

Brockville, June 9.—"That the said Henry Allen came to his death at Lansdowne, Dec. 12, 1905, through poison, but whether as food or administered by parties with malice aforethought, we are unable to determine, but from evidence presented to us thus far believing it points more strongly to the latter."

The above verdict was rendered by the coroner's jury empanelled at Lansdowne to hear the evidence relating to the death of Allen, who was a farmer in that locality.

A phase of the case was thought to implicate Mrs. Allen, the testimony of William O'Connor, a farm hand, employed by Allen, forming the basis of this suspicion on account of her alleged relations with him before and after her husband's death.

O'Connor went so far as to swear that Mrs. Allen asked him to marry her if she disposed of Allen.

The question of the purchase of arsenic by O'Connor resulted in him being taken into custody with Mrs. Allen a month ago, when the inquest was first opened and adjourned to get an analysis of the contents of Allen's stomach. Traces of arsenic were found, but Prof. Ellis thought that as the embalming fluid contained much of that poison he could not say how the arsenic had been used.

The charges against Mrs. Allen and O'Connor, which still rest in the justice of the peace's court will now be dropped on the advice of the Crown Attorney unless something new turns up, which is not in sight at present.

With The Small Fry

On Thursday of last week, while Mr. Thos. Austin's delivery outfit was standing outside the slaughter-house, the horse by some means slipped his bridle off, and resisted his owner's attempts to replace it. After a brief struggle, the animal got away; and, as it sprang past Mr. Austin, he was struck by the wheels of the waggon, knocked down and badly bruised, but not otherwise injured; and he has almost entirely recovered from the effects of the accident. The horse was caught and stopped before it had run very far, but the waggon was badly damaged.—Fenelon Falls Gazette.

Miss Dickson Tells Examiner Readers Of Work For Missions

Former Y. W. C. A. Secretary Here Writes Interesting Letter From China—Some Details of the Work in the Far East.

Editor Examiner.

Macao, South China, May 5, 1906.

Dear Sir,—Two weeks ago I spent some days at our Shekki station, some 40 miles by river from Macao. We travelled by the native boat which is an enormous junk towed by a small steam launch, and loaded with various kinds kinds of merchandise, live stock and luggage, in addition to its human freight. There is a tiny cabin off the main dook where we contrived to be fairly comfortable during the seven hours' journey—that is in comparison to the other passengers who are usually uncomfortably crowded.

The river narrows as it approaches the city, and either bank is lined with the homes of the "boat people." Some of them are small boats roofed with matting, others are small boats drawn up on the shore and manufactured into diminutive houses still others are fine, large house boats. Occasionally one sees a small craft apart from the rest with a solitary leper begging food.

One rather gruesome place of interest along the bank is the execution grounds open to the water. This is also a sort of morgue, where coffins are kept in case of accidental death among the boat people, etc.

During our stay in the city sleep was rendered well nigh impossible by the noise in a neighbouring theatre where the birthday of an idol was being celebrated. The monotonous drone of Chinese flutes, beating of drums, reciting, etc., was kept up all night long. I could not help contrasting their zeal with that displayed by many of us who call ourselves Christians.

I should like to tell you specially of one trip we took to the village of Sha Chung, three miles distant from Shekki. We travelled in a small house boat with an arched matting roof. One woman stood in the stern manipulating one of the enormous oars, the other was plied by another woman who stood in the centre of the boat. The tide was good and the trip delightful. The river ran through acres of rice fields, where scores of women were standing knee deep in the muddy water transplanting the rice shoots. Here and there might be seen a water buffalo splashing along ahead of the plough, and at one place we passed some of the workers taking their rice on one of the paths between the muddy fields, while the buffalo was enjoying a feed of water grass. As we neared the village, nestled at the wooded base of a hill, the river narrowed until the trees arched overhead, forming a delightful shade from the hot sun. It reminded me very much of Burnt River, save for the muddy water.

The village has a population of 5,000, of which it is said, every man has been in some foreign country. One old fellow accosted me on the street with "I wish you come to my house, I belong to Salvation Army in Australia." At another time I was playing the chapel organ in Shekki and began "The Glory Song." One of the men said, "Oh! I know that, I heard it at the Torrey-Alexander meetings in Australia." Truly, the world is very small after all!

The first home we visited was that of a family of seven sons, all in business in Australia and all Christians. One of them recently sent home $350 (Mexican) to help the Shekki church While there, we were given a light lunch consisting of Chinese cakes, which we ate with chop sticks, and tea.

In the afternoon we walked out past the village pagoda to the Presbyterian burying ground. It is most beautifully situated on the slope of a hill and surrounded by lichee trees. These are low, even, mound-shaped trees, whose leaves are a dark, shiny green. At present the new shoots of pale green and pink, with the white blossoms tipping the dark green of the branch, make them specially beautiful. Later in the season the fruit will form, with its deep red outer shell. These are the lichee nuts which we get in the dried form. We also saw some olive trees which are much taller and of a lighter green. The view from this point looking out over the village and river to the purple hills in the distance was very pretty.

Before we returned to the city we had tea, with foreign biscuits and delicious bananas, at the home of a banker who had once been in Australia. Among other things he showed us was a photograph of General Booth.

One thing I noticed specially was the courteous conduct of the people. True, the women and children looked after us most curiously, but made no attempt to run alongside for a closer examination, as they usually do in the smaller places. I remember once, on a previous trip, counting 50 children standing staring at me in one of the village homes. We also found the houses, as a rule, better built and cleaner than the average Chinese home. These things we attributed to the fact that so many had felt the influence of foreign civilization.

On our return trip we passed a tread-wheel boat propelled by eight or twelve men treading in the stern.

We are hearing a great deal, mainly from foreign newspapers, about trouble in China. True, there is a spirit of unrest in the air, the unrest of a nation waking from the sleep of ages, trying to "find herself" and longing for a place among the nations. Yet we have always found the people kindly disposed towards us, and, as a rule, willing listeners to the Truth.

One incident of our return trip to Macao and I am done. When we reached the boat in the early morning we were informed that the cabin had already been engaged by a Chinese gentleman. The prospect was not a cheering one, as the rain was falling in torrents, and the two alternatives were the women's cabin, which was down in the hold, dark, crowded, and most uncomfortable, or a small room where we could not stand upright. Finally the gentleman arrived, bag and baggage. He most courteously informed us that we might have the cabin, as he knew that western ladies were not accustomed to Chinese methods of travelling, doing all in the manner of having a favour conferred upon him rather than conferring one. What was our astonishment when we learned that he was a high official from Tien Tsin.

We are having our rainy season just now. There has been practically no sunshine since January—that is, for more than an hour at a time—and we often grow weary of the continuous struggle with mildew and dampness. There have been rather serious floods to the north of the province, resulting in much destruction of crops and some loss of life.

One of the most hopeful signs of the times is the formation of extensive prayer unions for the outpouring of the spirit in South China.

"It is not by might, nor by power, but by My spirit saith the Lord."

Sincerely yours,

AGNES I. DICKSON.

A PROBATION OFFICER HAS BEEN APPOINTED

A forward step has been taken by the Children's Aid Society, of Ottawa, in deciding to appoint two probation officers. In addition to the general secretary of the society, to devote all their time to the work of supervising and befriending the neglected and delinquent children of the city and especially to co-operate with the Judge of the Juvenile Court. Formerly children accused of petty offenses were either dismissed with a warning or convicted and sent to the reformatory. In future these children will be placed under the supervision of a probation officer, who will have all the powers of a guardian. In this way it is believed hundreds of children will be helped and encouraged to lead a good life, who otherwise would drift into a criminal career. This change was warmly advocated by Mr. W. L. Scott, president of the society, and the resolution to appoint probation officers was moved by Mr Louis Davies, of the Supreme Court, seconded by Lieut.-Col. Irwin.

Safe Deposit Boxes Are Installed In Local Bank

A New Feature Inaugurated by the Ontario Bank—A Progressive Institution—Great Convenience to Persons Wanting to Preserve Papers, Etc.

A new feature in connection with the local branch of the Ontario Bank, and one which will undoubtedly prove very popular, is the installation of a system of safe deposit boxes for the use of patrons of the bank. With a progressiveness characteristic of the enterprising local manager he foresaw that in the very near future there would be a demand for safe deposit vaults where valuable papers, etc. might be stored and be safe from destruction by fire or from loss by being misplaced, and, in order to meet this demand he arranged for the installation of what will no doubt be but the first of a number of sections of safe deposit boxes. These boxes have been placed in a fire-proof vault in the basement of the bank directly under the strong vault on the ground floor. In the meantime forty-four steel boxes have been installed, of various sizes, to meet the different requirements of the patrons. The boxes for which there are keys which are given to the persons renting them, are in sections, also locked, the key to this door being held by the bank, thus affording a dual security.

Mr. Crane, the local manager states that already he has leased a number of the boxes, which, by the way are rented at a very moderate figure, and he confidently expects that in the near future it will be necessary to increase the number of boxes, which can very easily be done, as the size of the vault will permit this.

Near the vaults in a neat room fitted up with tables and chairs, for the convenience of those making use of this feature. Here they may go and examine their papers and look over the contents of their boxes. A member of the staff will attend to this vault, and will assist anyone requiring help.

Almost everyone has some papers which are too valuable to be left lying around in desks at home, and, at the present time, there is no place, except perhaps in the vault of their solicitor, where they may be left, with any feeling of security. With this new provision, however, those who are in this position will be able, for a small yearly sum, to rent one of the boxes, and may deposit their papers or any other valuables there, with an assurance that they will be safe.

From present indications this new feature instituted by the bank is going to be very popular, and the manager is being congratulated upon his stroke of enterprise in gauging so accurately, the public demand. These boxes will be available at once.

Fear That The Pope's Days Are Now Numbered

Examiner Special

Rome, June 11.—That the real cause of the collapse of the Pope is angina pectoris was revealed to-day at the Vatican, where fears were expressed that the days of the present Pontificate will be short.

Are The Police Here Wide Awake?

A Lady Who Had Flowers Stolen Apparently Thinks Not.

A lady in a somewhat remote part of the city, rang up the police station last night, and kindly informed P. C. Rutherford, who answered the 'phone, that the police didn't know their business, and hinted that a gentle stimulant would not be out of place for the bluecoats. She had had some flowers stolen by mischievous boys. It is all right, of course, to draw the attention of the police to the fact that they are lax, when that is the case, but when people sit on their own verandahs—as the lady referred to did—and see vandals take away their posies, and then remind the police that they are moving in a trance, the complainant is certainly expecting too much for his or her money. At night there is one officer at the police station and one on the street. It is therefore impossible for the man on his beat to forsake the main portion of the city, unless called there for official reasons.

FELL OVER DOG ON SIDEWALK

This morning a lady walking down George street, met with an accident which, while it was painful, was, fortunately, not serious.

Outside of Adam Hall's store a big dog was lying peacefully across the sidewalk, and the lady who was looking across the street, not noticing the dog, fell over it, striking her elbow on the sidewalk. Outside of the fright which she and the dog sustained, no damage was done.

Sensational Charges Against Inspector

George and Nelson Nurse Say Fishery Inspector Dave Johnson Had Spite Against Their Brother, Wm. A. Nurse—Say He Made False Statements About Seizure of Net—Strongly Expressed Their Opinions.

Mr. Geo. Nurse, who lives on Long Island, Rice Lake, and whose brother was convicted in the police court on Saturday morning last on a charge of having bass in his possession out of season, told the Examiner reporter a few things that he requested be given publication in this paper. He was hooked in his statements by his brother, Nelson Nurse. Mr. Nurse claimed that Inspector David Johnson, who with his deputy, Mr. Tenice Guerin, prosecuted the charge, was "sore" on his brother (Wm. A.) because when Johnson wanted to get a petition signed by the South Monaghan people to permit Wm. Wedlock to net muskeats a year ago last winter and for which the speaker claimed he was to get a rake-off of $100, Wm. A. Nurse circulated a contra petition and defeated the inspector in his efforts.

The license not being granted, Mr. Nurse claimed, caused Johnson to be continually on the watch for the man who opposed him in the matter with the result that his deputy finally laid an information against the person that thwarted him in his endeavours. The Nurses claim it was purely out of spite and with a spirit to get even with the men against whom a conviction was registered that Johnson's man exercised special vigilance.

They also claim that Johnson was concerned in a transaction that he engineered to give himself unearned notoriety. Geo. Nurse said that acting on the advice of Inspector John McAllister, of Gore's Landing, who assured him he would be perfectly justified in doing so, he seized a net in the bay between his farm on Long Island and the main land that was placed there last winter. He left it, so he asserts, with Bruce Johnson, nephew of Inspector David Johnson. Bruce Johnson resides near Nurse. David Johnson, the Examiner's informant states, approached Bruce, saying that if he could only take the net to Peterborough and state that he had seized it with several bass in it, it would be a feather in his cap, or something to that effect. Mr. Nurse alleges that Bruce gave him the net and that the inspector brought it to the city, claiming he had seized it at Jubilee Point and that he found in it at the time of seizure 31 bass. An article to this effect was published in a couple of the local newspapers. The identical net, Mr. Nurse said he understood is at a local hotel at the present time. Both George and Nelson Nurse appear to think that the conviction of their brother was the outcome of Inspector Johnson's spite.

900 Immigrants Pass Through City

Three Train Loads More on the Hunt for Work.

Immigrants still continue to arrive in Ontario in large numbers. Almost every Sunday one or more train-loads pass through Peterborough. Yesterday three well-laden trains—morning, afternoon and evening—each carrying about 300 passengers, passed through on the C. P. R. for Toronto and other western points.

About 35 of the passengers stopped off here, but some of these left on the Grand Trunk this morning.

THE WEATHER

Last Monday, it will be remembered, remarkable halos were to be seen around the sun, and the prophecy was ventured by many that we would have stormy weather as a result. Whether the halos had anything to do with the stormy weather of the past week, or whether the halos were the result of atmospheric conditions above the earth, presaging the approaching weather, the fact remains that we have had rain every day since, with some unusually severe thunder storms. The rainfall for the past week amounted to more than the whole of May, being 3.1 inches. The morning the temperature was down to 33 degrees.

It is expected that some important matters will come up for discussion.

Mother Church in Boston Was Dedicated

$2,000,000 Temple of Christian Scientists Was Formally Opened Yesterday—Great Crowd in Attendance—The Rapid Growth of Christian Science—At the Present Time Numbers About 72,000 Members.

Examiner Special

Boston, Mass., June 11th.—The dedication yesterday of a magnificent addition to the Mother Church of the Christian Science demonstration, in Boston, was an event of the highest significance in the history of this religious body. The interest of all Christian Scients was centred on Boston and thousands from all parts of the world thronged the historic old city. The Communion of the Christian Science Church always brings a multitude of its adherents to Boston, but the dedication of the new structure this year has made the attendance unusually large.

Built as the result of a spontaneous recognition of Mrs. Eddy's life work and of the imperative demands of the marvellous growth of the movement, expressing the liberty of thousands of Christian Scientists, and embodying the best in architectural design and modern construction, this new building is logically the central feature of this year's gathering, although Christian Scientists say they lay the greater stress upon the spiritual awakening which has inspired the generous liberality expressed.

Discovery of Christian Science.

Christian Science was discovered by Rev. Mary Baker G. Eddy in 1866. Referring thereto in her book entitled "Retrospection and Introspection" she declares: "During twenty years prior to my discovery I had been trying to trace all physical effects to a mental cause; and in the latter part of 1866 I gained the scientific certainty that all causation was Mind, and every effect of mental phenomenon." It should be noted that in this statement Mrs. Eddy capitalizes the word "mind" thus making it synonymous with deity and thus designating the divine Mind as the only cause or creator. It follows, in her philosophy, that the universe is in reality spiritual though it does not appear so to our immature apprehension. Christian Science thus bases its entire modus operandi upon the proposition that God is the only real Mind. In Christian Science it is maintained that through the realization of the supremacy of the divine Mind healing is effected even as light dispels darkness, on the basis that, light is real while darkness is unreal, and therefore cannot remain in its presence. Thus it is that in Christian Science healing there is no pretence of human force, but rather a yielding of the human will to the divine.

History declares that from early childhood Mrs. Eddy had been spiritually inclined and that even in her youthful days she was interested in deep religious and philosophic study. One who knew her well in her girlhood has referred to her gift of expression as very marked, and that she often conversed with her pastor upon subjects which were too deep for him to follow. Her superior ability, her breeadth and independence of thought, and her spiritual mindedness, were all prophetic of that eminence as a teacher, an organizer and a leader to which she has attained, and to those who have followed the course of events in the advance of the Christian Science movement, Mrs. Eddy's far-seeing wisdom, initiative insight and executive ability have become more and more impressive.

Remarkable Growth.

The original "Mother Church" which adjoins the new building seats about 1,200, and yet three Sunday services are required to accommodate the attendance. It is said that when this edifice was planned some of the members were disturbed on account of its size. They thought that the provision of so large an auditorium was entirely uncalled for, the attendance at that time being only about 550.

Mrs. Eddy organized The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston in 1879 with twenty-six members. So slow was the growth of the movement at first that in 1889, ten years later, there were only eleven churches. From that time, however, the growth was more rapid. In 1899 there were 301 churches. At the present time, 1906, there are 657 churches, and 275 societies not yet organized as churches, making 932 societies holding church services. In 1889 there were only 450 members in the entire connection. In 1894 the total membership was 2,530. Five years later it had reached 13,134. These figures show that the principal growth has taken place during the past seven years. The membership at the present time is about 72,000, but that there are multitudes interested in the movement outside of the actual church membership is evidenced by the large attendance at the Christian Science services and the fact that nearly 400,000 copies of the Christian Science text-book are at present in circulation.

It is said that the Christian Science denomination is made up largely of recruits rescued from the grave, a very large percentage of Christian Scientist converts having become interested on account of the healing benefits they have received. In fact, Christian Science has drawn its adherents from all classes, the clergy and medical fraternity included. Scarcely a village or town can be found which has not a band of Christian Scientists, and hardly an individual who has not some friend or relative who has been a beneficiary of it.

So numerous have Christian Scientists become within the last few years that public criticism of its teachings can no longer be indulged in without awaking prompt protest. The street-car and railway coach may contain an ardent believer, and a dissenter frequently meets a prompt but kindly challenge when he makes a statements derogatory to the cause or its Leader. Two young ladies on the front seat of an open street car having just passed the Christian Science church in Boston, quite naturally began to speak on the subject of Christian Science, and it was noticed that a gentleman in the same seat began to move about uneasily as the conversation was more or less uncomplimentary. At length he leaned over and said to the ladies: "I trust you will pardon the interruption but I cannot refrain from telling you that more than fifteen years ago, after having lost all hope of recovery, I was headed of consumption through Christian Science, and this to me is the strongest possible argument in its favour." The fair critics looked up in surprise at the strong, athletic man and speedily expressed a more considerate attitude of thought.

Not long since two gentlemen entered a railway coach. One of them was denouncing Christian Science in a heated manner. By and by his friend left the train and a Christian Scientists who had overheard the conversation politely occupied the vacant seat and began to speak of some of the benefits which he had observed with Christian Science treatment. The critic at once changed his tone and began to refer to benefits which he too had observed. This incident serves to suggest that which fosters and perpetuates the apparently unabating interest in the Christian Science, it cannot be denied that its propagation is followed by good results; that Christian Scientists are an unusually healthy, happy people, and that they are richly endowed with that rare accomplishment, brotherly kindness.

Increasing Interest and Generosity.

A building like the one just completed and dedicated in Boston as a central place of meeting for the annual gathering of the organization which has been built by contributions from Christian Scientists in all parts of the world evidences a genuine interest in their own movement which has probably been paralleled by no religious denomination in the history of the world. It would appear that Christian Scientists believe they are getting the worth of their money or they would not continue such unusual liberality year after year. A Christian Scientist said to the writer, "When I was a member of another denomination I contributed less than five per cent. of the amount which I now give, and did that somewhat grudgingly. The change in my attitude has been altogether due to the prospective results of my giving. In the Christian Science church I find such an unusual abundance of fruitage that I am glad to make the larger and more fitting return." It is evident that in religious matters one likes to get the worth of his money.

Wasting Brain and Nerve Force

AND UNDERMINING HEALTH BY USELESS WORRY—NEW VITALITY OBTAINED BY USING

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Brain and nerve force is squandered in a way which would be utterly condemned in the use of money. And of what value is money as compared with health?

By useless fretting and worry, by overwork, and by neglecting to take proper nourishment, rest and sleep, strength and vitality are frittered away and no reserve force is left to withstand the attack of disease.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is valued because it actually increases the amount of nerve force in the body, overcomes the symptoms arising from exhausted nerves, and gives that strength and confidence in mind and body which is necessary to success in life.

Nervous headache, brain fag, inability to concentrate the mind, loss of sleep, irritability, nervousness and despondency are among the indications of exhausted nerve force. These are the warnings which suggest the necessity of such help as is best supplied by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. Thomas Covert, Jr., Highland Grove, Ont., writes:—"I used five or six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for nervous debility and a run down system and found them of very great benefit. They are well worth the best recommendation I can give them."

Mrs. J. Dercosher, 485 Bethune street, Peterborough, Ont., states: "I was troubled a great deal with nervousness and sleeplessness, and began a treatment with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I can say for a certainty that it is a splendid medicine, for besides steadying my nerves, it built up my system wonderfully, and enabled me to sleep and eat well."

If you would be healthy, happy and successful, test this great food cure. 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

57th Regiment Attends Service At St. John's

Made Splendid Showing at Their Annual Church Parade —Rev. Canon Davidson Preached—The Total Turnout Numbered 286—Special Music in the Church for the Occasion.

The 57th Regiment "Peterborough Rangers," in the matter of numerical strength, drill efficiency, esprit de corps and general military character, has never, perhaps, been in a more satisfactory and commendable condition than it is at the present time. Of late, in the way of muster, marshout and parade ground and field manoeuvres, the regiment has figured most creditably, and its turnout, appearance and bearing at the church parade of last evening, constituted grounds for another splendid showing to be placed to the credit of the Rangers.

At 6.30 o'clock the regiment mustered at the Armouries under command of Lt.-Col. Miller, and preceded by the band and bugle band, the former playing the regimental march, proceeded to St. John's church for divine service. The regiment occupied a considerable portion of the seating capacity of the church, and there was a very large number of the congregation present besides, every pew being filled, and additional chairs having to be provided to accommodate the worshippers.

The service was that of Evensong, special Scripture and hymns being used for the occasion. Lt.-Col. Miller read the first lesson in a clear, distinct voice and with good enunciation. The special sermon was preached by Rev. Canon Davidson, chaplain of the regiment, who enlarged upon the disastrous results of slackness. He chose his text from Joshua, xviii., 3:—"And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, how are ye slack to possess the land which the Lord of your fathers have given you?"

Many and great are the opportunities lost, and many are the losses that come to men through slackness. The opportunities are there, but are lost by men who are too slack to take advantage of them. The prizes of life fall to other men who stand at attention, quick to see and quick to act. Now, there was some reason for the children of Israel being disposed to slackness at the time referred to in the text, having been moved onward for 40 years. Joshua, their captain, sympathised with them, but explained that, despite their spirit of weariness, they were to continue their action. "Now is the time," said Joshua, "to go forward to possess the land."

If there is one deficiency that undermines and cuts at the root of discipline more than another it is slackness, and (this statement being, of course, particularly applicable to the regiment) there are several ways in which a soldier may be slack, and it is unfortunate that so bad are these faults, which may appear small, that two or three men who are slack in early company may lower the standard of the whole regiment."

"Let us resolve to be firm in command, prim in dress, prompt in obedience and soldierly in our deportment," exhorted the preacher, "and endeavour to be strong and decided men." The church stands by the drill shed, and is interested in the physical and moral building up of the regiment. If it drives slackness from the officers and men it will make them all the more efficient.

The opportune time to pass on in Joshua's day referred particularly to young men. "The grammer is coming," remarked the preacher, "and it has wrecked many a man and may wreck you." We should let no Sunday pass by without doing our duty, and, in the words of the text, should press onward to possess the land which the Lord of your fathers hath given you."

The Special Music.

The musical portion of the service and the other music rendered during the parade were of a character suitable to the occasion. The processional hymn was that grand old sacred lyric, "All People That on Earth Do Dwell," sung to the majestic strains of the "Old Hundredth," and the recessional was Rev. S. Baring Gould's "Onward, Christian Soldiers." The other hymns were "Holy, Holy" and "Fight the Good Fight." All these hymns, as ordinarily sung, are stirring and uplifting, but when to the choir and congregation generally was added the swelling volume of voice of nearly three hundred stalwart soldiers, the effect was simply grand. The offertory anthem was "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes," in which the duet was taken very effectively by members of the boys' section of the choir, Master Davey, contralto, solo, and Masters Milner and Horsefield, soprani. Before the recessional, two verses of the National Anthem were sung. After the service, and while the regiment was forming up on the markers, the band played "Sun of My Soul," and the regiment was marched out of the grounds to the swinging strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers," and, as Water street was reached the notes of Adeste Fidelis were taken up. The music of the church parade of the 57th, as well as the other features of the service, was, if one may make the remark, very successful and demonstrated that, while the members of the regiment were loyal to the King, they were not forgetful of their obligations to the King of Kings. Lt.-Col. Miller expressed to the church wardens, on behalf of the officers and men, his and their hearty appreciations of the arrangements made in connection with the service.

Preparations have been made by those in charge of the Ennismore Picnic, which will be held at Tara Grove to-morrow (Tuesday), that it will be one of the best picnics ever given by the people of the parish. Good games, keen competition in sports, excellent dinner, and every attention given to those who attend in order to have an enjoyable day. Take a day off to-morrow and enjoy yourself.

Ennismore Barn Burned To Ground

Yesterday's Storm Was Severe In That Township.

Yesterday afternoon's storm though marked by heavy rain did not do any damage in the city. In Ennismore the disturbance seems to have been more severe. Some hail fell there and the lightning was wicked. The barn of Jas. Haggart, just across the lake from Chemong Park, was struck just about four o'clock, and was burned to the ground. The damage will not be heavy.

It is rather a peculiar circumstance that another barn owned by the same man was struck by lightning on Friday. It, however, was not destroyed.

ANNUAL PIC-NIC IN ENNISMORE

To-morrow the annual picnic under the auspices of St. Martin's parish, Ennismore, will be held. There will be the usual programme of addresses and games, and the usual good time.

WEDDING BELLS

HARRIS—PASHLEY.

The following particulars are taken from The Windsor Record, and the lady wedded is a former resident of Peterborough, where she was born and reared, removing to Windsor a few years ago with her father, Mr. J. Pashley:

On Wednesday, June 6th, the first marriage ceremony performed in the new Central Methodist church took place, the wedding of Rev. W. H. Harris, recently ordained into the Methodist ministry, and Miss Florence May Pashley. The nuptial bond was joined by Rev. Thos. Manning, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Amos Thomas. Miss Laura Hartley, of Peterborough, assisted the bride, and Rev. Christopher Baker was the best man. The bride entered, escorted by her father, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss McCaw, organist, advanced to the altar attired in white chiffon muslin, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, carrying a bouquet of pink roses, was gowned in pink flowered chiffon. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pashley, 71 Crawford avenue. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Harris left on the afternoon train for New Haven, Conn., which their many friends wish may be a haven of happiness to the happy pair, as their future home.

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

The New York Stock Market

New York, June 11.—The opening prices to-day were all fractionally lower and the market during the first hour was rather heavy and inclined to sell off, the chief weakness being in Reading, Consolidated Gas, Copper and C.F.I. Heavy buying of St. Paul, which advanced over 3 points before noon, rallied the entire market quickly, the early losses were recovered and turned into gains over Saturday's close.

Awaiting the publication of the Government crop report at 2 o'clock the market became dull, the only feature being an upward movement in some of the specialties like Rep., Steel and Woollen. When the report appeared the market grew active and stronger, a general advance taking place. The report showed spring wheat conditions as 93 against 93.7 last year, winter wheat 83 against 85.5 last year and oats 88 against 92.9. The estimate of the wheat crop is for 44,000,000 bush. more than last year. The market closed strong at the best of the day.

Cordage Co. Employes On Annual Outing

A Delightful Trip to South Beach, Clear Lake.

The fifth annual outing of the employees of the Canadian Cordage Company to South Beach, Clear Lake, on Saturday was in every respect an unqualified success. In spite of the severe storm of the preceding night and the somewhat threatening aspect of the morning, a good crowd, about 350, boarded the steamer Stoney Lake at the Wolfe street wharf, and at 8.30 sharp, the steamer pulled away from her moorings, making for the lift lock, which was successfully passed, the lock working perfectly. A quick trip was made through the canal and locks, to South Beach, which was reached shortly after noon.

Mr. W. E. Brooks, the popular proprietor of the South Beach Hotel, had made elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the visitors, and those who did not bring their lunch with them, were given a splendid dinner at this well-conducted house.

During the afternoon a good programme of sports was given, the winners in the different events being:—

100 yds. race, for boys 16 and under—C. Dobson, H. Darke.

50 yds. race, for girls 16 and under—L. Crowe, C. Murray.

100 yds. race, men—C. Garside, S. Caniff.

50 yds. race, single ladies—Miss C. Murray, Miss L. Crowe, Miss J. Sweenore.

50 yds. race, married women—Mrs. Humber, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Colesky.

75 yds. race, married men—H. Overend, M. Clancy, C. Humber.

Girls' potatoe race—A. Murray, J. Sweenore, C. Connor.

Running Broad Jump—J. Ellis, "Doc" McGee.

Running high jump—S. Caniff, J. Ellis.

Children's race, 5 years and under—A. Connor, J. Irwin, M. Colesky, M. Irwin.

Putting shot—I. Wilson, S. Caniff.

For these events good prizes were given.

During the afternoon Grey's orchestra furnished good dancing music and the younger portion of the excursionists enjoyed this feature to the full. The return trip was commenced at 4 o'clock and home was reached at 7.45.

The committee in charge did their utmost to give the young people a good time and their efforts were crowned with success, the excursion being voted the most successful in the history of this Company's employees' outings.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant, glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling hair and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

MORE CANAL ARGUMENT.

The arguments for the speedy completion of the Trent Canal are cumulative in their intensity and character. The necessity of the canal as a factor in national transportation is being emphasized daily, by the rapid settlement of the North West, the thus inevitable increase of wheat area, and production, and the equally inevitable need of increased transportation facilities — to enable the marketting of the wheat, and other products of the West, in the Old Country, or chief, and almost only, market. To employ the metaphor of Sir William Van Horne, the hopper is growing vastly, but the spout does not show a corresponding increase in capacity. While the productive capacity of the North-west is experiencing a tremendous advance the ocean-ward means of transportation are remaining almost stationary. The present great activity in railway building in the Northwest, a forerunner as well as a consequence of production growth, will be largely only of mere local and sectional utility, without increased media of reaching the seaboard. An interesting letter from the West, printed in the Globe, gives one a large idea of the great activity in railway construction in the West, especially in the vast expanse between Winnipeg and the Rocky Mountains. Only a few years ago, the Canadian Pacific Railway main line had this region to itself. Now, the Canadian Northern Railway has fairly duplicated the former railway facilities, and is building branch lines in every direction. The building of the Grand Trunk Pacific will furnish a third trans-prairie railway, with branch lines to all points of the compass; and "Jim" Hill amicably threatens to construct a fourth railway to serve the wheat belt of Canada. Many men living, and not far beyond the half-century mark in age, can remember when the whole of the Northwest was considered, apart from its fur-forming possibilities, a mere geographical expression, without any value to speak of. Now, it is the home of a million people, producing nearly a million dollars' worth of farm produce a year; and this year there is promised an extension of railway lines amounting in cost to a hundred million dollars. All of this expenditure will not, perhaps, be made this year, but it is on the cards that there will be not fewer than five thousand miles of new railway completed before next winter, within the region roughly bounded by Winnipeg, Prince Albert, Lethbridge, Edmonton and Regina. At the rate of cost estimated for the prairie section of the Grand Trunk Pacific, $20,000 to $25,000 per mile, the total cost will be quite a hundred million dollars. If private enterprise is willing to invest this immense sum in the development of the country, and the resultant traffic business, surely the Dominion Government can consistently afford to invest a comparatively trifling five millions of dollars to complete the Trent Canal. Much of the returns from this investment in trunk lines and branch railways must come from the transportation of the wheat and the other products of the West. This immense increase of railway mileage in the West represents a corresponding increase of production and traffic, with lamentably inadequate seaboard outlet facilities. The Examiner has frequently insisted upon the importance of the fact that with the productive capacity of the Northwest only partially reached, the existing avenues of transportation outlet, would be utterly inadequate, even if increased many fold. The Trent Canal in operation would greatly assist in relieving the congestion of traffic that even now exists, and will be much increased, as a result of the growth of the West. With buoyant national finances, with the pressing need, there is no reason why the contracts for the uncompleted ends of the canal should not be implemented, without delay.

The Review Performs The Cuttle Fish Trick

It Digs Up and Prints a Falsehood to Cover the Graft Action of Its Own Party—Brackets the Postmaster With Malefactors to Blacken the Character of Liberals —Unprecedented Exhibition of Yellow Journalism.

It has remained for the Review newspaper to furnish an example of the prostitution of the function and influence of the press to a low water mark of degredation never before reached by a Peterborough newspaper.

It has seen fit to employ the yellowist of yellow journal methods to cover the baseness and graft tactics of a section of the party it represents, by ascribing the same low sordid, and place-grafting proclivities and practices to the Liberal party that have been recently put into opsration by, and in behalf of, its own party.

It has done this to distract attention from the action of the Conservative Government in yielding to the demands of a few local ward heelers for the dismissal of a first-rate fisheries inspector, whose only fault is that he has done his duty well.

Reference is made to a scandalous article published in Saturday's issue of the Review, displayed under a scarehead display three columns wide, in which it is stated that local "grits" are circulating a petition for the dismissal of Postmaster Rogers.

Every statement is a deliberate and malicious untruth.

Every insinuation in this precious scandalous is groundless and unwarranted.

The whole thing is an invention and concoction pure and simple.

The Liberals of Peterborough have not only not petitioned for, but have not thought nor even dreamed of demanding, the resignation of Postmaster Rogers.

The Liberals have not been lying awake nights scheming to get Conservatives removed from office. Had they thought of such a thing the condition of the public service provided by the post office might have offered a justification.

If there had been as many complaints regarding Ispector Cochrane as there have been in regard to the service of the local post office there would have been some ground for asking him to resign.

The mendacious moonshine referred to mentions Mr. A. H. Stratton as "standing in line for the job of Postmaster." The Review might as well have mentioned the name of the first citizen it met on the street as to have taken the trouble to select the name it used.

The use of that name has no more justification than the other falsehoods asserted and insinuated in the yellow splash of our back door contemporary, which not content, with giving the slander the benefit of the limited publicity of its columns must needs despatch the mendacity to the Toronto Sunday World, so that the falsehood might have provincial circulation.

The managers of the Review had better cease addressing Ministerial Associations and Sunday School meetings till they have learned to conduct a newspaper decently and to tell the truth or at least refrain from palming off malicious inventions to cover the evil deeds done by its own party or a part of it.

Again the article referred to in the Review is a pure invention from beginning to end.

In it the Review joins with the baser element of the Conservative party, to justify an action which respectable members of the party hotly disapprove. If the names of the dozen or so young swell-heads who are at the bottom of this graft enterprise were made known, the public would not wonder at the attitude they take.

But the public would be surprised at the responsible element of the party permitting the tail to wag the dog.

Mr. T. B. Bradburn, M.P.P., in permitting himself to be swung about and steered by the baser element of his party is regarded by even many of his party friends as the weakest, most vacillating and noxiously subservient member that has ever represented a riding in Ontario.

In view of the treatment which Mr. Bradburn received at the last general election by hundreds of Liberals, it would seem that he is paying his debt of gratitude in base coin.

SHADE TREES IN DUMMER MUST NOT BE CUT DOWN

Twenty dollars and costs was the fine imposed by Magistrate Edmison on Wm. Payne, of Dummer, for cutting down a shade tree on the side of the road. The complaint was laid by Wm. Crowe, also of Dummer, who did not care to see such a beautiful tree disappear in such a way without punishment.

It appears that Mr. Miles, a road commissioner who has jurisdiction over that part of the thoroughfare in which the tree was located, sold it to the defendant for 20 cents.

The latter, however, was ordered not to cut it down until the Council met, when the case would be considered. The meeting was held on a Saturday, but early on Friday morning Payne felled the tree without considering the orders given him to wait.

Several witnesses were examined, and the magistrate found him guilty of an unlawful act, with the above-mentioned result.

Mr. Holgate's Recommendations

His Advice Sought by West Kootenay Power Company.

Cobalt is not the only section rich in mineral wealth. The district about Rossland, B.C., is prolific in mining.

The West Kootenay Power and Light Company, which supplies electricity to many of the mines, reports unusual activity in this direction, so much so that they have decided to extend their electrical distribution plant.

On the advice of the well-known consulting engineers, Messrs. Ross & Holgate, whose opinions on matters electrical are born of wide experience, the West Kootenay Power and Light Company, are adding to their already splendid equipment six Westinghouse raising transformers of 1,875 k.w., 2,200 to 60,000 volts, and fifteen lowering transformers of 1,250 k.w., 60,000 volts to 2,200 and 440 volts.

Throughout the entire west there is a marked increase in the use of electricity, including the employment of electric locomotives in place of steam for mine haulage, fast traction work, factory yards, etc.

An open praise meeting was held at the close in which many participated.

Next Sunday Rev. W. J. Jolliffe will give a farewell message to men. There will no doubt be another large attendance.

DECORATION DAY WAS OBSERVED IN LAKEFIELD

Six members of the local Oddfellow Lodges drove to Lakefield yesterday afternoon to take part in the first annual decoration day ceremonies in connection with the Lakefield Lodge. Those who attended from this city were Messrs. L. Jackson, D. McKercher, J. Sharpe, W. Hill, S. Jordan and J. Jordan.

About thirty members of the Lakefield Lodge turned out, and marched to the "Hillside" Cemetery, where each member dropped a bouquet of flowers on the grave of the only member of the Lodge whose has passed away since its institution, the late Milton Nelson. The beautiful service of the Order was conducted by Mr. Burgess, N.G., of Lakefield Lodge, and Mr. W. Hill, P.G., of Peterborough Lodge.

A Dastardly Piece of Work

Someone Throws Stone Through Front Window of House.

Some mischief-maker caused Mrs. John McGrath, of 177 Harvey street, to sustain a very severe shock that might have resulted seriously and even fatally, as she is subject to heart failure. On Saturday night last her husband called into the police station, bringing with him a goodsized stone that had been hurled through a pane of glass in the front window of his house. His wife and two children were alone in the house at the time, and his wife was affected greatly by the incident. The offence was most glaring and uncalled for and of a very malicious character. Who the guilty party is is a matter of conjecture, and the police have no clue to work on that would lead to his identification and arrest.

"The Cat Came Back;" Found In East City

A Party of Boys Discover Property That Was Stolen From Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Matthews Seven Long Years Ago—Made the Find in an Old Building—A Peterborough Burglary Recalled.

"I want to see you reporters before you go," said the Chief to the local press representatives at the conclusion of the police court this morning. Of course the reporters were willing to stay, expecting something interesting and they were not disappointed. The Chief led the way to his office followed by three of the news gatherers, and taking them into the room, unwrapped a goodly parcel, done up in a newspaper, disclosing quite a collection. Following is a list of the articles displayed:—

Two card cases, the small one ivory, the larger one wood, both daintly carved in Oriental design; a silver-plated napkin ring on the top of which was perched a little squirrel (silver also); two salad spoons, a silver-plated fish knife, 6 dessert spoons, one silver-plated table spoon, a silver-plated nut cracker, 10 silver-plated forks, one half dozen silver-plated knives, 6 white handled knives, in red flannel with compartments for the knives.

The story in connection with these articles which were found in the upper part of an old building in East City by "Jimmy" Gorham, and a number of friends yesterday, is a very interesting one. The Chief when examining the find noticed on the handle of one of the knives the initals "F and E. M." With true Sherlock Holmes-like instinct he decided that they might be the property of Mr. Mrs. T. F. Matthews, who residence was robbed seven years ago. The majority of the citizens will remember the time when the residence of Mr. T. F. Matthews, who then resided on Wolfe street, was broken into and robbed. A quantity of plated ware and other articles in the collection found yesterday were taken by the housebreakers. So when the chief rang up Mr. Matthews and described the articles he had in his possession Mr. Matthews identified them by the description given. They were mostly wedding presents given Mr. and Mrs. Matthews at the time of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews called around to see the chief this morning, and were naturally overjoyed to recover their long stolen property. All that the robbers made away with, with the exception of a revolver, was unearthed by the boys yesterday. The burglars probably fancied it would be more useful to them in their official capacity than the domestic knives and forks which probably thinking were rather dangerous to try to dispose of, they hid away in the place where the boys found them.

The articles were in a good state of preservation although the plate had worn off the silver-plated goods and the ground metal was conspicuously exposed.

The Isolation Hospital Will Cost About $8,500

According to Architect Blackwell's Estimates—Accommodation for Twenty-four Beds is Provided—Board of Health Not Satisfied With Ice Question and Will Send More Samples.

Much time was lost in getting a quorum at the Board of Health meeting this morning, and, after this difficult feat was accomplished, only a small amount of business was done.

Several complaints were referred to the sanitary inspector. The ice question came up again, and it was decided to send samples of Little Lake ice to be analysed by Dr. Amyot of Toronto, Provincial Bacteriologist.

Architect Blackwell's estimated cost of the isolation hospital was $8500.

There were present Messrs. Wm. Eyres, chairman; George Schneider, A. Parker, R. Neill, Dr. Burnham, Dr. McNulty, Dr. Bingham, M.H.O., and George I. Rossel, Sanitary Inspector.

A letter was read from Mr. W. E. Murphy, implement dealer, Water street, calling attention to the unsanitary conditions, which he said, existed in the yards to the rear of his house. The stench was so bad that he was unable to keep open the windows in his house; he also complained of the hotel stables. The matter was, on motion, referred to the sanitary inspector, with power to act.

In reference to the report of the sanitary inspector in regard to the creek, Mr. Barlow wrote the board that the sink in his house was not connected with the creek, as reported. The sanitary inspector will look into the matter.

The chairman brought up the question of ice supply. He asked what action the board desired to take in the matter, in view of the fact that reports from Dr. Amyot, the Provincial Analyst, showed the ice to be pure. The board had directed to have cards put on all refrigerators giving notice that the ice is not to be used for domestic purposes.

Chief Rossel thought it would be advisable to send another sample to Dr. Amyot notifying him that the ice had been taken from Little Lake. In the other cases he had not been informed as to where the ice had been cut. He thought that it might possibly make a difference.

The members of the Board concurred in this opinion, and on motion, it was decided to send two samples of ice to Dr. Amyot, informing him that they had been taken from the Little Lake.

Dr. Bingham was opposed to this step—"That would be deceptive," he said; "it would look as if I were trying to lay a trap for him. If I told him that these samples were from Little Lake, he would naturally infer that the others were not." This, the doctor did not regard as right.

Architect Blackwell submitted his revised plans for the proposed isolation hospital, which were regarded with great interest by the board. The plans have been enlarged since the last meeting and now show a two story brick building, 35 x 80 feet, containing 24 beds. The building is divided into two separate wings, one for scarlet fever and the other for diphtheria patients, the male patients occupying one story and the female patients the other. There is accommodation for five beds downstairs and seven upstairs on both sides of the building; kitchen, nurses' rooms, etc., etc., are provided. The plans met with the entire approval of the Board. The cost as estimated by Architect Blackwell, will be $8500. It was decided to refer the plans to the Medical Association, and, after receiving a report from that body the board will meet and deal with the plans.

Some Results Of Friday's Big Thunder Storm

Five Persons Were Killed By the Lightning.

TWO UNDER FALLEN BARN

Windstorm Struck Barn on Which Were 35 Men Raising It, and Wm. Clapton and M. Willson Were Killed, and the Latter's Father Was Also Seriously Injured—Miss Biggar of Port Robinson a Victim.

Toronto, June 11.—It is possible a million dollars of damage was done by the cyclone-like storm that struck Southern and Western Ontario Friday afternoon. Although of but half an hour's duration in any one place, it unroofed or blew down houses and factories, and played havoc with trees and vegetation. Lightning set fire to several valuable barns and killed at least three persons. Hamilton suffered very severely, the estimate being $250,000. The storm centre of Western Ontario was from Chatham to Hamilton and Niagara Falls. The storm swept along the north shore of Lake Erie and covered the 140 miles between Chatham and Hamilton in an hour and forty minutes. Its velocity was from 60 to 85 miles an hour, accompanied by hail and lightning.

Several Fatalities.

St. Thomas, June 11.—Friday 35 men were at work building a new barn, four miles northeast of Springfield, owned by James McClintock, when the terrific windstorm struck them. A number of men were in the act of raising a large beam when the wind struck the building, which collapsed, crushing down on the men. Two, named William Clapton, aged 35 years, and M. Willson, a lad of 17 years of age, who were working in the basement, were killed instantly. Willson, father of the young lad killed, is also seriously injured and his hand was badly crushed. It had to be amputated. Several others were also seriously injured.

Boy Killed at Brownsville.

It is also reported that a boy named Griffith was killed by the collapse of a barn near Brownsville, which is close to Springfield.

Miss Biggar Killed by Lightning.

St. Catharines, June 11.—Miss Lizzie Biggar of Port Robinson, sister of ex-Reeve William Biggar of Crowland Township, was killed by lightning at her home Friday night which the electric storm was in progress.

Farmer Killed by Lightning.

Maropisa, Ont., June 11.—Henry James of Little Britain, Ont., who was standing against his barn, was struck and killed by lightning, and two others who were standing with him were knocked down during the heavy storm which prevailed during Friday evening.

One Was Killed.

Zurich, June 11.—While standing under a shed attached to the barn, two sons of George Eisenbach, 14th concession, Hay Township, were struck by lightning about 7 o'clock Saturday night while a severe thunderstorm was in progress. Arthur was instantly killed, his brother may recover.

One Dead; One May Die.

Watford, June 11.—The house of John Maddock, three miles from Inwood, was struck by lightning on Friday evening, Mrs. Maddock and her daughter Minnie, 21 years of age, were in the cellar at the time. Miss Maddock was instantly killed, and her mother so severely shocked that she may not recover.

Killed in Doorway.

St. Williams, June 11.—Thomas Carr, 21 years of age, son of Liman Carr, on the 7th concession of Walsingham, was instantly killed by lightning about 8 o'clock Friday afternoon while standing in the doorway of his house. His mother, who was a few feet from him in the yard, was severely stunned and is still in a dazed condition.

Paralyzed by Shock.

Brockville, June 11.—During the fierce electrical storms of the past few days, lightning struck houses and barns right and left and reports of the same are reaching here from the rural districts. In the vicinity of Westport a son of John Cook, a farmer, was rendered unconscious for several hours by the shock. He is yet partially paralyzed, but will recover.

COULD NOT INFLICT THE TORTURE WOMEN SUFFER FROM HEADACHES

Headache is not in itself a disease, but a symptom or accompaniment of other disease, principally those of the stomach, liver and bowels, such as Constipation, Dyspepsia, Liver Trouble, Bad Blood, Female Complaints, General Debility and Weakness. Headache is common to both sexes, but more frequently affects females.

The varieties of headache most common are sick or bilious headache, nervous headache, headache from constipation, debility or indigestion, periodical and spasmodic headache. Undoubtedly the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be had.

Premier Seddon Of New Zealand Passed Away

Stricken With Heart Failure On Board Owstrey Grange.

KNOWN OVER WIDE WORLD

Prime Minister of New Zealand an Englishman by Birth and Education —Man Chiefly Responsible for Many Socialistic Measures Introduced and Put Into Practice In His Country—A Notable Speech.

Sydney, N.S.W., June 11.—Richard John Seddon, Prime Minister of New Zealand, died from heart failure last evening, aboard the steamer Owstrey Grange, on which he had embarked yesterday morning to return to New Zealand. The Owstrey Grange put back into Sydney. Mr. Seddon was 61 years of age.

His death was totally unexpected. He came to Australia in the middle of May to consult with Alfred Deakin, the Prime Minister of Australia, on important questions, mainly those concerning the New Hebrides. During his stay here he visited the principal towns, making vigorous speeches and receiving deputations on various matters interesting to Australia, such as colonial preference and alien immigration.

RT. HON. R. J. SEDDON.

On Saturday he made a speech at Sydney, declaring that it was a suicidal policy for the colonies to send trade to foreign countries, thus enabling them to strengthen their navies. Trade, he said, should go to the motherland to assist in strengthening the British navy.

When Mr. Seddon sailed yesterday morning he appeared to be in his customary health.

Sketch of His Career.

The Right Hon. Richard John Seddon was born at Eccleston, Lancashire, in 1845, and emigrated to Australia in 1863, where he carried on his business of mechanical engineer. Removing to New Zealand, he was elected in 1879 to the House of Representatives, and has held his seat ever since. From 1891 to 1893 Mr. Seddon acted as Minister of Mines, and from 1891 to 1896 acted also as Minister of Public Works and Minister of Defence. In 1893 he became Premier, and since then has been, in addition, colonial treasurer, postmaster-general, Minister of Labor and Minister of Native Affairs.

In New Zealand he enjoyed unlimited confidence and popularity and was recently again returned to power by a large majority of votes. Mr. Seddon was chiefly responsible for the series of measures on socialistic lines which have created so much interest and attention, and it was his ambition to make New Zealand an example to the world in all that makes for the true happiness of the people. His energy and enthusiasm were unbounded, and it is matter of additional regret that he should have died during the year of New Zealand's first international exhibition.

COULD NOT CONVICT.

Beachville Man Was Filling Orders as Fast as Possible.

St. Catharines, June 11.—The Crown failed in its attempt to convict Arthur W. Smith of Beachville, Oxford County, of fraud, for alleged advertising for sale and taking money for goods he could not supply.

Chief of Police Zeiler, Woodstock, said he had received letters from parties all over the country making inquiries about Smith, stating they had sent him money and did not receive goods.

W. H. Peck, Carmelton Express agent at Beachville, gave evidence favorable to Smith. He said he had received many shipments of potatoes and had also shipped away Yorkshire hogs, collie dogs, potatoes, strawberry plants, etc. Smith had been there about three years.

The customs officer at Woodstock also testified to shipments received by Smith.

The magistrate said he would have to base his opinion on the evidence given in the case and he could not convict upon it. He added that while Smith was certainly sending out strange circulars and advertisements, he thought that farmers who jumped at conclusions as in this case, showed little judgment. It was quite plain the man was filling orders as fast as he could get the goods.

Dynamite Plant Explodes And Kills Employees

Bodies of Eleven Men and Seriously Injures Five Others.

PLANT WRECKED NEAR PEQUA

List of the Dead—Unknown Residents of York County Who Had Just Left the Plant Were Wiped Out of Existence, Not a Vestige of Horse, Wagon or Man After the Explosion—Horrible Accident.

Lancaster, Pa., June 11.—Eleven men were blown to pieces and five others were seriously injured by the explosion of a dynamite plant near Pequa, along the Susquehanna River. The dead are:

Benjamin Gebhardt, aged 22; Benjamin Risser, 21; Geo. Risser, 20; Fred Rice, 23, married; Collins Parker 19; Phares Swoff, 18; William Funk, 19; John Boatman, 17; an unknown man; two unknown men, residents of York County.

All except the last two lived in the immediate vicinity of the dynamite plant. The seriously injured are:

Walter Brown, Martin Risser, Geo. Gray, Charles Cramer, Jacob Scoff.

Most Horrible of Accidents.

The accident was one of the most horrible in the history of Lancaster County. The victims were literally torn to pieces, not enough remaining of a single body to make identification possible.

The cause of the explosion is not known. The two unknown residents of York County who were killed had just started to drive from the place with a load of dynamite. They had scarcely gained a distance of 50 feet when the plant blew up with a detonation that was plainly heard 15 miles away. A great cloud of smoke covered the site of the factory, and when it had cleared away there was not a vestige of the horse, wagon or men who had left the factory only a moment before.

Identity Impossible.

The air was filled with debris, and fragments of human bodies and pieces of flesh and limbs were found hanging to the trees nearly one hundred yards from the scene of the disaster. The remains of those who had been killed were gathered up and placed in soap boxes, identity being impossible. The injured, some of whom it is thought will die, were taken to their homes in the vicinity.

The dynamite plant was owned by G. R. McCabe & Co., of Pittsburg.

Quakers Outclassed Omemee In Fast Football Game

Score Ended 3-0—Winners Now Enter the Finals With Lakehurst—Game Was Free From All Rough Play—The Better Team Won—Locals are Playing Excellent Ball.

Fourteen goals to two, is the record which the Peterborough Quaker Junior Football Team can now boast of after beating the fast Omemee bunch on Saturday evening by 3 goals to 0 on Riverside Park. This is the sixth straight victory for the local team, without a single defeat marked down against them, and they naturally feel somewhat elated over their unblemished record.

The spectators that turned out to see the game, by no means filled the grand stand, but the club was much gratified to see a large number of the fairer sex witnesses of the match.

The game was conspicuous for the few errors which the homesters made. Their team work was the best they have furnished this season, and their attacks on the visitors' citadel, were almost continuous. Saturday's game was more of a practice to them, as the play, although fast enough for the forwards and halves, was by no means a rough exhibition of football, but it also served to place the Quakers one more notch closer to the goal so eagerly sought for. They have still two more matches to play before the championship of the Junior Midland League is decided, and, from their brilliant record in the past, it looks as if the spirit of William Penn, which has been so urgently pressing them on, would see them safely through.

Omemee came down with a strong line-up on Saturday, and essayed to hold the Quakers down to a tie, if not actually defeat them, but like the other aggregations the Quakers have had the pleasure of meeting on the Riverside Park they were Waterlooed. They quickly found out after the beginning of the game they would have to submit to the inevitable, and were quite cheerful in taking their defeat.

The half-time score ended 2 to 0 in the Quakers' favour after playing 25 minutes with the sun shining in their faces. It wasn't long after half time before they notched the third and last goal, and although they worked hard could do nothing more than fan the posts with a number of hot shots.

During the whole game the visitors had only two shots on McFadden—one in each half. In the first part of the game their combination was very erratic, and they kicked too far up the line. They got down to better work in the latter half but the superior Quaker defence systematically broke up all attempts at passing. Their only opportunities for scoring on the locals are from corner kicks and penalties (!) and these the home team refused to grant, taking good care to punt the leather in the proper direction.

McFadden in goal, has a pretty good reputation this season. He has only allowed two balls to pass between the sticks, and these were both difficult ones to grasp.

In the game on Saturday Omemee just gave him two to embrace, and these were very cool, being long shots from the wings. Dick Evans played the game of his life, and was careful to boot the winging each time it travelled his way. "Jimmy" Doris never played better this year. Man or ball was taken into camp every time, and "Jimmy" often took a spurt down centre field and evaded the opposing besiegers.

The half backs who had the greater part of the defence work to do—as Omemee could scarcely get through their ranks—put up their usual brilliant game. Tommy Donaldson at centre found his men easy, and his skillks forth to meet the enemy were invariably successful. His able assistants at right and left, Deforge and Ray Best, were in their old time shape, greatly to the distress of the fast men on the outside forward wings of Omemee. Both are heady players and pass the ball accurately. To Best went the honour of the second goal. He shot from twenty-five yards or more, a neat ball, which Curtis, of the visitors' back division, assisted through.

Crough and Dick Baker again figured on the right wing of the forward line, and although suffering from injuries, played star games. The former's rushes down the right field in the latter half were too speedy to be hindered by one and even two of the visitors. His kicking on goal was also a feature, and it was by narrow margins that he failed to score more than once. Baker hasn't forgotten any of the plays since the game against Norwood and was always on the ground where needed. Needless to say Boycott and Armstrong on the left played their share of the game and worked like veterans. They were too quick for the whole visiting team in doing the necessary when a foul kick was given before the Omemee goal in the first half. The Scotchmen rolled the ball and the Englishmen drove it through for the first score. Armstrong uses his head to advantage and places the leather in the proper spot every time. Boycott could not be caught, and together with Armstrong, combined neatly scores of times. The latter scored the last goal of the Quakers from a very difficult position.

The visitors' defence was strong, and owing to this the score was small. Mitchell in the goal was a tough proposition to elude, and put himself in the way of a few hot ones around his throne. Curtis and Brown are sure punters and strong checkers and worked like Trojans every minute of the play. McGee, a new man at centre half, was a positive acquisition to the team and did some fine work. He was well assisted by McQuade and Howden. The forward line found it troublesome to break away from the Quaker defenders, and, as noted above, only kicked a couple of shots on goal. Sherin and MacPherson were probably the stars, but Jardine and Bent figured also in some pretty plays.

Joe Power, of Norwood, carried the whistle, and his judicious decisions found favour from all, as his rulings were always correct.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Omemee—		Quakers—
	Goal.
Mitchell		McFadden
	Backs.
Curtis		Evans
Brown		Doris Halves.
McQuade		Deforge
McGee		Donaldson
Howden		Best
	Forwards.
MacPherson		Crough
Nugent		Baker
Best		Huston
Jardine		Armstrong
Sherin		Boycott

Referee—Joe Power.
Time-keepers—Earle, Brooks.
Goal Umpires — Archibald and Roland.
Linesmen—Thomas and Ingram.

The Play.

Omemee won the toss and Quakers kicked from centre, carrying the ball to visitors' territory and past the goal line. Curtis kicked off, but Deforge returned to Armstrong, and Boycott combined. The latter kicked on goal, but Brown punted. Donaldson kicked to Baker, and the pass went to Crough, who sent one over the ribbon. Evans returned the goal kick and play looked pretty dangerous for the visitors for a few minutes. Curtis, fouled near his goal, and Armstrong passed to Boycott, who sent the ball through after 20 minutes' play. Score 1-0.

Shortly after the kick-off, MacPherson, from right, shot squarely on goal. McFadden found it easy to dispose of, and Doris booted the ball to Best, who scored on a long shot on goal, the ball bounding through off Curtis' head in three minutes. Score 2-0.

During the remaining two minutes the Quakers were still the aggressors and Crough almost scored.

After half-time Omemee seemed to waken up, but without reward. The Quakers still assumed the attacking role, and poured a few shots around the visitors' citadel. Donaldson passed neatly to centre, and a shot on goal blocked by McGee went to Armstrong, who scored on a side kick after nine minutes' play. Score 3-0.

This concluded the counting, although Omemee shot on goal once and the locals several times, with no avail. When the whistle blew for time Omemee was still hard pressed.

A STRONG HEART AND STEADY NERVES

Very important it is in this age of competition to have a clear cool head, a strong heart and steady nerves.

Too much rush and hustle, work and worry, fall to the lot of the average business man—his heart and nerve system will not stand it—he gives them too much work to do.

Women also are doing the same thing attending to their household duties and looking after their social obligations. The constant strain under which they have to continue day in and day out, the irregularities of habits and loss of rest will soon shatter the strongest system. Before long you become nervous, starting at the least sudden sound, the heart flutters and palpitates, specks float before the eyes, the pains becomes weak and irregular, you have faint and dizzy spells, lack of self-confidence, rush of blood to the head, irritability of temper, shortness of breath, starting in sleep, sensation of pins and needles, sleeplessness, restlessness and finally physical breakdown or nervous prostration.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

are the remedy you require to restore your strength and health. Their extraordinary curative power manifests itself immediately they are taken. Through the medium of the nervous system they impart a strengthening and restorative influence to every organ and tissue of the body. Many have been cured, among them being Mr. Ray V. Coomber, Wellington, P.E.I., Mrs. R. Kilmer, Hutchenstonia, Ont., Mrs. C. McDonald, Portage la Prairie, Man., Mr. Walter Cleveland, Bayswater, N.S., Mrs. Owen Martin, Alma, N.B. and thousands of others.

The price of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is 50 cts. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25. Can be procured at all druggists and general stores, or will be sent on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Many Errors Were Made In C. G. E. League Games

Two Loose Exhibitions of Ball at Riverside Park Saturday—Armatures Won From Tool Room and Machine Shop Lost to the Brass Department—Pitchers Received Poor Support.

Conversation and errors were the principal features of Saturday's C. G. E. League games. Shakspere's "Comedy of Errors" was completely outclassed by the electric exponents of baseball, and as for oratory, the players had Demosthenes backed into a corner, with his medals taken away from him. Fifty big, juicy, mellow errors, count them, fifty was the sum total of the efforts of the thirty-six players who adorned the diamond on Saturday. This collection is not guaranteed by the scorer, as they came so fast that he was unable to chalk them all down. If anyone feels that he has not got all that is coming to him a letter addressed to this office will give him the additional number of errors required. It was the best exhibition of sidestepping grounders, muffing throws and flinging the ball to the four corners of the lot that has been seen here for years. Hits were merely an incident and were hardly noticed in the mélange of errors.

O'Connor's Brass Artists made nineteen errors in their game against the machine shop, and at that won the contest by 10—3, after the phoniest game int he history of baseball in Peterborough. The machine shop were guilty of seventeen misplays.

In the second contest Whitecroft's tool room bunch were no match for the armature, who played the only ball of the day. Their contribution to the error column was only three, and they batted well, while Roddy had the tool-room outfit winging.

As has been said, oratory constituted one of the features. Some one was talking all the time, and Umpire Stacey had a busy afternoon. Stump speeches of considerable force were made by many of the players, while others made long distance remarks in uncomplimentary tones about the umpire's decisions. As a male chorus the players would have made a tremendous hit, as ball teams they were completely automobiled. "You're rotten," was a dainty little song which found much favour with the soloists and was used with much effect by the entire company at times.

The First Game.

It would be impossible without the aid of the Hansard staff to give a full report of the proceedings of the afternoon. The Brass won from the Machine in the first game, after the latter had the score 7—1, at the end of the fifth innings. Buck Quinlan pitched fine ball for the Brass and was touched up for only eight hits, three of which were in the first innings. He would have never been in trouble with the least signs of support. The balloon went up in the sixth and Jimmy Callaghan's crew did not reach earth again that afternoon. In the sixth the Brass got three runs with but one hit, and in the seventh there were four more on three hits. The Machine tied the score in the eighth. In the ninth three hits and two errors gave the game to the Brass. The following figures will give a clue to the guilty parties:

Four O'clock Game.

The second game was much the better of the two. The Armature won somewhat easily, and their victory was well earned. They fielded cleanly and accurately, and Roddy's pitching was decidely effective. He struck out 11 men and allowed seven scattered singles. His control was good and he had speed to burn. The batting of Treanor, Fitzpatrick and Doherty were the features. The Toolroom had an off day, their fielding being decidedly loose, while Patterson was touched up for 13 hits, and gave four charities. There were no fielding features.

There was no scoring until the third when the Armature got one on errors by Delaney and Wareham's hit. Whitcroft's single scored in the other half for the Tool Room. On the fourth the Armature got away with three, charities from Patterson, errors by Quinlan and Delaney and Derocher's single being responsible. Four came to the Tool Room in their half, on hits by Gillespie and McDonald and several errors.

Two more came in the fifth for the Armature on hits by Fitzpatrick and Roberts, and a base on balls. In the seventh hits by Allison and Derocher scored another for the Armature. Mulhall's hit with an error by Roddy yielded one for the Tool Room in the eighth. The Armature got one on singles by Roddy and Treanor, Fitzpatrick's two-bagger to left and a base on balls. Final score—Armature, 11; Tool Room, 6.

Oshawa Got Decision; Each Team Scored Twice

Young Shamrocks Played Nice Lacrosse at Oshawa on Saturday—Had to Leave at End of Third Quarter to Catch Their Train With the Score a Tie.

The Young Shamrocks journeyed to Oshawa on Saturday, when they stacked up against the junior team of that place in a Junior C. L. A. game. The score at the end of the third quarter was 2-2, when the Shamrocks left the field to catch their train at Whitby. The referee gave the game to Oshawa, but the locals claim that he had no right to do so, as an agreement had been made between the two teams that they would play three periods of 20 minutes each, and more if there was time.

The game was a good exhibition and was marked by lively lacrosse that at times got very rough. The Shamrocks put up fine lacrosse. The home played pretty combination, and the defence was steady and effective. While all played good lacrosse, the work of White, at point, Tucker, at centre, and Robson, at inside home, is worthy of special mention.

Referee Tyner, of Toronto, did not make much of a hit with the Shamrocks and his decisions were not relished by the local players, who claim that the game should count as a tie and not as a victory for Oshawa.

The lake shore bunch got the only goal in the first quarter, scoring in the first five minutes of play. In the second quarter the Shamrocks got two, Saunders and Feenie doing the trick. Oshawa got their second in this period. There was no scoring in the third period, at the end of which the Shamrocks had to leave the field in order to drive to Whitby to catch the G. T. R. train for home. The boys report an enjoyable trip. Half the return journey was made on flat cars, there being only one passenger coach on the train.

The Shamrocks lined up as follows:

Goal, Gilman.
Point, White.
Cover-point, Seymour.
First Defence, O'Leary.
Second Defence, Doris.
Third Defence, Dusty.
Centre, Tucker.
Third Home, Saunders.
Second Home, Devlin.
First Home, Feenie.
Outside, McNicholl.
Inside, Robson.

No Senior Lacrosse For Peterborough This Year

Club Will Likely Disband at a Meeting to be Held To-night—Dissatisfied With the Action of the C.L.A. —No Games Could be Played Until Semi-Finals.

There will be no senior lacrosse in Peterborough this season. The Shamrocks have practically decided to drop out and a meeting of the executive will be held to-night at which the formal disbanding of the team will in all probability take place. This step is being taken in view of the fact that the locals would not be able to play any games until the preliminary rounds are finished, in fact would have to wait until the semi-finals are reached before getting into action. This the Shamrocks feel it is impossible, and hence the action they are taking. The last chance of getting Beaverton to enter this district was gone on Saturday night when word was received from that club that they could not leave their district. The step is greatly to be regretted as there is material in the city for the fastest team in years. The way the boys have been treated by the C. L. A. is not relished by them and they certainly should have received some consideration from that body.

Omemee Wins Football Protest

Quakers Will Again Journey to Omemee to Play Ten Minutes.

The protest of the Omemee Football Club against the way the Quakers lined up while the former were taking a penalty kick, at the game in Omemee last Thursday was considered on Saturday night, and a decision given in favour of the Omemee club.

The protest committee consisted of Messrs. R. M. Glover, E. W. Wasson and M. J. Hutchinson, who ruled that the game from the time at which the penalty kick was to be taken, to the finish, be played over again at a time agreeable to both teams. This means that the Quakers will have to go to Omemee again to play for 10 minutes. The score up to that time stood 1-0 in the Quakers' favour. The game will probably be played a week from to-day.

GEORGE STREET VS. CHARLOTTE TO-NIGHT

The protested game between George street and Charlotte street will be played to-night at Riverside Park. Fred Whitcroft will umpire. The George street team will be chosen from the following:—W. Parnell, P. Weatherston, (W. Weatherston, Crane, Pedlar, Shaw, Curtis, McMillan, Kendry, Craig and F. Parnell.

Heavy Traffic Through The Locks And Canal

Steamer "Beaver" Took Cement Cargo to Harwood--To Use Old Dredge for Blacksmith Shop Above Lift Lock --Big Shipment of Goods to Stony Lake--Complaints of Slowness in Operating Bridges.

The steamer Beaver, of Lakefield, passed through the canal on Saturday evening with a cargo of cement consigned to Harwood, by the Lakefield Cement Co, the return trip being made yesterday afternoon, when she again passed through the Lift Lock, with scow.

USE OLD DREDGE FOR A BLACKSMITH SHOP

The Government tug Empire has hauled the dismantled dredge, Otonabee to "Carlisle's Bay," above the Norwood Road, where she will be moored, and used as a blacksmith shop, etc., for canal work.

SOME REPAIRS TO THE YACHT "MOLLIE"

Mr. J. J. McBain's steam yacht, Mollie, passed over the Lift Lock yesterday afternoon, and proceeded down the river to the street car landing, where she will be tied up while some extensive repairs are being made to her.

TOOK BIG SHIPMENT OF GOODS TO THE LAKES

The steamer Water Lily left yesterday afternoon with a large consignment of goods for Mr. Ed. Young of Young's Point, and Mr. T. W. Robinson, for his Juniper Island store. Mr. Robinson went up the lakes to-day by train to Lakefield, to open his store for the season to-morrow.

SEARCHLIGHT EXCURSION AS A NEW FEATURE

The steamer Water Lily will run a "searchlight" excursion from Lakefield to-night. This is something new in the excursion line and will no doubt prove very popular.

COMPLAIN OF DELAY IN OPERATING BRIDGES

The steamboat men, and others interested, are protesting against the loss of time sustained by the time taken in the opening of the C.P.R. swing over the canal yesterday. The boats were held for an unreasonable length of time, not only for trains expected to pass, but, it is also stated that they were detained for a number of handcars loaded with men returning from their work.

HAULING LUMBER FOR CITY'S SEWER WORK

The steamer Rainbow unloaded a load of lumber at the Wolfe street wharf yesterday. This lumber will be used by the Board of Works in the sewer work now under way.

Lindsay Steamboat Men Are In Trouble

Lumbermen Block the Channel With Logs--Persons Attending Funeral Were Inconvenienced---Mr. McClellan, Superintendent of the Canal, Deals With the Matter.

The Lindsay Post of yesterday said:—In Saturday night's issue we referred to the millmen's selfish action in blocking the river channel with logs and entirely disregarding the rights of owners of passenger steamers and pleasure yachts. We mentioned also that the position was becoming intolerable.

Affairs have already reached that end. Saturday night and Sunday the river was blocked from the Parkin mill to the Flavelle cold storage warehouse — even the dock basin held a steamer, and several steam yachts were unable to get through because of this. The boat should have been tied up for Sunday below or above the dock, so as to leave a passage. Yesterday steamers bringing parties from Bobcaygeon and Fenelon to attend a funeral had to land them below Baker & Bryan's mill, and this morning the passenger steamers had to tie up at the same point, passengers for the trains having to race across country to reach the station in time.

We are pleased to be able to assure our readers that Mr. J. H. McClellan, of Peterborough, superintendent of the Trent Canal, who has jurisdiction in the premises, has taken prompt action. He informs us that Mr. Samuel McGill, town, has been appointed to oversee the waters of Lindsay River and keep the channel clear, and no doubt our mill owners and steamboat men will give him every assistance. It is to the interest of all that the channel be kept clear and that sunken logs be kept out of the way of the steamers. One thing is certain—there must be a radical change, and if Mr. McGill cannot control the situation or is too easy-going, then he will have to give way to a firmer man.

Armoury Plans Are Here; Will Be Discussed To-night

New Building Will be a Magnificent One, Costing $125,000 —Work, it is Expected, Will Begin Immediately Much Like London Building.

The plans for the armouries as drawn up by Chief Architect Dewart of Ottawa, and approved of by the Militia Department, were sent to Lt.-Col. Miller on Saturday and will be submitted to the officers of the 57th to-night. The officers of the 24th Battery are looking over the plans to-day.

The blue prints show that the armouries will be a magnificent building. They resemble very much the one at London and will be 236 feet by 170 feet. There will be ... as armouries for each company ... mess room, gun room, etc. In the ... most there will be bowling alleys, target ranges are on the third floor, officers' rooms, caretaker's rooms, etc. It is said that the cost will be at least $125,000. County Court Opened At One O'clock To-day

Two Civil and Two Criminal Cases on the Docket—Grand Jury Empanelled—First Case Was an Action for Obtaining Unpaid Wages by a Lady From Her Uncle.

County Court opened to-day at 1 o'clock before His Honour Judge Weller. Two civil and two criminal cases constituted the docket at the session and as these were not of very great importance the court room was not crowded.

The criminal cases were against Geo. Rickerby, charged with obtaining money under false pretences and against John Winters of Harvey, charged with setting fire last December to an unoccupied dwelling, the property of Mr. J. J. Lundy.

The civil cases are an action by Ida Fallis against Mr. Jas. Jones, of Cavan township, for the non-payment of wages and the other to determine the ownership of certain properties in Smith Township. The plaintiffs are Agnes Quinn and Robert Duff and the defendant John Fairbairn.

The following Grand Jurors were empanelled:—Fred Armstrong, Jas. Crawford, Peter Drummond, Duncan Drummond, Wm. Fitzpatrick, Alex. Gibson, R. W. Grubbe, Lawrence Twoomey, Michael Torpey, G. W. Powell, Robert Bradburn, Joseph Bernard and John L. Armstrong.

The non-jury case of Fallis vs. Jones was the first considered this afternoon. Mr. Ruddy, of Millbrook, was the counsel for the plaintiff and Mr. Moore, of Lindsay, for the defendant.

Ida M. Fallis, the plaintiff, was the first witness examined. She was with the defendant for wages from ... 1896 until Sept. 1899. She began work in September 1898, and the work the first two weeks on trial, ... afterwards was to get $6 per month if satisfactory. Instead of putting the agreement in writing, her uncle, Jas. Jones, insisted that only her clothes and other things which she gave her be put down in a small book which he presented to her. ... book showed a rather lengthy list of articles in the dress goods line, but she stated she had not received money during the three years. The clothing in money would represent about $60. Defendant offered her $2 the day she left but she refused until a final settlement was made. In 1898 she asked her uncle to settle. This was the year she became of age and she was married the same year. Her uncle promised to settle with her as soon as she was settled in her home. She met him at the 12th July celebration in Lindsay and again asked him to pay her the wages, but he reproached her for asking for a settlement in such a public place.

The members of the bar present were, Crown Attorney R. E. W. B. F. McWilliams, Mr. Ruddy, of Millbrook; Mr. Moore, Lindsay; F. Kerr.

Mr. Thos. McKee Clerk of the Works

Will Superintend the Building of the New South Ward School.

At last night's meeting of the Board of Education Mr. Thos. McKee was appointed clerk of works, in the building of the new school in the south ward. His salary will be $3 per day, and he will retain the position until the building committee declare that his services are no longer necessary.

MISCALLED "HAIR TONICS"

Most Hair Preparations Are Merely Scalp Irritants, of No Value.

Most hair preparations are merely scalp irritants, miscalled hair tonics. When hair is brittle, lustreless and begins to fall out, the dandruff germ is getting in its deadly work at the root, sapping the vitality. Since science discovered that dandruff is a germ disease, there has been only one preparation put on the market that will actually destroy the dandruff germ, and that is Newbro's Herpicide. It quickly reduces scalp fever, destroys the germ; and the falling hair stops, and hair grows luxuriantly. Ask your druggist for Herpicide. It allays itching instantly, and permits the hair to grow. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

Routine Business Of The Board Of Education

Reports of Standing Committees and of Public School and Collegiate Institute Attendance--Teachers Ask for Re-engagement.

At the Board of Education meeting last night considerable routine business was transacted, and as well some very important new undertakings were taken up. The report of the Supervision Committee recommending an increase in the salaries of the teachers of the Public Schools and Collegiate Institute staff was adopted, and the question of increasing the accommodation at the West Ward School by adding four rooms was taken up, and was left in the hands of the Property Committee. STRANGERS WELL ATTENDED TO

One thing the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. knows how to do is to look after strangers.

A young man came some days ago from Brazil, South America. He left the city to-day. Before leaving he left a card on the secretary's desk: "Many thanks for hospitality." He is only one of hundreds who find in the Y.M.C.A. a home—every year.

EXCURSION WAS VERY ENJOYABLE

A very pleasant private excursion was held down the Otonabee on Saturday afternoon, when eleven young couples enjoyed a delightful outing on Mr. A. Allen's yacht. The party went as far as Highland Park, where tea was served. Dancing and other amusements helped to make the trip a great success.

Many New Sidewalks Will Be Constructed

Board of Works Received Many Petitions for Sewers--Engineers Will Advertize for Tenders for Sewer Construction--Will Remove Stand Pipe on Reid Street --Tenders for Disposing of Dredging Material--Street Extensions.

The Board of Works held a busy session for two hours last night at which a large number of sidewalks and sewers were authorized to be constructed, and a number of other matters of more or less importance disposed of. None of the prominent questions at stake were gone deeply into. The George street extension was merely referred to.

There were present at the meeting, Chairman Hicks, Ald. Elliott, Johnston, Wilson, McIntyre, Graham, Mayor Best, City Engineer, T. A. S. Hay, Street Commissioner Evans and the City Solicitor.

Petitions for Sidewalks.

A petition for a granolithic sidewalk on west side of Water from Dublin to Antrim streets was received. Moved by Ald. Johnston and McIntyre that it be granted and built as soon as practicable. The gully is not filled up and therefore does not admit of a walk being constructed at the place requested at present.

Petitions were received for granolithic walks on east side of Donegal from Hunter to Brook outside the tree line; on north side of King from Park to Maitland avenue, inside the tree line; on east side of Reid from Charlotte to King; on south side of Sherbrooke from Park to the boundary; on north and south side Hunter at the bridge; on south side of London from Reid 114 feet west on London. These were sufficiently signed and granted.

A petition for a sidewalk on west side of Stewart from Dalhousie to to Townsend was not sufficiently signed.

A petition for a granolithic sidewalk outside the tree line on Mark street from Hunter to James, was sufficiently signed. A discussion arose as to the placing of the walk on the outside of the tree line, a number of the Board thinking this impracticable. It was moved by Ald. Elliott and Wilson, that the matter be left to the engineer to report whether it would be advisable or not to have the walk outside the tree line.—Carried.

The petition for a granolithic walk on Sherbrooke from George to Reid asked for the walk on the outside of the tree line but the Board did not wish to grant this without looking over the ground and find whether it is desirable to place the walk on the outside of the trees. The committee will meet to-night and investigate as to the better method.

A petition for a sidewalk on west side of Reid, north of McDonel and London was not sufficiently signed.

Petitions Against Sidewalks.

Mr. N. Lush petitioned against a sidewalk on Berhuse from Antrim to London, but it was not sufficiently signed. It was left in hands of the engineer to report on.

A petition against a sidewalk on the south side of Deere street was sufficiently signed and walk will not be granted.

A petition against a sidewalk on the west side of Reid, between Murray and Brock was sufficiently signed and petition was granted.

A petition against a sidewalk on north side of Brock in front of Janet Mason's was not sufficiently signed.

A petition was received from J. J. Turner & Sons, against a granolithic sidewalk on George, King and Water, around his property. The sidewalk will be built on Water and George, but not on King.

A petition was received against a sidewalk on west side of Aylmer from Edinburgh and Antrim. The petition was granted and the sidewalk will not be built at present.

Petitions for Sewers.

A petition was received for a sewer on Perry from Stewart to Park, but was not sufficiently signed.

A petition for a sewer on Murray from Downie 215 feet east, was sufficiently signed and granted.

A petition for a sewer on Cedar street from Park to Cross, was not sufficiently signed.

Petitions for sewers on Downie, from London to Smith; on Smith from Downie to Reid, and on Reid from Smith to Stewart, were granted.

A petition for a sewer on Dublin from Water 12 feet east, was not sufficiently signed.

Benson Street Sewer.

The matter of building a sewer along the G.T.R. tracks for an outlet for the Benson street sewer will be submitted to the ratepayers as early as possible. The work is estimated to cost $1,500.

Mr. Dickson's Request.

Mr. Albert Dickson's request for sewer connections with his property north-west of the city will be granted if a sufficiently signed petition for a sewer on Aberdeen and Manning avenues be received.

The work would have and outlet on Barnardo avenue.

Purchase of Cement Mixer.

The committee decided to accept and pay for the new cement mixer which has been on trial for a month and bought from the Automatic Cement Mixer Company.

Tenders for Sewers.

A motion that the engineer be instructed to advertise for tenders for the construction of sewers of which notice has already been given and also for those petitioned for with sufficient signatures passed the Board.

To Move Standpipes.

The Board decided to have the Water Commissioners remove the stand pipe on Reid street to a point to be designated by the City Engineer in order to construct sewer pipe.

Dredging Question.

The question of moving the earth across the track for the city's use from the Government dredge was again considered last night. The chairman figured that the cost would be from $1,300 to $1,500. It was moved by Ald. McIntyre and Wilson that the engineer be authorized to advertise for tenders to carrying on the work of tunning over the dredgings and levelling the earth. — Carried.

Street Extension.

The George street extension question was again touched on last night by the Board but nothing definite was arrived at. The Mayor still refuses to sign a check which would cause an overdraft. The matter was left over to be considered at a further date. The following motion in reference to the extension was moved by Ald. Johnston and McIntyre: That the solicitor be requested to ask the consent of the G.T.R. to cross their tracks with the proposed extension of George street, south.—Carried.

A Natural Laxative

"WHEN STEAM MEETS VOLTS;" ROLLER AND CAR COLLIDE

The steam roller and street railway car No. 13—in this case the bad luck ascribed to the number 13 holds good, or rather bad—had a mix-up at the corner of George and Lansdowne streets this morning about 11.30, and the roller had considerably the better of the argument. Some work on the road is being done in this section of the city by the roller, and it was back up at the corner turning north at the time mentioned above when the street car was traversing south at a good clip, when by accident they collided. The car carromed a couple of yards off the track as the result of the shock, and the road along the track, and the roadbed at the place of the accident resembled a ploughed field somewhat, so badly was it torn up.

The roof of the roller was splintered in one corner in the rear, and the back supporting rods bent. The street car was rather badly scraped and bruised along the side where it was struck, and the platform at the motorman's feet was somewhat shattered. At the time of the bump he executed a neat aerial stunt, it is said, but received no injuries. A couple of passengers were in the car, but nobody was hurt. With the assistance of car 15, and some chains attached to it and its mutilated brother, the latter was again placed on the rails.

MORE DEVELOPMENTS IN ANTI-SEASON FISHING

There is good and plenty doing in fishing circles these days. Last night Deputy Richard Thornbeck caught a man at Hall's Creek, six or seven miles below the locks, about midnight, as he was watching a net he had got there. The man admitted he was the owner of the net and was fined at once for the offence. He made a plea not to be taken before Police Magistrate Dumble, whose heavy penalty of last Saturday morning has apparently made the "early bird" fisherman a little anxious. Inspector Dave Johnston, in whose district the conviction of last night, as well as the one on Saturday, was made, informed The Examiner this morning that he wished it clearly understood that it is his intention to prosecute all offendors without fear or favour, and when anyone is caught fishing out of season he will have to pay for his sport. Mr. Johnston emphatically denied the truth of the article that appeared in Saturday's Examiner, supplied by George Nurse, and said he will have, in a short time complete denial of his statements, which will be published above his (George Nurse's) signature.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 12.—The feature of the market during the forenoon to-day was the strength of the soft coalers, B. & O. advancing 2 points, Penna. 1 1-2 and Norfolk and Chesapeake fractionally. Elsewhere the tone was firm but quiet aside from a spurt in C.F.I. which was later lost.

Irregularity characterized the market at midday. St. Paul was again conspicuously strong while U.P., Reading, Copper and Gas were weak and lower. Price movements were very confusing. As the afternoon advanced some bad reports of crop damage came in. Wheat, corn, and oats advanced sharply and stocks became weak. All of the early gains were turned into losses, excepting St. Paul, which kept very strong. The close was steady.

Kidney Disease On The Increase

BUT PREVENTION AND CURE ARE READILY OBTAINED BY THE USE OF

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

Recent reports of the New York Board of Health prove that the mortality from Kidney disease is greatly on the increase.

Bright's disease as well as the other dreadfully painful forms of kidney disease can usually be prevented and cured by giving some attention to the diet and to the activity of the liver and kidneys.

Excesses in eating and the use of alcoholic drinks must be avoided, and the filtering organs can best be kept in good working order by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The derangements which lead to Bright's disease usually have their beginning in a torpid liver and there is suffering from headaches, biliousness and indigestion before the kidneys fail and such symptoms appear as backache, scanty, highly coloured urine, painful, scalding urination, deposits in urine, etc.

Mr. James McGuire, blacksmith, Mount Forest, Ont., states:—"In my work as blacksmith there is probably more straining and exposure to sudden changes of temperature than in any other trade. This, no doubt, accounts for so many blacksmiths suffering with headache and kidney disease.

"I was troubled a great deal with my kidneys and the bending over my work so much caused great suffering from backache. I found Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills the best treatment I could secure for this trouble. They act directly and promptly and I would not think of using any other medicine."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills succeed where ordinary kidney medicines fail, because of their direct and combined action on the liver and kidneys. This has been proven in thousands of cases of serious and complicated diseases of the kidneys. One pill a dose. 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

LIVER Disorders

Are you subject to liver disorders? Do you have frequent feelings of sickness, dull headache, or sudden fits of dizziness? Do you feel that you have no energy; are just miserable and dejected? Have you a bad taste in your mouth, is your skin tinged with yellow, or have you constipation?

If you have any of the above symptoms depend upon it your liver is not working properly. The liver is the largest and most important gland in the body and once it becomes deranged it deranges the digestion, destroys the appetite, causes headache; and, in short, deranges the whole system. Bileans operate on the liver and stomach direct, and thus cure all the ailments arising out of liver disorder. The action of Bileans is mild yet effective; and even in cases of liver disorder of long standing they do not fail. The following case illustrates this:

Bileans cured when all else failed.

MR. FRANK O'NEILL, of 722 Dufferin Street, Toronto, says:—"I wish to express my appreciation of what Bileans for Biliousness have done for me. I had been troubled since June, 1905, with biliousness, wind, feelings of fulness, and a dull miserable feeling. I had headache and constipation, and was altogether run down and out of order. All the remedies I tried failed to do me any good. I tried your Bileans and I am pleased to say they succeeded where other things had failed. They have made me well again. In gratitude for my cure I give you my full permission to use this information as you may think proper.

If anybody is desirous of really knowing how wonderfully these Bileans do act, let them write to me. I will be pleased to give them the benefit of my experience."

Bileans for Biliousness Cure

Headache, Constipation, Piles, Pimples, Bad Blood, Debility, Lassitude, That Tired Feeling, Liver Troubles, Bad Breath, Indigestion, Palpitation, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Dizziness, Nervousness, Anæmia, and all Female Ailments.

THE WEST'S NEED OF SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Perhaps the only profession in the three Prairie Provinces that is not already crowded to-day is that which is ever the most essential in a new country—that of teaching; though the inducements, while not large, are far better than are held up to teachers in Eastern Canada. In order to supply teachers for the new rural schools, which are every week being organized in Alberta and Saskatchewan, the Education Departments at Edmonton and Regina are finding it necessary to grant permits to young men and women who have no certificates, but who have received a fairly good education. The school districts have been formed and the trustees have everything ready to open the schools, so there is no alternative but to allow unskilled persons permission to teach for a limited period, after which they must take advantage of the Normal schools to have their permits extended.

The natural cause of the scarcity of teachers is, of course, the smallness of the salaries paid; but when compared with the remuneration received by teachers in the Eastern Provinces, the comparison is greatly in favour of the West. The average salary of teachers in the three Prairie Provinces is $50 per month, which is far above that of any other Province to the East. In addition to the large pay, which, however, is not yet up to a proper standard, there are other inducements to be considered by the young men and women of the East. The average time during which the teachers remain in the schools in the West is not more than three years, for they have an unrivalled opportunity to study the conditions of the country, and soon find other lines of business which they may enter and receive better returns. A large number of the male teachers take to farming, and, while "proving up" on a homestead, they conduct the nearest school and derive a double revenue; and it has been observed that the teachers who turn to farming have, as a rule, had success. The majority have been reared in rural communities and have become accustomed to the different agricultural operations; and this knowledge they turn to good account on their homesteads.

In addition to farming, many male teachers have entered the legal profession, or commercial life, and have found that the West has offered the best opening for them in every case. The opportunity which teaching had afforded them to become conversant with the conditions also contributed to raise them in the esteem of the people, and thus opened the way to the taking part in the direction of municipal, and later on, of wider than municipal, public affairs, for those that are capable and ambitious in that direction. Throughout nearly every town and city in the West the one-time teacher is found occupying high positions; and in the Houses of Parliament, both Provincial and Federal, he has found his place. When all these inducements are considered by the teachers who are working in the Eastern schools, in return for a mere pittance, and they realize that they are very much needed in the West, they will begin to follow the beckoning hand to the land of promise, and in leaving their over-crowded profession in the East, not only better their own conditions, but also greatly improve the conditions of those who remain in the older Canada.—Manitoba Free Press.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is said the Sheriff of Ontario county is to be removed from office because at one of the meetings held in the county by Mr. Whitney, he made an irreverent interjection of the word "Rats!" when the leader of the Opposition was speaking. This, remarks the Brantford Expositor, must have been the occasion on which Mr. Whitney declared that if returned to power he would do away with the taxation of corporations.

Canada is entering another field of achievement in the Mother Land, and is ambitious to score recognition in a more æsthetic field than cheese or wheat. Dr. Charles E. Harris, of Montreal, is to present a musical composition named "Pan," composed by himself, in London, in the near future. He has secured a strong London chorus, and has also secured the services of a young Canadian singer, who has entered upon a career of singular success in the capital of the Empire.

There's a great opening in the west of Canada for the Ontario "schoolmarm." There exists a great scarcity of teachers. The growth of the young idea is greater than the teachers of how to make it shoot. The old injunction of "Go west, young man," should be varied to "Go west, young woman." The enterprising young damsel, with a pedagogic equipment, has a double chance in the Northwest — to get a school, as a teacher, and to get a husband, the latter, perhaps, a comparatively trifling matter, but something not entirely despised by the average girl. She will thus likely have two strings to her bow, and more than likely two beaux—on the string.

Reading, writing and spelling, we say it regretfully—are no longer thoroughly taught in the Public Schools, laments The Philadelphia Record. The trustees of Copper Union, in New York, declare that the young men and women who come to them for instructions in telegraphy, stenography and typewriting, though of good ability and general information, are lamentably deficient in the fundamentals of the English language. They especially cannot spell. Out of thirty or forty words in ordinary use, sometimes one-half or even two-thirds are misspelled. "This experience of the trustees nearly every newspaper publisher will stand ready to avouch from sore experience," adds The Record. "The common schools no longer teach the common rudiments." Similar complaints have been heard regarding our own schools, but they have been much exaggerated.

It is doubtful if this wholesale creation of jobs for his friends is going to strengthen Mr. Whitney. Already, says The Hamilton Times, dissatisfaction is being expressed at some of the appointments, notably that of Andrew Ingram to the Railway Board. It is asserted that Ingram deserted the Premier when he was in the cold shades of Opposition, leaving the Local for the Dominion political arena, and that he should not have been rewarded for this, while those who stuck to the Premier through thick and thin were overlooked. Mr. Kittson's appointment is also looked coldly upon. He is not known in political circles outside of Hamilton, and it is urged that the plum he has got should have gone to some man who has at least a Provincial reputation as a party worker. There would have been less objection to the appointment of Mr. Carscallen, but then, you know, Mr. Whitney could not afford to take the risks in connection with his appointment.

Schedule Of Teachers' Salaries Is Revised

Increases Amount From $25 to $80 Per Annum--Supervision Committee's Report Was Adopted at Last Night's Meeting--Changes Throughout the Whole School.

The salaries of the teachers of the Public Schools and Collegiate Institute staffs in the city will be raised by from $25 to $80 per annum, according to the report of the Supervision Committee, which was adopted at last night's meeting of the Board of Education. This step has been contemplated for some time, and the teachers of the city have long been agitating for better things in the salary line.

Mr. Pringle, chairman of the Supervision Committee, presented the report as follows:

Gentlemen,—Your Supervision Committee, to whom the question of teachers' salaries was referred, beg leave to report as follows:

That after making inquiries as to the salaries paid to teachers in other like centres, and taking into account the increased cost of living, and the comparison of the salaries paid in other professions of much less importance and responsibility, we are convinced that considerable increase must be made in the salaries now paid our teachers if we are to secure efficient service and maintain our schools at that high standard which the public have a right to demand. Your committee, therefore, recommends that the present salary schedule for the Public Schools be rescinded, and the following substituted therefor:

6 PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Teacher	Necessary Certificate	Min.	Max.	Increase
Male Principals 8 Rooms and over	Must have at least 1st Class Prof.	$900	$1200	$50 per an
Other Male Principals	Must have 1st Class Prof.	$750	$ 900	$30 per an
Male Assistants	1st Class Prof.	$650	$ 850	$40 per an
	1st Class non-Prof.	$650	$ 825	$25 per an
	2nd Prof.	$650	$ 800	$30 per an
Lady Assistants	1st Class Prof.	$375	$ 450	$25 per an
	1st Class non-Prof.	$375	$ 425	$20 per an
	2nd Prof.	$375	$ 400	$25 per an
Kind'gart'n Directors	Directors	$375	$ 400	$25 per an
Kind'gart'n Assistants	Holding Director's Certificate	$325 ($200 (Half Day)	$325	No increase No increase

We further recommend:—1—That only male teachers shall be engaged as principals, and that, in future, no teacher, other than those now engaged as principals, shall be appointed to the position of principal in any school unless he is the holder of a first-class professional certificate, at least.

2—That in the appointment of assistants, no applicant shall be considered who does not hold at least a second-class professional certificate, and that preference shall be given in such appointments to holders of first-class professional certificates.

3—That the present principals of the two Central schools, if re-engaged, shall continue at their present salaries until qualified under the requirements of the schedule herein proposed.

4—That in the event of their re-engagement, the present principals of schools, other than the Centrals, not holding first-class professional certificates, shall, after the 1st of September, 1906, receive the salaries and increases assigned in the schedule to male assistants with first-class professional certificates.

5—That the other male teachers now engaged, if re-engaged, shall receive for the years 1906 and 1907 a salary of $700 if at present in receipt of a salary less than that sum.

6—That all lady teachers shall receive at least the minimum salary but those now engaged, if at present receiving a salary less than $400, but greater than $375, shall, if re-engaged, receive for the year 1906-07 a salary of $400, if holding a second-class professional certificate, and $410 if holding a first-class professional certificate.

7—That all other teachers for 1906-07 shall receive the increases to which they would be entitled under the schedule herein.

8—That no increase shall be given to any teacher reported by the inspector as inefficient, and the case of any teacher so reported shall be carefully considered by the Board before such teacher can be re-engaged.

9—That all increases shall date one year from the 1st of September next, after the date on which the teacher has been re-engaged.

B. Collegiate Institute.

We further recommend that the schedule at present regulating salaries of the Collegiate Institute staff be rescinded, and the following substituted therefor:

Teacher	Dept.	Min.	Max.	Increase
Principal	Specialist & Univ. Honour Graduate	$1600	$2000	$80 per an
Heads of Depts.	Specialist & Univ. Honour Graduate	$1100	$1400	$20 per an
Head of Dept.	Specialist and Graduate	$1000	$1200	$10 per an

That no teacher receive less than the minimum.

That in the case of those teachers who have already reached the present maximum, they shall receive the increase for 1906-07 as provided by this schedule.

That all increases for new teachers shall date one year from the 1st of September next, after the date on which the teacher is engaged.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. PRINGLE,
Chairman Super. Committee.

The report was adopted after some general discussion on several clauses. Mr. Pringle explained that it would take six years under the new rate before a teacher would reach the maximum salary proposed. The increase in the Public Schools for the first year would amount to $250.

How Canadian Capital Goes To The States

Another Prosperous Company in Which Canadian Capital is Interested.

Among the companies recently formed, in which Canadian capital is a prominent factor, is the Tri-City Railway & Light Co., which is a consolidation of the Street Railway, Electric Lighting and Gas Companies in the cities of Davenport, Iowa; Moline, East Moline and Rock Island, Illinois.

This company controls all the business in these three public utilities in the cities above mentioned.

These properties have been operated inndipendently for years, and have shown handsome earnings. Under the consolidation great saving will be effected in management and operation. The earnings will also be greatly increased by proper development and extension. Not only will economies be effected by unification of the plants, but about $75,000 will be saved annually by the use of water power, for which a twenty-five year contract has just been closed.

These four cities form practically one unbroken line for fourteen miles. Their growth has been rapid, but handsome, the population numbering some 100,000. Situated in the very heart of one of the finest agricultural sections in the United States, they are also the centre for some very large manufacturing industries, such plants being located there as the Moline Plow Works, the John Deere Plow Co., Moline Wagon Works, Velie Carriage Co., and the United States Arsenal on Rock Island.

At the present time the earnings are sufficient to pay the preferred dividends twice over, and Messrs. J. G. White & Co., the well-known engineers, estimate that on the completion of the contemplated improvements, and with the economies resulting from unified management, the earnings will show handsome return upon the common stock.

Applications will shortly be made to list this country on the Toronto, Montreal and New York Stock Exchanges, and it will become one of the active issues.

The dividends are payable quarterly at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum.

COLE BROTHERS PLACED BIG ORDER FOR CALCUTT LAGER

Calcutt's lager is rapidly making a name for itself, and for the manufacturers. An evidence of this fact is furnished by the action of Messrs. Cole Brothers, the proprietors of the big United Shows, which were here on Friday. While in the city the proprietors purchased 100 dozen bottles of this firm's lager to take with them. They stated that the lager made at this brewery was superior to any they had tasted in Canada, and equal to any brewed in the United States.

WEDDING BELLS

JONES—O'DETTE.

This morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, at 8 o'clock, a very pretty wedding took place, when, in the presence of a large number of the friends of the bride and groom, both of whom are very popular, Miss Katie O'Dette, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. O'Dette, 25 Crescent street and Mr. Jack Jones, also of the city, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Father McColl. As the bridal party entered the church the wedding march was played by Miss Doherty. The bride, who was attended as bridesmaid by her sister, Margaret, was very becomingly dressed in a pretty gown of white muslin de 'esprit, over taffeta. She wore the conventional veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried an enamelled prayer book, the gift of her brother, Mr. Vernon O'Dette, of Montreal, and a morther-of-pearl string of beads, while the bridesmaid looked very pretty in a dress of white muslin, over pink taffeta. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations, tied with white ribbon. The groomsman was Mr. Wm. Collins, of the city.

After the wedding ceremony the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's parents, 25 Crescent street, where a wedding breakfast was partaken of, about thirty-five invited guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left this afternoon on the 5.15 C.P.R. express for the west, and will spend their honeymoon visiting in Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo. The bride's going away gown was of dark green broadcloth, with hat to match.

The bride who is a very popular young lady was the recepient of a large number of presents, which bore testimony to the esteem in which her friends in the city and elsewhere hold her. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. Vernon O'Dette, of Montreal, brother of the bride, and Miss Nellie O'Donnell, of Toronto, the bride's cousin.

Upon their return from their trip Mr. and Mrs. Jones will reside at 25 Crescent street.

LEE—RICHARDSON.

This afternoon at Flesherton, Ont., an interesting wedding ceremony took place, when Miss Ada Richardson of thatt town, was married to Mr. Hammond Lee, of the office staf o the Canadian Machine Telephone Co., of this city.

The wedding which took place at the residence of the bride's parents, was attended by a large number of guests. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Lee left on their trip to Toledo, Buffalo and Rochester, and upon their return will reside in this city.

Mr. Lee met his bride while working for the Machine Telephone Co., in Toronto, about two years ago.

McCARTNEY—DOYLE.

At Campbellford this afternoon, at one o'clock, a wedding of much interest to Peterborough residents took place. Both the bride and groom are well known in the city, and are very popular.

The principals in this interesting event are Mr. George S. McCartney of Peterborough, and Leona Doyle, four daughter of Mr. John Adams, Ranney street, Campbellford, at whose residence the wedding took place, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. C. Reeves, B. A, the pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride is a graduate nurse of the Nicholls Hospital here, and is widely known. Mr. McCartney is also well known here. He has been on the staff of the Golden Lion for the last seven years, and upon the eve of his wedding he was presented by the members of that staff with a handsome marble clock, as an evidence of their esteem.

Upon their return from their trrip Mr. and Mrs. McCartney will reside at 346 Dublin street.

BROWNLEE—WARBOY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. John's church this morning at seven o'clock in which the principals were Miss Martha Warboy and Mr. Jas. Brownlee. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Davidson, in the presence of about 25 guests. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Annie Warboy, and the groom by his brother, Mr. William Brownlee.

The bride was attired in her travelling suit of gray ladies' cloth, and white picture hat, and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid wore silk muslin and a white hat trimmed with pink roses.

After the ceremony was performed the party repaired to the home of the bride's mother, 507 Aylmer street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served on a table prettily decorated with pink carnations.

A large display of beautiful and useful gifts to the bride and groom testified to their popularity among their friends.

Mr and Mrs. Brownlee left on the 8.05 C. P. R. train for Toronto and Owen Sound, and on their return, in about a week's time will reside on Chamberlain street.

South Ward School Will Be Built Upon Sand

Excavation of Foundation Reveals Quicksand at Depth of Four Feet—Change in Specifications Will be Necessary.

The School Board, according to the contention of the Examiner, and the consensus of public opinion, have figuratively placed themselves "in a hole," in regard to their dealing with the South Ward school question, and they are now not only "in a hole," but in a quicksand hole at that.

The Examiner prayed and besought the Board to refrain from selecting the hole-and-corner site they did select. The undesirability of the site, due to its inaccessibility, and other conditions, were fully set forth, and the arguments used by the Examiner have been unexpectedly, and regrettably, strengthened.

The workmen engaged in the excavation for the foundation have struck an obstacle, which it may take a lot of engineering ingenuity to overcome.

At the depth of four feet a bog of quicksand has been encountered. A rumour to this effect was current, and a reporter of the Examiner was detailed to investigate. In so doing, he saw and learned on excellent authority that the whole area of the excavation corresponding to the size of the school, is a quaking, shifting, unsteady and unstable bed of quicksand, the worst possible problem to encounter in securing a good foundation.

It stands to reason, and it is stated on expert authority, that a stable and reliable foundation can't be got without covering almost the whole surface with an immense bed of concrete. Whether or not this is true, it is certain that the expense will be greatly added to, and that to the cost of $35,000 for site and building, will have to be added $10,000 for opening up Aylmer street, and a sum of unknown, but certainly of formidable size, to secure a good foundation.

The wisdom of the School Board in building upon the sand suggests a Scripture parable. The Board was so intent in taking their headstrong course without reference to the people that they did not take the nautious steps that would suggest themselves to the business mind. Before selecting the present site, borings should have been made to test the quality of subsoil. This simple and generally employed precaution would have shown the unsuitability of the site and saved a large expense.

It is deplorable that this condition has been met. The site of the school is fixed, the contract let and any changes from the original specifications will have to be paid for. It was enough for the ratepayers to put up $15,000 for an unnecessarily large building in an out of the way site, and to spend $9,000 to get at it without plunging them into a quagmire of quicksand at a large extra cost.

The School Board is not, of course, to blame for the geological freak that floored the out-of-the-way site of the school with quicksand, but they were warned that they were making a mistake in selecting a site, and if they had listened to reason, if they had deferred to the known wishes of the people, they would have avoided the dilemma in which they are placed now.

The encountering of quick sand in the foundation of the South Ward School is an unfortunate affair, which would have been avoided by the selection of a more central and suitable site—not more suitable site, for without the quicksand the site is in every other way unsuitable.

Now however, the best will have to be made of the situation.

WEDDING BELLS

ORR—ROBERTSON.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon a pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. John Robertson, 106 Bonacord street, at which his daughter, Miss Ethel Isabella, was united in marriage to Mr. John Orr, of Vancouver, B.C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. G. Potter, in the presence of a large number of friends. The bride was dressed in chiffon taffeta and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Ethel Tully, and was dressed in silk eolienne, and carried pink roses. Miss Florence Robertson, the little sister of the bride, dressed in a pretty costume of pale blue silk, was the flower girl, and carried a basket of roses. Mr. Robert Robertson, brother of the bride, assisted the groom. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a dainty dinner spread on tables artistically decorated with carnations.

The gifts to the bride and groom were many, and were both useful and beautiful. The groom's gift to the flower girl was a handsome ring.

Mr. and Mrs. Orr left on the 5.15 C.P.R. train for Toronto, Niagara Falls and the Thousand Islands. The bride's travelling costume was of blue lady's cloth with hat to match. On their return to Peterborough they will spend a few days visiting the bride's parents, after which they will go to Vancouver to reside.

The Committee of the Whole Council will meet to-night in the City Clerk's office, when the question of the grant to be made to the Peterborough Industrial Fair, will be considered.

City of Peterboro' Was Reported Sold

To the Street Railway Co. for Excursion Purposes.

There was a report on the street to-day to the effect that the Calcutt steamer, the City of Peterborough, had been purchased by the Peterborough Radial Railway Company. It was said that the intention was to use the boat for excursion purposes, to be run in connection with the company's car system. The Examiner endeavoured without success to-day to get a confirmation of this report from the interested parties.

HORSES ON THE MARCH TO APSLEY

Yesterday evening a procession of horses passed from the Dickson Company's farm, east city, on their way to the ranch near Apsley, where they will spend the summer. There were 21 altogether, marching in single file attached by a rope stretching from one to the other. A black equine was alongside as sargeant of the company.

Both will be found regularly at their chairs to save waiting. The new firm will also handle highest grade cigars, cigarettes, and tobaccos. 5d136

COMPANY DRILL THIS EVENING

The weekly drill of the 57th Regiment will be held to-night, when it is desirable that there should be a large attendance, as the new issue of trousers will be given out. The Difference Between Expert and Unskilful Tea Blending

THE qualities of different teas prove that there is a distinct difference between expert Red Rose blending methods and the usual methods.

Several kinds of teas may be blended, but if unskilfully selected they will not combine to make a perfect blend; they will retain their original individual characteristics with their roughness and harshness emphasized.

Such tea is bitter, poorly flavored in the cup (and there is much of it in bulk and package form on the market). It emphasizes the result of inexperience, lack of knowledge of combining qualities of different teas, imperfect blending, poor selection, and the hundred and one other causes of poor tea.

But my expert Red Rose blenders select the right grades of strong, rich Indian teas and delicate fragrant Ceylon teas, and produce Red Rose Tea with entirely new characteristics—a tea with that "rich fruity flavor"—a tea so exquisitely different and better than any brand of Ceylon alone, that no one who once tries it ever goes back to Ceylon again.

Charlotte Street Have Lead Of Two Runs Over George St.

Last Night's Game Resulted in a Defeat for George Street--Errors Were Plentiful and the Game Was a Ragged Exhibition of Baseball.

In the first half of the game last night the Charlotte Street team defeated George Street by 6 runs to 4. The game, which lasted three innings, was a ragged exhibition, errors being much more common than hits. Roddy and Parnell each were touched up for four singles and with good upport the struggle might have been an interesting one. A fair sized crowd was present.

George Street got two in the first on errors by Pilling. Dusty and Heaslip and Weatherston's single. Two hits by Lang and Squires and errors by Pedlar and Kendry netted two for Charlotte Street. The George Street team did not score in the second while their fellow Methodists got one on a charity and Pilling's hit.

George Street rounded up two more in the last period on hits by Shaw and Curtis and several errors. Shaw's daring base-running at this stage was one of the features of the game. A bunch of errors gave Charlotte Street three runs on a single hit, winning the game for them.

Following is the score by innings:—

SHEA MADE GOOD IN BRANTFORD

The Brantford Expositor, referring to the work of "Dubbie" Shea, in that city on Saturday when he played with the Dufferin team in the City League, says:—"Further than that, they had a new catcher on, to take the place of Thomas, who had "skidoosed." The new man's name was Shea, from Peterborough, and he certainly knew how to play the position. His splendid work around the plate cut the losers off from a couple of badly-needed runs. Shea also pounded out two nice hits on his first appearance at bat."

Jackson Park is not the only place in the city in which policemen's services are required. I live on the east side of the Otonabee, and can inform the Police Commissioners that if they are anxious to keep good order in the city they should arrange for some police protection for this section of the city.

All they have to do is to take a trip across the river some night and they would find that there are young hoodlums who disturb the peace of respectable residents.

They Had to Pay For The Trouble

Displayed Pugilistic Propensities in Public Place.

George Gauthier and Michael Murphy, found their row at the C. P. R. Hotel, on June 8th, a little expensive. At the police court this morning, the former was instructed by the Magistrate to pay within ten days $2 and $4.75 costs for his "time," and the latter $2 and $2.75. They were given ten days in which to gather in the money.

Jap. Allen, former proprietor of the C. P. R. Hotel, told about the two men fighting, the row commencing in the hotel. He started Murphy homeward, but the men commenced to quarrel again in front of the barber shop next the hotel. He saw Murphy knocked down, and to use his expression, "me was bleeding like a pig." Allen said he must have bled a quart or more. A bad cut on Murphy's lip seemed to bear out the truth of this assertion. Mr. Finnis, the night watchman, was coming up the south side of Simcoe street on the night of the row, and heard loud talk. He went across and advised Gauthier to go home. The latter was about to go home, when Murphy called him a name that to say the least of it is not flattering. Then Gauthier struck him real hard. Murphy went down and out and bled profusely.

John Pogue said Murphy called Gauthier a fight-provoking name, and Gauthier retaliated with a jab to the mouth.

James LeBar saw Gauthier hit Murphy, and Antonio Patoine knew very little about the trouble. According to the evidence Murphy was very drunk and Gauthier appeared to be sober, so the latter was assessed the larger amount.

Capacity Of West Ward School To Be Doubled

Board of Education Consider the Advisability of the Step--Property Committee Will Enquire into the Cost and Report at a Special Meeting--$600 Per Year for Menzies' School.

The Board of Education at last night's meeting, discussed the question of improvements to the West Ward school, and as a result, steps were taken to ascertain the cost of building a four-room addition to the rear of the present building. This plan, which was proposed by Mr. Hill last night, seems to have met with general favour by the Board, who regard it as the most economical step to be taken. The cost, according to Mr. Hill, amount of $8000 or $10,000, which included modern heating and plumbing.

The following report was read by Mr. Crane, chairman of the Property Committee. Clause A was adopted without discussion:

Gentlemen, — The Property Committee beg leave to report and recommend the following repairs to the schools:

A.—Central.—Painting woodwork and interior, one coating throughout; new hardwood floor in Miss Peters' room; new desks in Miss Peters' room and Miss Nicholls' room; paint lavatories throughout; two small stoves in Miss Carey's room and the Kindergarten; repairs to the walks and steps.

Collegiate Institute. — Painting of labratory; repairs to ceiling in north-west corner room; painting of lavatories and walls of basement to be white-washed; new wooden walk on the west side front of the building; sundry repairs to furnace and pipes, and also to the stairs and walks. We also recommend that tenders be asked for the removal of the old sheds at the rear of the Central School.

North Ward. — Number of small repairs of a general character.

South Central. — Repairs to entrance steps and walks of a general character.

East Ward. Sundry small repairs of a general character.

B. — We recommend that this building be heated and ventilated; that a cellar be excavated, and sanitary plumbing put in; that an annex be built to the west side to give access to the ground floor and to basement.

George street. — The committee beg to report, that Mr. W. Langford has offered to lease the school to the Board on a four years' term, dating from the 1st of May, at $600 per annum.

The committee would ask for permission to receive tenders and to make arrangements for the supply of coal for next season.

The racks for rifles at the Institute have been received.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN CRANE,
Chairman Property Committee.

Mr. Hill brought up the question of enlarging the West Ward school, instead of paying $600 a year for the Menzies property. He said that a four room addition could be made to the rear of the present building at a cost of from $8000 to $10,000, which he considered the most economical step that could be taken by the Board. The people in the west end wanted more accommodation, which would be given them by the modernizing of the school. He strongly supported the advisability of such a step, and moved that the Property Committee be asked to take steps to ascertain the cost of modernizing the West Ward school, and of adding four rooms to it as early as possible.

Mr. Dumble, in seconding the resolution, agreed with Mr. Hill that it was the most economical plan that could be advocated. The motion was carried.

A meeting of the Board will be held on Monday night next, at which this question will come up, and the Property Committee will report the result of their labours.

Some Leading Questions About Separate School

Mr. Dumble Said That it Was Stated That Members of the Board Had Egged on Mr. Eastwood--Some of the Members Denied That They Had Done So--Others Were Silent.

The Murray street Separate school building is now a thing of the past, but the incidents connected with its dismantling are still fresh in the memories of the School Board, as was shown at their meeting last night.

A communication was received from Mr. Eastwood, quartermaster of the 57th Regiment, notifying the Board that the expenses of the Regiment in connection with the tearing down of the school, was $135 and asking that the Board make good that amount.

This led to a somewhat animated discussion, in which Mr. Dumble asked some leading questions, which the members of the Board undertook to answer, and, as a result, a kind of testimony meeting was held.

It was moved by Mr. Hayes, seconded by Dr. Burnham, that the communication be referred to the Property Committee, with power to act.

Mr. Dumble moved in amendment, that the communication be received. He said that if the Board admitted that the claim was legal they would be admitting that no wrong was done; they would be making themselves confederates in the crime, in his opinion. No court in the land would give judgment on such a claim. Mr. Dumble said that it was stated that Mr. Eastwood had been egged on by members of the Board, and that the military officers had said that they had been encouraged by the Board, "I can hardly conceive such double dealing," said Mr Dumble, and he went on to say that the charge had not been denied.

Dr. Burnham said that as far as he was concerned he had never egged Mr. Eastwood on.

Dr. Morrison said that as soon as he had heard that the school was being torn down, he had asked Mr. Eastwood why he had not acquainted the Board of his intention, and had been told that he wanted to keep the Board out of trouble. He thought that a sufficient answer to Mr. Dumble's accusation.

Mr. Hill said that as far as he was concerned he had not spoken to Mr. Eastwood about tearing down the school. Later in the meeting he stated that he had conversed with Mr. Eastwood four days after the work had commenced.

Mr. Fair said that he had never made a request that the building should be torn down. Colonel Miller had told him that members of the Board had expressed their wishes to him (Colonel Miller) that the school should be taken down.

Mr. Dumble said that Mr. R. F. McWilliams had stated that seven members of the Board were in favour of tearning down the building.

Mr. Ackarman stated that Col. Miller had told him that all but three members of the Board had informed him that they wanted the building out of the way.

There was no seconder to Mr. Dumble's amendment and the original motion carried. The clause "with power to act" was taken out and the committee will report to the Board.

Armoury Plans Approved Of By Officers of Regiment

Were Discussed Last Night After Weekly Drill—Government Granted Larger Area Than That Asked For—Building Will be Modern in Every Respect—Plans Returned To-day to Cause no Delay—Will be a Magnificent Building.

The plans for the new Armouries for the 57th Regiment, prepared by Chief Architect Ewart, of Ottawa, were submitted to the officers last night after the regular drill, and were discussed at length and unanimously approved of. The plans were returned to-day so that no delay will be caused in allowing the Government, in whose hands the whole affair now rests, to begin their work as soon as possible.

The Armouries will be a magnificent building of brick and stone, costing, it is said, at least $125,000. The front of the structure will face Murray street, to the west of the present drill hall. It will be 254 feet 6 inches in length, and 170 feet in width, covering considerably more than half an acre.

The plans consist of three portions, the first representing the basement; the second, the ground floor; and the third, the officers' rooms, etc.

Basement.

On the south side of the basement a lavatory, the bowling and shooting alleys will be situated. The remainder of the ground will not be excavated.

The Ground Floor.

On the northeast corner of the ground floor the cavalry armouries will be located, and on the northwest corner the wagon shed. The gun shed will be situated on the west side, and the artillery stores and battery harness room on the southwest corner. The ground floor on the front of the building will contain the armouries for the several companies and the signal corps. In the southwest corner the plans show the infantry staff rooms. The infantry mobilization storerooms, a lavatory, and cavalry mobilization rooms, together with an entrance, will form the eastern side of the ground floor.

Upper Story.

The north-west corner of the upper portion of the hall will be utilized for the Band and Bugle rooms. The mens' recreation rooms will be placed on the south-west corner and the officers' mess rooms on the south-east corner. A large lecture room will be placed on the east side of the upper storey and on the north-east corner the Sergeants' Room and mess room and also the apartments of the caretaker.

The spacious drill hall itself is 176 feet by 80 feet, or equal to 14,080 square feet. This will easily be large enough to accommodate all of Peterborough's red-coated warriors.

The total superficial area asked for by the authorities here was 29,835 square feet but the area granted by the Militia Department as shown by the plans is 29,883 square feet.

The following table shows the dimensions of each of the apartments on the ground floor as indicated by the plans approved of by the Militia Department. They are almost identical with what the Regiment asked for:—

Main hall—80x176.
Gun shed—80x40.
Waggon shed—44x40.
Battery harness room—27—40.
Artillery mob. store room—17x25.
Artillery small store room—13x17.
Artillery, C. O., and orderly—12 ft. 6 in. x 26.
Cavalry armoury—54x25.
Cavalry mob. store room—34x30.
Cavalry orderly room—13x13.
Cavalry C. O. room—13x13.
Eight Infantry armouries, each—26x12 ft. 7 in.
Infantry orderly room—16 ft 6 in. by 13.
Infantry C. O. room—13x13 ft. 6 in.
Infantry Adjutants' room—13x12.
Quarter-Master's room—8x12.
Quarter-Master's stores—14x27.
Infantry mob. stores—19x20.
Signal corps room—26x13 ft. 6 in.
Entrances, stairs and hall—2,103 square feet.
Total area—29,883 square feet.
Total area asked to be provided according to letter April 9th, sent to Militia Department, was 29,835 square feet.

A Handsome Summer House Boat For Lakes

Mr. J. H. McGill, of Washington, D.C., Spending $5000 for a House Boat—A Relative of General Manager of Ontario Bank Building a Summer Residence on Water.

Mr. J. H. McGill, of Washington, D. C., who is related to the general manager of the Ontario Bank, has been in Lindsay since June 1st, superintending the construction by Messrs. Baker and Bryans of a house-boat after a rather novel plan. Mr. McGill has spent his holidays on the Kawartha Lakes for some years past, and his experience has taught him a few things. In making his plans he eschewed the leaky scow for pontoon style and stipulated for a solid timber raft, 20 x 40 feet, and 30 inches thick, made of three tiers of 10 x 10 boom sticks bolted together as traverse layers, of which a ton was required. On this stout foundation, a two storey frame residence is being constructed, which is to be finished in first class style. The floor will be a foot above the raft and in rough weather the waves will sweep underneath the dwelling without meeting with any obstruction. The house boat will be towed from one lake to another by a steamer, and anchored in any desired spot. Mr. McGill has as fine gasoline yacht, which he will use for making excursions, returning to his floating residence when the fancy seizes him. It is said the outfit will represent an outlay of $5,000.—Post.

Brantford After The Machine 'Phone Works

That City Will go After the Factory Which, an Official States, Will Shortly Employ 1000 Hands—Mayor Waterous States He Understands That City is Being Favourably Considered.

The Brantford Expositor has found another location for the factory of the Canadian Machine Telephone Company. In its issue of yesterday it said:—

The Automatic Telephone Company, who are establishing their system in Brantford, have decided to erect a large factory for the manufacture of telephone supplies. The factory will be an important one, and application will be at once made to have it located in Brantford.

At the present time the company have a factory in Toronto where their supplies are turned out, but it is now too small to meet the demand, and a new location is needed. Although it can hardly be said that a definite decision has been reached, it is almost certain that the location sought will be in one of the smaller cities.

One of the officials of the company stated to The Expositor to-day that Brantford would be one of the cities considered. He further stated that in a short time the factory would be large enough to employ 1,000 hands.

Mayor Waterous, when seen with reference to the matter, stated that the city would most assuredly do all in their power to have the factory established in Brantford. The matter had been talked of a great deal in municipal circles, he said, and he had been led to believe that Brantford was being favourably considered.

$175,000 Voted For Canal Construction

That Sum Placed in the Estimates for the Trent Canal This Session—Col. Hughes Opposed to the Item for Improvents to Holland River at Newmarket.

Trent Canal matters were discussed yesterday in the House of Commons, and some estimates for work on the waterway were voted. The Globe, reporting the discussion, says:

On the item of $175,000 for construction work on the Trent Canal, Col. Sam Hughes demanded that the Government come down next session with a vote for several millions to push construction work. Mr. Emmerson replied that he had not received final reports yet.

Col. Hughes moved to strike out the item of $100,000 re-vote for improvements on the east branch of the Holland River to Newmarket, as he said nothing should be done there when nothing was being done on the Trent Canal. Anyway, there was not enough water.

Mr. Kemp said it had been said there was not enough water in that river for boys to swim in without building a dam.

Mr. Emmerson said the improvements would be of great value to Newmarket. The total estimated cost was $291,000, and the canal would extend from Cook's Bay to Newmarket, 10 miles, and would afford six feet of navigation.

The motion to strike out was lost, and the remainder of the canal items passed the House.

Crossman's

Boy Mangled By Bulldog

Thought He Was Defending Master's Children.

A St. John, N. B., despatch says: Seven-year-old Roy Campbell of Carleton, was nearly torn to pieces on Wednesday, acting in imagined defence of his owner's children. The lad was playing with the five and three-year-old children of David Robb, when Robb's dog leaped upon him, dragged him downstairs to the woodshed, and was mauling him there, when a man, attracted by his screams, appeared. With difficulty he beat the dog off and was carrying the horribly mutilated child upstairs, when the infuriated animal again seized him and tore him from the rescuer's arms. When finally rescued the child had one cheek bitten off and the muscles of his arms and legs torn to shreds. The dog then leaped twenty feet down from a wharf and hid in a coal barge, where he was later found and killed.

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

Ennismore's Annual Pic-nic A Success

A Delightful Gathering Held Yesterday at Tara Grove—One of the Largest Crowds in History of This Interesting Annual Event—Attendance Was Up to the 1000 Mark—Many Bright Speeches Given—A Number of Clergy Present.

The good people of Ennismore never do things by halves, and this refers to their annual picnic as well as to anything else. Yesterday this event, which comes but once a year, and which is regularly looked forward to from one year to the other, was held at the beautiful Tara Grove, and to say that it was a success is putting it very mildly indeed. It was in every respect all and more than could be expected. This was the unanimous verdict of all who participated in it, and there were fully 1,000 there—visitors from the neighbouring parishes of Emily and Young's Point, and from this city, thronged the grounds and delighted the hearts of Rev. Father Fitzpatrick and his enthusiastic and energetic parishioners, who entered heartily into, and ably supported, his efforts to make the event a success, which it most assuredly was.

The weather man and the Rev. Father must be in league, for the weather conditions are always favourable for the Ennismore picnic, and his good fortune in this respect is recognized to such an extent that Ald. Elliott, in his speech yesterday, suggested that the directors of the Peterbrough Industrial Fair should ask the popular parish priest of Ennismore to select the dates for their fall fair in order to assure good weather.

Favourable weather conditions, however, were not the only circumstances conducive to a successful picnic. The ladies and gentlemen in charge of the affair exerted every effort to provide an enjoyable day for those who favoured the picnic with their presence—and that they succeeded was evidenced by the bright smiles and merry laughter of the visitors.

Tara Grove has probably never contained such a large number of persons at one time as it did yesterday afternoon, an evidence of the growing popularity of Rev. Father Fitzpatrick's picnic, the fame of which has spread until now it is the ambition of many persons, both in the city and in other parts of the county, to attend this pleasing event.

The clergy was well represented, among those present being Rev. Father McGuire, Downeyville; Rev. Father Kelly, Douro; Rev. Father Phelan, Young's Point; Rev. Father Scanlon, Grafton; Rev. Father O'Leary, Galway; Rev. Father Gilvin, Rev. Dr. O'Brien and Rev. Father McColl, of St. Peter's, Peterborough. They mingled freely with the people and assisted the parish priest in entertaining the visitors. Rev. Father McGuire, from the neighbouring parish of Emily, came over early in the morning and rendered valuable assistance during the entire day.

The ladies of Ennismore are famous for their superior practice of the household arts, and one is always sure at the Ennismore picnic of enjoying a good dinner. This has been true in the past, and it was doubly true yesterday. This important part of the function is never neglected, and the ladies take a commendable pride in their ability to anticipate and successfully supply the wants of the many hundreds who visit the parish once a year. For this purpose the parish was divided into three sections, each of which divisions were responsible for one of the large tables, and they provided most bountifully for the wants of the visitors. So bountifully, in fact, that there was enough and to spare in spite of the fact that there was a larger attendance than was anticipated.

In addition to the regular tables at which the meals were supplied, booths had been erected, and from these, lighter forms of refreshments were served. These were in charge of Mr. P. Scollard, Miss Lottie Scollard and Miss Kate Mahoney, and Mr. J. K. Galvin and Miss Ida Galvin, who were most obliging and who gave good value.

An Ennismore picnic is never complete without its dancing platform—and yesterday's picnic was complete. The platform was there, likewise the music, and during the afternoon and evening the platform was filled almost continuously, the young people evidently enjoying it to the full. The music for the dancing was supplied by Miss Agnes Scollard, Miss Gertie Moloney, Mr. Richard Hickson, Mr. Wm. Hickson and Mr. W. O'Donnell.

Some clever athletes have been developed at the Ennismore picnics, and the sports always form an important feature of the programme. Yesterday was no exception, and great interest was taken in the various sporting events, the prize winners in which will be published later.

REV. FATHER FITZPATRICK, Parish Priest of Ennismore.

The Sports Committee was Messrs. D. Crough, P. Flood, Eugene Murphy and James Mahoney.

The intention was to have had the Quakers' football team of Peterborough play a game with a Bridgenorth, but word was said that they were unable to send the team, and a team was picked up in the township to play with the Bridgenorth team.

The speeches at the Ennismore picnic are always an important feature, and yesterday was no exception A number of bright witty speeches were given. Mr. Wm. Rudkins acted as chairman, and introduced the different speakers in a happy manner.

Mr. Harry Phelan, Ald. Elliott and Mr. Orbis de Laphante each spoke briefly congratulating the people of Ennismore upon their successful picnic. Rev. Father McColl, and Rev. Father McGuire, the latter being introduced as the "Northern Wag," each added their congratulations in short but graceful speeches.

Mr. T. E. Bradburn thought that this was not an occasion for speechmaking, but was glad to meet the people of the parish and to compliment them upon their successful picnic. He referred to the good work which Rev. Father Fitzpatrick had accomplished along educational lines in the parish, and remarked that the new St. Martin's Hall was a great credit to the people of the parish.

Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., was warmly received on rising to speak, and added in a few graceful sentences his hearty congratulations to the Rev. Father upon the great success of his annual picnic. His speech was largely of a patriotic nature, and he referred to the great progress which Canada was making. This country was now riding on the crest of the wave of prosperity, but he believed that still further progress would be made. The trade of Canada by June 30th, 1906, would have reached the $550,000,000 mark. We were following close on the heels of the United States, and he was proud to say that Canada's trade was now much greater than that country when its population was equal to that of Canada at the present time. He referred to the growing prosperity of the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. But while the west was making progress the older provinces of Ontario was not standing still. He quoted some figures to show that Ontario's trade was assuming enormous proportions, the value of cheese and butter exported during last year being one and a half times as great as that of the wheat grown in the Northwest. He looked forward to the time not far distant when Canada would not only be the foremost country on the continent but in the world.

The speechmaking was concluded by Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, who expressed his thanks to all who had taken part in the picnic, and who had in any way contributed to its success. He welcomed the visitors from the other parishes, as well as those from the city. On this occasion they missed the Hon. J. R. Stratton from whom he had received a letter expressing his deep regret at his inability to be present, on account of an important business engagement in Toronto. No one regretted his absence more deeply than the speaker, who referred to the valuable assistance he had rendered the parish in the past. He welcomed Mr. Hall and Mr. Bradburn to the parish. Referring to the work of the T.A.S. in the parish, the Rev. Father said 95 per cent. of the men in the parish were enrolled as members, a fact of which he was very proud.

After the speeches supper was enjoyed and dancing was again renewed.

WHAT WOMEN SUFFER

At All Ages They Need the Rich Red Blood That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make.

A woman needs medicine more than a man. Her organism is more complex, her system more delicate. Her health is disturbed regularly in the course of nature. If anything happens to interfere with that natural course she goes through unspeakable suffering. In fact the health of every function and the health of every moment in a woman's life depend upon the richness and regularity of her blood supply. That is the simple scientific reason why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are worth their weight in gold to women of all ages from early girlhood up—they actually make the rich red blood all women need.

Mrs. Edwin Ward, Brooksdale, Ont., says:—"For years I suffered from those ailments that make the lives of so many of my sex miserable. I would take weak spells and become so nervous that I could not go about. My stomach was out of order, and I frequently vomited the food I took. Headaches and backaches afflicted me nearly all the time. Then I took a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and I went to an hospital for treatment. I had the best of care, but the doctors gave me little hope of recovery. My face and limbs became swollen and my system racked with a harsh dry cough. As the doctors did not look hopefully upon my case I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. By the time I had taken half a dozen boxes there was a great change for the better. I still continued to take the pills until I had used thirteen boxes, and I am now enjoying perfect health. I have no hesitation in saying that I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured Mrs. Ward by actually making the new blood her system needed. That is all Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do, but they do it well. They don't act on the bowels. They don't bother with mere symptoms. They go straight to the root of the trouble in the blood. That is why they cure all blood and nerve troubles like anaemia, female irregularities, indigestion, rheumatism, headaches and backaches, sciatica, nervous prostration and St. Vitus' dance. Substitutes and imitations won't cure, purging medicines only make you worse, therefore you must get the genuine pills with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Barbers Will Have Weekly Holiday

Thursday Afternoons Off During July and August.

The journeymen barbers of the city are agitating for a weekly half holiday during July and August and it is very probable that they will achieve their object. The intention is to have Thursday afternoon off. This does not necessarily mean that all barber shops will be close on Thursdays, but that the journeymen will have a holiday. The idea seems to be a good one and will likely be carried out.

MRS. LUKE MORRIS, GIVEN UP TO DIE. HAD SEVEN DOCTORS. PE-RU-NA SAVED HER.

Mrs. Luke A. Morris, Jacksonville, Fla., writes:

"Peruna has done me more good than any other medicine I have ever taken, and that is saying a good deal, as I have had seven doctors treating me in the past two years.

"I only wish I had begun taking your wonderful medicine some time ago, and I would have saved so many doctor bills.

"I was completely run down, and given up to die, but Peruna braced me up and gave me a good appetite.

"I have taken not quite six bottles of Peruna and would not give it up for all the other medicines in the world.

"I thank you for all the good you have done me. I hope every sick woman who reads my name will give the medicine a trial."

Peterborough Joins In The Invitation To Their Majesties

Resolution Passed by Council Expressing the Hope That King Edward and His Queen May Visit Canada and Include Peterborough Among the Places Honoured.

The City Council at the meeting of the Committee of the Whole last night, dealt with the request from the authorities at Ottawa that they should unite with other municipalities, in inviting Their Most Gracious Majesties King Edward and Queen Alexandra to visit Canada.

The following resolution was moved by Ald. Elliott, seconded by Ald. Hicks, and carried unanimously:

"That the council of the City of Peterborough begs to join in the expression given by the House of Commons and Senate of Canada that His Most Gracious Majesty King Edward and Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, would be graciously pleased to honour the Dominion of Canada with their presence at such time as may be selected by His Majesty, in order that his loyal subjects in this part of the Empire may offer the personal tribute of their unwavering loyalty to the crown and government of the Empire, of their deep affection for His Majesty's person, and of their profound admiration for those kingly virtues and truly humanitarian deeds which have earned for His Majesty first place among the great Sovereigns of the world. We also desire to express the earnest hope that His Majesty will include Peterborough among the places in the Dominion which he will honour with his presence. Nearly fifty years ago when His Majesty, then the Prince of Wales, was in Canada, he honoured the then small town of Peterborough by including it among the places which he visited and the people of this city hope that they will again have the great privilege of unitedly manifesting their devotion and loyalty to his person and crown, by receiving His Majesty in their city."

WILL RADIAL RAILWAY COMPANY HAVE NEW CARS?

It is understood that the Peterborough Radial Railway Company will add a number of new cars to their already efficient service to meet the growing traffic which the railway company is experiencing. Mr. Larmonth, manager of the company, is in Ottawa to-day, and although The Examiner has received no official statement regarding his visit, it is reported that he is conferring to-day with the Ottawa Car Company, from which some of the cars now in service were obtained.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 13th. — To-day's stock market was narrow and strictly professional, being devoid of any interest, with the possible exception of St. Paul's which continued its upward movement. The price movement in general was small and some issues decidedly heavy, among these being the steel stocks and B.R.T.

Sentiment was somewhat affected by the advance in the grain market, and the interests who are bulling wheat have been very free sellers on stocks. These offerings are readily absorbed. London was quite steady, although consols were 3s 9d lower on account of the Irish loan.

Receipts of this year's grain at St. Louis broke the grain market in the afternoon, and stocks rallied. The rally did not hold however, and the market sold off again, closing weak,

CHAS. INNES GATHERED IN

Charles Innes, an English cabinet joiner of 57 summers, was picked up on the street to-day by P. C. Stewart. He was hopelessly drunk when arrested, and when he revived he wanted to get out. "I never was locked up before," he said, "and never did anything to disgrace my countryman." Innes seemed to be at a loss concerning the cause of his incarceration.

At the police court this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Armstrong he was sent to jail for ten days in default of $2.

JAMES WILSON AGAIN LOCKED UP

Jas. Wilson is not a stranger to the police, but nevertheless P. C. Rutherford took him in this morning. The chief observed him supporting a tree near the Ontario Bank, and instructed the officer mentioned above to sally forth and capture him. The charge preferred against Wilson is vagrancy. He has been brought up on this charge before. When arrested he was pretty well under the influence. He was up before the court this afternoon and remanded for 10 days.

How Eczema Is Recognized

HOW IT IS PROMPTLY RELIEVED AND THOROUGHLY CURED BY

Dr. Chase's Ointment

There are many kinds of eczema, but all have such symptoms as redness of the skin, with a yellow tinge, discharge of watery matter and the heat and inflammation, swelling, disformation of a crust.

The most constant and troublesome feature is the itching and burning which varies from that which is simply annoying to that which is positively unendurable.

Then there is the tendency for eczema to become chronic and spread to other parts of the body.

Persistent treatment is always necessary, but you can depend on it that Dr. Chase's Ointment will cure you. Relief will come after the first few applications, and the healing process will be gradual and natural.

It is due to its remarkable record in the cure of eczema that Dr. Chase's Ointment has become known the world over. For every form of itching skin disease or skin irritation it is of incalculable worth.

Mrs. R. Stoddard, Dalhi, Norfolk Co., Ont., writes as follows: "I was troubled with eczema for over twelve years, and doctoring during that time with four different physicians, but found that they could give only temporary relief. I saw Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised, decided to try it, and before I had used half a box found great relief and change. Altogether, I have used three boxes, and am now completely cured. I have recommended it to my neighbours, and can say it is the best I have ever used, and, in my estimation, worth it weight in gold."

Mrs. A. McKnight, Kirkwall, Wellington Co., Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know what Dr. Chase's Ointment has done in a very bad case of eczema on our baby. We had tried any number of cures without any permanent relief, but from the hour we commenced using Dr. Chase's Ointment there was great relief, and the improvement continued until there was complete cure. We think it the greatest of family ointments."

Mothers use Dr. Chase's Ointment for the chafing and skin troubles of their babies in preference to unsanitary pore-clogging powders; 60 cts. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Toronto.

WEDDING BELLS

WALKER—FAINT.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at 7 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Wm. Faint, Hunter street, when his daughter, Clara, was united in marriage to Mr. M. G. Walker, of Winnipeg. Rev. J. G. Potter performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the family. Miss Mae Huffman played the Lohengrin (wedding march. The bride's gown was alice blue Dresden silk trimmed with cream lace and panne velvet. Miss Pearl Faint acted as bridesmaid and wore a gown of pale pink flowered muslin. Mr. Maurice Van der Water, Toronto, supported the groom.

After the wedding dejeuner Mr. and Mrs. Walker left on the 9.10 G.T.R. train for Port Hope, and after visiting a few intermediate points, will proceed to Winnipeg, where they will reside.

The bride's travelling suit was a green and white check trimmed with cream broadcloth and green panne velvet, and an unbleached Leghorn hat trimmed with American beauty roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a Bethersole gold bracelet, and to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet, and to the groomsman a pearl scarf pin. Miss Mae Huffman received a gold blouse set, set with pearls.

RECIPIENT OF SOME FINE FISH

Mr. George Chalmers of Water street is the proud possessor of a nice bunch of speckled trout, twenty-three in number, weighing from 1 1-2 to 2 lbs. apiece, which were forwarded to him by the Algoma Commercial Lumber Company, of the "Soo," by which he is employed hiring men for camps. The fish were caught 70 miles north of the "Soo."

L. O. L. District Meeting In Keene

About Thirty City Brethren Were Present—A Successful Meeting.

The semi-annual meeting of the Loyal Orange District Lodge was held in the village of Keene last night, and was a very successful one. About 30 members of the order drove down in 'busses from Peterborough, accompanied by the Nassau fife and drum band. The company on reaching Keene were met by a number of the brethren there and very hospitably entertained.

The meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic held in this district for some time. After the business of the meeting was concluded the brethren sat down to an excellent supper provided by the Keene lodge. A number of post prandial addresses were delivered, the Peterborough gentlemen who spoke being Brothers W. A. Kindred, W. G. Bartley and Bro. W. H. G. Armstrong. The highly successful meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

REGULAR MEETING COURT STANLEY

The regular meeting of Court Stanley, A. O. F. was held last evening. There was a good attendance of members, and one candidate was initiated. Bro. Wilson, of Court Hope, Toronto, was present and delivered an address which was enjoyed by the members present. Court Stanley will hold their annual church parade on Sunday evening, June 24, to All Saints church, when the Rev. Wm. Major will deliver an address. All visiting Foresters are cordially invited to be present.

Wheelman In A Perilous Dilemma

Was Nearly Struck by a Shunting Freight Train.

Yesterday at noon a young man had probably the narrowest escape from death he ever had. A G. T. R. freight was shunting backwards at the Hunter street crossing, and the principal of the episode, who was wheeling, was in a great hurry to get home to his dinner. With the train moving, and only about six feet off the crossing that was not covered by the rear car, he made an impetuous dash for the other side of the track.

"Look out!" yelled the brakeman at the switch, and the end of the car barely grazed the back of the reckless rider's bicycle.

The spectators expected a fatality, and there was a sigh of relief as the wheelman tore down the cinder path beside the track and disappeared around the Charlotte street corner in a cloud of dust.

HIS SERVICES ARE FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Messrs. Sanderson & Co., our enterprising jewelry and optical firm, made arrangements some time ago with Dr. William H. Montgomery, the expert "shadow test" specialist, from Toronto, to deliver at their store, a course of lectures on his new discovery in optical science, known as "the looking into the eye" method. Dr. Montgomery has arrived, and is fairly well into the work. He conducts free examinations each day in their new sight-testing dark-room, and already many very complicated cases have been fitted. This is certainly a grand opportunity, and every eye-sight sufferer should take advantage of it. Dr. Montgomery says: "There is no reason for anyone to suffer one moment with eye-headaches." Persons requiring glasses pay for lens grinding and material only; the professional services are paid for by Messrs. Sanderson & Co.

An Absolute Cure For DYSPEPSIA

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Belching of gas after eating, mean weakness.

By means of its muscles, the stomach should churn the food—changing solids into liquids—mixing in the gastric juice to start digestion.

If the stomach is weak—then food is not properly churned and mixed with enough gastric juice. Then you have indigestion and then dyspepsia.

Fruit-a-tives
OR "FRUIT LIVER TABLETS"

strengthen the stomach—just as juicy beef and eggs and milk strengthen the wasted frame of a patient getting over Typhoid.

FRUIT-A-TIVES contain the elements that give new—vigor new energy—to the muscles lining the stomach—stimulate the digestive glands and assure a copious flow of gastric juice for each meal.

More than that, FRUIT-A-TIVES correct the Constipation which usually attends stomach trouble—and by acting directly on kidneys and liver, put the whole system in healthy condition.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are a peculiar combination of fruit juices and tonics that are known all over Canada for their wonderful cures in all stomach, liver and kidney troubles.

FOOD INSPECTION.

Dr. Chisholm, of East Huron, thinks that the conditions in connection with the packing industry, as exposed in Chicago, should warrant the Dominion Government in taking an active interest in Canada, by prohibiting the importation of canned meat, and meat extracts, from the United States. Of course, Dr. Christie is a protectionist, and interprets "the interests of Canada" to mean the interests of the Canadian manufacturers of prepared and other meats; but the consumer has some claim to consideration. We should all prefer that Canadians, other things being equal, should consume nothing but Canadian products, but this country is not so far advanced as to be self contained, and while we must, in the nature of things, sell things we produce, for things we cannot produce, or do not produce in sufficient quantities, any arbitrary interference with free exchange is harmful to the extent to which it proceeds, from a trade point of view. If the beastly revelations of conditions in Chicago packing establishments do not induce Canadians to refrain from buying tainted beef and lard, made from the floor sweepings of shambles, and to prefer Canadian products, a duty of 500 per cent. would not work the charm. It is claimed that the prohibition of American meats would benefit the farmer. Does the farmer stand very much in need of such assistance? One would think that 17 cents per pound for beef, and 20 cents a pound for bacon, and from 7 to 8 cents per pound for live hogs, would represent a pretty good price for the the farmer's stock. What the Government might very well do, would be to provide for a stringent inspection of prepared foods, in this country, in order that the people who use them can have the most positive assurance possible that such products are clean and wholesome. There is perhaps no field for the exercise of blind faith so large as that connected with what we eat, and we should to the extreme degree possible, be able to have confidence in what we eat. There is no good reason to fear that Canadian prepared meats are concocted in such chambers of horrors, as have been exposed to the light of day by President Roosevelt's investigations; but our people are sufficiently inspired by a love of gain to permit of a weak-kneed and conscienceless person, if he is not watched, not being any too careful as to the cleanliness and wholesomeness of his methods, and materials, where indifference represents greater profit.

GLASGOW'S CIVIC ENTERPRISES

As so much has been heard in Brantford relative to the results of municipal ownership in Glasgow, the appended table will be read with interest. It shows the fiscal operations of the city's chief undertakings for the year 1905, exhibiting its gross receipts as well as the net profit after the payment of all operating and maintenance expenses and interest:

Tramways:
Gross receipts	$3,737,005
Operating expenses	1,881,150
Net receipts	852,855
Interest payment	242,868
Net profit	1,009,987
Gas:
Gross receipts	$3,894,061
Operating expenses	3,175,907
Net receipts	718,154
Interest payments	446,244
Net profits	271,930
Electricity:
Gross receipts	$ 906,278
Operating expenses	303,026
Net receipts	543,932
Interst payment	185,815
Net profit	358,137
Water:
Gross receipts	$1,212,899
Operating expenses	449,095
Net receipts	763,804
Interest payment	479,258
Net profit	284,646
Telephones:
Gross receipts	$ 269,273
Operating expenses	168,472
Net receipts	763,804
Interest paymets	479,258
Net profit	50,216

The net profit from all the municipal enterprises is placed at $2,580,946, a substantial benefit, despite the fact that in the above figures no allowance seems to have been made for depreciation.

THE INTERCOLONIAL PAYS.

Hon. Mr. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals, has performed the impossible—put the Intercolonial Railway upon a paying basis. When he announced a month or two ago that he hoped to wipe out the deficit of $82,000 upon the year's operations up to April 30, he was regarded as being optimistic to a degree. He has, however, kept his word, and was able to announce to the House on Monday night that as the result of his efforts to bring income and expenditure in accord, the deficit had been wiped out by the May operations of the railway, and that at the end of the fiscal year, June 30, he hoped to present a statement of a substantial surplus of earnings over expenses. It is to be remembered in extenuation of the fault of Ministers to make the national railway pay, that the Intercolonial was not built as a purely business enterprise, but as a political necessity, and for years there have been deficits cropping up in disheartening iteration. If the road had been left in this conditon the same thing was bound to recur annually. But when the Laurier Government came into power it saw the necessity of providing conditions that would make the Intercolonial a commercial, rather than a political enterprise. In the face of strenuous opposition it added new links to the line in the hope of making it pay, at least approximately. Hon. Mr. Emmerson assumed control of the road with a determination to make it a business affair, one that would pay, and he has done so with a success that promises great things. For years the Intercolonial Railway has not been a paying concern from the balance sheet point of view, but as he pointed out in an address in Peterborough, the apparent loss of money on its operation has been offset by a scale of rates which, while they did not admit of the payment of a dividend, represented a distinct benefit to the public, which practically owns the road. Whatever means the Minister has adopted to bring about so gratifying a result as a surplus, he has effected his aim without any impairment of the quality of service, and is deserving of the greatest credit for the triumph he has achieved. It is like Mr. Emmerson's generosity to ascribe this result largely to his efficient deputy, Mr. M. J. Butler. However, whoever is to be credited with putting the Intercolonial Railway on a better basis, there is no doubt that the Minister and his deputy make a strong team.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. J. J. Hill is fishing in Canada, but, if we give him credit for the sincerity of his expressed sentiments, he is fishing for salmon, not for railway bonuses.

The appointment by the Whitney Government of a nephew of Hon. Dr Willoughby as registrar of East Northumberland, is a clear case of political, literal and etymological nepotism.

Sir Hector Langevin, who was at one time a prominent figure in Dominion politics, and in the Conservative Government, died last night in the city of Quebec. Sir Hector, come August 26th, will be 80 years of age. He was a member of the Government before the union, and after the union, till 1873; and after that he was in the Conservative Government from 1878 to 1891.

Hon. Dr. Willoughby, member of the Whitney Government, resides at Colborne. The registrar of deeds for East Northumberland has been dismissed and A. G. Willoughby, also of Colborne, given the job. The Willoughbys, remarks the Brockville Recorder, do not seem to be out particularly for their health. The new registrar resides with his uncle, the Honorable Doctor.

When in opposition in Ontario, remarks the Brantford Expositor, the Conservative party opposed the retention of the Department of Public Works, and also the creation of a separate department for agriculture. Now that it is in office it not only retains these departments, but creates another, that of President of the Council, and is said to have still another—that of Power—in contemplation. Add to these two of three Ministers without portfolios, and as many more commissioners, and it will be seen that the machinery of state is getting to be very cumbersome.

Householder's Private Opinions

About the Power of Zam-Buk.

PROBABLY YOU KNOW THESE HOUSEHOLDERS!

If a household article is supported by householders who have tried it, therein lies its best recommendation. Zam-Buk is so widely used—not merely because the proprietors claim it can do more than other ointments and embrocations, but because householders the world over have proved this for themselves. Zam-Buk is purely vegetable, is at the same time healing, soothing and antiseptic, and cures cuts, bruises and all skin diseases, in wonderfully short time.

Mrs. H. H. Rankin, of Appin, Ont., says:—

"My hands were so sore that I could not put them in water. They had big cracks on them which caused me such pain that I could hardly work. Whenever I tried to put them near water they would smart and burn as if I had scalded them. They did not seem to be benefitted by anything I tried until your Zam-Buk was introduced. To my great pleasure within a very short time Zam-Buk closed up the cracks and healed the sore places. My hands are now quite cured.

Since using Zam-Buk for this purpose I sprained my thumb, and again used Zam-Buk as an embrocation. In that case also it proved quite satisfactory. I recommended it to a friend who had a sore finger, and it cured that too. I think Zam-Buk a splendid household ointment, and I wish you great success."

Another householder, well known in Toronto, is Mr. T. H. Churchill, of 179 Arthur street. He writes: "It has occurred to me that my opinion of Zam-Buk after using several boxes, might help to extend a knowledge of its good and reliable qualities.

It is a very important matter in a family of young children to know what to have at hand, and how to promptly use for the many ills and accidents which occur. I have used several such things in my experience, but your remedy outdistances all of them in effectiveness, and I am very glad to say so."

Such testimony is convincing hundreds of people every day that Zam-Buk is something different and superior to other salves and embrocations hitherto obtainable. Why not add the greatest convincing power of all—personal test? Write for a sample.

Zam-Buk cures cuts, burns, bruises, scratches, pimples, running sores, spreading scabs, scalp diseases, poisoned wounds, festering sores, piles, ulcers, bad legs, abscesses, sore breasts, boils, ringworms, erysipelas, scrofula, insect stings, barber's rash, blackheads, acne, stiffness, rheumatism, and all injured, diseased, or inflamed conditions of skin and tissue. Of all druggists at 50 cents a box, or post paid from the Zam-Buk Co., Colborne street, Toronto, upon receipt of price.

Toronto's Great National Show

The Prize List for 1906 Now Being Distributed--Material Increase in Value of Premuims.

The prize list of the Canadian National Exhibition, to be held in Toronto, Aug. 27th to September 10th, which is now being distributed, contains many changes compared with last year. In nearly every department there is a material increase in the premiums. In the horse department classes have been added for Welsh, Shetland and Hackney ponies, and the prizes in the first section of the breeding classes have in several instances been doubled. It has also been decided to award the premiums in the trials of speed on the three-heat plan, each heat to be considered a completed contest, and the money to be divided according to the place won in each heat. The Dominion Shorthorn Association having increased their grant for prizes to $2000, the exhibition management have responded with a like amount, so that there is considerable expansion also in the cattle department. In the sheep division wether sections have been added to each breed of sheep. In this connection it might be mentioned that the management are making arrangements that will enable sheep to be judged under cover. In the poultry department a number of sections have been added, and the list has been increased by an extra number of specials. Several changes have been made in the dairy department, and the building is to be supplied with improved cold storage. In the floral division a prize is added for the best and most original floral design. Several sections recommended by the Ontario Beekeepers' Association have been added to the Honey Classes. Several sections have been added to the women's and children's departments. The total increase all around amounts to close upon $4000, which means that the aggregate sum given in premiums by the Canadian National Exhibition is approaching the $50,000 mark. Entries are set to close on August 4th.

Stone Crusher For Otonabee

The Machine Will Begin Operations at Once.

The stone crusher which the township of Otonabee purchased some time ago from the Good Roads Company of Hamilton, has arrived and will begin operations as soon as possible on a pile of stones containing about 30 cords on the River Road.

Some difficulty was experienced in getting the machine into Otonabee on account of the freight statement showing that it weighed 10 ton instead of 6, as was stated when the agreement was made. The Locks bridge will not carry over 6 tons, so that negotiation between the Council and the Company caused the delay. The crusher is this morning, however, in Otonabee and good roads are assured for that township.

Card Taken Away From Local Barber

Proprietor is Suspended for Six Months.

The union card has been taken out of a local barber shop and the proprietor has been suspended for six months. The barber in question has in his establishment two apprentices which is contrary to the bylaw of the union. His case was taken up by the local union and it was decided that he would have to get rid of one apprentice or lose his union card. He appealed the case to the general president and that official upheld the action of the local union, with the result that the card was was taken out of his shop on Monday.

FINANCES ARE IN GOOD SHAPE

The month'y meeting of Finance Committee of the Park street Baptist church met last night, T. G. Gillespie in the chair. The minutes of last meeting were read by the Secretary. The envelopes and plate offerings of the last Sunday being the highest, making over $25.00 for the day.

The election of officers for the year took place, resulting in the re-election of Mr. T. G. Gillespie as chairman, David Watt, as secretary, pro. tem.

Routine business was put through and a number of bills were paid. Progress was reported and the meeting adjourned.

SPLIT, BRITTLE, DULL HAIR

All Come From Dandruff, Which is Caused by a Germ.

Split hair, hard hair, lustreless hair, brittle hair, falling hair, all owe their origin to dandruff, which is caused by a measly little microbe that burrows into the scalp, throwing up the cuticle into dandruff scales and sapping the vitality of the hair at the root, causing the several diseased conditions of the hair till it finally falls out. Modern science has discovered a remedy to destroy the dandruff microbe, which is combined in Newbro's Herpicide, the delightful hair dressing. Allays itching instantly, and makes hair soft as silk. Take no substitute; nothing "just as good." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Osmond & Walsh, Special Agents.

THE REVIEW AND BOGUS PETITION

The Review, in reply to the charge that the statement it made that the "Grits" were circulating a petition for the dismissal of Postmaster Rogers was a pure concoction, repeats its offence by simply stating that it was not an invention, and confessing its inability to prove to the contrary. But our contemporary refrains from repeating the statement which it knows is a falsehood. It even crawfishes out of its falsehood by claiming that it should not be expected to furnish affidavits as to the truth of its assertion regarding the petition in question—altogether in question — for no such petition exists, nor has ever existed.

ACTION FOR WAGES WAS DISMISSED BY THE JUDGE

The first case at County Court yesterday—that of Fallis against Jones for non-payment of wages—was dismissed by His Honour Judge Weller, after hearing the evidence of the plaintiff and her witnesses.

At the conclusion of this evidence Mr. Moore, counsel for the defence, moved for a non-suit on the grounds that there had been no evidence to show that any contract had been made between the two parties that money was to be paid to the plaintiff.

R. Ruddy, the plaintiff's solicitor made a strong plea to show that Mrs. Fallis had earned the money and from the fact she had been given some by Mrs. Jones showed that the defendants knew she was entitled to receive remuneration for her services.

His Honour Judge Weller said that the plaintiff should have brought on the action long ago as the time elapsed since plaintiff became of age was thirteen years and the case was dismissed at this point.

Jury Finds John Winters Not Guilty Of Arson

Was Accused of Burning House Belonging to Mr. J. J. Lundy—County Court Resumed This Morning—Five Crown Witnesses Heard.

County Court was resumed this morning at 10 o'clock, when the case of Crown versus John Winters was considered. This afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock the jury brought in their verdict of "Not guilty."

Acting Clerk of the Peace W. F. Johnston, read the Grand Jury's indictment on the case of Crown vs. John Winters, charged with having set fire to J. J. Lundy's house in Harvey township.

Crown Attorney Wood then addressed the jury, explaining the circumstances in reference to the burning of the house last December. He reviewed the case thoroughly. It appears that John Winters is alleged to have set fire to the Lundy house by carrying an armful of hay from the barn and igniting it in the house. Tracks were visible to the barn and up to where the heat had melted the snow. They were then followed to a house belonging to a Mr. Hunt. Here it was found that Winters, who worked for Hunt, had been to the woods to get a saw, and on returning home reported that the Lundy house was burned during the night.

Wm. Coon.

Wm. Coon was the first witness called on the case and he testified that he got the key from Mr. Hunt about the first of December. He went to the house on the day of the fire and found a piece of fuse hanging down through the cellar door. Down cellar there was a large quantity of ashes. Some hay was lying around the trap door which wasn't burnt. The blank ends of the hay testified to fire. He had intended to move there with his family, but didn't on account of the house being burned. The door, he said, was fastened with a pad lock.

To Mr. Medd witness stated he did not remember that he told before Magistrate Edmonson that the door was fastened with wire when the case was in Police Court.

Albert Davis.

Albert Davis testified he was assisting in lumbering operations in Harvey township. When he passed on the day after the fire he saw the house was burned.

Thos. Davis.

The next witness was Thomas Davis a resident of Smith township. He was on the road where the house was situated on 21st December, the day of the fire. He saw the tracks leading to the barn and from there towards the house near which the tracks were melted by the fire. They led out to the gate and over to Mr. Hunt's.

Crawford Hunt.

Crawford Hunt was the next witness. Mr. Hunt is a resident farmer in Harvey. Winters, the prisoner, was working for him at the time the house was burned. He was carrying on lumbering operations on a lot just north of the Lundy property. On account of the storm no work was done that day. Winters went up to where the logs were being got out to get the saw to be sharpened. He was the only man who had left his house. The prisoner told Hunt the house was burned during the night. Witness thought the distance to where prisoner got the saw was about a mile and a half. He did not think Winters was away an unreasonable length of time.

The Defence.

John Winters the prisoner, next went into the box. He said he was sent by Hunt about 5 o'clock in the morning for the saw. He said the building was burned when he was going by. He neither called at the building going up or on the way back and knew nothing about the fire.

To Mr. Wood, he said, he saw the tracks passing towards the barn and house. He had lived in the house about three weeks before the fire. He did not want to get the house for himself. He had told no person except his solicitor that he had seen the tracks besides his own that morning.

Mr. Cochrane.

High County Constable Cochrane was next witness. He stated he warned witness not to make any statements that might assist to convict him. Prisoner stated to him the day he arrested him that he had not seen any tracks going towards the house.

This concluded the examination of the witness and the counsel then addressed the jury reviewing the evidence.

The jury then retired and this afternoon brought in the verdict, "Not guilty."

Council Will Aid Fall Fair On Some Conditions

Will Grant $400 Provided That the County Will Give $250—Would Like to See the Fair a Success, But Feel That the County Council Should Give Assistance

The Committee of the Whole Council last night decided to aid the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition to the extent of $400, provided the County Council sees fit to make a grant of $250 to the institution.

The Council felt that the fair, while a benefit to Peterborough to some extent, was a county show, and should be supported generously by that body.

The Fair Directors had asked for a guarantee of $1000, or a cash grant of $400. There were present Mayor Best, Ald. Hicks, Elliott, Graham, Wilson, Ball, McIntyre and Johnston.

The following communication was read from secretary F. J. A. Hall, of teh Fair Directors:

Gentlemen, — Some time ago the directors of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition had the pleasure of waiting on you, with regard to a grant to the society. As the work of preparation for the fair takes considerable time it must be commenced immediately, and it will therefore be necessary for us to know at once what action the council is going to take in the matter. The directors feel, as explained to you by our deputation, that they should not have to give their time and services to the exhibition, and at the same time run the risk of being financially liable for perhaps a large deficit, in case of unfavourable weather. They also feel that they have in the last three years worked the fair up to a high standard, and would let it drop now with very great reluctance.

The County Council grants to fairs in the county amounts to $700 in all. We ask the city for a guarantee of $1000. If your honourable body should not see fit to grant us the guarantee we would respectfully urge that you make us a cash grant of at least $600, otherwise the directors do not see their way clear to undertake the responsibility of handling an exhibition this year.

Our president is leaving town next week for two months, and if you could let us know your decision in the matter by Tuesday next you would greatly oblige us.

Yours, etc.,
F. J. A. HALL,
Secretary Peterborough Industrial Exhibition.

Ald. Elliott said that he had had more experience with the fair than any one in the county. When it was at its lowest ebb the directors had gone to the county, as it was a county show, and couldn't get a dollar from them. The show was run for the farmers. The Norwood fair had created a rivalry among the farmers, and, he asked, who got the benefit? The village of Norwood did not give any grant, or this county. Agricultural fairs were a necessity. The County Council should give as much as the City Council. He was going to move that the city should give a grant equivalent to that given by the county.

To Ald. Hicks Ald. Elliott said last year the county had granted $100. The speaker thought that the city council was doing well to give as much as the county council did.

Ald. Hicks believed that it was to the interest of the city to have the fair a success, and thought that $500 might be donated to this purpose. He agreed with Ald. Elliott that the County Council should give as much.

Mayor Best said that as far as he could see the people were not in favour of a cash grant as asked for by the fair directors.

Ald. Johnston asked if it could be possible to have a joint meeting of the City Council, the County Council, and the fair directors. It would be too bad to see the fair fall through.

Ald. Hicks' thought that they might give as much or more than last year, if the County Council would give more than last year's grant.

It was moved by Ald. Elliott, seconded by Ald. Graham, that the council should grant $400 to the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition, on condition that the County Council make a grant of $250. The motion carried.

Ald. Wilson thought that the grant was too large.

Ald. McIntyre said that the grant should be made on condition that the City Council was represented on the Board of Directors.

He was assured that two members of the Council would hold seats on the Board.

It was moved by Ald. Ball, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, that Ald. Hicks, Mason and Elliott be the representatives of the Council on the Board of Directors of the Exhibition.

C. G. E. COMPANY'S WATER AND GAS PIPE NEW PLANT

The Toronto Star, in its financial column yesterday said in reference to the state of the stock market, so far as C. G. E. was concerned:—

Canadian General Electric was firm again in the local market this morning, selling above 146. The Canadian General Electric Company's new water pipe and gas pipe plant at Davenport is nearing completion, and will go into operation in about six weeks. At present this branch of the company's business is being handled in the old St. Lawrence foundry, King street east. It was found over a year ago that the output of the St. Lawrence plant was insufficient to keep up with the demand, and besides it was expensive to cart the iron in from the railway and to cart the finished product out to the railway for shipment, there being no railway connection direct with the plant. The new plant has been constructed on the most approved plans, and is up-to-date in all particulars. The railway siding runs direct into the new factory yards. The new plant has four times the capacity of the old St. Lawrence works, and will be able to produce quite $5 a ton cheaper. The capacity will be 60 tons a day, and as there is an excellent and increasing demand for water and gas pipe, especially from the growing towns in the North-west, the inauguration of the new plant is expected to add materially to the General Electric Company's profits.

Chief Issues Warning Against Stone Throwing.

"Stone-throwing has to cease," said the Chief this morning. "The next boy that is caught even picking up a stone will be prosecuted. There's a bylaw against it, and I'll see that it's enforced."

He then told of a window that had been broken on McDonel street.

"It's a dangerous practice in the city," said Dr. Bingham, who was there at the time. "It would be all right," he jokingly added, "if they'd only throw them into the Little Lake and kill some of the mosquitoes."

RE-ARRANGED SCHEDULE OF THE GUILD LEAGUE

A meeting of the Executive of the Guild Baseball League was held last night in the Y.M.C.A. Board Room, when the schedule of games for the remainder of the season was arranged. Next week George Street and St. Paul's will play their postponed games and the remaining two games scheduled were set back one week. The protested game between George Street and Charlotte Street will be played after the scheduled games.

The president, Mr. P. A. Kerr, presided, and the other members present were Messrs. Metheral, Roddy, and the secretary.

The Sporting Writer's Joke Unappreciated

An Explanation of the Report of Shop League Games.

The Examiner's account of Saturday's C. G. E. League Games does not seem to have met with much favour from the players, and the writer of the article has been busy all week trying to explain things. The players seem to have taken the account seriously, although it is hard to see how a game in which thirty-six errors were made could be treated seriously. No offense was intended by the Examiner, which has always tried to treat the sporting organizations of the city in a proper manner. In this case the players seem to regard the article as an attack on them—not as a joke, as was the intention of the writer. The games of the preceding Saturday had shown that they could play excellent ball, but even their warmest supporters could not contend that this was the case last Saturday, hence the quality of the ball played. The Examiner regrets to have hurt any one's feelings, and thought that the article would be taken in the spirit in which it was written. In larger places such write-ups are of daily occurrence, and players do not think of complaining about them. It seems that Peterborough has not reached this advanced state, however, and the only thing that will please the players is the usual hackneyed words of praise, with all the mistakes left out. Perhaps it would be better not to keep a complete score of the games, in which case some, at least, of the errors, might be lost sight of in the melange.

LAWN BOWLING

There were five games played last evening as follows:—

W. H. McClennan	J. Titterson
W S Robinson	D Belleghem
J W O'Brien	Dr. Marshall
A E Runnells, 16.	R M Waddell, 7.
R Wescott	C Wood
A Talbot	W H Isaacs
E W Cox	R H Kerr
C J Seymour, 21	W J Green, 8.

There were also games played between skips Talbot and Kerr, and skips Pratt and Lang—also another game in which the names of the skips are not given.

Lakehurst, it is said, have a number of players from Queen's University o their line-up and as they have been practising diligently for a long time the game will, no doubt, be a cracker jack.

Owners Of Terraces May Have To Connect With Sewers

Resolution of Board of Health Dealt With by the Council Last Night—Matter Has Been Left in the Hands of the Board of Works.

At the meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council last night the request of the Board of Health that dwellings and terraces on streets where the sewer is constructed should be compelled to make connections with the sewer was taken up, and after some discussion was referred to the Board of Works. The Council evidently regarded it as a step in the right direction, but felt that it would be an injustice to small property owners, although in the case of terraces it was thought advisable to make it compulsory in certain limits. These will probably be between Smith street on the north, Townsend street on the south, Park street on the west, and Roger street on the east.

The resolution from the Board of Health was as follows:

That the matter of terraces and dwellings on streets, where sewers have been constructed, not being connected with the sewers, be referred to the City Council with the request that the council look into the matter and pass such bylaw as may be necessary to provide a remedy.

S. R. ARMSTRONG,
Secretary.

Ald. Hicks thought that this move would be a hardship on small property owners. Something should be done along this line, and he had thought that all terraces within certain districts should be connected with the sewer.

Ald. Elliott said the chairman of the Board of Health had spoken to him about three terraces on McDonel street where there were 20 premises. These places were close to the sewer.

City Clerk Armstrong said it was doubtful whether they could distinguish between terraces and dwelling houses. He questioned the legality of separating out some houses.

The mayor thought that the matter should be left in the hands of the Board of Works, who could get the opinion of the solicitor on the matter.

It was moved by Ald. Ball, seconded by Ald. Graham, that the matter be referred to the Board of Works. —Carried.

Ald. Ball took advantage of the opportunity offered to say a few things about the Board of Health, whom he characterized as "a pack of old women." He referred to the fact that the Board of Health had condemned wells in the city and wanted to condemn the water works, he said. Referring to the ice question, Ald. Ball remarked that the Board evidently wanted Little Lake ice to be condemned. He thought that the Board might better turn their attention to the poisonous canned goods sold in the city.

WEARY DAYS AND SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Many men and women toss night after night upon sleepless beds until near dawn. Their eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing repose that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quieted. Or, again, you have heart palpitation and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die; or perhaps you wake up from your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and rest leaves you for the night. Allow these conditions to continue and you will feel your health declining.

It is the nerves and heart that are not acting properly.

They can be set right by the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They soon induce healthful, refreshing sleep, not by deadening the nerves, but by restoring them to healthy action and removing all symptoms of heart trouble, which is often the cause of nervousness and sleeplessness.

Mrs. Ennis Chambers, Massey Station, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with dizziness, weak spells and fluttering of the heart. I was so bad at times I could not lie down in bed at nights but would have to sit up. I doctored for a whole year and got no relief. I took three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and was so completely cured I have not been troubled since. I cannot recommend them too highly."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or sent direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mooney's Car Line

First Canadian Manufacturers to Adopt a System of Private Freight Cars.

It takes a lot of confidence in one's success, and an abiding faith in future prosperity, to invest the money necessary to equip a line of private freight cars in connection with one's business. Yet that is just what the Mooney Biscuit and Candy Company Limited of Stratford, Ontario, have done.

Even in the United States, only a few of the largest concerns own and operate their own cars, so that it speaks volumes for the Mooney Company, who have been in business only three years.

The new cars are of the standard size, weighing 36,000 pounds and having a capacity of 60,000 pounds (30 tons.) They are painted a rich cream colour. On each side of the doors is the familiar blue and purple of "Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas."

The Mooney Company is the only concern in Canada owning and operating their own freight cars—and their business has so increased in three years that they have been compelled to double the size of their premises.

The first private car of the Mooney Company to be loaded left the bakery at Stratford for Edmonton last week, over the Canadian Northern Railway, and will doubtless attract much attention en route and on its arrival at its destination.

THE B.Y.P.U. HELD THE ROLL CALL

The B.Y.P.U. of the Park street Baptist church, had a most interesting session last night. Roll was called by the Secretary, Miss Edith Gillespie. Two very thoughtful papers were read by Miss E. Davis and Mr. Albert Inkpen. There was a very fair representation of young people present.

The sessions will be continued through the summer months.

RYE WAS SEVEN FEET IN LENGTH

Some rye was handed the Examiner this morning but no tthe kind found on the inside of glassware. It was a stock of the grain about seven feet in height, a very unusual circumstance at this time of year. The rye was grown on a farm in Douro township about 7 miles from the city on a pretty looking field.

The same gentleman who brought in the rye also stated he saw a field of peas in bloom.

A Friend Told Me About Ba-Ju

THE GENTLE KIDNEY CURE!

Hundreds of people, who have been cured of Kidney Trouble by Ba-Ju, were first induced to try this wonderful remedy by friends who had themselves been cured. The sales of Ba-ju are daily increasing, because everyone who takes them is benefitted—and these in turn, tell others. So the good news is spread.

Here is what a Picton man says about Ba-Ju:—

"I have used Ba-Ju with great benefit to myself, and cheerfully recommend to all who, I think, are suffering from Kidney Troubles and Rheumatism.

"I think Ba-Ju the best remedy made."

Yours sincerely,

G. T. R. Short Line To Midland Is Now Under Construction

Work Commenced on the New Line Near Lindsay—Will be Rushed as Quickly as Possible—Grain Transportation Will be Greatly Facilitated.

Peterborough is much interested in the proposed short line of the G. T. R. to Midland, by which it is hoped to facilitate the transportaion of grain from the Georgian Bay to the ocean ports. It will therefore be of interest to learn that work has been commenced on this new short line, as the following from the Lindsay Post will show:

Last Thursday work was commenced on the new Grand Trunk "short cut" link in the grain route to Midland. Trains will come in via the G. T. R. roundhouse from the northwest. Already the work shows considerable progress, a gang of fifty or sixty men, chiefly Italians, being employed, with Mr. King as time-keeper.

The first sign of activity noticeable to a Lindsay citizen may be seen on the Oakwood Road, about two and a half or three miles out. Here on on the farm of Mr. McLean, the new road will run across the public thoroughfare. At this place a number of tents are pitched, including the cooking tent, where appetizing meals are served. There is also a large and well protected stable for the horses. A wide clearing has been cut through the woods to the side road running north, which crosses the G. T. R. track near Mr. John Graham's farm. The brush heaps are still smouldering. Away farther up, just where the two G.T.R. tracks—the new and the old—will cross, a steam shovel is at work making a cut some five or six feet deep, through a portion of the field. The work is not very hard as the soil is almost free of stones. Here a number of labourers are very busy, working the dump carts and running the cart loads of earth to the spot where the roadbed is being built up and graded. All this has been done inside of four days and a half, and in about three months time they expect to complete the work. About a dozen heavy teams are employed along the route.

Yesterday the local Grand Trunk yard shunter took out a couple of carloads of ties and dumped them alongside the railway. The place where the two roads will cross is near the vicinity of the first overhead bridge. The work on the new link will be pushed along as rapidly as possible by Contractor Johnston, of Tottenham.

Senator Cox's New Prestige

The Montreal Herald says:—The most rabid insurance-mender will hardly deny that Senator Cox leaves the witness-stand of the Canadian Commission with a considerably enhanced prestige, with his personality placed in a more favourable light before the public, and with a reputation for frankness that should materially strengthen the standing of the companies in which he is influential. That small section of the Canadian press which sees no object in the commission except to provide sensational copy is bitterly disappointed.

Saskatoon Having A Whirlwind Growth

Mr. J. H. Scriver, Formerly of This City, Returns From the West for a Visit and Tells of the Newest City in Saskatchewan—Has a Population of 6,500 and Got it All in Ten Years—Some of the Things Saskatoon Has—Other Things it Wants.

"We did feel a little sore at first, when Regina was made the capital, instead of Saskatoon, which we consider had the better claim, but it takes more than that to put us down and out," said Mr. J. H. Scriver, who for the last six months has been in business in Saskatoon, Sask., to the Examiner to-day. Mr Scriver is very enthusiastic over the prospects of the west in general, and Saskatoon in particular. He has only been there six months, and he feels as deeply an interest in the town as if he was the first settler. Anyway six months is a long time in the West. Three years ago Saskatoon was a village of 150 people. To-day it has a population of 6500, and on July 2nd will be admitted to the status of a city, and will celebrate this fact. Mr. Scriver says that inside of a year the population will exceed that of Regina, the capital; and he says it as if he really believes it—perhaps he does. It looks on the face of it, too, as if there might be some ground for this belief. One hundred and eighty-two new residences were erected there this spring before he left, about two weeks ago, and four new brick business blocks, each with 90 feet frontage on Main street. The new Empire Hotel, Mr. Scriver states, is the finest between Winnipeg and Edmonton.

He produced a map, prepared by the Board of Trade, and, according to this map, there is nothing to it but Saskatoon—Regina's a mere incident. Railways galore, about 10, are shown radiating from Saskatoon. Some of these are there now, and the rest are coming soon.

Mr. Scriver is a bundle of enthusiasm, and a pretty big bundle, too, the West evidently agreeing with him. He is in the real estate business in the new city, and his missus' past is a three-fold one. He is taking a holiday, and at the same time doing some business for himself, and with his western-born patriotic zeal is spreading the good news of the prosperity of Saskatoon — and the West.

He wants to get some new industries in Saskatoon, and if enthusiasm counts he should land them. He would like a cereal works, tannery, beef abbattoir, soap factory and a few other things please. He's going back Tuesday, and would like to take the promise of some of these things back with him.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

Lovemaking in Modern Style.

London Graphic.

"THE manoeuvring mamma" is practically extinct. The modern daughter has an almost free hand in managing her love "transactions." The mere love marriage, which was so disturbing a thought to the mother of even twenty years ago, is seldom heard of in Mayfair in these altered circumstances. The new lovemaking is a subject which cannot be dealt with except with the utmost discretion, for it might grieve some to have it hinted that the modern daughter is a better woman of business in such a situation than was even "the manoeuvring mamma."

Did'nt Think It.

TWO IRISHMEN were crossing the ocean on the way to this country. On the way over, Patrick died. Preparations were made for burial at sea, according to the Magazine of Fun, but the dead weights customarily used in such cases were lost. Chunks of coal were substituted. Everything was finally ready for the last rites, and long and earnestly did Michael look at his friend. Finally he blurted out sorrowfully:

"Well, Pat, Oi always knew ye were goin' there, but Oi'm dommed if Oi thought they'd make yer bring yer own coal."

Our Inquiry Department.

"IS THE USE of a hair dye a cause of brain softening?"—George.

No, a result.

"Will the constant use of lemon juice on the face injure the skin?" Essie.

I should say it would. Eighteen hours a day is plenty of time to keep your face in lemon juice.

"How should chloroform be used in removing green paint stains from a white duck skirt?"—Hasty.

Administer the anaesthetic in the usual way, and when the skirt appears to have succumbed entirely, cut out the paint spot with sharp scissors.

"When should white flannel and duck trousers be worn?"—Algie.

You speak as if you thought they should both be worn on certain occasions. By no means, Algie, except in winter for warmth, and then they would look foolish and folks would hurl contumely at you. The only way they may be worn simultaneously is for you to wear one and a friend the other. You would find this more comfortable during the white-trousers season. If you feel that you really must wear both, go to your room and do so, meanwhile keeping perfectly quiet.

LIKE BREAD CAST ON THE WATERS

It is not always wise to judge the results of an advertisement by the immediate returns. A case in point:—About a month ago a Douro man lost a $10 bill. He advertised for it in the Examiner and on Saturday an Otonabee man who found it brought it to the Examiner office. Another case:—The night of the Salvation Army wedding, a lady's gold pin was lost on the street going to the Barracks. For three days an advertisement was inserted in the lost column of the Examiner and nothing further was heard of it until yesterday, when a lady who found the pin informed the Examiner of that fact, and it was returned to the loser.

A GERMAN BAND IS HERE TO-DAY

The streets to-day resounded with the strains of a German Band, which arrived in the city this morning. The street corners where the musicians congregated, invariably attracted a coterie of bystanders who seemed to drink with delight the sweet sounding strains. The Band is making a tour through the city and their visits to the different houses are many and brief.

Lakefield Merchants Want Early Closing

A Petition Presented to Village Council Asks for By-law Making it Compulsory for Three Nights a Week—Steamer Empress Starts Regular Trips—Other Interesting Lakefield News.

Examiner Special.

Lakefield, June 13.—A regular monthly meeting of the Municipal Council of the Village of Lakefield, was held in the town hall on Monday evening, June 11th.

Present, Reeve Moore in the chair, and Councillors Carter, Cornish and Duff.

Minutes of last regular meeting read and approved.

A petition was received from Thos. Crawford and 15 other business men, asking for the passing of a bylaw to secure the closing of all shops at the hour of six o'clock, p.m., on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, except when such days shall immediately precede a public holiday.

Moved by Councillors Duff and Cornish that the petition of certain members of the village asking the council to pass a bylaw to secure the closing of all stores at 6 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings be referred to the General Committee.—Carried.

The Finance Committee presented a report recommending that the following accounts be paid:—

Joseph Curtain	$40 00
Lakefield News...	7 30
Lillicrap, Tate Lumber Co.....	8 53
Lakefield Light & Power Co.....	48 97
Lakefield Canoe Co...	50
F. Bartlett.....	16 00
Bell Telephone Co.....	2 75
Portland Cement Co...	270 00
Gerald Fitzgerald.....	3 38
School Board.....	600 00
	$997 73

And that the payment of pay sheets Nos 1 and 2, re. Cement Works be confirmed.

Moved by Messrs. Cornish and Duff that the report of the Finance Committee be received and adopted.—Carried.

Messrs. A. S. Butchart and F. A. Kilbourn were present and urged the 3rd reading of the bylaw re. closing of east part of Dublin street, and Mr. Mr. G. M. Rogers, on behalf of the Dickson Co., opposed the same, unless the other part of the street is closed also. Considerable time was taken up with arguments on both sides.

Moved by Messrs. Cornish and Duff, that the Council delay the third reading of the Lakefield Portland Cement Company's bylaw, re. closing the east half of Dublin street be laid over over until the Dickson Company's bylaw, re. closing the west half of Dublin street, has received its second reading.—Carried.

The council then adjourned.

The moonlight excursion which was run on Tuesday evening by Captain White, of Peterborough, per steamer Water Lily to Stony Lake, was well patronized.

The steamer Empress started this week to run her usual daily trip between Lakefield and Burleigh. This popular steamer is looking very pretty this summer in her new coat of white trimmed with black and no doubt will command a goodly share of patronage with her genial Capt. Johnson and her most obliging crew.

Miss Ray is spending a few days at her cottage at Stony Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Graham and Miss Blanche, are at Viamede, where they will spend the summer.

Rev. T. W. Leggott is in Toronto this week attending Toronto Conference of Methodist church.

Rev. Mr. Burns, of Stirling, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Pon Sunday morning and evening. His sermons were much enjoyed by large congregations at both services.

Mrs. Rathbone, of Toronto, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Sharin on Sunday.

Mr. J. H. Sherin is spending a few days at Stony Lake.

Fasted Nine Days For Rheumatism

Galt Man Who Adopted This Novel Method of Cure—Lost Thirteen Pounds During the Fast.

The Galt Reformer has the following remarkable story:—

Wesley Champ, Chalmers street, the young man who, upon the advice of a friend in Detroit, for nine long days, ate absolutely nothing, in the hope of ridding himself of a painful attack of inflammatory rheumatism, broke his tedious fast on Saturday evening, and is now gradually endeavouring to satisfy his ravenous appetite.

Although for nine days the young man swallowed nothing but water, he never became so weak that he was unable to leave the house, and he bore up remarkably well under the severe physical strain to which he subjected himself.

When seen by The Reformer this morning, young Champ looked little the worse for his trying experience. He lost 13 pounds during the nine days, but did not appear nearly so emaciated as one would imagine him to be. His first food, taken on Saturday evening, was a small quantity of gruel. This was followed on Sunday by cornstarch and other liquid foods, and he has now returned to a stable diet.

The young man can scarcely say whether his health has been benefitted by the trying treatment. The pains and swelling caused by the rheumatism have certainly not yet entirely left his limbs. He is now considering the advisability of going West in the hope of profitting from a change of atmosphere.

"I now find it much more difficult to keep from eating too much," said he, "than I did to leave food alone altogether during my nine days' fast."

Fair Directors Sets Forth The Situation

Points Out That Loss of Industrial Fair Would be Serious to the City—Society Cannot Ask County Council for Any Further Help.

The action of the City Council in reply to the application for a grant of $500 to assist the directors of the Peterborough Industrial Fair in their proposed exhibition is not meeting with very warm favour from the gentlemen interested directly in the fair. The feeling is that the situation is not thoroughly understood by the aldermen, and Mr. E. M. Elliott, county clerk, and for years one of the most prominent workers in connection with the fair, was authorized to prepare a statement for the press on the matter. His statement is as follows:

The Agricultural Society are sorry that the City Council do not realize the exact position of the society. If they would consider the advantage or benefit that agricultural exhibitions have been to the farmer they would see at a glance that the increase in the finances of the farmers of the surrounding country meant an increase of purchases, or a greater amount of money spent by the farmer in the city, also the advertisement of this so favourably situated city by the visitors that would attend the fair from the outside people that would not have visited the city on any other occasion.

The society cannot entertain the idea of asking the County Council to give a certain amount in lieu of a certain amount given by the city, when they recognise the fact that last year the county gave to the two Hidings and township shows and the Horticultural Society $775, and, of course, have those or others to assist again. We do not claim to have brought the standard of the society to any better standing, or perhaps not so good as it was in its palmy days in the nineties, but since those days disaster has overtaken the show or fair, and as a consequence, from a financial standpoint, was declared bankrupt, and, as a result, notwithstanding the fact that the prize list and the class of exhibits are not beaten between Toronto and Ottawa, at the present time the surrounding country will not compete and patronize the fair unless there is some in case of emergency, such as unfavourable weather.

We still hesitate to say that the fair will cease, as we believe that yet the City Council will substantially and independently assist, or some other means will be devised apart from the usual to carry on this fair.

The directors being all, except one, citizens of the city, feel that if there is any chance at all they are willing as they have done, and as the directors for the past 20 years have done, to sacrifice their time and energy for the advancement of a fair here, and consequently the advancement of the surrounding country and city also, whose interests, after all, are identical.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I understand that all arrangements had been made with the Rev. Dr. Torrance, of St. Paul's Church for the 57th Batallion to attend divine service this year when Rev. Mr. Davidson interfered (as he usually does) and for peace sake the Officers of the Battalion consented to attend St. Johns. Now I for one—a Volunteer — object to being continuously taken to St. John's to hear Mr. Davidson. Why cannot the Battalion do as other Societies do? Visit the different churches as the members of the force are not by any means exclusively of the Church of England. Besides it would stimulate good fellowship if the Battalion would attend the different churches of the City which take just as much interest in our welfare as St. John's. A word to the wise should be sufficient.

Yours truly,

MILITARY.

June 11th, 1906.

Editor Post Card Column:

Dear Sir,—I wish to call attention to the way at which the street cars run between Smith street and Central Park switches. If there are no stops to make, they travel at a pace that is far too fast and greatly exceeds that prescribed by law. I have heard complaints frequently and one business man in that section states that it is injuring his trade as farmers refuse to cross George street along this section. Some day a serious accident will occur and the cars may strike something a little less substantial than the steam road roller.

Yours etc.,

NORTH ENDER.

THE MOSQUITOE'S LAY.

The recurrence of the summer season and mosquitoes recalls the poem written by Mr. Llewlyn Morrison, at Stony Lake, on August 28th, 1882. It has been handed to the Examiner and is as follows:—

Weary stranger, won't you rest awhile?
You've laboured hard all day
Plying rod and gun, and paddle,
Rest, and listen to our lay.

Pitch your tent and spread your blankets,
Poor toil worn, weary man,
And whilst we hover round you,
Slumber sweetly—if you can.

We will keep a faithful vigil,
We'll be near you all the night,
Nor cease our soothing lullaby
Unless it be to bite.

And should you kill a few of us,
As you slap your hands and face,
We've a host of blood relations,
Who will gladly take our place.

Stoney Lake, August 28, 1882.

TENANTS FOR THE NEW SKY-SCRAPER

Among the firms which will tenant the new ten storey building now being erected on Victoria Square, Montreal, by Messrs. Mark Fisher, Sons & Co., are Messrs. Perrin Freres & Cie, of Grenoble, France, the well known manufacturerrs of kid gloves, who will occupy the entire sixth floor. This firm seems to be enjoying a very full share of Canada's prosperity, their trade increasing very rapidly. In Toronto they are also about to change the location of their agency to the new Traders' Bank Sky Scraper—the highest office building under the British flag.

Malta-Vita

A perfect breakfast is impossible without it and it's just as good three times a day. It gives you real nourishment and renewed vitality. For Malta-Vita is rich in nutrition—every nutritive element of the best white wheat and finest barley malt extract. The malt extract, mixed with the flaked wheat, converts the starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar, makes it easy for even the weakest stomach to digest and adds a pleasing taste which cannot be found in grain foods containing some foreign and adulterative sweetening agent.

Try Malta-Vita with cream or fruit.

Bleeding Piles.

"For two years I suffered from bleeding piles, and lost each day about half a cup of blood. Last summer I went to the Toronto general hospital to be operated on, but my old trouble returned, and again I lost much blood. My father advised me to use Dr. Chase's Ointment and two boxes cured me. I have every reason to believe that the cure is a permanent one." — Mr. Arthur Lepine, school teacher, Granite Hill, Muskoka, Ont.

A Peculiar Incident.

Mr. James Shadgett, our A1 painter, painted a buggy for Mr. Head, of Monaghan, who was staying for dinner with a friend, and left his buggy standing in the barn yard. Presently a gobbler came along, and seeing what he thought, to be an opponent reflected in the box of the rig, flew at him, and pecked the side all along in order to have the best of his opponent. That goes to show what kind of mirror-like work Mr. Shadgett turns out every time.—Com.

AN EXAMPLE OF QUICK RETURNS

The Peterboro' Lumber Company; New Concern

Former Officer and Employees of Dickson Company Form a New Company—Will Take Over Business of Dickson Company in This City—To Operate Mill at Burnham's Point—Buys Hardwood and Hemlock Logs From Cavendish Lumber Company.

Application has been made to the Ontario Government for a charter incorporating the Peterborough Lumber Company, Limited, to take over the Peterborough business of the Dickson Company, and this morning the new company, of which the officers are: President, Mr. Dickson Davidson; Vice-President, Mr. John Thomson; and Sec.-Treasurer, Mr. George Lenton, took over the business and will in future conduct it.

The capital stock of the new company is $40,000, and all the hemlock, basswood and hardwood on the Cavendish Lumber Company's limits, will be purchased by the Peterborough company, the Cavendish company saving only the pine on their limits.

The mill at Burnham's Point, the property of the Dickson Company, and leased to the Cavendish Lumber Company, has been sub-leased to the Peterborough Lumber Company, by which company it will be operated in the future. All the logs and stock of the Dickson Company here have been purchased by the new company, which will saw pine as well as the other woods secured from the Cavendish Company.

The officers of the new company have all been associated with the Dickson Company, Mr. Davidson having been a member of the company and a large stockholder, while Mr. Thomson for 12 years has been a foreman. He will have charge of the operations of the new company, and his practical experience as foreman of the Dickson Company's mills at Peterborough and Lakefield makes him well qualified to handle this work. Mr. Lenton has been in the employ of the Dickson Company for the last 17 years, and is thoroughly conversant with the lumber business. He will have charge of the office work.

The formation of this new company means that the Cavendish Lumber Company will have no interests in Peterborough at all, the mill here being operated by the Peterborough by which the business formerly carried on by the Dickson Company will be continued.

High Court Of Justice Opened At One O'clock

Before the Honourable Chief Justice Falconbridge—Only One Case on the Docket—Clarke vs. Union Stock Underwriters Company of Peterborough.

The June sittings of the High Court of Justice opened this afternoon at 1 o'clock before the Honourable Mr. Chief Justice Falconbridge. Only one case constituted the docket, that of Jas. D. Clarke, against the Union Stock Underwriting company, of Peterborough. Mr. Watson, K.C., Toronto, and Messrs. Hall, Medd & Davidson, are looking after the case for the plaintiff, and Mr. W. R. Riddell, K.C., Toronto, and Edmison & Dixon for the defendant.

Mr. Watson addressed His Honour, presenting the case, and called no witnesses. The following is the plaintiff's case:

The defendants, the Union Stock Underwriting Company, on the 21st day of August, 1905, made two promissory notes, now overdue, whereby they promised to pay to Archibald Johnson, or his order, $7,000, in sums of $3,000 and $4,000, payable respectively two and five months after dated. Both of the notes were endorsed to the plaintiff by Johnson. The defendants have not paid any part of these notes, and the plaintiff claims $7,000 as principal and $115.27 as interest.

The defence was then called upon, the first witness being Mr. Edwin C. Howson. At time of going to press the case was still in progress.

Health The Prize Most Sought For

AND TO THOUSANDS OF WEAK, SICKLY PEOPLE HEALTH IS RESTORED BY

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

You want to be strong and healthy. Everybody does. Women as well as men.

There was a time when women prided themselves on looking pale and delicate.

That day has past.

To-day robust health is the ideal. A well-rounded form, firm flesh and muscles, strength and elasticity of movement and a healthful glow to the complexion — these are what all are striving for, and many are attaining their object by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

When the food which is taken into the body fails to supply the required amount of rich, life-sustaining blood external assistance must be sought until the system is fully restored.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food supplies the very material which goes directly to the formation of blood, pure, health-giving blood.

Mrs. J. Hatcher, 224 Sherbrooke street, Peterborough, Ont., and whose husband is a moulder at the Hamilton Foundry, states:—"I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism which left me in a very run down state of health, and in fact my whole nervous system seemed exhausted and worn out. I could not sleep and at times the pains in my head were almost unbearable. As a result of these symptoms I was unable to attend to my housework, and felt miserable most of the time. On the advice of a friend I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that it has proved of very great benefit to me. I am able to do my own work now, and feel stronger and healthier than I have for years. I can truthfully state that this is due to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which I consider a great health builder."

Weakness, irregularities, headaches, dizzy spells, feelings of fatigue, discouragement and despondency soon disappear before the splendid restorative influence of this great medicine, and for this reason Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has become so popular; 50 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 19

THE BURROWS CHARGES.

One of the most unfair features of the attacks made upon Hon. Clifford Sifton by his enemies is the charge that his brother-in-law, Mr. T. A. Burrows, enjoyed an unfair advantage in the matter of obtaining timber berths. The ex-Minister of the Interior cleared up this matter very thoroughly in his recent speech as follows:

Anybody listening to the remarks that he (Mr. Borden) made would think that Mr. Burrows had never had anything to do with lumber until I became Minister of the Interior; then suddenly finding his brother-in-law was in charge of the Department, and would have charge of the Dominion timber area, he thought he would have a good chance to get some timber, and proceeded to do so, and that he did it in some improper way. The facts are that Mr. Burrows began to be a lumberman about 30 years ago. He had been in the lumber business when he was a boy, and dealt with the Department of the Interior for timber limits when I was in private life, practising law, and before I was a member of Parliament or a member of the Legislature. He got timber limits from the late Conservative Government, and he got them for nothing. He has been doing a lumber business—he never did any other business so far as I know—doing a lumber business in an area where timber was owned by the Federal Government, and where, if he wanted to continue his business, he had to keep on dealing with the Department of the Interior. Will anybody suggest that because I became Minister of the Interior my brother-in-law was to go out of the business which he had followed for 15 years? That would be a most ridiculous suggestion. What he did do was to go on just as he had been doing before, doing business with the Department of the Interior, taking his holdings under the regulations of the Department, just the same as any other citizen of Canada had a right to do, just the same as he has a right to do from now on, no matter who may be Minister of the Department.

Such a clear-cut and direct statement, enforced by facts, ought to forever clear Mr. Sifton of the charge of having, while holding a public trust, given an undue advantage to his brother-in-law. We very much doubt, however, if the politicians who have been so persistent in vague accusations will have the manliness to set matters right.—Brantford Expositor.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Galt Reporter, Conservative, gleefully says:—"No immigration from France and thousands of newcomers from the British Isles every week. Hurrah!" The Reporter is gladly admitted to the ranks of the apostles of Canadian National Unity.

Mr. Cecil B. Smith the chairman of the Temiskaming & Northern Railway Commission, tells us that the passenger rates on the Government Road are only those charged by other companies. This is true, but, inquires the Brantford Expositor, what about the Conservative promise made while in Opposition to establish two-cent fares? Was that like the support of the Pettypiece bill, mere buncombe?

"Keep the flag flying to the last tatter," is "Jim" Hill's advice to Canadians. We have never had, say the Montreal Herald, any idea of doing aught else, and yet somehow the unneeded advice will be taken with better grace than was Lord Dundonald's to keep both hands on the Union Jack, for behind his lordship's words lurked the insinuation that some party or parties unknown required the admonition. Mr. Hill, being a native of Canada, and having much to do with Canadians, knows that the subject is not a live one. It was settled long ago, and his allusion was but an oratorical flourish.

The Moncton Transcript answers the accusation that the Laurier Government has suffered by changes in its personnel since 1896, by showing that there has been a similar thinning out of prominent men on the Conservative side. Here are a few names of Conservatives of admitted prominence now deceased or out of politics:

Sir Charles Tupper.
Sir Hibbert Tupper.
Sir Adolphe Caron.
Hon W. H. Montague.
Hon. N. Clark Wallace.
Hon. A. C. Lariviere.
Hon. E. G. Prior (Victoria City.)
Hon. J. F. Wood, (Brockville.)
Mr. A. C. Bell (Pictou.)
Mr. E. F. Clarke (Toronto.)
Mr. N. F. Davin.
Dalton McCarthy.
R. H. Pope (Compton.)

There are in the preceding no less than nine Conservatives of Cabinet rank, who were members of parliament after the elections of 1896, and are no longer so; and there are seven other names of prominence. If by death, resignations and appointments the Liberal ranks have suffered, the losses in the Conservative ranks are proportionately more startling in their character, with little promise of equally qualified successors in Conservative opposition.

The Sunday World printed a statement by high authority that some thousands of children would die in New York the coming summer from adulterated or watered milk. Yesterday, the World says, a seller of such milk was sent to jail for ten days. It is not a severe penalty for an offense so unpardonable. The utmost severity should be used in all such cases.

The city authorities in Peterborough should take some steps to license milk vendors who supply the city in order that inspection may be exercised. There is hardly any article of food that is so easily contaminated by uncleanly or careless methods as milk and lends itself so readily to adulteration. Above all things our milk supply should be above suspicion. Honest milk dealers have an interest in procuring rigid inspection. They are in a position of having to compete with an occasional dealer or two who is not above adding to his profits by watering his milk or skimming it, or keeping it sweet by noxious chemicals. Inspection would tend to place all upon a level and also to insure a universal supply of wholesome milk of good quality.

Constipation And Headache

Bileans a Certain Cure.

The above ailments frequently accompany each other. Indeed the first is the commonest known cause of the second. For both of them Bileans for Biliousness are a cure. To the hundreds of women who suffer from these ailments, the following facts will be of interest. Miss A. Campbell, of Monorieff, Peckham, says: "I suffered some time from constipation and did not seem able to get anything which would relieve me. One morning I awoke with a violent headache, a thing almost unknown to me previously, but I found it had come to stay!

"For the next three months it scarcely ceased! Then there came a nasty sickness in the morning, followed by dizziness, and, occasionally, fainting during the day. I attended the Women's Hospital for months, after having advice from three doctors. Yet, though at first I benefited by the treatment, I soon went from bad to worse again. My friends told me I looked like death, and I think I gave up all hope, for I was almost a skeleton, and the pain in my side, due no doubt to diver complaint, was like knives going through me!

"After trying everything I could get, and doctor's medicine and hospital treatment so long with so poor results, I adopted a friend's advice—gave up everything else, and tried what Bileans could do for me.

"They did wonders! Before the third box was finished I was like a new woman. In two months they cured me, whereas doctors had failed to do so in two years. I am writing this letter almost a year after my cure, and during that time I have had no recurrence of my old symptoms. So there is no question as to the permanency of my cure."

Bileans for Biliousness are the product of the latest scientific research. They do not merely purge and give temporary relief, like the old-fashioned remedies of forty or fifty years ago. They act directly on the liver and digestive organs, strengthening and stimulating them to do their own work, so that further medicine taking becomes unnecessary. They are purely vegetable, contain no harmful drugs, and are a certain cure for indigestion, headache, debility, sickness in the morning, dizziness, wind, pain after food, biliousness, female ailments, blood impurities, and all liver and kidney ailments. Of all druggists, at 50 cents per box, or post free from the Bilean Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price, 6 boxes for $2.50.

GRAND JURY'S PRESENTMENT TO HIS HONOUR JUDGE WELLER

Yesterday afternoon, before the resuming of the County Court, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentment to His Honour Judge Weller:—

To the Honourable Judge Weller.—

The Grand Jury beg to submit the following presentment:—

In the first place, we must compliment the county on the absence of crime. Our duties have been exceedingly light. Only two cases have been brought before us. We finished our work in connection with these. Then we visited the jail—here we found everything in first-class condition—building clean and well ventilated; prisoners very well satisfied with their treatment. We are glad to note that the aged people detained here on account of no crime, but through the force of circumstances, are being provided for by a splendid home in the House of Refuge, which is being erected by the County Council at an expense of $35,000.

We have visited all the public institutions and have found everything in perfect order.

We also wish to compliment your Honour on your apparent good health, and hope you may be able to perform your duties for years yet to come.

PETERBORO' LADY'S DIARY MAKES STARTLING READING

A young man some days ago made a find that resulted in somewhat startling disclosures. It was nothing less than a diary, alleged to have been the property of one of the city's most popular and best known young ladies. The book is said to have made sensational reading and the "Love letters of an Englishman" are eclipsed by this little story of real life. In it the history of a modern courtship is outlined concisely, but completely. The hero is a well known young man who has since left the city. The progress of his love-making is carefully noted. For instance one passage describes the enraged parent of the young lady scolding her for keeping ——, so late. The little book furnishes an interesting history of the life of a Peterborough young lady since August 1st, last, until the end of May.

BIGGEST EXCURSION TO GUELPH IN HISTORY

The excursion under the auspices of the Farmers' Institutes of East and West Peterborough and East Durham to Guelph and the Agricultural College to-day, was the largest in the history of these excursions. When the train left this city there were fifteen coaches, the majority of them crowded, and a number of other stations had still to be called at. Fully 800 passengers took the train at this station, where three coaches had to be added to the train, which was hauled by two engines. The contingent from the west joined the excursion at Millbrook, and when the train reached the main line at Port Hope, its numbers had swelled to such an extent that the train was divided into two section each being hauled by one of the big engines. Mr. W. Bunton accompanied the excursionists and looked after their comfort in his usual affable manner.

Ideal weather conditions prevailed and the success of the excursion is assured.

MEN'S GUILD EXCURSION WAS WELL ATTENDED

The annual outing of the Young Men's Guild of St. Paul's church to-day to Stony Lake attracted about 100 persons, who left on the regular C.P.R. train for Lakefield, where the steamer Stoney Lake was waiting to convey them around the lakes. Very complete arrrangements had been made for the event, and with the energetic committee in charge an enjoyable day's outing was fully assured.

The usual programme of sports will be run off at some point on the lakes.

PETERBOROUGH IS TO BE COMPLIMENTED

The "American Carpet and Upholstering Journal" says: The Peterborough, Ont., newspapers are full these days of the doings of councils in their efforts to acquire the ground wanted by the Brinton Carpet Company, and which they occupy under the concessions made them by the town of Peterborough, as an inducement to plant there their Brussels carpet factory. We don't know how badly the Dominion needs a Brussels carpet factory, but we can certainly congratulate them on getting one with so reputable a name and with such antecedents as that of the Brinton Company, Limited, of Kidderminster. The name of "Brinton" is one to conjure with in Brussels and Wilton carpets in England, and imparts dignity and confidence at once to the Peterborough enterprise.

Confirmed The President's Action

Board of Directors Decide to Exclude Autos.

At a special meeting of the directors of the Little Lake Cemetery Company, called yesterday afternoon for its purpose, and held in the office of the president, Mr. W. H. Moore, a resolution confirming the action of the president in ordering that no automobiles be allowed in the cemetery, was passed unanimously, and notices will be posted at the cemetery entrances to this effect.

The president of the Company explains to the Examiner that this action is not taken because of any dislike to the fortunate owners of autos, but simply as a means of protecting the monuments in the cemetery. It is feared that if autos are allowed on the narrow drives, horses, becoming unmanagable will run against the valuable timbstones and destroy them, and in this case the owners would probably attempt to hold the Company responsible.

OBITUARY.

MRS. NELSON RUSAW.

A death attended by distressing circumstances occurred last night shortly after midnight, when Lavina Lawson, the wife of Nelson Rusaw, of 70 street, passed away, after only four hours' illness, the cause of death being hemmorhage. The deceased lady was 40 years of age and had been a resident of this city for five years. She was a daughter of the late Isaac Lawson, of Seymour township, where she was born and raised. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and three children, two boys and one girl, the eldest being thirteen years of age. She is also survived by two brothers and five sisters, Messrs. Isaac and John Lawson, of Seymour, and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Free, Mrs. Wanamaker and Mrs. Vanderburg, of Seymour, and Mrs. Clark, of Dummer.

The funeral will take place on Saturday morning at 10.30 to the C.P.R. station, the body being taken to Norwood on the 11.36 train and interment at the Norwood cemetery.

DANDRUFF DON'T WASH OUT

The Germ That Causes It Has to Be Destroyed, to Cure Dandruff.

Many a woman spends an hour twice a week scouring her scalp, thinking that by rubbing off the scurf she will cure the dandruff. Two hours a week, at the age of 40 years, she has spent 260 days of 12 hours each, or two-thirds of a year of her life, in that vain hope; vain, because you can't cure dandruff without killing the dandruff germ, and the only hair preparation on earth that will do that is Newbro's "Herpicide"—also a delightful hair dressing, and thorough antiseptic from all contagion from use of other's hair brushes. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

Milk Wagon Breaks Window

Accident at Corner of Charlotte and Bethune Streets.

One dollar was the amount of damage done to the window in the G.T.R. gatekeeper's house on Charlotte street this morning by a milk wagon. The milk vendor who is a native of North Monaghan, had turned up Bethune street from Charlotte, when his horse became frightened at a shunting freight train. The animal backed the wagon into the house smashing one of the windows, but otherwise the damage was slight.

Both will be found regularly at their chairs to save waiting. The new firm will also handle highest grade cigars, cigarettes, and tobaccos. It's a union shop. 5d136

KILL THE FISH SOON AS CAUGHT

In view of the fact that the fishing season opens on Saturday the following advice from "Our Dumb Animals," will be of interest:

Always kill fish as they are taken from the water by a sharp blow with a baton or stick on the back of the head. They keep better and are in all respects better than those that suffer just before dying. The best fishermen in Europe and America know this. The suffering of an animal just before dying always tends to make the meat unwholesome and sometimes poisonous.

FIRST RIDE ON TRAIN OR STREET CAR IN HIS LIFE

The most highly pleased man in Peterborough yesterday was Mr. George Rutherford, of Indian River, who yesterday passed through an experience which was entirely new to him.

Mr. Rutherford is 48 years of age, and until he came to Peterborough to serve on the Petit Jury at the County Court, he had never been on a steam or electric railway car. He came to Peterborough to perform his duties in connection with the court, on the C.P.R., taking his first ride on the train in his 48 years. When he arrived in the city he took a number of rides on the street cars, and his new experience was so satisfactory to him that to-day he took a more extended trip and joined the farmers' excursion to Guelph, visiting Toronto, of course, for the first time, as well as Guelph.

HALL-RUSH NUPTIALS

One of the most interesting weddings ever performed in All Saints' church, was that which was solemnized there this morning at eleven o'clock, when, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the popular young bride and groom, the rector, Rev. William Major, spoke the words which pronounced Miss Mary Isabel, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Rush, 249 Aylmer street, and Mr. Samuel Dickson, eldest son of Mr. Richard Hall, manand wife. Both young people are well known in this, their native town, and none are more highly esteemed by their wide circle of friends.

The church was decorated for the occasion, the colour scheme being pink and white, roses and carnations being used. As the bridal party entered the church Miss May Bullen, the organist, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The ushers, Mr. Harry Rush, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Dickson Davidson, cousin of the groom, led the procession to the altar, the bridesmaid, Miss Lilian Hamilton Rush, sister of the bride, preceding the latter, who was given away by her father. The groomsman was Mr. Richard Hamilton Hall, brother of the groom.

The bride looked charming in a most handsome travelling suit of cream French serge, with Persian and cream lace trimmings, and wore a hat to match. She carried a large bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was most becomingly attired in a rich, pink flowered organdie over white silk taffeta. She also wore a hat to match. She carried pink roses.

Mrs. Rush, mother of the bride, wore a black silk costume, with rose point collar, and pearl ornaments with a handsome grey Chepeaux, with plumes.

During the ceremony, and after the priest gave the blessing, the choir, of which the bride was until recently a valued member, sang the "Dens," and as the register was being signed Miss Marguerite Sawyers, cousin of the bride, sang "Oh, Fair, Oh, Sweet; Oh, Holy." After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Hall drove to the G. T. R. Station, where they took the 11.45 train for Toronto. They will later go to New York, and on June 20th will sail from that city by the white Star Liner Oceanic for a ten weeks trip to the British Isles and the Continent, in which Mr. Hall will combine business with pleasure.

Upon their return they will reside at No. 25 Dennistoun avenue.

Evidences of the popularity of the bride and groom are furnished by the presents, which both in quality and in numbers were characteristic of the occasion. Among the gifts was a handsome one from the staff of Messrs. Richard Hall & Son, of which firm the groom is a member.

WANTS CEREAL MILL FOR SASKATOON CITY

The American Cereal Company was to-day approached by Mr. J. H. Scriver, of Saskatoon, Sask., with a view to inducing that company to establish a cereal mill in that city. Mr. Scriver is one of the leading citizens of the new western town, and is in the east looking up some new industries, for which he considers there are openings there. There is a flour mill already established in the city, but, according to Mr. Scriver, they need a cereal mill and a large flour mill. He asserts that there is a big market in that country for package cereals, and states that all the breakfast foods used there come from the east, Peterborough mills supplying a considerable quantity. He believes that a good business could be done by a new mill starting in the progressive city of Saskatoon, and will try and induce the American Cereal Company to locate a mill there.

Streamers Should Be Taken Down

Merchant Takes Exception to Cole Bros. Advertisements on George Street.

"People are always talking about Peterborough being up-to-date, but look at those things!" said a well-known merchant this morning, as he pointed to the streamers on the street car wires bearing the legend "June 8," in big red letters, which remain to testify to the fact that Cole Bros.' circus visited here on that date. He went on to say that they were a disgrace to the city and should have been taken down immediately after the show, whereas on the contrary they have been allowed to remain there for almost a week.

ARE YOU A PRISONER?

THOUSANDS of men are prisoners of disease as securely as though they were confined behind the bars. Many have forged their own chains by the vices of early youth, exposure to contagious disease, or the excesses of manhood. They feel they are not the men they ought to be or need to be. The vim, vigor, and vitality of manhood are lacking. Are you nervous and despondent? tired in the morning? have you to force yourself through the day's work? have you little ambition and energy? are you irritable and excitable? eyes sunken, depressed and haggard looking? memory poor and brain fagged? have you weak back with dreams and losses at night? deposit in urine? weak sexually?—you have

Many Excursionists From Bewdley In City

Rice Lake People Spend Some Hours Here Sight-Seeing—Were Out for a Time and Apparently Had It—Some Amusing Sights.

The city was invested with two hundred and fifty residents of Bewdley and the vicinity this afternoon. The excursion was held under the auspices of the Bewdley Baptist and Zion Methodist churches and was carried by the steamer Monarch which left Bewdley at 7.30 o'clock. As a result George street had a circus day appearance and the excursionists looked very much like the crowd that awaits the arrival of the calliope and other parade attractions. They were out for a time and apparently had it. Some visited the lift locks, but to the majority the attractions of George street were too alluring and they didn't wander far from the Peterborough Broadway. One ancient excursionists armed with a baseball bat and dignified whiskers aroused a lo tof interest. Speculation was rife as to whether he was Pop Anson or the village constable. A group of young followers of the plough with their hands joined was also the subject of comment and one citizen compared it to a procession of circus elephants.

The happy crowd of agriculturists left the city at 3.30. It was their intention to stop at Jubilee Point for supper and athletic games.

BIG BLOOD SUCKER STUCK FAST TO PADDLE

Mr. S. H. Mitchell is carrying a quart bottle around with him to-day. He showed this bottle to all his friends, but there's nothing in it that they want to imbibe. All it contains is a pint of water, and a blood-sucker—the largest he ever saw and the largest any of his friends have ever seen. It is a foot long, when it stretches out, which, of course, it cannot do in the bottle. He caught it on his paddle last night. It was stuck fast, sucking the blade of the paddle, and ever since he placed it in the bottle has had its nose floating against the glass. He doesn't know just yet what he will do with it.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 14.—To-day's stock market was reactionary. The selling movement began yesterday afternoon and was continued this morning and stock receded rather easily. Copper, U.P., Reading, The Steels and Smelters were noticeably weak while on the other hand B & O opened up 3-4 and advanced 2 more, imparting a firmness to the other soft coalers. St. Paul also showed good resistance to the general declining tendency.

In the afternoon the selling became more vigorous and the market gave way all round. The decline in Reading reached over 8 points, stop loss orders being reached in numerous other issues and little support was in evidence.

The market rallied very sharply toward the close on short covering and the close was steady.

Swimming Baths Very Popular

Many are Learning This Art at the Y. M. C. A.

Considerable interest is being taken in swimming at the Y.M.C.A. these days and already a number have learned this valued art. Mr. F. Walters is showing considerable interest in some of the members in this line, and he is a very successful teacher. A boy who joined on Tuesday swam the width of the bath with ease after the first lesson.

Parents could do their boys no better service at this time of the year than to secure them membership tickets and have them learn to swim in a place where there is no danger of accident.

Cases have been known here in Peterborough where accidents have been averted by boys who got their first lessons in the Y.M.C.A. plunge bath.

Nervous and Worried.

Mr. Archibald Sutherland, Principal South Bur School, Sydney, N.S., writes, "I was greatly troubled with nervous dyspepsia, and after meals I often felt like vomiting, and my stomach was sore. I was nervous and worried, frequently had headaches and shortness of breath. When several doctors failed I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it has entirely cured me. I shall be glad to be the means of bringing this medicine to the notice of any one who is suffering as I did."

LITTLE Bell Biographies

Grieg

EDVARD HAGERUP GRIEG, born 1843, is the most celebrated of Norwegian Composers. And he with MacDowell in America are the chief expenents of the Keltic spirit in modern music—the spirit that dwells on the mystery, weirdness, loneliness, ghostliness, sadness, and magic of hill and stream, forest and glen, mists and shadows, the night, the lover, the wanderer and deathless death.

Grieg received his first music lessons from his mother till he was 15 years old, when he was sent to Leipsic to study under the best masters in composition and pianoforte. He is celebrated as a conductor and pianist. As a composer he has written sonatas, concertos, choral and orchestral pieces, but his best and most popular works are his songs and pianoforte compositions. His music is as glowing and as brilliant as the Norwegian winter and summer; it is full of pathos and weirdness, and often dances with elfish movement.

Grieg's most popular songs are "I Love Thee," "Sunshine," "With a Violet," "With a Water Lily." He is best known by his two orchestral suites "Peer Gynt," originally written as a pianoforte duet. There are magical haunting harmonies in "Ase's Death," and an unearthly oriental quality in "Anitra's Dance." As arranged for the piano they require an instrument like which, with its greatest of modern improvements, THE ILLIMITABLE REPEATING ACTION, and its full, rich, resonant tone, renders perfectly every degree of musical shading, whispering like the leaves or resounding like the heaven's thunder. The Bell Art Piano is the Ideal of the Master Musican.

DOMESTICS TO HAVE ONE DAY A WEEK OFF

If the Lord's Day bill becomes law in its present form, all domestic servants will be entitled to one complete day's rest in seven. The servant who works on Sunday will have the legal right to demand one whole day off during the week. It is easy to see that such a provision was inserted by a lot of men who are not very well acquainted with housework. Women know that meals must be cooked, beds made, floors swept and dishes washed every day in the week. If the provision becomes law, and the servants stand upon their legal rights it may be necessary to put aprons and caps on the men, and turn them loose on the housework on the servants' day off.—Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

CORRESPONDENCE ON KIRKFIELD LIFT LOCK

Ottawa, June 13. — Correspondence was brought down to-day with reference to the leak in the hydraulic lift lock at Kirkfield, Ont. It cost the Department $250 to make the repairs last October. On February 15 of this year the Department wrote to Messrs. Larkin and Sangster, the contractors, stating that the Department would look to them to make good all defects that had developed in consequence of their neglect.

Messrs. Belcourt and Ritchie, barristers, Ottawa, wrote to the Department four days later, on behalf of the contractors, contending that they were not guilty of any neglect, nor had they failed to comply with and carry out the terms of their contract and specifications. Further correspondence followed, but the Department still holds that the responsibility cannot, under the terms of their contract, be avoided.

MAPLE LEAVES BIGGER THAN RHUBARB LEAVES

The foliage and tree growth in British Columbia is almost incomprehensible to eastern people. Mr. T. H. Best, of Bethune street north, has received from Mr. J. C. Turnbull, in the Pacific Province, a maple leaf, taken from a tree there, which puts a rhubarb leaf in Ontario in the shade. At the widest point it is 15 1-2 inches across, and at the narrowest point 10 1-2 inches, while from the end of the stem to the point of the leaf the length is 22 inches—dimensions which seem incredible to persons living in the east.

Didn't Mind The Confusion

A Pair of Robbins Nest Over the Door at Railway Station.

Some people are forced to live near railway stations and stand the noise of shunting trains, whistling engines, ringing bells and shouting trainmen from morn till night, but such a lover of nature as robin red breast very seldom chooses such a centre of commercial activity to rear her fluffy brood. Yet one pair built their nest over the door of the agent's room at the G.T.R. station a short time ago and to-day marked the advent of a flourishing brood of youngsters. The cook rock engaged in house cleaning immediately the chicks chipped their way through their blue shelled covering, and was seen busily employed in throwing out the pieces of the shells to the ground below. The mother bird in the meantime made frequent visits to her babes with nice large juicy worms.

MANY DEACONS WERE ORDAINED

In St. Alban's Cathedral on Sunday night, a number of deacons were ordained, among them being Herbert Alfred Ben Oliet, to be assistant curate at Millbrook, Parish of Cavan; Ray Braund Graff, B. A., M. A., to be assistant curate at St. John's Port Hope.

Yards Unusually Clean This Year

Police Find Little to Complain of on Their Annual Visit.

Constable Stewart, who is making the usual early summer tour of the back yards of the city, reports that his inspection so far has been very satisfactory, and that never before has he found yards and premises in such a clean condition. In only a very few cases was there any cause of complaint, and the police court cases earlier in the season seem to have served as a warning to the citizens, who have hastened to put their premises in good shape. The officers will soon be through with their inspecting tour.

AUXILIARY'S REPORTS WERE SATISFACTORY

Examiner Special

Port Hope, June 13.—At the opening meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference Women's Missionary Auxiliary the President, Mrs. Platt, and other officers of the society occupied seats on the platform, and after the opening speeches had been concluded the business session commenced and the usual preliminary committees were appointed. Rev. G. W. Henderson, pastor of the church, presided at the evening session, and extended a formal welcome to the visitors, which was responded to by Mrs. Winterbourne of Trenton. The annual address of the President was then read, after which followed the Treasurer's financial statement and the Corresponding Secretary's report, both of which showed substantial and encouraging financial and numerical growth.

INNES COMES BACK FOR MORE

Chas. Innes has apparently to live and learn. Yesterday he was looked up for being drunk on the street and to-day was found by P.C. Rutherford in the city wood yard, near Ackerman's harness factory. He was lying on the broad of his back in the sun and a blue coat was apparently the last thing he thought of. He said he had been doing nothing wrong and expressed his opinion that booze was a bad thing.

Geo. Rickerby Acquitted Of Charge Against Him

Was Accused of Obtaining Money Under False Pretences From Wm. Ayers for Rent of Pasture Land in Douro —No Evidence to Prove His Guilt—County Court Closed Yesterday.

Both the criminal cases yesterday at the County Court terminated favourably for the prisoners. Yesterday afternoon the case of the Crown versus George Rickerby, accused of obtaining money under false pretences from William Eyres, for rent of pasture land in Douro, was considered, and the prisoner was found not guilty by the jury.

The circumstances of the case appeared to be of a very much complicated character, but no evidence on which to convict the prisoner was given.

Crown Attorney Wood looked after the interests of the Crown, and Mr. R. F. McWilliams acted for George Rickerby.

Mr. Morrow.

Mr. Morrow, the County Registrar, was the first witness called by the Crown, and produced the deeds of the property in the township of Douro, over which the trouble had arisen. The defendant, as shown by the papers produced, had a deed of the property in 1905, and had given a mortage for $700, and later he gave another mortgage on these and other lands, for $5500. Other deeds showed that Rickerby had no legal title to this property.

Mr. Davidson.

Mr. W. S. Davidson, of the firm of Hall, Medd and Davidson, was the next witness. He said he knew of the business done by the firm with the prisoner. His firm served John Rickerby with a notice that the property would be sold, and advertised the property for sale on Jan. 6th. There were no offers. Possession was taken of the property in the spring.

Mr. Hayes.

The next witness sworn was Mr. L. M. Hayes. He had done some business with the Rickerbys, chiefly John. He had prepared a deed from John Rickerby or the Bank of Montreal, but he did not know whether George Rickerby had any knowledge of it or not.

Mr. Ozias de Laplante.

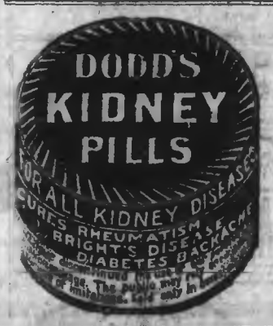
Mr. Ozias Laplante was next called. He had prepared the deed from Michael Sullivan to George T. Rickby. He also prepared a mortgage mortgage from George Rickerby to Isaac Eastwood.

John Rickerby.

For the defence John Rickerby, a brother of George, was the only witness. He knew of a lot George had purchased from Sullivan. When they dissolved partnership an agreement was made by which George was to get the use of the six acres in question for two years. This agreement was drawn up between themselves. He signed the deed Mr. Hayes spoke of in Mr. Elliott's liquor store. Witness said he would not state how much he owed the Bank of Montreal. He never tried to find out what the contents of the document were he signed in Mr. Elliott's store. He got a notice of the sale of the land, but he didn't know whether it was sold or not.

The agreement with his brother stated that the later was to have the use of the land for two years while he himself was to get so much a year during that time. Geo. Rickerby did not go into the box.

The solicitors then addressed the jury who returned shortly with the above named verdict of not guilty.



Contributions To San Francisco

The Knights of Columbus Give Generously.

Knights of Columbus councils are making a good showing in the San Francisco relief work. Los Angeles Council contributed $10,000, San Francisco Council, which had $20,000 in its treasury for a building fund, voted the whole amount to the relief fund, a splendid act of charity and self-sacrifice. Detroit Council gave $500; Indianapolis Council $500; Dubuque Council $250; Davenport Council, $100; Cincinnati Council, $500; Philadelphia Chapter levied an assessment on the Philadelphia councils to the total amount of $5,000. Anaconda Council gave $250. The State Council of Michigan presented by voluntary offering $250 to the Catholic Church Extension Society.—Catholic Register.

GRAND TRUNK CHANGE OF TIME

The usual summer change of time on the Northern Division of the Grand Trunk Railway affects only the Lakefield Division, so far as Peterborough is concerned. The mid-day Lakefield train leaves Peterborough for Lakefield at 11.55 a. m., instead of 12.15 p.m. and the new train for Lakefield leaves at 5.04 in the evening, arriving back in Peterborough at 6.30 p.m. No change in other trains. A new train will leave Lindsay daily at 8.00 o'clock in the evening, except Sunday, for Fenelon Falls.

MR. FITZGERALD'S WORK IS GOOD

The Bowmanville Statesman, referring to the work of Mr. P. Fitzgerald, who refereed the game in that town between Cobourg and the home team on Saturday, says: Mr. P. Fitzgerald, Peterborough, refereed the game. He is a good, clean and fair referee, and both teams were much pleased with his work, not one of his decisions being disputed.

REGINA HAS WORST STORM IN THE CITY'S HISTORY

(Examiner Special.)

Regina, June 15.—The worst storm in the history of the city swept over here last night, tearing McPhee's circus tent into ribbons and causing panic amongst the thousands of attendants. Electric light wires were torn down, telegraph poles set afire and only strenuous efforts of the citizens kept up all night prevented a calamity.

A blinding rain fell when the circus tent was blown down, and dozens of persons were trampled in the mud in the scramble for safety which followed. Children were crushed under the seats and many women were injured.

Rain filled the gutters, the sewers being unable to carry off the torrents.

Many cellars were flooded and hundreds of people are busy this morning clearing away the debris and estimating the damage.

Members of the western section of the Coal Dealers' Association, to the number of 35, are to-day enjoying an excursion through Clear and Stony Lakes, the guests of the local coal dealers. The majority of the members arrived last night, and were welcomed by their brother dealers in this city. The visitors, many of whom saw the Kawartha Lakes for the first time, no doubt greatly enjoyed the beauties of Peterborough's summer resort. It was the intention of the dealer sto hold a meeting during the day. They are accompanied by President J. C. Hay, of Listowel, and Secretary H. McIntosh, Woodstock.

THE HIGH WATER PLEASES EVERYONE

The water in Stony Lake is pretty high at present. This greatly pleases the lumbermen and the boat owners, and is not displeasing to the cottagers. No complaints have been heard and every person seems well satisfied with the present level of the water.—Norwood Register.

No Weapons Used, The Prisoner Asserted

Mike Loveringo Accused of Wounding Tony Silvestro With a Knife—Was Remanded Until Wednesday—Italians Again in the Limelight.

For a long time there has been a noticeable calm in Italian criminal quarters, but last night the storm came, with the result that Mike Loveringo was placed behind the bars, charged with wounding Antonio Silvertro, with a knife. The row in which Silvestro received painful, although not serious, injuries to his head, occurred between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock at one of Ranzetti's boarding houses on Bethune street, near Hunter.

The prisoner stated that the trouble was caused by a dispute between himself and the wounded man concerning their pay for services on the Trent Canal, and that it was merely a drunken brawl. He said that in the row he pushed Loveringo over and the latter in falling struck his head on a table. He said there was no knife used. Interpreter Minocolo told City Clerk Armstrong, who was again in the Magistrate's chair in the absence of Police Magistrate Dumble, that no knife, club or any weapon was used.

"I wasn't informed to that effect," said the Chief.

"There are witnesses to prove this," said the interpretor.

"I would ask for a remand until Wednesday," said the Chief, "when the Magistrate will be here." And the remand was granted.

Mr. Minocolo proceeded to look up the witnesses, but outside the wounded man who was there with his head bound up, but who appeared to have suffered very little from the effects of his wound, there was only one witness present.

"I can't talk to them," said the Chief to the interpretor, "but I want you to tell these people that there have been complaints about them running up and down the sidewalk on Sunday with a bicycle, and making a noise. If they don't stop it some of them will find themselves in the police court."

Some Food Scandals Unearthed In London

Sanitary Inspector Makes a Report on the Revolting Conditions Which He Found—London Confectioners Said to Have Used Over-Ripe Eggs—Details Too Loathsome to Recite.

(Examiner Special.)

London, June 15.—A Camberwell sanitary inspector has sent in a report which declares that a firm engaged in manufacturing tinned "delicacies" such as potted chicken and tongue, had been making them out of old tinned meat which had been worked over and other materials added, under circumstances too loathsome to give in detail. The inspector cites instances of meat from cows that died of diseases, finding its way into the London butcher shops, while all sorts of refuse and dirty scraps are put into the London-made sausages, he declares.

The inspector says that recently in a jam factory he found 980 pounds of dried raisins filled with ants and other insects, rotten apple pulp, orange peel, filthy macaroni and other refuse bought from grocers, all of which was being treated and made into jam. Many London confectioners, he said, use rotten eggs in the manufacture of the delicacies.

Steamer Manita Was Damaged By Fire

Trent Valley Navigation Company's Steamer Burned at Bobcaygeon To-day—Spark From Boiler the Origin —Boat Will be Repaired as Soon as Possible.

(Examiner Special.)

Bobcaygeon, June 15.—The steamer Manita, one of the Trent Valley Navigation Company's boats, was badly damaged by fire at 5 o'clock this morning. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark from the boiler. The boat will be repaired and put in commission again as soon as possible. The loss is covered by insurance.

MR. H. A. PEARSON HAS NEW Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

Invitations have been received at the local association for the opening exercises of the new Y.M.C.A. building in Collingwood, which takes place on Monday evening, June 18.

This building cost in the neighbourhood of $20,000, and its erection is due to the efforts of the general secretary, Mr. H. A. Pearson.

Peterborough friends are much interested in this work, as Mr. Pearson went into association work from this association, having been an employee of The Examiner during his residence in the city.

Three years ago he became general secretary at the Soo, and has since been in charge of the work in Collingwood, where a strong association has been built up. He has done credit to himself and the association in which he received his training.

THE SMART SHIRT STORE

REPUTATION SHIRT

How to tell the difference? There's really little in price on good SHIRTS in the leading stores, they all have the $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 kind and so on. But price does'nt tell the SHIRT story. It's to be read only in the quality. Most men in Peterborough know our reputation for perfect fitting SHIRTS. We care enough for this reputation to give you more SHIRT quality than any other store in the City. Try us.

Will Send Paper To Old Country

To Warn Against Highly Colored Stories of Canada.

Mr. Geo. Pert, the Englishman who was forced to dive in a lake about a time ago, and about whose experiences The Examiner printed an article, is sending a copy of the paper with the account of his adventures to a leading Yorkshire newspaper, in which it will be published. Mr. Pert hopes by giving the matter publicity in the Old Country that some good will result in advising Canada in its true colours. Immigration agencies in England, he says, are apparently too ambitious in their descriptions of Canada as a land where wealth in various ways is quickly and easily.

WOMENS' NEGLECT
SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

Health Thus Lost is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness or other female weakness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result.

The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Clara Beaubien, of Beauport, Quebec, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"For several years I have suffered with a female weakness which proved a serious drain on my vitality, sapping my strength and causing severe headaches, bearing-down pains and a general worn-out feeling, until I really had no desire to live. I tried many medicines, but did not get permanent relief until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In two months I was much better and stronger, and in four months I was well; no more disagreeable discharge, no more pain. So I have every reason to praise the Vegetable Compound, and I consider it without equal for the ills of women."

For twenty-five years Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, has under her direction and since her decease, been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful. Address, Lynn, Mass.

June Issue Of Rod and Gun

An Excellent Outdoor Magazine for This Month.

With midsummer heat, people's thoughts are turning to vacations, and they are seeking to escape from the man-made cities to the delightful haunts of Nature, and the simple, free, and untrammeled life of the God-made country. Again Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont., is prepared to give them just the information they seek. The June number is devoted to Boating and Summer Resorts and the longing to be away from toil and turmoil will come over most people as they turn over the pages of this fascinating Magazine. The choice of outings in Canada is infinite in variety and attractiveness, and some very fine samples are presented for consideration in this number. From the east to the west, places within easy access of civilization, and those remote from the throbbing life of cities, seaside, backwoods, and mountain resorts, all receive notice, while sportsmen of every kind find some fare dealing with their own particular field. The immense strides motor boating has made in Canada are fully dealt with in this number, and the Toronto Canoe Club, the largest organization of the kind in the world, is the subject of a specially illustrated article. Hunting and fishing remain, as ever, the special strength of the Magazine, which in entering upon its eighth year shows all the symptoms of a healthy vigorous life, and justifies to the full the statements made in the birthday retrospect, and gives promise of continuing, with even more effectiveness, its good work for the future. The numerous attractions presented by Canada to the sportsmen and tourists of the world are becoming more widely known each month through the pages of Canada's premier Sportsmen's Magazine.

Give Due Notice Of Street Extensions

Board of Works Decides to Give Notice of its Intention to Extend George Street to Landsdowne and Partially Open Aylmer Street—Gilmour Street Residents Want Sidewalk on That Street—Tender Was Accepted for Removing Dredgings.

At a short session held last night, the Board of Works took another step towards making the much-talked-of extensions of George and Aylmer streets a reality.

This was the most important business before the Board, and considerable time was spent in discussion. The outcome of the matter was the passing of a motion to the effect that notice be given that bylaws would be submitted for the extension of the above mentioned streets, as designated later on in this report. Several other matters were considered and disposed of.

The following members were present: Chairman Hicks, Ald. McIntyre, Wilson, Adams, Graham, Mayor Best and City Engineer Hay.

Mr. Conroy Gets Contract.

The only tender received for the contract of taking the material from the dredge, and placing it on the city property, between the C. P. R. spur line and the water front, was from Mr. F. Conroy. The price of his tender was 13 cents per cubic yard for all work and labour, furnishing teams, etc. Mr. Conroy was awarded the contract on motion of Ald. Adams.

Gilmour Street Sidewalk.

Mr. J. H. McClellan waited on the Board, and wanted to know why the granolithic sidewalk had not been built on Gilmour street as requested in the petition forwarded to the council last year.

In reply Ald. Hicks stated that several walks petitioned for and granted last year had not been built last year owing to the rush of work. The Gilmour street sidewalk would be taken up in turn, as the men worked upward from the southern end of the city where they commenced on the concrete walks.

Street Extension.

The Board then took up the extension of George and Aylmer streets.

The chairman, Ald. Hicks, stated that he had gone into the matter carefully and that he considered the Board could open these thoroughfares as proposed, without creating an overdraft. He pointed out that the appropriation of the Board had been increased by the larger receipts from the license holders, the sale of some property, and in several ways that had not been looked for at the beginning of the year. His plan was to open up George street, and to extend Aylmer street from the school property to Wescott street.

Mayor Best suggested that George street be opened and as much of Aylmer street as could be done without overdraining the appropriation. He was not opposed to a small overdraft, but did not wish to see the Board get behind materially.

Several other phases of the question were discussed at some length, and, to bring the matter to a head, Ald. Adams moved, seconded by Ald. Graham, that notice be given of the intention of the council to pass bylaws for opening 66 feet wide George street between Lake and Lansdowne streets, and Aylmer street from the public school site to Wescott street.

On being put the motion carried unanimously.

The Board then adjourned.

The Trip Of The Institutes To Farmers' College, Guelph

The Annual Excursion to Guelph Largely Attended—Successful and Interesting Outing.

The annual, or practically annual, excursion of the amalgamated— for the occasion—Farmers' Institutes of East and West Peterborough and East Durham, run to the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, yesterday, was in all ways a most pleasant success; in fact, old timers, who have attended everyone of the five or six that have been held, place it in the first ranks. The weather was perfect and the attendance large. A couple of hundred came up to Peterborough on the Grand Trunk and the excursion train pulled out of Peterborough with ten well-laden coaches and to the five hundred odd there was added enough to make the total $30 on arrival at Port Hope, where, and at Newcastle and Bowmanville, enough were added to make the grand total 700. The run to Guelph was made pretty closely on schedule time.

The excursion party and the great majority, on arrival, went by tram car directly to the Agricultural College, where a luncheon was served and then the visitors separated, the ladies to visit the McDonald Hall, the home of the lady students in training in the Macdonald Institute devoted to nature study, manual training, and domestic science.

The men of the party were taken in charge by Mr. Squirrel and taken over the experimental plots of this section of the farm, and the various experiments in grain growing, the best varieties, the best form of cultivation, the best time of sowing and the best varieties for special purposes on the farm as feed or for domestic and general use, were fully explained.

The party was then taken in charge by Prof. Day, who guided them through the piggeries and the cattle department, delivering a running lecture upon the points of interest to farmers and breeders, and the results of various feeding and breeding experiments. This expedition ended at the farm dairy, where the greatest interest was taken in a demonstration of the milking machine.

That this was made was due to the management of the Peterborough Institutes, who requested the College authorities to make the exhibition of the milking machine. This was assented to and this will be on the programme of entertainment of all Institute excursions from other parts of the Province. The Peterborough excursions to Guelph are due to Mr. Frank Birdsall, who has been president of the East Riding Institute, since its organization, and a member of every annual excursion committee but one since they began. He organized the first united riding excursion to Jubilee Point, 16 or 18 years ago and since that time there has been an excursion down the river or to Guelph every year.

The joint excursion committee for 1906, consists of Mr. Frank Birdsall, president of the East Riding Institute, chairman; E. Hawthorne, Vice-president, and Charles O'Reilly, secretary; T. M. Hunter, president of the West Riding Institute; J. N. Telford, vice-president and W. Collins, secretary; T. A. Kelly, president East Durham, David Sutton, vice-president and A. J. Faills, secretary. Mr. Wm. Collins, was secretary of the excursion committee, as he has been of every previous committee, and it was to his energetic work and co-operation of the other members that the success of the excursion so far as organization could effect success was due. The return journey was without incident, and Peterborough was reached shortly after one o'clock this morning.

Served Under "Buffalo Bill"

Did Late Edwin Rowland of Port Hope.

The funeral of the late Edwin Rowland, who died on Monday, 11th, of June, took place Wednesday from the family residence on Thomas street to the Union Cemetery. The Rev. J. E. Trotter conducted the services. The pall-bearers were Messrs. N. Gill, H. Trewin, Wm. Tickle, David Bassett, L. B. Randall and David Snell, of Peterborough. The Sons of England attended in a body. The deceased was born in England 65 years ago. He worked for a number of years with Wm. Craig & Sons, tanners. He had been ailing for a number of years with heart trouble, which was the cause of his death. Mr. Rowland at one time served in the American cavalry under Wm. Cody (Buffalo Bill).—Port Hope Times.

UNDERGROUND WIRES WANTED

The Lindsay Watchman-Warder says:—The subject of another telephone franchise is coming before the Lindsay town council in a few days, and incidentally the question of poles and wires in the streets. Sooner or later, the wires will have to be put underground, and this may be the opportunity to arrange it. It would not be wise, in any event, to grant permission to plant any more poles in the streets.

Mrs. Keough was at one time soprano of the Charlotte street Methodist choir.

Judgment Given In Favour Of Jas. D. Clarke

By the Honourable Chief Justice Falconbridge at High Court—Council for Plaintiff Raised Objections to Method of Procedure of Defendant's Solicitor—Case to Come Before Divisional Court, Toronto.

The case of Jas. D. Clarke, versus the Union Stock Underwriting Co., of Peterborough, was considered yesterday afternoon at the High Court, before the Hon. Mr. Chief Justice Falconbridge, and judgment given to the plaintiff.

Mr. E. C. Howson was first put in the box for the defence, and Mr. Riddell, K.C., opened the examination, which was apparently to show that the notes in question for the $3000 and $4000 respectively were never intended to be notes, but receipts for the stock.

Mr. Watson, counsel for the plaintiff objected, and an argument at some length took place as to the right of the defendants to give evidence to vary the terms of the notes under the circumstances set up in this particular case.

The judge finally concluded that the plaintiff's objections were well taken, pointing out that even if the defendants proved all the statements set up it would still not entitle them to judgment.

Mr. Riddell asked that the case stand to give an opportunity to redraft an answer. This was done but the judge held that the same objection held good, and without going further into the case gave judgement for the plaintiff for the full amount of the claim of $7000, together with interest and cost of witnesses.

The defendants intend taking the matter to the Divisional Court, Toronto, next fall, and have the disputed question of law settled there, and most likely it will come back here again for trial afterwards.

The Fatality Of Indigestion

WHICH ALMOST INVARIABLY ARISES FROM LIVER AND KIDNEY DISORDERS.

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

From insurance records it has been found that about 35 per cent. of the deaths of policy holders was attributed to diseases of the digestive organs.

To persons who have been accustomed to think lightly of indigestion, biliousness and liver derangements this statement will be rather startling but it cannot be refuted.

To a large extent the liver controls the digestive organs by supplying the bile to insure the prompt passage of the food along the intestines where the difficult part of digestion takes place.

Because of their immediate and direct influence on the liver, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills insure a good flow of bile, and by so doing positively overcome constipation and intestinal indigestion.

Wind on the stomach, rising of sour taste in the mouth, smothering sensations in the chest, pains about the heart, headaches and dizziness, drowsiness and discomfort after meals and sluggish inaction of the liver, kidneys and bowels, are the symptoms of this serious and dangerous form of indigestion.

Mr. R. Beach, 225 Sherbrooke street, Peterborough, Ont., states:—"About two years ago I became subject to cramps, which were caused I was told from acute indigestion. I was so bad that I would be laid up for weeks at a time. These attacks came on periodically and distressed me greatly.

"I then began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and have found them a wonderful medicine. They have entirely prevented a recurrence of my troubles, corrected the derangement of my digestive organs and made me feel like a different person.

Mr. A. VanEvery, grocer, Napanee, Lennox county, Ont., writes: "Having used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I can positively say that they are the best pills that I ever took. We always keep them in the house as a family medicine and have used them on several occasions with excellent results. They certainly do all that they are advertised to do."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will promptly overcome these symptoms. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 1i

Improvements At The Reliable Calcutt Brewery

New Wash House Being Erected—Made Necessary by the Increasing Demand for Their Products—Other New Improvements at This Busy Place.

Improvements and enlargements are the order of the day at the Calcutt Brewery, and almost every month some new device to enable the firm to keep pace with the growing demand for their product is installed.

A visit to the brewery to-day revealed the fact that a new washhouse 105 x 24 feet, is in progress of construction, which will practically double the capacity of this department. With the erection of this large addition the company will be able to handle its product much more expeditiously.

In this new wash house is being installed a modern automatic bottle washing machine, which will be used for washing large bottles. This machine is the very latest device for this purpose. It is operated by water pressure from the city water service.

A new electric pitching machine is also one of the new improvements put in by this company recently.

It is learned that the business was never in a more satisfactory condition. The demand for lager and ale is so great that at the present time it is necessary to brew five and six times a week to keep the supply within eight of the demand.

The erection of the new wash house is on the lands of Mr. Roland Tivey, who, as he always does, is making a satisfactory job of it.

HE WANTED WORK BUT WOULDN'T TAKE WAGES

The newcomers to Canada are apparently not all very anxious to work—at the wages paid here. This morning as Mr. W. H Moore was coming down to his office a young Englishman stopped him and inquired if he knew where he could get work. He was asked what he could do, and replied that he was a painter. That was easy, and Mr. Moore at once told him where he could get work—if he was a painter. The man to whom Mr. Moore sent him happened to be in the latter's office later, and was asked if the young Englishman had called on him, and was informed that he had, but that he wanted too much money. He would take no less than $2.50 a day, which he was informed, was more than the boss of the job got. The result was that he did not take the job, although there was steady work at fair wages awaiting him.

George Street Mission Band Won The Banner

Had the Greatest Membership Increase for the Year.

Yesterday at the closing exercises of the Mission Band Convention of the Bay of Quinte Conference, in Port Hope, the George street Mission Band was presented with the banner for the greatest increase in membership during the past year. The presentation took place at a public meeting in Port Hope, and was made by Miss Annie C. Wilson, Newcastle, the corresponding secretary of the Mission Bands and Circles.

There were in all 13 competitors for the honour, but George street, with an increase of 26 members, easily won the banner, of which not only the Mission Band, but the George street Methodists, as well, feel proud.

Much credit for the success of the local Band is due to the activity and interest in the work of the president, Miss A. Davis, who read the report of the society at the conference.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 15.—Liquidation was again in progress in the stock market to-day. The market, after opening at about last night's close, rallied slightly but the supply was much greater than the demand and the decline was resumed. Traders sold freely in every direction and there was a noticeable lack of support. Stocks which have shown good resistance previously fell in line with the rest of the market to-day and declined.

Crop reports were again conflicting, but the grain markets were strong, especially oats and this had a depressing effect on sentiment. About 1.30 an effort was made to rally the market and prices were bid up all around. It was found that the market was oversold and the recovery became rapid. Many issue gained their early losses and reached last night's level again. The close was steady.

The bride was dressed in white crepe de chine with picture hat, and carried a white prayer-book and a bouquet of lilies of the valley. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents. After a brief trip to New York and Boston Mr. and Mrs. Le Brun will go to Toronto, where they will reside.

Beats the Wireless Telegraph.

Undoubtedly the sending of messages without wires is a great achievement in electrical science. It has proved to the public that the old way of setting poles and stringing wires is time and money wasted. Along every scientific line methods are changing, but most notably so in the science of sight testing. Dr. Montgomery, the expert, who is now at Sanderson's demonstrating his new system, known as the "Shadow Test," is giving to the world the only true method of measuring the inside retraction of the eye. It is wonderful, and it seems strange that science has been so long in coming to the rescue of eye sight sufferers, but nature can no longer withold the secret of poor vision, the curtain is drawn and he "looks into the eye." During his stay in the city this specialist's services are free to the public. 1d

CONSISTENCY AND ENERGY.

Mrs. McKee, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, is of the opinion that if either the Methodist or Presbyterian churches "set their faces like flint" against the liquor traffic it would soon be wiped out. She said the liquor party was a mighty foe, supported as it was by "syndicates and Governments." Is it not to be inferred that if it is supported by syndicates and Governments, it is also supported, negatively, through their apathy by moral organizations. The Methodist and Presbyterian church membership, which, in spite of the opinion of some ministers, really constitutes these churches, had an opportunity to try the experiment of prohibition in Ontario in the vote on the prohibition referendum. But for political reasons or apathy, hundreds of them refrained from voting for prohibition, and the opportunity was lost, and the cause of prohibition set back a decade. Encouraged by the popular verdict, the Whitney Government was strengthened in its attitude of opposition to prohibition, and even encouraged to take the sting out of local option as a foe to the liquor traffic. Eloquent appeals and optimistic harrangues at conventions may be all right in their way, but the only way to deal with the liquor traffic effectively from a temperance point of view is to implement words by action. If the body of ministers and laymen of the churches mentioned by Mrs. McKee would vote as they pray, that is, maintain a consistent relation between their actions and their words, the good she sees in sight might be reached. But so long as they permit themselves to be drifted from their course by political side winds and other influences of compromise and surrender of principle to expediency as many of them can fairly be charged with doing, not very much substantial progress can be expected. The members of the enemy of the temperance reformers, the liquor interests, have their political affiliations and plans, but they make them effective by holding together and presenting always a solid front, something which cannot be said of the temperance reformers. We have had examples in this very city of ministerial associations putting their hand to the plough in regard to license reduction, and refraining to run the furrow to the end of the field—perhaps a matter of minor importance, but useful as illustrating the folly of half measures in competing with an organization that holds strongly together, and consistently carries into practice the theories supposed to be favourable to their interests as they see them. When moral reformers can and do show as firm a front, when they, in Mrs. McKee's expressive language, "set their faces like flint" as unitedly and consistently as do the liquor interests, they may expect to produce more effect than is done now. Moral reformers, earnest and hopeful and energetic, are handicapped by the lukewarmness, apathy and inconsistency of those whom they should expect to co-operate with them regardless of political or other considerations of expediency, which war with principle and enervate the leaders of movements to which they are popularly supposed to lend a helping hand.

HOW FARM METHODS CHANGE

Great changes in agricultural interests in Ontario result from the development of the West. So many young men are leaving the farms in this province to enter upon a similar occupation in the Northwest, that farmers in Ontario are compelled to adapt their farming methods to the new conditions. This is illustrated by the farming district between Toronto and Guelph—as a concrete example. This was at one time a great winter wheat producing district. But one can see from the windows of a railway train mile after mile of fine looking land without a wheat or a grain field in sight. In their stead, however, there are rich pastures with herds of fine cattle and horses. This is explained by a practical farmer as a direct result of the Ontario exodus to the Northwest. The young men go west and leave their fathers alone on the farms which in the absence or difficulty of procuring farm labour, they cannot till as before, or produce grain crops. They are therefore forced to resort more extensively, or in some cases, exclusively, to stock raising. In default of this the farmer leases his farm and takes residence in a town or city. The forced adoption of stock raising in default of the help of sons or procurable farm labour, may be for the benefit of the soil, but the compulsory leasing of farms is an evil as a rule. It not only places the farmer in the midst of urban conditions in which he is not always happy, but tends to deteriorate the soil and injure the condition of the farm. A railway run from Peterborough to Guelph reveals many farms infested with that yellow peril, to the farmer, the charlock or wild mustard. It is asserted that in nearly all these cases this occurs on rented farms, whose tenants do not give the care in this, or other respects, to maintaining the condition of the farm as the owner did. Whether the general conditions referred to as a result of Northwest development are as harmful as surface observation would indicate, or really a blessing in disguise, is perhaps a debatable question.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Toronto is growing tumultuously. A railway run through the city from east to west shows a remarkable activity in building, and the same applies to the general area of the city. In the first nine days of June the city architect reports the issue of building permits amounting to over $350,000.

Our illusions get hard knocks. We have always been led to regard plumpness as a very desirable quality in the grain of wheat. Now the millers tell us that "plump" is not a complimentary term to apply to No. 1 hard Manitoba wheat. Without a plump appearance it is stated but this wheat would produce flour of a greater strength.

Mr. Aylmer Explains The Many Uses Of Re-inforced Concrete

Its Value in Construction of Dams and Canals—An Interesting Treatise on This Subject—Public do Not Grasp the Full Significance of its General Adoption.

The general use of concrete throughout Canada has led to repeated inquiries as to what reinforced construction really means. To many it conveys no meaning at all, and to others a confused conception of steel cement and sand. Mr. John A Aylmer, C. E., of Peterborough, a director of the Dominion Engineering and Construction Co., of Montreal, and one of the acknowledged authorities on the use of concrete throughout the Dominion, gave interesting information on the subject.

"The extensive use of re-inforced concrete," said he, "is a matter of such recent growth in Canada that it is no wonder that the public has not grasped the full significance of its adoption in important structural enterprises. It is only a question of time, however, when its qualities will be as well known as those of brick or stone, which materials it is fast supplanting for building purposes wherever its advantages are appreciated. Concrete is composed of cement, sand, and gravel or crushed stone. As cement is easily available and as sand and gravel abound, it follows that concrete can be advantageously made in any part of the country. As concrete possesses in itself great power to withstand compression stresses it has proved of tremendous value in building canals, retaining walls, and all manner of construction work where it is not subjected to great tensile stresses. Perhaps its strength is shown to the greatest advantage in the building of dams where it is subjected to tremendous pressure. When properly made, it is practically indestructible. Whereas if mixed carelessly or by inexperienced persons the results are often disastrous and involve, too, the waste of a great deal of money. The marvellous results shown by the locks and concrete work on the Soulanges, Lachine, and Trent Canals have proved conclusively that the use of properly made concrete is the long solution of what was once a difficult problem. When a structure is designed to meet great tensile stresses like a skyscraper or a large factory it becomes necessary to use in connection with the concrete some material capable of taking up this additional tension. Steel does this the best, and when employed in conjunction with the concrete, furnishes the combination known as re-enforced concrete. Concrete alone is cheaper than stone or brick, but steel is extremely expensive, so that the problem confronting a man who designed a structure of re-enforced concrete, is how to use the minimum of steel and yet get out of it the maximum of strength. He aims to distribute the re-enforcing rods in such a way that each will supplement the concrete. If he does this successfully he produced a monolithic structure in which every strain and stress, no matter how great, is distributed through and borne by the whole. As soon as architects, engineers and contractors began to use re-enforced concrete for complicated work, numerous methods of re-enforcement were invented. All these methods aim to increase the load-bearing power of the concrete, and to insure accuracy of construction, and all have their advocates. It cannot be doubted however that the best mode of procedure is to design the re-enforcement, not only so that it will fill its own functions efficiently, but so that it will contribute its proper part towards strengthening the structure as a unit. It goes without saying that skill and experience in the use of re-enforced concrete are requisites, without which no successful structure of this kind can be erected. Not only must the design be without flaw but the actual construction work must be done under the closest supervision to insure reliability. The re-enforced concrete structures once successfully completed, will stand practically for ever."

RING WORM AND DANDRUFF

They Are Each Caused by a Pestiferous Germ.

Ringworm and dandruff are somewhat similar in their origin; each is caused by a parasite. The germ that causes dandruff digs to the root of the hair and saps its vitality, causing falling hair, and, finally, baldness. Without dandruff there would never be baldness, and to cure dandruff it is necessary to kill the germ. There has been no hair preparation that would do this until the discovery of Newbro's Herpicide, which positively kills the dandruff germ, allays itching instantly and makes hair glossy and soft as silk. Take no substitutes. There is nothing "just as good." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

Attending To Their Needs

Lindsay People Pleased at Action of Government.

Last Monday the Government tug Sovereign placed the promised lighthouses or beacons at the north and south ends of the long cut, and also planted new buoys between the lake cut and deep water. Steamboat men and yacht owners hail this action as a possible indication that at last the Trent Canal authorities are going to devote some attention to the many needs of this end of the route.—Lindsay Post.

BOILER INDUSTRY LOST TO HASTINGS

The Hastings Star says: — While the boiler industry is apparently a dead issue, so far as Hastings is concerned, yet, we feel sure, our citizens will greatly appreciate the generosity of Mr. Matthew McCarthy, who offered, free to the town, three acres of land on the north side of the river. A few men of Mr. McCarthy's calibre would soon make a town of Hastings. Let us have less wind and more genuine action.

IMPROVEMENTS TO R. C. CHURCH

Every year sees some improvements made on the Hastings Roman Catholic Church property. During the past few weeks a very substantial fence, which adds much to the beauty of the place, has been built. The bottom of the fence is of stone and the top of iron. The fence runs full length of the property on Albert street.—Star.

Peterborough Rector For St. Luke's, Toronto?

Report From Toronto to the Effect That His Name Was Up for Selection as Successor to Rev. Dr. Langtry—Was Asked to Remain and Preach There on Sunday.

Examiner Special.

Toronto, June 15. — It is learned from a reliable source that the name of Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, M. A., of St. Luke's, Peterborough, has been prominently mentioned as a successor to Venerable Archdeacon Dr. Langtry, in the rectorship of St. Luke's, Toronto. He was invited by the churchwardens to remain in the city and preach there next Sunday, but it is understood that he refused the invitation.

Dr. Langtry has resigned from the rectorship and has been given an annuity by the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Langfeldt could not be reached to-day to learn whether he had been approached with reference to accepting the rectorship. The information, however, came from a thoroughly reliable source, and there is no reasonable doubt of its truth.

WANTS AUTOS KEPT OUT OF THE CITY'S PARKS

A gentleman who does considerable driving called on the Examiner to-day to commend the action of the Board of Directors of the Little Lack Cemetery Company in forbidding autos to enter the cemetery. He suggested that the trustees of the parks of the city, take action along the lines of that decided upon by the Cemetery Company. He pointed out that in Jackson Park, and the Nicholls Oval, there was even greater danger than in the Cemetery, because, if a person driving met an auto on the narrow roads of the Jackson Park, particularly where on one side there is a steep declivity, someone will certainly be injured, if not killed.

He considered it almost essential to the public safety to prohibit these vehicles in these parks.

JACKSON PARK ATTRACTS BIG CROWDS NIGHTLY

Jackson Park seems to grow more popular each night, and with the delightful weather now being enjoyed, makes the resort a most charming place to spend a few hours.

Every evening the shadow of the pines is sought by hundreds of citizens and last night at least two thousand people were present for the entertainment. The pictures were most amusing and included the following: "Socialism to Nihilism," "The First Night Out," ("A Frightful Night," "Trout Fishing," "Funny Faces," "Country Man in Paris," "Improvised Suit," "Commissioning Spots."

The 57th Band rendered a splendid programme which was greatly appreciated. The organization was some twenty strong last night, and was under the direction of Mr. Gliddon.

The following programme was rendered:

March..... ....
Overture, "King Dodo"..... ....
"Reminiscences of Ireland," arranged by Godfrey.
Selections from Floradora, including "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden."
Selection, "Hoity-Toity."..... ....
Medley, "Sunny Tennessee."... ....

A serious accident occurred to Mr. Walter Brooks, 462 Donegal street, at the Shovel Works this morning. He was operating a machine when his right foot caught in the cogs of a wheel. "There Must Be Something In It"

Was the Verdict of Chas. Innes Concerning Canada's Brew.

Charles Innes was perplexed. He was found drunk in the woodyard next to Ackerman's yesterday. The day previous he was found by P. C. Stewart, helplessly drunk on the street.

"There must be something in the drink they sell here," said Innes. "I never was affected like that before." He expressed his sorrow at having to appear in court.

"Your sorrow the last time was very short lived," said City Clerk Armstrong.

Innes didn't have the $2, so will probably do 10 days unless somebody furnishes the cash in the meantime.

A man charged with non-support of his family was remanded for a week, and a youth was assessed $2 for being disorderly.

Guild Excursion An Enjoyable One

An Ideal Day for a Trip Around the Lakes.

The Guild Excursion to Stony Lake yesterday was a most delightful event as all the St. Paul's Guild excursions are. Although the crowd was not as large one yet the enjoyable time which everyone spent easily made up for any deficiency in this respect.

The excursionists left the city by the morning G.T.R. train, and on reaching Lakefield embarked on the commodious steamer Stoney Lake for the northward sail through the beautiful chain of waters to Burleigh Falls.

The weather was ideal for an excursion around the lakes, and nothing occurred to mar in any way the enjoyment of the day.

Lunch was partaken of at Burleigh where the big lock and dam were inspected. The new hotel, which is now beginning to assume a business swing, was also viewed by the picnicers.

A short sail was made at Mount Julian and the beautiful sail through the Boschink Narrows to the head of the lake was one of the chief enjoyments of the day. The steamer then headed her beak towards Gilchrist's Bay — the canoeist's delight —and here a few minutes on shore were spent.

Sandy Point was called at on the homeward journey, where tea was served. Afterwards a baseball match between Dr. Torrance's and Rev. Mr. Bright's nines was played which proved a very interesting attraction. The former won by 11 runs to 10.

The party returned to the city about 9.30, all thoroughly satisfied with the pleasant day's outing.

A STRAY HORSE IS IN THE CITY

A heavy draft bay farmer's horse strayed into the city last night and began feeding on the long grass on Victoria Park. He was taken into custody, however, and spent the night in McCallum's livery barn, where he now awaits an owner.

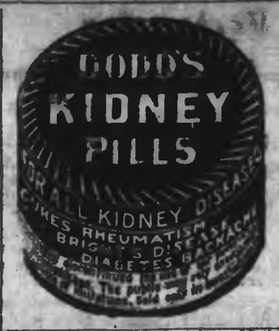
Stayled Late Down the River

And Caused Alarm Among Their Friends.

Considerable consternation was caused by the absence of a young man residing in the western portion of the city and a young lady who went down the river yesterday afternoon and did not return home until about 2 o'clock this morning. The young man informed his mother that he would return about 8.30 in the evening and after waiting for a considerable length of time past that hour, she concluded that some accident had befallen the party, and naturally became somewhat alarmed. A couple of young men started out with a horse and buggy to look for the lost ones, and another party patrolled the river in a canoe, keeping their eyes open for the missing couple. A little after one o'clock they were seen at the locks and all fears for their safety were then set at rest.



NO CO-ADUTOR AT THIS MEETING OF THE SYNOD

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, writing from Toronto, where he is attending the meetings of the Synod, states that the attendance this year is larger than ever, the increased attendance being due no doubt to the fact that many matters of great importance are up for consideration, the most important of which of course being the appointment of a coadjutor.

The general impression seems to be that none will be appointed at this Synod meeting. The majority of the members of the Synod are apparently opposed to having a Bishop appointed under proposed Canons.

The Bishop in his position as chairman of the Synod, appears to be more vigorous than ever and makes an admirable chairman.

Injuries Result From Collision

Bicycles and Owners Collided on McDonel Street To-day.

A bicycle collision which may result in serious consequences, happened noon to-day on McDonel street. Just west of Bethune street. Two young men, Messrs. Ivey and Millage, were wheeling rather rapidly along the street, and came together quite forcibly. The latter struck his head against Ivey's shoulder, which dazed him for a few minutes, and when he arose to his feet he began to return towards the direction from which he came. He was, however, rectified, and wheeled home. Ivey did not share so badly. A gash was cut on the back of his hand, but otherwise he was uninjured. Neither wheel was damaged.

The cause of the accident was that one of the men was travelling on the wrong side of the road.

HIS LORDSHIP AT HASTINGS

A service of special interest to many was that held in the Hastings Roman Catholic Church on Sunday morning when His Lordship, Bishop O'Connor, of Peterborough, confirmed sixty persons, fifty-nine children and one adult. The children marched to the church from the Separate School to attend eight o'clock mass when they received their first communion. At the late service High Mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. Father Bretherton, after which the sacred rite of confirmation was administered and an appropriate discourse to the parents as well as the children given by His Lordship.—Star.

No Exhibition Will Be Held In Year 1906

At a meeting of the Directors of the Industrial Fair, held this afternoon, it was decided that no exhibition will be held this year in view of the fact that the city council could not see their way clear to make a grant of $600, or a guarantee of $1,000. The meeting was held in the office of the president, Mr. D. Hughes Charles, at the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

BIRTHS.

McAMMOND.—On Thursday, June 14th, 1906, at the Salvation Army Barracks, the wife of Staff-Capt. McAmmond, of a son.

SHOCKINGLY UNCLEAN.

Chicago Inspector Sees Some Neill-Reynolds Charges Exemplified.

Chicago, June 15.—The sanitary bureau of the city health department yesterday discovered shockingly unclean conditions in one of the big packing plants at the stockyards—that of Nelson, Morris & Co.

The chief inspector, Perry L. Hedrick, with Inspector Archibald Dudley, made a personal tour of the huge plant, and they were unable to report as favorably upon it as they had upon the houses previously visited.

They saw a rat running over fresh meat.

They saw men spitting on the floors in the beef-killing rooms, over which entrails of the animals are dragged.

They saw unclean employes handling meats upon unclean tables.

They saw toilet rooms in a foul condition.

These insanitary conditions were reported as not true of all departments of the Morris plant, but they are specifically described and in a measure support the findings of the Neill-Reynolds inquiry.

Roosevelt Not Satisfied.

Washington, June 15. — President Roosevelt yesterday expressed entire disapproval of the new meat inspection bill as completed by the House committee on agriculture. The President declared that the bill was not at all adequate to meet the conditions.

For 2-Cent Railway Fare.

Washington, D. C., June 15.—Representative Sherman of New York has introduced a bill providing that the passenger rate on all railroads in the United States doing an interstate business shall be 2 cents a mile, effective Jan. 1 next. The bill was referred to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

A Peculiar Memory Case.

Winnipeg, June 15.—Doctors at Rosthern are treating one of the most peculiar cases ever heard of in that district. The patient is G. Neudorf, who is suffering from concussion of the brain. When asked a question in the morning, he rationally answers it on the following evening.

Stewart Found Guilty.

Owen Sound, June 15.—About four months ago Albert Stewart, 20 years of age, was arrested on the charge of shooting James Morrison. Stewart yesterday was tried by jury and found guilty. Judge Hatton will pronounce sentence to-day.

An Explosion Of Naptha Cause Of Much Loss

Kills Nine Sailors and Wounded 40 On Steamer Haverford.

BODIES WERE DISMEMBERED

British Steamer From Philadelphia Had Landed Her Passengers at Liverpool and Proceeded to the Hiskisson Dock to Unload — As Hatches Were Opened a Terrific Explosion Occurred—Fatal Results.

Liverpool, June 15.—Nine men were instantly killed and about 40 were wounded as the result of a terrific explosion yesterday morning on board the British steamer Haverford of the International Navigation Co. The vessel, which is commanded by Capt. Lieison, arrived here Wednesday from Philadelphia, landed her passengers and proceeded to Hiskisson dock early yesterday, in order to unload.

The stevedores were in the act of loosening the hatches when the explosion occurred. It blew off the hatches, rent the decks and hurled dead and wounded men in all directions. Several bodies were dismembered and the dock resembled the floor of a charnel house. The explosion, which, according to rumor, was caused by an infernal machine, was followed by the outbreak of fire. The cargo, consisting of linseed oil cake, in hold No. 2, and hold No. 3, was soon blazing fiercely.

After two hours' hard fight the firemen obtained the mastery of the flames.

Later it was said that the disaster on board the Haverford was apparently caused by the explosion of a barrel of naphtha.

Warship Sinks Steamer.

Amsterdam, Holland, June 15.—The Dutch warship Piet-Heim arrived at Nieuwediep and reported having been in collision with the Belgian steamer Meuse off Haak's lightship. The Meuse sank and her captain and eleven of her crew were drowned.

Killed in Runaway.

Belleville, June 15.—As the result of a runaway accident, William Doughty, a retired farmer, was killed Wednesday evening. He was driving a lively horse, which ran away and collided with a telegraph pole. Doughty was thrown out and struck on a pile of rocks. His chest was crushed in and his arm broken.

Kingston, June 15.—A lad aged 14, a son of Archibald O'Neil, Sydenham street, was in bathing yesterday afternoon in Cataraqui Bay, when he took a fit in the water and was drowned.

Woman Burned to Death.

St. Stephen, N. B., June 15.—A fatality occurred here yesterday morning in a fire which destroyed the farmhouses of Joseph McLay. Mrs. McLay, his wife, 70 years of age, was burned to death. She went into the burning building, presumably for a pail of water. The charred bones of Mrs. McLay were found some hours later. Several cows, pigs and horses were also burned to death.

Hurled From Bridge.

Quebec, June 15.—Knocked off his feet by a passing steam engine, while engaged on the superstructural work of the Quebec Bridge, James Hughes was hurled from the lofty structure and dashed to instant death on the rocks underneath. Hughes was about 44 years of age and a native of Dundee, Scotland, where he leaves a wife and family.

Falls Thirty Feet; May Die.

Stratford, June 15.—W. R. Cowley narrowly escaped being killed. With a man named Hill he was working on a new house. Cowley stepped on a board projecting from a building, and it overbalanced, and both he and Hill fell. Hill managed to cling to the building, but Cowley fell 30 feet among a pile of bricks. It is believed he will recover.

BOILS ALL OVER HIS FACE AND NECK

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS DID FOR HIM WHAT FOUR DOCTORS FAILED TO DO

Kenwater, Ont., July 25th, 1905.
Messrs. The T. Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.,

Dear Sirs:—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a year ago last March I began to feel dull and sick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out on my face and neck, mostly on the latter. I would no sooner get rid of one than I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

I had four doctors trying to cure me but they had very little success. They would stay them for a month or six weeks and then they would be as bad as ever again.

Almost every patent medicine advertised to cure boils, I could get hold of, I tried, but still without success. At last one day, last spring, someone happened to say: "Why not try Burdock Blood Bitters, doctors for the future?" I was willing to try anything and immediately sent for a bottle, but at the time was doubtful if it would be of any use. However, I kept steadily on taking it, and although I had taken only a few bottles I was completely cured. I am now twenty-one years old, and have not had a boil appear for the past three years. Everybody was surprised when they noticed how I was improving. Four doctors had done for my three doctors failed to do. If any sufferers are troubled with boils, I would strongly advise them to use B.B.B. It makes you feel like a new man. I always keep a bottle in the house now, as I think B. B. B. medicine should be in every household.

Yours truly,
Robert H. Smith.

Bowlers Have Several Trophies For Competition

Mr. C. E. Frost Offers a Beautiful Silver Cup for an Inter-Rink Competition—Sets of Bowls are also Contributed for Singles and Scotch Doubles.

It may not be generally known to all the members of the club that Mr. C. E. Frost has generously contributed a beautiful silver cup for an inter-rink competition. The schedule for this trophy will be started on next Monday evening, and it is expected that it will excite very keen competition.

It is also a fact that Mr. Crane, manager of the Ontario Bank, Dr. Boucher, and Dr. Greer have each generously contributed a set of bowls, for competition. The bowls given by Mr. Crane are for the winner of the final games in the singles and the bowls contributed by Drs. Boucher and Greer are for the winners of the final games in Scotch doubles. It is the desire of these gentlemen that every member of the club should have an equal opportunity to compete for these prizes, and it has been suggested that in the competition of the singles, the fairest way would be for leads and first year members to compete against each other, two-year men compete against each other, vice skips, compete against each other and skips compete only with skips, until the contest reaches the semi-finals. In the same way it is suggested that in the contest in the Scotch doubles, each pair shall be composed of either a skip and his lead or other first-year man to play against each other and the vice skips and 2nd men play against each other till they reach the finals. The schedule for these competitions will be drawn up by the executive.

The following games were played last night:—

D. Belleghem	Dr. Bagshaw
W Dayman	W. H Isaacs
R Cottrell	W G Ferguson
D H Moore, 23.	R Kerr, 3.
Ken Crane	W S Robinson
—— McClellan	W Wescott
A Beileghem	R Talbott
D Kerneghan, 22.	A Waddell, 7.
F V Davey	Chris. Wood
J H Ferguson	J Cunningham
T E Pratt	R Sturgeon

G Giroux, 12. J E A Fitzgerald, 10. Skip Fitzgerald 13 and skip Marshall 11—played in afternoon.

The offer of such fine prizes should place every member on his metal, so watch diligently for the schedule each evening.

Charlotte St. Won Guild League Game

Defeated George Street by a Total Score of 12 Runs to 5.

The Charlotte Street Guild Baseball team defeated George Street last night in the second half of the Guild League game by 6-1, winning the complete game by 12 runs to 5. The game was a good exhibition and was witnessed by a fair crowd. Charlotte Street scored six in the first two innings of the game on a combination of hits and errors. They were blanked in the third. George Street had men on bases in every innings, but could not get them across the plate except in the first when Parnell lead off with a slashing two-bagger to the sawdust pile. Parnell pitched good ball for George Street, but luck seemed to be against the team. Curtis and McMillan each made pretty running catches.

Fred. Whiteroft gave good satisfaction as umpire. The line-up was as follows:—

Charlotte Street—Lang, c.; McWilliams, s. s.; Squires, 2 b.; Crowe, l. f.; Ryan, r. f.; Dusty, c. f.; E. Pilling, 1 b.; H. Roddy, p.; Heaslip, 1 b.

George Street—Parnell, p., c.; McMillan, 3 b.; Pedlar, 2 b., s.; Shaw l. f., 2 b., A. Weatherston, 1 b.; Curtis l. f.; Kendry, s. s.; Allison, c. f.; Metheral, r. f.

Score by innings for the complete game:—

The Wornout Nerves, The Weak Heart, The Tired Brain, The Wasted Strength.

What a multitude of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case. From early morn until late at night they have been on the go, year in and year out, attending to the daily household duties, looking after the wants of her children and spending the rest of her time attending to social and church work. Is it any wonder then that sooner or later there comes a general collapse? The action of the heart becomes weak and palpitating, the nerves become unstrung, the brain feels in a whirl half the time and the usual force of vitality is lacking.

It is at this time a woman should look after herself. If she does not, serious female disorders may set in and often cause weary months and years of helplessness and miserable suffering. What she wants is something to build up her system. For this purpose there is nothing to equal

They are the women's friend in every sense of the word.

They will strengthen the weak heart, tone up the shaky, starved nerves, make the brain clear, and restore the lost vitality.

Mrs. George Lehnen, Stanley Section, N.S., writes: "I was greatly troubled with weak and dizzy spells and was so run down I could not attend to my household duties. I bought two boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after taking them I found that my trouble had all passed away. I am now strong and healthy again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 for $1.25. If your dealer does not handle them, send direct to The Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

M'CORY STRUCK DUBBIE SHEA OUT

The Havelock Standard, speaking of the first game in the Trent Valley Baseball League, says:—

"The biggest feature of the game was the work of McCorry in striking out Shea after the latter had offered to bet $10.00 that he could not be fanned. McCory gave him three balls and then struck him out. Eben Shea joined in the laugh at the result."

AN ACCIDENT TO YOUNGSTER

The two year old son of Mr. F. J. Kelly, of Simcoe street, met with an accident yesterday while playing on the street. This was the little fellow's first excursion away from home on his own account, and while he was away he either fell on the sidewalk or was hit on the forehead with a stone. A gash about two inches long was cut on his head, and the services of a physician were required. He will be all right in a few days.

Mr. Fred. C. Lutes' Bravery Acknowledged

A Rochester Man Well Known Here Saves Many From Serious Injury—A Brave Fireman Who Risked His Life.

Mr. Frederick C. Lutes of Rochester, N.Y., is quite well known to many citizens of Peterborough, where he has frequently visited, consequently the following reference to him in the Rochester Advertiser, will be read with interest:

"That several people were not killed or seriously injured by a runaway horse on Main street near the Four Corners this morning, was due to the prompt action and gallant stop made by Frederick C. Lutes, a horseman of Engine 2, who threw himself in front of a running horse and brought it to a stop just before the animal was about to dash into a crowd of women and children.

"The horse which caused all the trouble belongs to Ely Buell of University avenue. The animal took fright at something and started down the street on a dog. Policeman Klein was standing at the corner of Clarson avenue and Main street, when he saw the horse rapidly approaching the corner. Klein rushed to the middle of the street and made a grab for the bridle, but missed it. Before he could recover himself, the wagon swerved around and hit him and the unfortunate man was thrown high in the air and landed on his back and shoulders.

"Meanwhile the horse having eluded the policeman continued his mad flight down Main street narrowly escaping running into an automobile and finally coming in collision with a wagon of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company which was standing in front of the store of the company. The force of the collision tore the horse loose from the wagon. The horse dashed down Main street, across St. Paul, narrowly missing two old ladies.

"Several persons who saw the horse coming made feeble efforts at stopping it between St. Paul and Front streets, but the horse rapidly approached the Four Corners. There were a number of people standing on the south side of the street waiting to take cars, and when a shout of warning was raised, women and children scattered in all directions, many running directly into the path which the horse was taking.

"It looked for a minute as if there was going to be a bad accident and just as people were holding their breaths and turning their faces away, Lutes, who had just stepped from a street car, dashed into the street directly in front of the horse which by this time was coming at frightful speed. Lutes made a grab for the bridle and just missing it his hands slipped along the horse's back, and when he managed to grab the lines which were trailing along behind. The fireman braced himself and threw all his weight into one big pull which nearly threw the horse and brought it to a standstill when the animal was grabbed by people who had witnessed the heroic act.

"Lutes turned the horse over to a policeman and modestly walked away, and it was only after long inquiry that his name was obtained. Those who witnessed the act were loud in their praise and all agreed that it was one of the most gallant stops that have been seen on the streets of Rochester for some time. The prompt action of the fireman unquestionably saved a number from serious injury, if not death.

Injured On Wednesday; No Doctor Called

Guiseppe Pappi, an Italian Labourer, Hurt by Handcar Returning From Work—His Fellow-Workmen Did Not Notify Doctor Till Twenty-four Hours After.

Guiseppe Pappi, an Italian labourer employed with the C.P.R. on the work of repairing the roadbed between this city and Indian River, was seriously injured on Wednesday night, west of the station here. It appears that the men were on their way to their boarding car after their day's work, and were riding on a hand-car west of the station. The men on the first car saw an engine approaching on the same track, and, stopping their car, they were taking it off the track, when the second hand-car, the men upon which did not notice the engine, ran into the men in front, and Pappi was struck in the back and knocked down, his leg being seriously injured in the fall.

His fellow-workers did not consider his condition as serious, and nothing was said to the foreman yesterday about his injury, the man being left in the boarding car all day suffering intense agony. Last night when they saw that he was in such pain, they notified the C.P.R. authorities, and Dr. Gray, the company's physician, was called to attend him. Pappi was sent to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he is at the present time.

The extent of the injury is not yet known, but it is feared that gangrene may set in and that he may lose his leg.

DOG POISONERS IN LINDSAY, TOO

The Lindsay Post says: There is not an angrier man in Lindsay just this writing than Mr. Ed. Armstrong. While at dinner to-day his pet dog, a fine one, showed symptoms of poisoning. Ed. poured all kinds of antidotes into the beast, and called Veterinary Johnston in, but he could do nothing. Mr. Armstrong says $100 would not have bought the dog. If our Chief of Police does not soon discover the dog-poisoner at work for some time, he will have no dogs left to collect taxes on.

Moonlight Was Great Success

Many Attended the All Saint's Excursion Last Night.

The first moonlight excursion of the season was held last night when the steamer Water Lily carried the young people of All Saints' church and some of their friends down the Otonabee. The affair must be characterized as a success in every way. The evening was a delightful one, and the sail on the beautiful river was thoroughly enjoyable. The Water Lily left the Wolfe street wharf shortly after 8 o'clock, and returning, reached the dock at 11.15. The boat went down about seven miles, and the return trip was made interesting by the use of the electric searchlight. Delightful music was furnished throughout by Messrs. Greig and Milner.

The young people of All Saints' are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts.

Had a Bad Leg.

"For twelve years I was a great sufferer with eczema on the inside of the leg. There was a raw patch of flesh about three inches square, and the itching was terrible. Dr. Chase's Ointment completely cured me, took away the itching and healed up the sore."—Mr. Alex. McDougall, Postmaster, Broad Cove, Marsh, N.S.

Returned Missionary Has Many Curios With Him

Mr. E. L. Blandford Will Speak at Gospel Hall To-night —Has Spent Twenty Years in Kiangsi Province, Central China, Where the Kinghams Were Massacred.

Mr. E. L. Blandford, a missionary who has been twenty years in China will speak at the Gospel Hall, George street to-night on the subject, "Are Missions in China a Failure?" Mr. Blandford evidently does not believe this to be the case and he stated this morning to an Examiner reporter who called on him that the work was progressing favourably. Mr. Blandford is accompanied by his wife and is returning to the scene of his labours in China after a brief visit to his home in England.

The reporter found Mr. Blandford this morning engaged in arranging the hall for his address and he kindly suspended operations while he talked of China and the work there. The missionary is at Po Yang, province of Kiangsi, Central China, in which portion of the empire there are about fifty missionaries of various denominations and the work appears to be flourishing. Since Mr. Blandford and his wife left China, Mr. and Mrs. Kingham, who had been their colleagues in the work, were cruelly murdered by the natives at Nan Chang, about fifty miles from where Mr. Blandford is situated.

The missionary has in his possession many interesting momentoes of the Chinese Empire, which may be seen to-night. Among them are several very beautiful congratulatory scrolls presented by the converted Chinese to Mr. and Mrs. Blandford as they were leaving for home. These are inscribed with the names of the converts. Other relics are in Mr. Blandford's possession, the most interesting of all being a number of idols. These include both temple and household deities. One of them, the largest, was worshipped for two hundred and sixty-seven years in principal temple of Nan Chang. Among the other idols are the God of Medicine and the Goddess of Riches. The latter Mr. Blandford informed the reporter, is worshipped in every household and he added that such was the case in Canada, too.

The address to-night, in view of Mr. Blandford's long service and wide experience among the Chinese people, should be most interesting.

Committed Suicide By Jumping Into The Bay

Tragic Death of Alice Corbman, Daughter of Stephen Corbman, Aylmer Street—Rash Act Was Caused by Melancholia, Induced by Ill-Health.

Alice Corbman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Corbman, 92 Aylmer street, committed suicide shortly after seven o'clock yesterday morning, by jumping into Spaulding's Bay, from the bridge at the end of Townsend street. The cause of her rash act, as far as can be learned, was melancholia, the result of ill-health.

It will be remembered that about two months ago, Miss Corbman fainted when taking a bath, and was almost drowned in the bath-tub, she had been very depressed in spirits, and did not seem to recover from the shock of the accident, although she was able to perform her duties at J. A. Sutcliffe & Sons' establishment, where she was employed. In fact, she worked there as usual until ten o'clock, on Saturday night, and there was nothing in her condition to cause any alarm to her friends.

Yesterday morning, in company with one of her sisters, she arose shortly before seven o'clock to prepare breakfast. Her sister had occasion to go out into the kitchen, and, on her return, found Alice gone. Nothing was thought of this for some time, but, at the end of half an hour, when it was found that the girl was not in the house, her relatives became alarmed, and instituted a search. The neighbours gave their assistance, and a diligent inquiry took place around the neighbourhood. About 10 o'clock, the police were notified that Miss Corbman was missing, as up to that time no trace had been found of her. At eleven a.m. one of her relatives learned from Mrs. Gadous, who lives at the corner of George street and Townsend street, that she had seen a woman who answered the description of the missing person, standing on the bridge at Townsend street, at the corner of George street.

This turned the search into a new direction. Boats and pike-poles were procured, and a large number of men began to search the bay, near the bridge. For some time they failed to find anything that would reveal the fate of the girl. Shortly after one o'clock, however, all doubt was set at rest when Cecil Succee, of Sherbrooke street, discovered the body under the willows, about twelve feet from the bridge, and in about six to eight feet of water. The body was raised and taken to the shore, and shortly afterwards removed to Belleghem's undertaking establishment.

Mrs. Gadous, who with her daughter and niece, were the last persons to see the girl alive, informed an Examiner reporter, that she had noticed a woman walking across the bridge with her hair down and her hands behind her back. This was about seven o'clock, so the girl must have gone straight to the bridge, after leaving the house. Mrs. Gadous had noticed that her actions were peculiar, and had said to her daughter, "Look at that woman; she is acting as if she were crazy." The Gadous family went to church shortly after this, and did not think any more of the occurrence until the search party came.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age, and came here from Bridgenorth four or five years ago. Her father, Stephen Corbman, is a foreman with the McDonald Lumber Company. Both he and his family are well known throughout the city. The deceased was a member of the Charlotte street church, and had a host of friends in the city to whom the news of her tragic and self-inflicted death will cause much shock and regret. No suspicion that she contemplated such an act has been entertained by her friends, although it was known that she has not been in the best of health and spirits for some time.

Her father and stepmother survive her, as well as a sister, Blanche, Maggie and Lillie Corbman, are half-sisters, and Grant Corbman, a half-brother of the deceased. Thomas Tully, Wescott street, and T. R. Kennedy, Lake street, are step uncles.

Coroner Dr. Gray informed the Examiner that he considered the case to be one of deliberate suicide, and that under the circumstances he did not consider it necessary to hold an inquest.

The case is a very sad one and much sympathy is expressed on all sides for the bereaved father and other relatives, who have lost a dear one in such a tragic and unexpected manner.

Peterborough Soldiers Off For Cobourg Camp

24th and 14th Field Batteries, "C" Squadroon, 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons and 40th Regiment Infanty Left This Morning—New Battery Made a Very Favourable Impression.

The G. T. R. station looked like a military post this morning, when the militia of this district left for their two weeks' course of training at the Cobourg camp. Blue-coated artillerymen jostled the scarlet uniformed infantry and cavalry. There were two batteries, a squadron of cavalry, and two companies of infantry, the whole presenting a very striking picture. On the sidings everything was bustle and confusion, as the process of loading horses and baggage was gone through. Many of the men were recruits, and it was their first taste of this kind of work. Two weeks in the camp will make a big change in their theories as to the life of a soldier. They appeared eager to work, however, and the loading of the cars was soon finished.

C Squadron of the 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons were the first to get away, their train pulling out at 9.30 o'clock. They were nearly up to strength, with 72 men, 64 of which will be mounted. The squadron was in command of Major Hall, Capt. Johnston, Lieuts. Anderson and Clegborn, and Capt. Poole, V.S. They were all farmers' sons, as their sunburnt faces testified. They rode their mounts well and earned the admiration of the crowd who watched them. The street cars on George and Charlotte streets gave them many opportunities to display their skill, as their horses were constantly taking fright and threatening to bolt. Mothers, sisters and sweethearts from the country were at hand to say good-bye, and from the nature of some of the farewells one would have thought that the redcoats were going to war instead of to a two weeks' holiday in camp. "Good-bye, John," exclaimed one bearded farmer, as he rushed across the track to say good-bye to his son. Tender farewells between stalwart soldiers and demure little country lasses were rudely interrupted by the last toot of the whistle.

40th Infantry Regiment.

Two companies from the 40th regiment of Campbellford arrived in the city early, and their red coats were in evidence everywhere on the streets. They were accompanied by the regimental band which played several marches before the companies left. The men were strangers here, but they made themselves right at home, especially with the Peterborough girls who adorned the station platform.

The companies were in command of Capt. Birdsall and Doxsee.

At ten o'clock the Campbellford section of the 14th Campbellford section of the 14th Midland Field Battery arrived by a special train, and were warmly welcomed by their brother artillerymen of the 24th Battery, as well as by the Campbellford infantry. The boys from the East were in good spirits, and made things lively in the vicinity of the station. Raids were made on several of the near-by hotels and the plunder secured was not of the water-wagon variety. The boys will be all right, however, when they get into camp.

The 40th Regiment got away at 10.30, with the regimental band tooting bravely, and a row of heads out of the train windows, as the infantry waved a farewell to the battery men who were to follow them.

24th Battery.

Peterborough's own artillery force, the 24th Field Battery, were the last to entrain, leaving in company with the 14th men. The 24th had about 70 men and were in good shape. Many of the men have served on the 14th and thus have learned camp life and drill. The battery looked spick and span in their new uniforms, although some of the men had to go down in civilians clothes, all the clothing not having arrived. This will be remedied as soon as they get to Cobourg. Major Young is in command of the 24th, with acting-Capt. Hall and Lieut. R. H. Leary. They should give a good account of themselves in camp. The last train, bearing the two batteries and their horses left the station at 10.40 o'clock.

Notes.

The Dragoons had a very fine lot of horses, the best assortment that has left here for camp in a long time.

Captain Doxsee, of the 40th, Campbellford, missed his train, and his company went on without him. He went down with the artillery.

Corporal Instructor Fee of Kingston, who has been drilling the 24th for the past two weeks, accompanied the Battery to camp, and will remain with them during their two weeks' stay.

"Have a good time, boys," said an old man to a group of artillery men, "I was in the Fenian raid myself!"

The th Regimental Band is a creditable organization, and their playing astonished many Peterborough people.

Lieut. Leary supplied a large number of horses to the battery.

THE BIG LUNGE WEIGHED 19 POUNDS AVOIRDUPOIS

The fishing season has opened once again, and with it comes the advent of the tales of how the "big ones" were caught. But the record one day's catch which has reached The Examiner up to date is eight lunge with a total weight of 75 1-2 pounds averdupois, and six bass. The lucky party was R. S. Parks and F. J. Doughty, of the city, and Charlie Edwards, of Lang. These anglers spent the first day of fishing on Rice Lake waters, and on Saturday night were the proud possessors of 14 of the finny tribe. The largest of the lunge which tipped the scales at 19 lbs., was shown an Examiner scribe this morning, and it certainly had most of its tribe beaten for size and beauty. The next in bulk was an 18-pounder, the average of the lot being 9 1-2 lbs. The party returned home this morning, but with an avowed intention of again visiting the fisherman's paradise in the near future.

Mr. Doughty, one of the party, told The Examiner that on Saturday within a radius of 10 acres on Rice Lake, there were over 30 canoes, containing twice as many followers of Izak Walton.

POOR VENTILATION AT MARKET HALL

A number of complaints about the poor ventilation of the market hall on market days have been raised especially by the ladies who spend some two or more hours there every Saturday morning. It is stated that last Saturday there was not a window in the whole building raised and the heat was almost unbearable. This state of affairs should be looked after by the proper authorities, especially during the summer months.

Lost a Watch And $85 Cash

An Omemee Man Got so Drunk He Couldn't Look After Himself.

An Omemee man, McGee by name, is mourning the loss of $85 and a gold watch. Twenty-three dollars and watch have since been recovered by P. C. Stewart, and the loser called at the police station this morning in quest of his gold. He was advised by the chief that it was up to him to assist in the prosecution of the man who touched him.

It appears that he was drunk in Victoria Park on Saturday night in company with another man from Omemee, who was also suffering very much from the effects of liquor, but not so much at sea as his companion, because he recovered first and went through his "friend" for all he had.

The loser reported the matter to the police, and P. C. Stewart would have had the man as well as the money on Saturday night had it not been for the actions of some of his companions.

The police still have the watch and the money recovered, and told the man who owned them that they wanted his assistance in bringing the pickpocket to justice, and that the sooner it was done the sooner he would get his property. He seemed a little reluctant to prosecute the guilty one. The victim of the theft drew his "wad" from the Dickson Company a short time ago, and as it represented considerable hard work he naturally is anxious to get it back. His memory is not very vivid concerning the deed, and he was apparently "beastly" drunk at the time.

Annual Meeting Of The Farmers' Institute

Reports Presented and Officers Elected—Messrs. J. H. Telford, Bridgenorth, and Fred. McKee, Smith, President and Vice-President, Respectively, and Mr. Wm. Collins is Again Secretary--Spirited Discussions on Live Topics--Board of Directors for 1906-7.

There was an enthusiastic attendance at the annual meeting of the West Peterborough Farmers' Institute, held in the City Council Chamber on Saturday afternoon last. A general discussion and the election of officers took place, after which there was a meeting of the Board of Directors.

President T. M. Hunter made the opening address, and a short review of the work of the past year. He was pleased to not that such good progress had been made, and congratulated the society on its success. Last year, he said, saw as large an average attendance as the Institute has had for years, and successful meetings were held at which the farmers showed much interest in the addresses of the delegates, who thoroughly understood and comprehensively dealt with their topics. The general agricultural outlook for this year, the speaker said, was bright, and everything indicated a splendid harvest. It was noticeable on the recent excursion to the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, that the crops in this district are much better than any seen along the route of journey. The prices are good for farm products, and in fact the only drawback seems the scarcity of labour, and high wages demanded by hired help. Mr. Hunter prophesied that this trouble would be remedied before long, however, as large emigrations from the Old Country are continually taking place. In conclusion he expressed his appreciation of the confidence of the members in electing him to the office of president dust year, and his regret at not being able to fill the chair for another term, owing to the fact that his time was demanded by other pressing duties.

"There are very many men in the riding," said Mr. Hunter, with characteristic modesty, "much more capable than I am, and I am sure that there will be little difficulty in selecting an efficient president for the coming year."

He admonished agriculturists to join the Institute in the best interests, and said that all farmers who took an interest in its work found it beneficial.

The annual report of the secretary was not read by Mr. Collins, but he had had several copies distributed in the hall before the commencement of the meeting, and these in attendance had plenty of time for perusal of its contents. It was unanimously adopted, as printed in The Examiner. Mr. Ed. M. Elliott, chairman of the Board of Directors, congratulated Mr. Collins upon its completeness and conciseness.

Mr. Elliott, at this juncture, imparted a little advice concerning the relations of the president and his vice, and urged that these officials co-operate in the mutual welfare of the Institute. He told the meeting that it was desirable that the vice-president, as well as the president himself, should be very active and on hand at all meetings, where, in case the president was an absentee, he would occupy the chair. Other members present also spoke concerning matters of interest and benefit to the gathering. The financial statement and auditors' report, a copy of both of which appeared in Saturday's issue of The Examiner, were then read and adopted.

It was moved by Mr. Elliott and seconded by Mr. Brown, that the meetings be held during the ensuing year at the same points as in 1905-06.—Carried.

After this motion had been put through Mr. Telford wanted to know if the executive had the power to change the place of meetings, should the advisability of so doing occur to them. He though it would be well to have a meeting at Ennismore in the afternoon and at Harvey at night.

Mr. Collins explained that the meetings held in Harvey in past years had not proved successful either financially or numerically and did not think the expenditure in connection with a Harvey meeting would be judicious. He said, however, if the County Council would insure an increase in the membership of the Institute by 20, the question of holding a Harvey meeting would be considered.

The election of officers was next proceeded with. Mr. Elliott suggested Mr. J. N. Telford, Bridgenorth, for President, and Mr. Fred McKee, of Smith, for Vice-President, and his selections met with general approval. Both these gentlemen were elected to their respective positions, amid much enthusiasm, and graciously expressed their gratitude for the honour conferred.

Mr. Telford made a short speech in recognition of his election to the highest official position in the Institute in which he promised to labour for its good and said he was confident he would be capably assisted by his lieutenant.

Mr. McKee made some humourous references to his associations with the newly elected president and jokingly said he thought his superior would find his confidence misplaced. He promised, however to do his best.

Mr. Hunter congratulated the officers on their election and the meeting on its choice. He said that while the past years had been very successful he anticipated the ensuing one, with such excellent men to direct affairs, would be even more so. Mr. Wm. Collins, who has in the past been so energetic in the discharge of his duties in connection with the Institute work, was again elected Secretary at an increased salary.

Before the meeting closed a vote of thanks was moved Mr. Hunter for his past services to which he made a fitting acknowledgement

Directors meeting

Mr. Elliott read the following list of names for the directors of 1906-07 and with the addition od Mr. A. Stewart, whose name was added to the Otonabee representation, they were chosen to compose the Board:—

Otonabee — Messrs. Hanbidge, S. Matchet, R. Chambers, J .D. Stewart. Alex A. Stewart, S. Deyell.

Monaghan—T. Hunter, J. Brown, H. Foster, T. Brown, G. Bennett.

Smith—Fred McKee, T. Milburn, J. McConkey, A. McGregor, J. Stothart.

Ennismore—J. N. Telford, J. H. Galvin. D. Crough, S. O'Reilly.

Lakefield—R. Q. Dench, A. C. Garbutt. T. Cullen, Wm. Mann, F. E. Kline.

Mr. R. Q. Dench requested that his name be withdrawn from the Board of Directors. His request was reluctantly complied with after much discussion.

A Flash Message From Far Away Japan

A Converted Japanese Tells of the Triumphs of Christianity in the Land of the Rising Sun—Appeals for Help and Urges Those Who Have Not Taken Christianity Seriously to Become Converted.

Yesterday was observed in the Church of England as a day of intercession and appeal in behalf of missions. This was signalized at St. John's by the presence of Iwai, a young Japanese gentleman studying for Holy Orders in Toronto. He addressed the congregations at both the morning and evening services. In the morning, his remarks, made in good grammatical English, with the peculiar employment of certain words and phrases, were very interesting, and referred to the religions of Japan, Buddhism, Confucianism, and Shintooism.

In the evening Iwai said that it was his "happy mission" to present the success of mission work in Japan, to tell what a victory Christianity was gaining in the land of the East, where it was introduced 55 years ago for the second time. The Jesuit missionaries made some progress 350 years ago, but owing to unfortunate circumstances they were driven out of the land. The prejudice, on the part of the people was hard to overcome. The second attempt to introduce Christianity had to encounter this prejudice, but it was being overcome. Eighteen years ago the Church of England in Japan was established as an independent church, with six Bishops, of which four were English and two American. There were 120 clergymen, and of these 54 were native Japanese; there were ninety missionworkers. There were 85 churches, and 135 mission stations, where there were regular services.

The total membership of the Anglican Church in Japan was 13,000. There were other agencies of the Church, a school, with 700 or 800 students, and 230 Sunday schools. The branch of the Church of England in Japan, was independent in regard to canons, etc., but not in regard to finances. Money was needed to help on the work, which was flourishing and prosperous, but needed to be made more so, in a land where Christianity was represented by 150,000 out of 46,000,000. The speaker personally bore testimony to his own experience in regard to the spiritual benefit he had received from the Christian religion. There were great prospects for the advancement of the Church in Japan; there was an increase in numbers, and, especially, in the Sunday schools, whose prosperity involved that of the Church. Iwai appealed to Christians to help on the good work. He urgently appealed to all to "do their effort" to bring the light of the Gospel—the light of the world — to Japan. The Japanese, from Christ's point of view, were as much their neighbours, as they were his, (the speaker's.) He concluded by urging those who had not "taken Christianity seriously," to consider the question, and use the opportunities at their hands, of which 45 millions in Japan were deprived. It seemed a wonderful thing that a whilom heathen from the other side of the world should stand in a Christian church, in a Christian land, appealing to Canadians to embrace the realities of Christianity, and become converted, a circumstance which may be regarded as exemplifying the Scripture, which declares that "out of the mouths of babes and sucklings thou hast ordained strength."

Search For Fossils In Peterborough County

Mr. Joseph Townsend, Commissioned by the University of Toronto, is Working in This County—Will Work in This Vicinity for Two Months.

Toronto Saturday Night, in its last issue says:

Somewhere out in the country back of and beyond Peterborough, there may be to-day a farmer and his family surprised by the peculiar behaviour of a little elderly man, who may be seen in solitude, hour after hour, in the bed of some stream, hammering among the rocks. His strange conduct will lead the farmer to believe him insane; and friendly and genial as he will prove to be on approach, the explanation he will give of the work he is doing, will probably serve to confirm the farmer's worst fears. He will explain that he is hunting fossils, and he will explain that fossils are little stone wigglers of one kind and another embeddded in the rocky formation he is examining. The man will be Mr. Joseph Townsend, formerly editor of the Grey Review, in Durham, and with a newspaper experience covering Dundalk, Orangeville, Elora and Guelph. Perhaps no man has done more than Joseph Townsend to search out and classify the geographical specimens procurable in Ontario. He has made it the hobby of his life, and with little reward has sacrificed all his interests to the work. The collections at Ottawa and Toronto have been largely made up by him, and the remuneration he has received has been small, although he was glad enough to collect and work for the love of the task. For the first time in his life Mr. Townsend has got an opportunity to throw himself into his task, and revel in it. The Provincial University has commissioned him to pursue his investigations for four months this summer, half the time in the country from Peterborough to Ottawa, and the other half in the country west of Winnipeg. This assignment fulfils the dream of his simple and devoted life. He will rise at dawn, walk incredible distances and pursue his search for fossils until night drives him to seek a bed somewhere — anywhere. There are men with these passions still among us.

Jolliffe, at the Y.M.C.A. on Sunday at 4 o'clock, when he gave his farewell address to men, prior to his departure to Clinton, Ont. His address made a decided impression. Mr. Thornton sang, "Are you ready?" and Mr. Bunn joined him in the selection, "No Love Like His."

The Evangelistic Band will have charge next Sunday. The subject will be "A Bold Robbery." The Misses Chasty will sing.

The Results of Weak Blood

TIRED BRAIN AND BODY AND LANGUID, WORN-OUT FEELINGS—CURE IN

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

In the spring the blood is lacking in the red corpuscles wherein is found the life-giving principles which put snap and energy into the system—making the body active and the mind alert.

For lack of red corpuscles in the blood, the lungs are weak, the action of the heart feeble, the stomach fails to properly digest the food, the liver kidneys and bowels become sluggish and inactive.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food overcomes these conditions because it contains the very elements of nature which go to increase the number of red corpuscles in the blood.

Mrs. Grome, 148 Rubidge street, Peterborough, Ont., states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in my family, and have found it to be a great nerve builder. One of my children had been troubled with nervousness for a number of years, and suffered greatly from dizzy, nervous headaches. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has entirely cured her of these symptoms, and to-day she is real strong and healthy. We do not lose an opportunity of recommending this splendid medicine."

It is interesting to note your increase in weight from week to week while using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food; 50 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates and Co., Toronto.

John Crane, E. G. Patterson, and V. Eastwood.

With such a formidable array of exponents of the rod and spoon, to battle with, the game fish of the lake should certainly fair ill.

DON'T GIVE UP THE SHIP.

On Saturday the Examiner referred briefly to what seems to be the hasty action of the directors of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition in abandoning the fall show because the measure of support they requested at the hands of the City Council was not forthcoming to the full extent demanded. It must be remembered that asking the City Council to give a guarantee of $1,000 or a grant of $600 represents a responsibility not to be lightly assumed, nor undertaken without serious consideration. It seems to be more difficult to successfully manage the West Riding show than that of the East Riding. The exhibition in Norwood is nearly always a good agricultural show, largely managed by farmers and with the hearty co-operation and support of the farming community of that half of the county. In the West the situation is different. More is naturally expected from the West Riding exhibition, the expense is greater and for some reason the co-operation of the farmers is not received to as great an extent as is desirable. The city perhaps does not take the interest it might take, but that does not indicate that no effort should be spared to maintain the exhibition and not permit it to lapse. There seems to be little doubt that something might come from a mutual conference on the part of the City Council, the County Council and the Directors. What is particularly doubtful is the wisdom and even the right of the Directors in their course in abandoning the show, to do so without consulting the members who have for years stood by and loyally supported the exhibition. It seems certain that the members as a whole will not take kindly to the hasty action of the Directors in retiring from the field and deciding to have no exhibition. The Directors should not have been so easily discouraged. In past years the show has been made a success. For four or five years in the nineties there were very successful exhibitions, and large annual surpluses were the rule. In those days the Directors did not have the benefit of more than $200 from outside sources, while last year the Directors had outside assistance to the extent of between $1,200 and $1,400. The Directors of the present should, it is thought, not abandon the ship so easily; not throw the exhibition aside as a child which becomes tired of a new toy. Everybody admires pluck and courage, and will rally to the support of an organization which displays these qualities. Again it is to be suggested that the Directors might well reconsider their decision to abandon the exhibition and before definitely deciding to that effect, have a conference with the bodies mentioned and also with the members, who certainly have a right to be consulted.

Must Be Good For Seven Years

Robert Sisson so Instructed by City Clerk Armstrong.

Robert Sisson told City Clerk Armstrong at this morning's police court that he was done with liquor. Sisson was locked up by P. C. Stewart on Saturday last for making himself a nuisance on the streets, where he was bubbling over with cordiality, displaying a tendency to shake hands effusively with everybody he met. So he was given a chance to waste his sweetness in a lonely cell.

"It's over seven years since he's been in court," said the chief, in answer to a query of Mr. Armstrong's. But the prisoner placed it at 18.

He was allowed to go, but was advised not to appear in court for another seven years.

Woodmen Of The World At St. Luke's

Were Addressed Last Night by the Rector, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt.

The Woodmen of the World attended St. Luke's church last night in a body, marshalled by Mr. W. Dayman, and listened to a very strong and impressive sermon delivered by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt. The preacher dwelt on the necessity of the concentration of our efforts to the glory of God. The discourse was most beneficial and the subject was dealt with in a very convincing manner.

The text was taken from St. Paul's epistle to the Philippians, 3rd chapter and 13th and 14th verses:—"Brethren I count not myself to have apprehended, but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth into those things which are before. I press towards the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Jesus Christ."

The secret of all moral force and of spiritual success, said the speaker, is concentration. He expressed his wish in addressing the Woodmen of the World to give them a few thoughts to direct them towards concentration.

A man may have nothing whatever to do with anything that is not strictly religious and will abstain entirely from any worldly associations, or pleasurers. This course of life will make him narrow. Still another man may associate with his fellow men in the various spheres of his existence, enjoying earthly pleasures, so long as they do not pollute him and see life in a broader sense of the word. A man may choose either form of religion, the first, exclusive, and the latter inclusive, but as long as he is sincere he will be honoured and respected in this world and acceptable to God.

The greatest requisite in life is to have one fixed aim. The want of this object often makes one's life, absolutely useless, weak, uncertain or capricious. And the reason is simply the lack of concentration. How often do we see a man who is one person in the morning and another altogether in the evening; simply because he cannot concentrate his mind on anything definite.

We should live for the glory of God in business as well as in spiritual life. There are many so-called Christians who persuade themselves that they are living for God, when in reality they are living for the devil. It is man's proper end to concentrate himself upon the one object of life and that is to live to the glory of God. It is not only man's end, but God's as well.

The speaker asked his hearers if they thought God had placed them in the world for nothing, and earnestly told them there was a work on earth for them to do. All the suffering, poverty and need for conversion to the Christian faith is not here for nothing. Every one of us is expected to do something towards the furtherance of God's religion here. If we ever hope to share the enjoyments of Heaven with God in Heaven we must commence the work that will finally result in the attainment of our object, while on earth

"I can't shut my eyes" stated the preacher, "to the fact that there are many professing Christians, but to a great extent Christianity is unfortunately a secondary consideration."

It is better not to almost work at all, he said, than not to work for the glory of the Master to whom we owe everything. He described a ship taking its unbending course to a port as similar to a man with a definite object in life and who unswervingly and heroically pushes onward to attain that object. As a parting message the speaker requested his hearers to bear in mind as a motto, "This one thing I do."

Halifax Traveller Attempts Suicide

Threw Himself in Creek at Indian River and Then Flies for the Woods—Discovered After Long Search up to His Waist in the Mire—Was Brought to Local Police Station and Later Taken to Hospital—Was Suffering From the "Blues."

Indian River is usually a place void of sensations, but a commercial traveller caused considerable excitement there on Saturday last and Sunday. The man in question stepped off the east-bound noon train at Indian River, on Saturday last, getting off on the wrong side apparently so that the conductor would not notice him. Before he reached Indian River he gave the conductor his ticket to Halifax, and instructed him to forward his baggage to that place.

Mr. John Duff, J.P., saw the traveller walking up the track, but did not give the matter a second thought at the time. He went to Mr. Herbert Evans' house, and said he had killed a man in self defence, and that he was being pursued. The stranger then threw himself into a nearby creek, attempting to commit suicide, but Mr. Evans pulled him out. Shortly afterwards the would-be suicide saw a man walking up the road, and immediately fled across the field exclaiming that the man he saw was one of the party in pursuit of him.

Mr. Evans reported the matter to Mr. Duff, who swore in a couple of constables — William Brackenridge and Eustace Whibbs — and these were instructed to conduct a search for the missing man. They were unsuccessful in their endeavours to locate him on Saturday, but on Sunday at 1 p.m. found him in Elmhirst's swamp. He was up to his waist in mud and water, and as he had been wandering around all day in the rain presented a very dilapidated appearance. His clothes were all wet and covered with mud, and he was in a very bad state physically.

The constables drove him to the police station here and he was detained there for a short time. He had on his person his commercial travellers' ticket, $21.50 in money, and a gold ring. As his clothing was muddy and torn, and his underclothing saturated, P. C. Stewart secured a new outfit for him and telephoned for a physician. The ambulance was sent for and the unfortunate man conveyed to the Nicholls Hospital. His condition is not dangerous, according to the doctor who attended him, and he is suffering from an attack of delirum tremens. Judging by his appearance he has been indulging quite freely of late. His papers showed his home was in Halifax, and the Chief communicated with his wife concerning her husband's plight.

Warm Tribute Paid To The Late Rev. W. M. Roger

Memorial Sermon Preached by Rev. Dr. Torrance at St. Paul's Yesterday—Sketch of Life of the Missionary Clergyman and His Father—The Service Was Very Impressive.

"For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep and was laid unto his fathers"—Acts xiii., was made the basis of a memorial sermon by Rev. Dr. Torrance for the late Rev. W. M. Roger at St. Paul's church yesterday morning. There was a large congregation present, and the service was throughout most impressive. Hymns appropriate to the occasion were sung during the service.

In beginning his sermon, Rev. Dr. Torrance remarked that there was a great difference in the duration of men's lives, but death came to all. Each generation set out with bright hopes, which were too often doomed to bitter disappointment, as one after another fell before the stroke of death. Two or three thoughts suggested by the text were enlarged on by the speaker. In the first place God had a definite life plan for each one of his creatures. The story of David was an exemplification of this fact. From the material world many analogies were gained. Everything in the material world had its place to occupy and its duties to fulfil. The part of true wisdom was to find out what plan God had made for us, and try to fit ourselves for it. By power of choice people could oppose the will of God.

The second thought suggested was that the plan of God for His people was that they should serve their own generation, that they should serve God by serving their fellow men. Jesus was a perfect exemplification of the fact. Self was subordinated in His ministry to others. The noblest kind of life was a life of service. Men could not live to themselves, not place themselves where their influence would not be felt. One's influence was steadily going out, nor was it limited, but extended to other generations as well. To us has been bequeathed a legacy of good and evil from all preceding generations, while we in turn leave good and evil to the generations which follow us. David served all generations by his psalms. The third thought was that death came to God's people after they had served their generation.

The words of the text had been used in January, 1878, by the late Rev. Wm. Donald, of Port Hope, on the occasion of the death of the late Rev. J. M. Roger. The church was crowded with those who desired to honour the memory of the deceased, who had been 42 years in the ministry. He began here 73 years ago, when the neighbourhood was sparsely settled.

Under his fostering care the church grew. When the separation took place in Peterborough, Mr. Roger cast in his lot with the free church, and was obliged to leave his church building and erect a new church on the present site of St. Paul's. Mr. Roger did not confine his labours to Peterborough, but had much to do with the work in Warsaw, Norwood and Lakefield.

Mr. Roger was a son of the manse, descended from five of six generations in the ministry. He was courteous, dignified, honourable, strong in his convictions, a loving husband, a kind father. Nowhere did he shine brighter than in his home. He was honoured throughout the whole church.

In 1878 a new generation had sprung up. Rev. W. M. Roger, the news of whose death had shocked the people of the city, was a son of the founder of St. Paul's. From infancy he directed his energy towards the ministry. After passing from school to university, and from university to theological school, he entered upon his first charge. Among the charges which he served were Perth, Petrolea, Ashburn and London. In addition to the work here he served in the Mauritius, in the interests of the French-Canadian Missionary Society, and also laboured in the Canadian Northwest.

He was characterized by his depth of belief and his longing for the salvation of his fellow men. "For he was a good man, and liveth unto the Holy Ghost." By prayer he kept his spiritual life in a healthy state. God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, were to him a great reality. He had a longing for salvation of his fellow men. This was manifested not only in his ministry, but in his evangelistic work. In Mitchell and other places his evangelistic efforts were of service. He possessed scholarship and intellectual force.

In concluding, Rev. Dr. Torrance said that when the day of final judgment came, among the ministers of the Presbyterian church whose crown shone most brightly would perhaps be that of Rev. W. M. Roger.

CHANGE IN THE PERSONNEL OF EXAMINER STAFF

Mr. F. J. Jameson, who has for many years had the practical superintendency of the Examiner, will retire from that position on the 30th of the present month. He has been connected with the Examiner staff for over thirty-six years, in fact with the exception of a few years has spent, to the present, his whole life in the service of the Examiner. His retirement to assume duties of a less onerous character, will create a vacancy and remove a face and figure which have long been familiar to patrons of the Examiner. The Examiner, while regretting the severance of the business relations which have so long and satisfactorily existed, gives Mr. Jameson its best wishes for a pleasant and prosperous future. During the years of his association with the Examiner Mr. Jameson, by his faithful discharge of duty and loyalty to the interests of his employment, has contributed his share to the development of the Examiner and its business.

He will be succeeded by Mr. Dexter D. C. Dawe, who is well known in Peterborough and has been recognized in the printing profession and by the public as a first rate artist in his line. He entered upon his duties to-day, and will be associated with Mr. Jameson during the remainder of the month familiarizing himself with the local details of the new duties which he assumes. The Examiner bespeaks for him a welcome at the hands of the public which his future relations to them and satisfactory services, will no doubt amply justify. Mr. Dawe has been a resident of Peterborough for may years; he understands the wants and requirements of the Peterborough public in the line of good printing, and will no doubt discharge the duties of his official position with as much success and favour as his record as a citizen has been attended with.

Mrs. W. J. Morrow's recital takes place on Monday evening, June 25th, in St. Peter's Hall, new Separate school, under the patronage of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, Hon. and Mrs. J. R. Stratton, T. E. Bradburn, Esq., M.P.P., Miss Olive K. Bradburn, and R. R. Hall, Esq., M.P. Mrs. Morrow's recitals are always looked forward to, as every year she brings forward new pupils, who are quite a surprise to the public.

The following of her advanced vocal and instrumental pupils will take part: Misses Bertha Curtis, M. McKenna, Lilian Bell, Lavina Hallihan, Norah Fitzgerald, Kathleen Wilhan, Bernardette Hackett, Mollie Young, Myrtle Kline, Alma Levasseur; Messrs. John King, Vernon Morphet, Firth Buller. They will be assisted by Mr. David Ross, who will be heard in operatic selections, and Scotch and Irish ballads. Plan of hall will open on Thursday, June 21st, at Jas. Lynch's drug store. 1t

HOW LISZT PLAYED THE CHOPIN D FLAT PRELUDE

In view of the closing exercises of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, in the Grand Opera House on Wednesday evening, the following story of Liszt's interpretation of the Chopin prelude in D flat, No. 15, will be interesting reading to the many budding pianists, who will exploit their proficiency on Wednesday night. The story, which illustrates the fact that the piano is not played with the fingers alone, but with the mind and heart as well, thus goes:—

One morning before the avalanche of pianists had arrived to claim his attention and do him homage, Liszt received me at his villa, and while we were still conversing about his season in Rome, Vienna, and Buda-Pesth, Martha Remmert was announced.

After a cordial greeting from her Master she expressed a desire to play for him the Chopin Prelude No. 15 in D flat.

"Ah! that pleases me!" exclaimed Liszt. "Let us see your conception of it," he continued, and added, "I have not heard it played in a long time."

As she began, an air of great tenderness and, I thought, a tinge of sorrow, came over the Master's mobile face. Part of the time his eyes were closed, and when open they had a dreamy, absent, and distant expression.

Evidently the past was conjured up by the performance, for as Miss Remmert concluded, Liszt said: "Did you ever read Madame Sand's account of the composition of that prelude?"

Saying this, he stepped to a shelf and taking a small volume down opened it, and while finding the place mumbled softly to himself, "Yes, one must know Chopin himself, one must know his sorrows and sufferings to play him well." Then, suddenly, "Here is the story told by Madame Sand herself," and he read:—

"One day Maurice and I had gone to Palma. We had left Chopin comparatively well. There fell, towards evening, a heavy rain which swelled the streams and exposed us to great danger from the floods. Finally about midnight we reached home. Our delay was exceedingly unpleasant to us, for we knew that it would greatly disturb our dear invalid. The excitement in which we found him was indeed very great. It had already given place to a silent despair. He had composed this sublimely beautiful prelude with tears in his eyes. When he saw us coming he arose with a shriek, remained standing almost motionless, and with a strange, hollow voice cried out, 'Oh, I thought you were no longer alive!' He related to us afterward, that during our absence he had had a vision, and that he was not able to separate the dream from the reality. He sank into a kind of trance, and while he was playing on the piano, he thought he had disappeared from the earth, and that he was no longer among the living. It seemed to him that he was drowned, lying at the bottom of the sea, and feeling the cold drops of water falling in measured time upon his breast. The prelude which he composed this evening really recalls the raindrops which were falling upon the roof of the cloister; but according to his interpretation these drops indicated the tears falling from heaven upon his heart."

Then going to the instrument Liszt laid the book down, and giving one of his significant grunts, seated himself, saying:—

"You know this repeated tone, representing the dropping of water, must be played evenly throughout," but, he added, "I like to play one measure as an introduction."

He then commenced on the single tone repeating it alone for an entire measure, playing the plaintive melody with such a tender touch and with such infinite variety of expression that each individual phrase was clothed with a significance and charm peculiar to itself. During this time the dropping of the water continued in the accompaniment, steady, inexorable, and coldly cruel.

The pleading pathos of the theme was produced with such a singing tone that it became almost articulate, and Liszt's sympathy with it was emphasized, now and then with an involuntary nod of assent.

Now the key changes to the minor, and the dropping of water continues on the same tone, but passes to an octave lower. The deep sepulchral tones, in slow measured movement, depict the awakening of the dead; phantoms slowly arise, with ghastly cerements of the tomb falling about them, and faintly and distinctly approach. Gradually they come nearer; the dropping water measures off and accompanies their onward gliding movement, while plaintive sighs and groans escape from the sealed lips of the dead. Yet nearer the ghostly procession approaches; a feeling of terror now possesses the wizard who has conjured up this dread phantom of the grave, and he cries out in horror at the fearful apparition his own imagination has produced. In massive crashing chords he fairly shrieks in consternation as the spectre approaches nearer, and, finally exhausted, he falls into a half-conscious swoon.

Then the sweetly plaintive, almost entreating, melody is resumed and interrupted with a sharp cry of despair; the "Prelude" then closes with a sigh of resignation, while the repeated note, like the unceasing ticking of a clock, continues to drop—drop—drop—its liquid unmerciful tone predicting the inexorable doom of man.

As Liszt played his demeanour changed in sympathy with the intensely dramatic content of the work. During the sombre phantasy, his teeth were set, his lips and massive jaw firm, his entire face almost rigid; his grey eyes burned with the composer's inspiration, and his body straightened out as he leaned somewhat away from the key-board. When he struck the ponderous chords of terror, there was a vehemence almost diabolical in the sudden swoop of his great hands, and the tremendous crash fairly made one shiver. His nostrils became distended, and his breath came quickly, as one labouring under great excitement. Indeed, it seemed that the spell of the great "tone-poet", with whom, in his earlier years, he had been on such friendly terms, had completely mastered him; as though he felt himself again in his presence, and he would once more prove his devotion to Chopin's inspired art, and show him that Liszt still knew and could portray his innermost soul.

When he had finished neither Miss Remmert nor myself spoke; it seemed somehow inappropriate, as though one should interrupt a prayer or a hymn with conversation. Liszt arose, and, without a word, turned and looked out of the window. What a flood of memories were rushing over his soul, of a past, half-forgotten! How this little prelude "had rolled away the stone" of his sepulchered life and resurrected the happy days, the days of triumph and glory in Paris!

Gusty Dundas Was Remanded

Well Known Character Appears on Charge of Vagrancy.

Gusty Dundas was arrested by P. C. Rutherford yesterday afternoon at the corner of King and Stewart streets and looked up on a charge of vagrancy. Gusty has been in the goal, the Nicholls Hospital and the Protestant Home lately. He was taken before City Clerk Armstrong this morning and was remanded until Wednesday morning. He waxed eloquent and gave a long recital of his doings and even the mention of the magic word, breakfast, did not appeal strongly enough to Gusty to make him desist from talking incessantly. He at last went to a restaurant in charge of Constable Cockburne, into whose charge he was given by the Chief, as he is a resident of the county, and not of the city. Gusty is well known in Peterborough and for years has been observed driving homeward with his habitual jag on. He was more noticeable on account of having only one arm.

Big 'Lunge Upset Fisherman's Canoe

Monster Was Safely Landed, However, and Weighed 14 Pounds.

The biggest 'lunge reported so far this season was caught by Roy Galvin near the Yankee Bonnet on Saturday afternoon. The fish tipped the scales at 14 lbs. The monster was only controlled after an exciting struggle. In the fight that ensued after he was landed the canoe upset but Mr. Galvin, by the aid of a companion in another boat succeeded in saving the fish.

STONE CRUSHER STUCK IN THE MUD

The new stone crusher which the township of Otonabee purchased recently is meeting with some difficulty in being transferred through the township. It is a very heavy machine and on Saturday when it was being taken by Slattery's traction engine to Keene, got stuck in the mud on the road in front of Mr. John Bennett's property. Although strenuous efforts were made to extricate the big machine from the sticky substance they were made in vain, and it still stands in over a foot of mud to-day.

Does Your FOOD Digest Well?

When the food is imperfectly digested the full benefit is not derived from it by the body and the purpose of eating is defeated; no matter how good the food or how carefully adapted to the wants of the body it may be. Then the dyspeptic often becomes thin, weak and debilitated, energy is lacking, brightness, snap and vim are lost, and in their place come dullness, lost appetite, depression and languor. It takes no great knowledge to know when one has indigestion, some of the following symptoms generally exist, viz.: constipation, sour stomach, variable appetite, headache, heartburn, gas in the stomach, etc.

The great point is to cure it, to get back bounding health and vigor.

is constantly effecting cures of dyspepsia because it acts in a natural yet effective way upon all the organs involved in the process of digestion, removing all clogging impurities and making easy the work of digestion and assimilation.

Mr. R. G. Harvey, Amelianburg, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with dyspepsia for several years and after using three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I was completely cured. I cannot praise B.B.B. enough for what it has done for me. I have not had a sign of dyspepsia since."

Do not accept a substitute for B.B.B. There is nothing "just as good."

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 18. — After opening slightly lower to-day the stock market manifested a decided tendency to improve. An early drive against Smelters and Reading brought out very little stock, and when shorts attempted to cover they were compelled to bid prices up to get any stocks.

B. and O. was a strong feature, making a new high record early. Copper was well bought, Atchison rallied easily; U.P. and St. Paul were strong; while the Steels received good support. London was firm a little higher all round although the Russian advices were very disturbing. More favourable crop advices caused lower prices for grain in Chicago and this helped sentiment.

A drive by the bears at Penna. in the afternoon unsettled things again. The whole market weakened, the early gains being lost and the low level of the day touched again. The cause of the break was a rumour that the Penna. loan in Paris was a failure. The close was weak.

Quakers Meet Victory For The Seventh Time

Won First of the Finals From Lakehurst by 3 Goals to 0—Game Was a Lively One--Visitors Say Its Their Last Defeat--Lakehurst Citadel Continuously Bombarded--Only One More Junior Game.

"We lost to-day, but will win the next time," were the final words of the Lakehurst football eleven as they vanished from the city limits Saturday evening after being trimmed by the Quaker bunch by 3 goals to 0. That was the first game for the visitors in the Midland League, so that their football abilities were unknown and it was feared by some of the Quaker supporters that they might spring a surprise.

But it wasn't long after the whistle blew that all such doubts were abandoned. It was then only a matter of how many goals the homesters would pile up against their opponents and it would be safe to say that if the Lakehurst goal keeper had been absent, the score would have been the record breaker of the world.

The Saturday's game was witnessed by the largest crowd that has seen a football match on Riverside Park this year, yet the grand stand was scarcely filled. In fact the quality of football which the Quakers turned out deserved a much larger crowd.

The game on Saturday was the seventh successive win for the locals who have a record this year to be proud of. They are now credited with 17 goals in the seven games with only two marked down against them. With but one more match to conclude the Junior series it looks as if the Quakers will bring another championship to Peterborough in 1906.

The feature of the game on Saturday was the repeated onslaughts of the Quakers on the visitors' citadel and the spectacular work of the latter's defence. Shot after shot rained thick and fast many missing the ribbons and stakes by narrow margins and more finding a brief resting place in the hands of the adept goal protector. The home team played the game of their lives and deserved to win by a much greater score. A number of flukes on the part of their forwards accounted for the loss of a few which seemed forthcoming.

The defence division of the visitors was the whole team. They repeatedly punted the leather back into Quaker territory and watched their checks well. Their forward line was the weak spot. They never broke away on any dangerous rushes and only one shot was made on goal, this going above. Their combination, whenever attempted was almost invariably broken up before getting to the rear of the natives who had the greater portion of the defence work to attend to.

Percy McFadden in the Quaker goal had no opportunities to retain his reputation. He didn't have a single ball to stop and only had two goal kicks. There was no doubt, however, that if the pig skin had come his way he would have taken the proper means to dispose of it. Evans was in his old time form and never missed a chance in punting. When hard pressed he easily eluded the Lakehurst besiegers and placed the ball in the proper place. Jimmy Doris played the same old steady game as is his custom and in breaking up combinations is an expert. His checking was demoralizing to the forwards, whenever they got the ball down the field that far.

The half back line played a star game. Best, Archibald and Deforge are three of the best juniors in the business, and workers from start to finish. They kept feeding the forwards continually, and were instrumental in scoring the three goals, besides stopping pretty nearly every combination that the visitors' forwards managed to get away with. The local forward line was working on Saturday like a charm, and never failed to carry the windbag down the field for a shot on goal. Baker played a gilt-edged game, especially in the latter half. He scored the first of the Quakers' goals, seven minutes after play began, and sent in a curve shot, which made the visitors' defence do some guessing. Milburn was on the line-up for the first time this year, but retired when Montgomery of Lakehurst was disabled. While he played he did some good work. Armstrong on the right wing put up his usual brilliant game. His passing was always accurate. In the second half he scored both of the Quakers' goals, although he was watched pretty closely by Irwin and Coones. Boycott is still the ever-reliable in shooting them in from the wing, and he also did some nice work at dribbling. Huston kicked at centre.

For the visitors the credit of the small score was due to the brilliant work of Cundell in goal and Coones at back. Although the former did not play his usual position at half he can certainly look after the hot shots and the three that found openings between the stakes were difficult to get at. Coones saved his team a score of times and booted the ball in any position. Of the forwards Dever and Coones were the pick of the bunch with plenty of speed, but they found it impossible to evade the watchful eyes of Doris and Evans.

Joe Power of Norwood, was the referee and none of his rulings were disputed. Joe is fast getting a reputation as an expert football official, who is competent to look after all infringements of the rules.

USED UP AND TIRED OUT

MEN AT THE OFFICE WOMEN IN THE HOME CHILDREN AT SCHOOL

Every day in the week and every week in the year men, women and children feel all used up and tired out.

The strain of business, the cares of home and social life and the task of study cause terrible suffering from heart and nerve troubles. The efforts put forth to keep up to the modern "high pressure" mode of life in this age soon wears out the strongest system, shatters the nerves and weakens the heart.

Thousands find life a burden and others an early grave. The strain on the system causes nervousness, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, faint and dizzy spells, skip beats, weak and irregular pulse, smothering and sinking spells, etc. The blood becomes weak and watery and eventually causes decline.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

are indicated for all diseases arising from a weak and debilitated condition of the heart or of the nerve centres. Mrs. Thos. Hall, Kaldon, Ont., writes: "For the past two or three years I have been troubled with nervousness and heart failure, and the doctors failed to give me any relief. I decided at last to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and I would not now be without them if they cost twice as much. I have recommended them to my neighbors and friends.

Remarkable Scenes At The Dedication

Of the New Mother Church of Christian Science in Boston —Mr. R. J. Todd, Who Has Just Returned, Tells The Examiner of the Incidents Connected With the Series of Meetings.

Mr. R. J. Todd has furnished The Examiner with a few facts in connection with the dedication of the extension of the Mother church, the First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston, Mass., the annual communion service and business meeting. Mr. Todd says: "The first meeting was that of the Executive Committee Saturday morning, over which the Earl of Dunmore, Scotland, presided. From this meeting was sent a message of love and gratitude to Mrs. Eddy for her faithfulness to God in so living as to make this event possible in the history of this age. From this meeting went to the public press that the treasurer had notified the contributors to the building fund to discontinue sending money to it, as he had sufficient on hand to pay all costs, amounting to about $2,000,000.

"The services were arranged for Sunday, the 1st, at 7.30 a.m. When the writer reached the edifice, at 6 a.m., the great massive stone structure, with its dome towering over two hundred and twenty feet above the street, had scores, scores had gathered around the doors seeking admission. By 7 o'clock the street was a seething mass of happy looking people, of all classes, and of nearly all nations. The doors quietly opened and the great mass of people entered for 20 minutes, when the doors closed with the announcement that the church, which seats 5,000 people, was full, leaving perhaps nearly as many more in the street, who waited for the next service, the old auditorium being thrown open for their convenience, from which they entered the new auditorium. Such was the scene at each and every service of the six.

"The services consisted of singing of hymns, reading of Scripture, and the usual sermon of selections from the Bible, with correlative passages from the Christian Science Text Book, "Science and Health, with key to the Scriptures," by Mary B. G. Eddy. On this occasion was a special message from Mrs. Eddy read by the first reader, the title being "Choose ye." At the close of the sermon a message of loving appreciation of the life and leadership of Mrs. Eddy was sent to her after a standing vote of the congregation, which rose as one with beaming face of love and gratitude. All the other services were a repetition of the first, closing in the regular way, with the Doxology after the silent communion, at which the whole assembly knelt in silent communion with the Divine, after which they repeated audibly in unison, the Lord's Prayer. One thing very noticeable was the harmony and unity of this immense assembly, the responsive reading, singing, and repetition of the Lord's Prayer, was as one.

"On Monday, Boston was thrown open to Christian Scientists. The visitors spent the day free and easy. Many of them visited the old home of Mrs. Eddy, in Lynn, where she first wrote the text book of Christian Science.

"Tuesday, at 10 a.m., was the annual business meeting of the members of the Mother church, admission being by card only. This was held in the new church, and had to be repeated at 2 o'clock, as they could only accommodate half the number. At this meeting a new president was elected. The reports of the clerk and secretary, which showed a large expenditure, but with a goodly balance, and a large increase of members, were presented. Reports were then heard from different parts of the field which showed a marvelous growth, not only in every state in the Union, but from abroad—Canada, London, Ireland, Scotland, Germany, France, China, and many other places, some reporting wonderful cases of healing. One man, a Mr. A. G. Frisbie, a popular business man of Cleveland, O., spoke at length, and with no uncertain sound, as to the worth of Christian Science in business, a practical and every-day religion, which proves that it pays here and now to be honest, and live the Golden Rule.

On Wednesday evening, at 7.30 p.m., at the regular testimony meeting, there were some 16 different places of meeting, and it is estimated that 50,000 people attended these services, at which were related many wonderful tales of the power of God to heal and bless mankind through the teaching of Christian Science. Intelligent and cultured men and women in society and business, as well as those in the more humble walks of life, declared that they owe all that they have and are, to God, and Christ Jesus, as taught and demonstrated by Mrs. Eddy. Many of them had been delivered from the depths of sorrow and suffering, some just through the study of "Science and Health, with the key to the Scriptures," by Mary B. G. Eddy.

"As for the building itself, the writer is incompetent to attempt a description without trespassing on your space. Suffice it to say that its architecture is perfect. In appearance it is rich, yet plain, and very substantial. The walls of light gray Concord granite, finished inside up to the dome with gray limestone from Indiana, and the floors are a composition, having the appearance of solid rock.

"Much credit is due the management for the manner in which the crowds of people were handled, with 200 ushers. Twenty minutes from the time the doors opened, the 5,000 seats were filled. Twelve minutes from the time the doors opened again, the church was empty, and again filling for the next service without the slightest confusion of excitement, or the aid of police. This seems the more wonderful when we consider that there are seven galleries, two on each side of the pulpits, and the first, second and third across the front and above each other."

A PETERBOROUGH GIRL'S WELL-EARNED PROMOTION

The Toronto Star has the following: "Miss Mary Sawers has accepted the lady superintendency of the Orthopedic Hospital, and will commence her new duties on the first of July, succeeding Miss Margaret Hume, who has been forced to resign, owing to ill-health. Miss Sawers is from Peterborough, and has been on the nursing staff of a Toronto hospital for some time."

Miss Sawers is quite worthy of the advancement she has well earned by her devotion to duty and her faithful discharge of the responsibilities of the position she occupied. To those who know her sterling qualities of character, her industry, amiability, and other necessary qualities that go to make a successful and ideal nurse, her preferment is no matter of surprise. It was to be expected. Nevertheless congratulations are due her, and are heartily extended.

Cold on the Lungs.

"We have seven children and have used Dr Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for every one of them and with good results. We get four bottles at a time and find it a good remedy to break up a cold on the lungs."—Mrs. R. D. Turner, Broadview, N.W.T.

Banana Market Was Cornered

Wasn't a Ripe Banana in the City on Saturday.

A peculiar state of affairs existed in the city on Saturday in the banana market. The market in ripe bananas in the afternoon was absolutely cornered, the fruit dealers and grocers not being able to accommodate their customers with any of the fruit.

A city grocery man is also authority for the statement that the same condition existed in Toronto.

This is a rare occurrence and seldom happens more than once in a year during the banana season.

The Lift Lock Closed; Inspecting The Banks

Engineer Grant Discovers a Further Defect in the Embankment—Lift Lock Will be Closed for a Few Days.

The lift lock will be closed for the next few days, while some repairs are being effected to the bank above the lock. Engineer Grant on Saturday found that the embankment for some distance above the lock itself was not in a satisfactory condition, and it was decided to run the water out and make a thorough examination in order to be perfectly certain. This was done and Mr. Grant has a staff of men at work at the present time digging into the bank to ascertain just the extent of the trouble. It is expected that the lock will be closed for a few days, while this work is being prosecuted, but no long delay is anticipated.

The Superintendent wishes it understood that there is no defect in the lock itself. There is, he says, a very general misunderstanding on the part of the public as to the lift lock. There is nothing the trouble with it—never has been. The trouble all the time has been in the embankment above the lock, separately and entirely distinct from the latter. The lock works perfectly, and has always worked well from the first. In the meantime while the lock in undergoing repairs there will, of course, be no traffic through the canal below the Norwood road, where the water is shut off. The Superintendent hopes that in a few days the canal will be open for traffic as usual.

Heber Rogers Saves Boys From Drowning

Young Son of Mr. R. B. Rogers' Gallant Rescue—Goes After Two Nine-Year Old Sons of Ald. Adams Who Were Struggling in the Otonabee Beyond Their Depth—Cowardly Act of Older Boy.

But for the prompt heroism of Heber Rogers the eleven-year-old son of Mr. R. B. Rogers, two boys yesterday afternoon would have lost their lives in the Otonabee River.

A number of the boys from 9 to 12 or 13 years of age, living in East City, congregate almost daily on the east bank of the river near the residence of Mr. C. B. McAllister, where the wider portion of the river makes a good safe swiming place. The boys extract considerable innocent pleasure from swiming there when the weather is fine. This was what they were doing yesterday when the incident referred to took place.

It appears that a number of the boys were in swimming, among them the nine year old twin sons of Ald. Adams. Harvey and Wilfrid. These boys could not swim but were floating around the bay on a raft. An older boy who happened to be on the bank took to pelting stones and mud at the youngsters, and to get beyond the range of the missles they went out into deep water with their raft. In dodging a stone Wilfrid fell off the raft backwards, and although he could not swim, his brother Harvey jumped off in order to save him, if possible. Both boys were struggling in the water, neither able to swim and both beyond their depth. They were in this predicament when Heber Rogers grasped the situation, and, without hesitating a moment jumped into the water and swam to their assistance. Throwing an arm around each of the now exhausted and rapidly drowning lads he swam to shore with them. Two other boys, Percy Neil, a son of Mr. Harry Neil, and Theadore Quinn, son of Mr. Wm. Quinn, were on the shore partly dressed, and they too, threw off what clothes they had on, and went out to help young Rogers to bring the boys to shore.

It is a fact not without its significance that the boy who was responsible for the peril in which the boys were did not lend his assistance towards rescuing them, but maintained an attitude of indifference, in keeping with his cowardly action in bullying the smaller boys in the first place.

The dittle Adams boys, before they were put to bed last night told their mother of the circumstances, recording the fact that had it not been for Heber Rogers they would not have been alive to be put to bed.

Too much praise cannot be given young Rogers for his brave act, which undoubtedly saved two young lives.

He Straightens Cross Eyes With Glasses

The following is from a clipping taken from an Owen Sound paper:—

"Mr. Hutchinson of Keward, brought his little daughter, Margretta, aged 9 years, to Owen Sound on Saturday, Sept. 16, to have Dr. Montgomery, the 'shadow test' specialist, who is with Mr. J. J. Douglas, 'look into the eye' which was very badly crossed. This specialist measured the inside refraction of the crossed eye, put the proper lenses before the child's eyes, and exactly ten days after, which was last Wednesday, her father appeared at Mr. Douglas' store bringing his daughter, her eyes being perfectly straight. She had been fitted several times here in Owen Sound, but it was left to Dr. Montgomery to prove in this case (as he has in scores of others in the past three weeks) that his new discovery in sight-testing—the method he is teaching—is a boon to mankind, and a revelation to the optical world."

Now, if there is a child in this entire country suffering with crossed eyes, we wish the parents to come and test the skill of Dr. Montgomery, who is now at our store. The secret of his success is this:—"He looks into the eye."

Cole Brothers Circus Drew Great Crowds

Haileybury, June 18th. — Cole Bros.' circus, the first that ever appeared in the Temiskaming country, attracted hundreds of visitors to-day. Many came down the Montreal river to Latchford, and then to Haileybury, including Indians from the Temiskaming.

There were two performances, and thousands attended the show brought by excursion trains from Temagami, Latchford, Cobalt, New Liskeard and Englehart. It was a most orderly crowd too.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR THE HOLIDAY

The Grand Trunk will make special preparations to convey the crowds to Campbellford for Dominion Day, when the Old Boys will return to the old town to spend a day. It is expected that a special train will leave Campbellford at 11.30 going as far as Lindsay.

Warden Johnston's Semi-Annual Address To County Council

Was Delivered This Afternoon at the Summer Session—Provincial Auditor's Statements are Criticized---Thinks They Were Uncalled For--Much Work Done in County This Year--What Remains Still to be Done.

The June session of the County Council, which opened this afternoon in the Council Room promises to be one of more than ordinary interest, a number of matters of considerable importance coming up for consideration.

The Warden, Mr. T. J. Johnston, was in the chair, and the following members of the Council were present: Messrs. Andrews, Buck, Carey, Mengue, Shaw, Garbutt, Stenson, Massey and Webster.

After the minutes of the last meeting were read by the County Clerk, and adopted, the Warden delivered his semi-annual address, which was as follows:—

To the members of the County Council of Peterborough:

Gentlemen,—I beg to address you at this regular session of the Council upon matters of interest affecting our County.

It is a great pleasure to me to be able to point to the continued material progress the County is making. The season has been propitious and there is every reason to believe the industry of our agriculturists will be rewarded by an abundant harvest.

The whole Dominion also is making rapid progress. Manufacturing is increasing, and numbers are emigrating to and are proud to become citizens of Canada.

House of Refuge.

The great work of the year which this council will achieve is the construction of the much talked of House of Refuge.

The land selected near the Village of Lakefield as a site has been duly surveyed to the County, and a contract for the construction of the building entered into providing for the completion of the work by the 1st of November, next.

It will probably be considered advisable by the Council at an early date to frame rules governing the terms for admission of inmates and the management of the Institution.

Provision was made at our previous meeting for the issue of debentures to defray the expense of the construction.

New Bridges.

Contracts have been executed for the erection of proposed train bridge over the Indian River at Evans and Keene; the cost of the substructures being $5,000.00 and of the bridges proper, $4,750.00.

Owing to the raising of the water by the Hastings dam the expense of the construction of the bridge at Keene is considerably increased, and consequently an application has been made to the Dominion Government for a grant towards this work. The application has been very strongly endorsed by our county members, and it is to be hoped their efforts will prove successful.

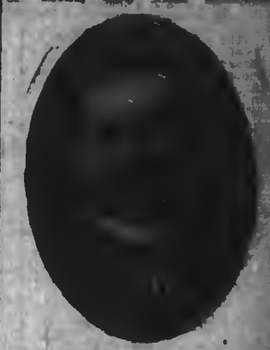
The joint committee of the county and city appointed to administer the funds available for charitable purposes under the will of the late Mrs. Foley, met for organization and appointed Mr. Buck chairman, and Mr. James A. Hall secretary-treasurer thereof.

The application to the court for payment over of the funds was argued before Mr. Justice Falconbridge last month, but judgment has not yet been given by him upon the questions raised.

Transfer of Bridges.

The transfer to the Dominion Government of the swings of the bridges at Beaufort, Hale's, the Locks, Chemong and Gannon's has been completed. To complete the titles, by-laws approving of this were passed by the townships of Otonabee, North Monaghan, Smith, Ennismore and Harvey, and these municipalities joined with the county in the execution of the required releases.

My attention has been called to



WARDEN JOHNSTON,
Who Delivered His Semi-Annual Address This Afternoon.

the report of the Provincial Municipal Auditor, presented at the recent session of the Legislature, and extracts from which appeared in the papers. His statement contained reflections upon our late treasurer, and upon the County Council, which were in my judgment, entirely unjustified and uncalled for. If the Provincial Auditor had any complaint to make during our late treasurer's encumbrance of the office he should have done so then and brought the matter to the attention of the council, but this he did not do. While, as a natural result of our late treasurer's defalcation the work of the county becomes in what is in arrear, the necessary posting of books, etc., [illegible] promptly done, and comment thereon afterwards by the auditor was quite unnecessary.

By statute amending the Ballot Law, passed at the last session of the Legislature, the counties are requested to raise annually, by general tax (except from towns and villages) a sum at least as large as the special Government grants to the rural schools, the amount so raised by the county being payable to the trustees of the rural schools.

It will, therefore, be necessary for the council, in preparing the estimates, to provide for the additional levy of at least $1,070 for the purpose.

Apart from this the business requiring the attention of the council at the present session will, I expect, be of the usual routine character.

T. J. JOHNSTON,
Warden.

Colt Killed By Lightning

Occupant on Island Near Lakefield Has Narrow Escape.

Lightning struck and killed a valuable year old colt belonging to Mr. Paggot, Riverymac, at Lakefield on Saturday night. The colt was pasturing in a small field near Mr. Paggot's house when it received the fatal shock. The owner a few days before refused $100 for the animal.

Lakefield residents state that the electric storm which passed over the village that night was one of the fiercest ever seen in that vicinity.

On one of the islands just above Lakefield five trees were struck with lightning and splintered from top to bottom. Mr. Manning, who was on the island at the time states he had a very narrow escape from being struck. He was standing by one of the trees a few seconds before the electric fluid shattered it.

Other damage of a less serious nature is also reported from that direction.

Mr. Bogue Has Completed The Outfall Sewer

Mr. James Bogue has completed his contract for the outfall sewer in the fifth ward. The work was finished last night, and as soon as the test has been made connection will be made with it by Mr. Robson from the Hunter street sewer now being constructed by him.

It is probable that the City Engineer will make a test of the outfall sewer at once.

WOMEN WHO CHARM

HEALTH IS THE FIRST ESSENTIAL

It Helps Women to Win and Hold Men's Admiration, Respect and Love.

Woman's greatest gift is the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

Mrs. T.E. Gillis

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. At the first indication of ill-health, painful or irregular periods, headache or backache, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Mrs. T. E. Gillis, Windsor, N. S., describes her illness, and cures, in the following letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"When I commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was suffering with weakness and womb troubls, headaches, backaches, and that worn-out, tired feeling. I have only taken the Vegetable Compound a few short weeks, and it has made me well, strong and robust. I believe that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is without equal for female troubles."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating, (or flatulence), inflammation or ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Baptist Young Peoples' Social

An Enjoyable Evening Spent at Murray Street.

The social evening given by the young people of the Murray street Baptist church last night was a very enjoyable event. The attendance was large and a delightful social time was spent. During the early part of the evening the young people mingled in conversation, and the feature of the programme, that of discovering the names of books represented by articles worn, engaged the attention of those present. A good musical and literary programme was given, and the whole evening was one which delighted everyone. Miss Mamy Montgomery and Miss Chapman gave a piano duet. Miss Winnie Anderson gave a much enjoyed vocal solo, as did also Mr. Campbell, of St. Andrews. A reading was given by Miss Abbey Garbutt, and Miss Nellie Duncombe contributed a recitation. Miss Clara Kidd gave a vocal solo, and Rev. F. J. Scott read some selections from Macbeth, which were much appreciated.

Refreshments were served, and the evening's programme brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Board Will Not Pay Mr. Eastwood's Expenses

Question of Enlarging the West Ward School Was Not Taken Up Last Night—Property Committee Want to Get More Information.

The Board of Education held an adjourned meeting last night, which was called to discuss the proposed enlarging of the West Ward School. The Property Committee, into whose hands the matter of gaining information had been left, asked for another week to secure additional information. The Board decided not to settle the claim of Vincent Eastwood for $135 in connection with the tearing down of the old Separate school.

The following report was read by Mr. Crane, chairman of the Property Committee, and adopted:

Gentlemen,—Your Property Committee beg to report and recommend as follows:

That the account of Mr. V. Eastwood, re the removal of the Separate School building, be not paid.

That the Board offer the landlord of the Menzies School the sum of $500 for the lease of the building to August 1, 1907, giving him the privilege of building on the vacant land any time after April 1, 1907, it being understood that sufficient ground be left to accommodate the pupils.

Your committee have taken steps to secure a plan for the renovation of the West Ward School, but would ask for a week's further time to secure necessary information.

Chairman.

Lindsay Prepares For The Glorious Twelfth

Many Orange Lodges Will Visit That Town to Celebrate 216th Anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne—Peterborough Lodges Will Celebrate There.

The Lindsay Post of yesterday said: The annual Grand Orange Walk will be held this year in Lindsay, and the dimensions of the crowd will likely exceed any previous demonstrations. Orangemen from all over the district will attend the week, which is being held under the auspices of the County of Victoria Loyal Orange Lodge. Special rates will be made per rail (Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk,) and steamboats for the Orangemen o the Counties of Simcoe, Haliburton, Northumberland, Peterborough and Victoria, and True Blues, Prentice Boys and Orange Young Britons' lodges will be represented from the various towns and villages in these counties.

The 216th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne promises to be a notable one. Addresses will be delivered by different resident clergymen and by prominent speakers of the Orange Order. Already the lodges in the surrounding towns and villages have signified their intention of coming to Lindsay, and the crowd promises to be a record-breaker. The drummers and fifers of the lodges have been practicing for weeks, and are now in fine trim.

Last year the Lindsay lodge attended the walk at Omemee and were credited with having one of the best lodges present. This year the Omemee lodge will come up strong, as will also Peterborough. A number of the lodges will likely patronize the dinner to be served in the market room by the Ladies' Auxiliary Board of Ross Hospital.

LOON LAKE THE NEWEST OF SUMMER RESORTS

Ever heard of Loon Lake Camp? Not Well, it's the latest summer resort—the newest thing, in fact, and what's more, it's for men only—no women allowed around there at all. The bachelors say it's a dream, and the married men—well, it wouldn't do to tell what they say, because their wives might get next. But those who have been at Loon Lake Camp say it is all to the good.

The proprietors of this summer resort are enthusiastic over it, and in a booklet issued recently they say:

Loon Lake Camp, which is situated on the shores of Loon Lake, is for men, who, on a holiday, want good board and comfortable lodging, combined with a touch of camp life Whilst not possessing the many luxuries of a large summer hotel, Loon Lake Camp has been built expressly for men looking for a suitable place for a few days' good fishing or a summer outing.

Loon Lake is one of the beautiful Kawartha chain of lakes, and is as yet comparatively unknown to the tourist and sportsman. It rivals the largest of those lakes in size, being over 10 miles in length and from one to two mile awide, and is unequalled for its scenery, pretty islands dotting its surface, and innumerable bays marking its shores.

He Wanted Three Hours To Get Out

Magistrate Jumped at Chance and Wilson Must Depart.

James Wilson was the central figure at this morning's police court. James is by no means a stranger in police circles. This time the charge against him was that of vagrancy. His lawyer, Mr. R. F. McWilliams, had a list of places where he had worked during the past few weeks, and this was produced in court.

"Give me three hours, and I will leave the town," said Wilson.

The magistrate jumped at the chance. "All right," he said.

"How long will you stay?" asked Chief Rossel.

"Forever!" was the mournful reply.

"Good," remarked the Chief.

"Remember," admonished the magistrate, as Wilson was disappearing through the door, "it will be Central Prison next time."

Robert Smith was charged with harbouring a vicious dog. The informant was not on hand, however, and the case was dropped.

Zion Church Tea Meeting

Will be Held on Thursday, July 5th, This Year.

The annual tea meeting of the Zion Methodist church, Warsaw circuit, will be given at Hall's Glen, on July 5. A very pleasant time is anticipated. After the tea has been served on the adjoining ground, the entertainment will be given in the church. Several reverend gentlemen from Peterborough and elsewhere are expected to be present and deliver addresses. Also Mrs. M. Northey, of Selwyn, an elocutionist, is invited to assist in the programme.

DR. TORREY HARD ON THE DANCE

The Ottawa Journal of Saturday had the following: "No decent man or woman can go into the most refined ball room and look at all that is to be seen there, and not be shocked," said Dr. Torrey at the meeting yesterday afternoon in Dey's Arena. It was another out-spoken sermon, delivered with the earnestness of an intense conviction, and directed against dancing, card-playing, theatre-going, and—tobacco. The preacher spoke of the ruinous effect of the stage on those behind the footlights, and said that he would sooner see his daughter in her coffin than on the stage.

DWELLING BUILT IN ONE WEEK

An unknown contractor in the vicinity of Lakefield has beaten all records in the art of house building. A local gentleman was driving to the northern village a week ago yesterday and noticed work beginning on the excavation of a cellar in Smith township. Yesterday he passed the same spot and saw the shingles on the roof.

The building is a 26x20 structure with an addition at one end. In the week's interval the cellar was dug, a stone foundation and frame work erected, was sheeted on both the exterior and interior and shingled.

Who Gets the Most Out of Life?

Every man should guard his health as his most valuable possession. The more so because health is easier to retain than regain.

To Cleanse and Purify the Blood

AND INVIGORATE THE ACTION OF LIVER, KIDNEYS AND BOWELS YOU MUST USE

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

In calling your attention to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills it is only necessary to point to their success in the past, for they are known in nearly every home.

By means of their direct and specific action on the liver—causing a healthful flow of bile—they regulate and enliven the action of the bowels and insure good digestion in the intestines. At the same time they stimulate the kidneys in their work of filtering poisons from the blood.

This cleansing process set in action by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills means a thorough cure of biliousness, intestinal indigestion, torpid liver, kidney derangements and constipation.

It means a restoration of health, strength and comfort, where there have been pain weakness and suffering. It means a removal of the conditions which lead to backache, rheumatism, lumbago, Bright's Disease, appendicitis and diabetes.

Mr. John Noyes, Ashburnham, Peterborough, Ont., states: "Having used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with success, I can strongly recommend them. For a considerable time I was a sufferer from kidney disease and constipation, and, besides being tortured by the shooting pains through the back, put up with the other annoying and other distressing symptoms of kidney disorders. Sometimes I would go three or four days without a motion of the bowels, and could get no relief. After using a few boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I was well again and feeling fine. This treatment seemed to be exactly what I needed and promptly brought relief and cure."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

NEW TRAIN FOR FENELON FALLS

Yesterday the new summer time-table of the G.T.R. came into effect, and the prayer of the people of Fenelon Falls for better connection with Toronto is granted. This evening and until further notice a special will leave Lindsay for the Falls on the arrival of the 5 o'clock train from Toronto.—Lindsay Post.

A Word to Women

Every woman may not be handsome, but every woman should keep with care the good points which nature has endowed her with. Sallow skin, dull eyes, a blotchy complexion—these no woman need have who pays proper attention to her health. Where constipation, liver derangement, blood impurities, and other irregularities exist, good complexion, bright eyes, and sprightly movements cannot exist. Internal derangements reveal themselves sooner or later on the surface. Headache, dark rings around the eyes, sallow skin, labored heavy movements, a constant tired feeling—all these mean that the liver and digestive organs are needing help and correction. Bileans give this necessary help. They are purely vegetable and they work in Nature's own way. They do not merely flush the bowels and clear out the liver cells. They tone up liver and stomach to fulfil their proper functions. Not only so, but while more effective than the medicines hitherto obtainable, they are, at the same time, more mild in their operation, and are suitable for the most delicate constitution.

A WOMAN WHO WAS AS YELLOW AS A GUINEA.

Mrs. A. Travis, of Gringley, says:—"I got completely 'run down' in health, my strength went. I was constipated, had frequent headaches, and my skin became as yellow as a guinea. Food gave me pain, and hours upon hours have I laid awake at night quite unable to get any sleep, because of indigestion. I lost flesh and become quite wasted. Medicine did not seem to do me any good at all. One day bileans were recommended to me, and I decided to give them a trial. They did what other medicine had failed to do, and soon after I began to take them I felt an improvement. I persevered with them until they cured me, they cleared my skin, rid me of constipation, banished my headache, ended the indigestion, and made me well and hearty again."

BILEANS ARE A CURE FOR:
headache, constipation, piles, liver trouble, indigestion, and all digestive disorders, female ailments, skin eruptions, biliousness, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, dizziness, wind pains, anæmia, debility etc.

Obtainable from all druggists at 50 cents per box, or from Bilean Co., Colborne St., Toronto, upon receipt, of price. 6 boxes for $2.50.

To obtain a free sample box, cut out this coupon and mail it, with full name and address and one cent stamp (to pay return postage) to the Bilean Co., Colborne St., Toronto.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Russia has turned back the dial of progress again. The horrible massacre of Jews at Byalstock has more of Tartarus in it than there is in the blood of the Tartarized Russians. To murder hundreds of innocent citizens with the object of promoting the designs of the beauacracy is in every way barbarous. One would think that such a massacre with official Russian sanction, would warrant the active interference of the great powers, through the bloody revolution this attack on the newly acquired liberties of the people will very probably provoke, will be a heavy punishment.

Haileybury alliterates with Hamilton in its kick against being ignored, albeit the neglect is only at the hands of common legislators, and not a grance of the blood. Now, Haileybury is claimed as a Tory town, while New Liskeard is mere Grit. Yet the Conservative town was ignored by the touring legislators, it is by the touring legislators, it is claimed accidentally, and the Haileybury Haileyburian thus delivers its touching wail:—"Haileybury decked itself out in gorgeous array, in honour of the party for which it had suffered and bled so long, and as a just return for its loyalty, the train bearing the men who are wearing the web of Provincial destiny, passed swiftly by to New Liskeard, a place evolved out of the corruption of the 'regime' that Haileybury so materially aided in casting down."

The Conservative organ, Ottawa, claims that the Opposition members at the Capital have up their sleeves enough information and documentary evidence to knock the Government out altogether. If they have this evidence, why do they not use it? Patriotism demands that the information should be used and thus save this suffering country—from a Conservative point of view—from the evils of "Grit" Government. While it is magnanimous to spare their enemies, the Opposition members are guilty of a tremendous neglect of duty in not saving this tottering country. True Canada is prosperous and happy as it never was before, but if we are living in the crust of a smouldering volcano of national danger, and the key of safety is in the hands of the Opposition, why in heven's name don't they use it. The game of bluff is a great game.

24th Battery Is Well Settled At The Camp

Local Artillery Regiment Will Acquit Itself With Credit on Its First Camp—Major Young Proving Himself an Efficient Officer—Camp News.

Examiner Special.

Cobourg, June 19. — The first day in camp was a busy one, and, added to the slight confusion incidental to the first day, under ordinary circumstances, there was the fact that this was the first day in a new camp.

It was late last night before anyone closed their eyes for sleep, the hundred and one things necessary to be accomplished before retiring, making it essential for all hands to dig in and work until quite late.

Everything was well managed, however, and a good system was soon established, which will insure a smoothly working camp for the next ten days.

The special train carrying the 24th Battery, arrived at Cobourg during the afternoon, and soon the men and horses were on their way to the camp, where they found the guns, which had been sent direct from headquarters, awaiting them.

Major Young is going to prove himself not only an efficient commanding officer, but he will be popular with his men as well. He certainly has the knack of getting lots of work out of them, and they do it cheerfully, too.

The 24th Battery was one of the first to get settled in camp, and there is little doubt, judging from the good start made, that this battery will acquit itself creditably at this, its first, camp.

The rain during the night made the grass somewhat sticky to-day, but the men fared well.

They are all in good spirits, and are looking forward to a pleasant ten days' outing.

Milk Sensation In Port Hope Aroused

Proprietor of The Times of That Town Threatened With Libel Suit---Editor Claims Analysis Showed Milk Was Adulterated.

Port Hope, June 19. — The Port Hope Times, which has been conducting an aggressive campaign for pure milk, has been served by a local milk dealer's solicitor, with a formal "notice before action," requesting a prompt retraction and exoneration from any charges or insinuations of adulteration of milk, failing which an action for libel will follow.

The proprietor of the Times has refused to comply with the demand, and will defend the action. The Times claims that recently samples of milk were analyzed by the analyst of the Guelph Agricultural College and that some of the milk was reported as suspicious. The dealer threatening the action claims that some of the articles referred to him, and are unjust. At last night's council meeting Councillor Merrifield gave notice of a bylaw to prohibit fraud in the sale of milk in Port Hope.

Use from Mr. Haultain, the Conservative leader in Saskatchewan. Mr. Haultain said recently in the Legislature:

"He knew newspaper articles had been written about Judge Prendergast, articles which he said at the time were without foundation. He believed Justice Prendergast was perfectly correct in his action with regard to the recount in Prince Albert district, and even if he had not been, the attacks made upon him would have been unjustifiable. Judge Prendergast was above reproach; there was no need to delay these election petitions in order to rehabilitate a character on which no slur could be cast and on which no one worthy of notice had attempted to cast a slur."

OBITUARY.

ELIZABETH ANN SKITCH.

Elizabeth Ann Skitch, beloved wife of William Hennings, was born in the parish of Markham-Church, in the county of Cornwall, England, March 19, 1846, and was married in the parish church, April 16, 1869, by the Rev. R. R. Wright. Mr. and Mrs. Hennings came to Canada in 1873, and have resided in Port Hope nearly the whole time since. To them was born only one son, John, who now resides in Peterborough.

Mrs. Hennings was ill for a considerable time but she endured her sufferings with true Christian fortitude until she was called home, on Sunday, June 11, 1906.

Interment took place in the Union Cemetery on Wednesday, the 13th inst., Rev. George W. Henderson, the pastor of the Methodist church, conducting the services. The bearers were Messrs. Alf. and Harry Skitch, William Roskelly, Sam and William Yeo and John H. Jewell.

Though of a very retiring disposition, her cheerful, kindly spirit made for her many friends. She was a member of the Methodist church, a consistent Christian, who went to the better home rejoicing. — Port Hope Guide.

Nearly Double Drowning Below The Locks Dam

Two Young Men Upset in the Swift Current and Would Have Perished But for the Assistance of a Boy in a Canoe—Conditions Should be Remedied at Once.

The Examiner has frequently referred to the dangerous current below the locks slide, and has given warning that a fatal accident might easily take place there. That warning came very nearly being fulfilled last evening, when two young men almost lost their lives in the swift current.

Percy Johnston, of Chamberlen street, and a friend, whose name could not be ascertained, were paddling up stream in a canoe. As they were making their way up the centre of the stream the canoe upset, and the two had a very narrow escape. Johnston's companion got his feet caught under the canoe, and was almost gone when picked up. Only for The presence of mind and quick-of action of Douglas Loomis, a boy who was in a canoe behind the others, prevented a double drowning. He succeeded in saving the two in the water, despite the swift current, and the party reached shore safely.

Something should be done at once to remedy conditions at the locks, or it may be the unpleasant duty of the local papers to chronicle an accident more serious than that of last night.

News From The Seat Of War Reaches Home

No Fatalities Yet Recorded — Capt. Johnston Home—Prospects for Good Camp Are Favourable.

Capt. Johnston, of the 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons, went to Cobourg yesterday but returned this morning to attend to official duties as Warden of the County. He reports that the boys all got into camp safely and are to-day thoroughly enjoying their surroundings.

Col. Harry Ward, M.P., is Brigadier this year in place of Col. E. B. Edwards.

No accidents so far are registered and Captian Johnston states that with favourable weather, the appearance for a good camp are excellent. The camping grounds are fair but the absence of grass make it somewhat disagreeable.

The Captain will return on Saturday and remain till the end of camp.

Stores To Close At 5 P.M. Daily

During Months of July and August Places Will be Closed.

An agitation is on foot among the clerks of the clothing and dry goods establishments, etc., to have the stores close at 5 o'clock daily, during July and August. The merchants approached have expressed their willingness to take this step, and it is very probable that it will be carried out. It will be a great boon to the clerks during the summer months, and will not interfere with business.

No Chance.

A FARMER, living near Newark, N.J., woke up one morning to find that his wife and hired man had disappeared. Now, don't sleep late in hopes that the same thing will happen to you.

Was She Contemplating Suicide By Drowning

Peculiar Actions of a Young Woman Yesterday Loitering Near the River and Ran Away When Party Approached.

The peculiar action of a woman near the river yesterday afternoon aroused the curiosity of a yachting party who were cruising around the Little Lake. The suspicion is strong in the minds of the party that she contemplated suicide.

As their launch passed down the river into the lake they noticed the woman standing on the bridge from which it is supposed Miss Alice Corbman took the fatal plunge on Sunday morning. On their return trip she was still standing there, gazing intently into the water. The party thought there was something very strange in her manner and steered the boat up towards the bridge. The woman fled at once, and the launch was headed up stream towards her boat house. The surprise of the party may be imagined when, on reaching the Wolfe street wharf they found the same woman standing there in the same position. She was from thirty to thirty-five years of age, and dressed entirely in black with a touch of white at the throat.

Col. Miller will go down for one day to umpire the big sham fight, the date of which has not yet been decided upon.

Hunting At Rice Lake For Beaver

Supposed to be Implicated in Murder of Two Boys at Sharbot Lake--Detectives to Search at Rice Lake for Frank Beaver.

Perth, June 19.—County Constable M. D. White, who has been working on the supposed Babcock-Martin murder case for the past 10 hours, will leave to-day for Rice Lake with a warrant to arrest Frank Beaver, the accomplice of Sandy Badore, the noted outlaw, who three weeks ago was sentenced to 14 years in penitentiary for attempted murder on a peddler.

A woman named Mrs. Nedde gave the startling information at Bathurst, near here, that two boys, named Babcock and Martin, who were supposed to have been drowned at Sharbot Lake, in April, 1902, were murdered by Sandy Badore, and another Indian named Frank Beaver, who lives in Rice Lake.

Badore used to live with Mrs. Nedde, and she says he told her of the deed, and where the bodies were buried. The authorities, it seems, sent to the place indicated, and found human bones in the ground. The two boys had left Sharbot Lake for the point in a skiff to get logs for W. T. Cannon. They had between $70 and $80 on their persons, and the two Indians evidently knew this. Beaver is being sought for, and an investigation into the woman's story is going on.

Chief of Police White, Perth, visited Sharbot Lake, and, with a local constable named Joseph Reynolds, went to the spot indicated by the woman. It was the point on which Babcock and Martin were to have landed to secure the logs. They reopened a grave, and, as the story goes, found bones and traces of hair. The officers left on Saturday for Rice Lake, to look up Beaver, and further developments are now awaited.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 19.—The announcement of the success of the Panama loan in Paris caused a strong opening to-day, advances ranging from 1 to 2 points all round. Interboro alone was weak, plunging downward over 7 points. London sent higher prices, especially B. & O.

At the end of the first hour the market had become somewhat settled though still above the opening figures. It showed that the break late yesterday was caused by a bear drive rather than real liquidation. The feature to-day was B. & O. on the expectation that it would be put on a six per cent. basis to-morrow.

In the afternoon strength of the soft coalers, led by B. & O., imparted a firm tone to the general list. Reactions were frequent, however, giving the market a spotty, irregular appearance. The bears made another drive in the late trading but their offerings were well taken, the market rallied quickly and closed streng.

Cavendish Man Not Guilty

Was Accused of Stealing $200 But Charge Was Dismissed by Magistrate Edmison.

No direct testimony was given this morning at County Police Court to convict Jas. Baldwin, the Cavendish man charged with stealing $200 from Geo. Duchesne on the charge against him was dismissed.

Duchesne is in charge of one of the Dickson Company's camps and kept the money together with a number of other articles in what the camp termed "the medicine box." Baldwin did considerable work around the camp and for some reason was accused by the loser of having taken the money. Just two witnesses were called — Baldwin and Duchesne — but no evidence whatever was given to show the accusation was correct. The charge against the defendant was therefore dropped by Magistrate Edmison.

Sunshine Furnace

The "Sunshine" furnace and "sunny" ways are synonymous.

The cold, dreary winter days can be made cheery and warm with a pure, healthful heat if you have a "Sunshine" furnace.

Is easier to operate, cleaner, uses less fuel and "shines" in many other ways over common furnaces.

Two shakers are used to shake the heavy, triangular-shaped grates. This just cuts the work of shaking-down in half, besides being easier on the furnace than the old one-shaker style.

An Enjoyable Time Was Spen at Courts Last Night.

Last night on Nicholls Oval the ladies of St. John's A. Y. P. After tea the young people busied themselves at tennis, and are now displaying considerable skill in that game.

On Monday night next, the gentlemen will provide the tea and the management hope that a full attendance will be present. Photographs of the club will be taken on the grounds.

A 36-POUNDER HAS BEEN CAPTURED IN RICE LAKE

Benjamin Lukes of Hiawatha, has the honour of hooking the biggest bunge that has been landed in Peterborough county for many years. The monster tipped the scales at a little over 39 pounds, and measured from head to tail just 4 feet 10 inches. The fish was caught last Saturday in Rice Lake and will undoubtedly head the list for the year 1906.

Mr. Lukes had little difficulty in landing it aside from the heavy weight. A silver bait was used on the trawling line.

Thirty-four years ago residents of the Indian Village remember one larger, weighing 41 pounds, but Mr. Luke's prize on Saturday stands next in the history of the lake.

RAIN IS JUST RIGHT FOR THE FARMERS, SAYS ONE

"The rain is just about right for the farmers," said a member of that class to The Examiner to-day. Asked as to whether there had not been too much rain for low land, he stated that in his opinion there had not, and on the other hand, there has been enough for the high land. If there were no further rain for a few weeks now the country would not suffer. The prospects, according to The Examiner's informant, are first-class for a great harvest.

THOSE WHO WORK CAN SUCCEED IN CANADA

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—You probably often hear of Englishmen returning home from Canada, saying they could not get on there. Generally, these are the kind that are too lazy to work, or those that want to stay in the cities and towns. It is no good clerks and others who have been used to sedentary occupations coming here; we want strong, lusty men who are willing to work, and they will get on every time. There is no land where livings can be obtained without labour for moneyless folk, and those who do not quite fully recognize this had better stay at home.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

A CORRECTION.

To The Editor of The Examiner.

Dear Sir,—In last week's Examiner I notice where I was reported as having been introduced to the audience at Father Fitzpatrick's picnic as the "Northern Wag." At first I paid no attention to it, expecting that Mr. Rudkins, who acted as chairman, or some other intelligent citizen who was present and knew that no such introduction was given, might be good enough to correct it. Even Father Fitzpatrick, always particular about such matters, and at whose picnic it was said to have happened, permitted it to go uncontradicted.

No doubt you find it difficult to have intelligent reporters everywhere, but I was of the opinion that the staff in your office were too enlightened to permit such words in print. Since no such words were used, and for the benefit of at least a few who would feel aggrieved to have such a sneer cast on the priesthood, I would humbly request you to insert this note in your paper.

Yours truly,
P. J. M'GUIRE.

NOTE.—The form of introduction referred to was "Northern Light," not "Northern Wag," as both reporters of the city papers present understood was said. The error is entirely unintentional, and no discredit was intended.

A WOMAN'S BACK IS THE MAINSPRING OF HER PHYSICAL SYSTEM.

The Slightest Backache, if Neglected, is Liable to Cause Years of Terrible Suffering.

No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well, and regular in their action. When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to have filtered out of the blood are left in the system.

The female constitution is naturally more subject to kidney disease than a man's; and what is more, a women's work is never done—her whole life is one continuous strain.

How many women have you heard say: "My, how my back aches!" Do you know that backache is one of the first signs of kidney trouble? It is, and should be attended to immediately. Other symptoms are frequent thirst, scanty, thick, cloudy or highly colored urine, burning sensation when urinating, frequent urination, puffing under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

These symptoms if not taken in time and cured at once, will cause years of terrible kidney suffering. All these symptoms, and in fact, these diseases may be cured by the use of

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

They act directly on the kidneys, and make them strong and healthy.

Mrs. Mary Galley, Auburn, N.S., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with a lame back and was unable to turn in bed without help. I was induced by a friend to try Doan's Kidney Pills. After using two-thirds of a box my back was as well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or sent direct on receipt of price. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

Halleujah Hymeneals At The S. A. Barracks

Bandsman Sargent and Miss Amy Green the Principals—A Most Hearty Occasion--Young Couple the Recipients of Many Bouquets of Eloquence From Their Comrades.

(Halleujah) weddings are not a common occurrence in Peterborough and whenever one is celebrated a good sized crowd is always sure to be in hand. The Salvation Army Barracks was the scene last night of another of these happy events, when Bandsman Sargent and Miss Amy Green, both of whom have just recently come from England, were united in marriage. Staff-Capt. McAmmond tying the nuptial knot. The band was in attendance and rendered music at the different intervals, and the whole function was of the heartiest character. Congratulatory speeches were offered by the friends and comrades of the contracting parties, and taken altogether the occasion was an enjoyable one. The newly married couple received the heartiest greetings and heartfelt words for their future welfare were heard on all sides.

The audience was large and most interested in the proceedings. It was by no means composed exclusively of soldiers of the Salvation Army, but there were a great many outside this body who came to witness the affair. And their curiosity cannot be wondered at, for the spectacle is an unique one and differs largely from the majority of other wedding ceremonies. It is characterized by much enthusiasm and all join in the spirit of the occasion. The young couple who were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last night are very popular among their fellows and the event was marked by the greatest friendliness towards them on the part of their comrades. Ensign Long led in prayer at the commencement of the function and was followed by the band who played a couple of sacred selections, interspersed with singing. Staff-Capt. McAmmond then led in devotional exercises and amid much applause the couple went to the front the gathering singing in the heartiest tones, "Oh I'm Glad I'm Ready." At the conclusion of this refrain the Staff-Captain prayed for the bride and groom, and wished them a prosperous married life. He spoke of the sacredness of their wedlock and was very optimistic regarding their future happiness. While he was speaking the audience by outbursts of applause at different intervals vigourously seconded his sentiments. His words were most appropriate and well chosen and the fervour of their expression must have been cheering to the young couple entering upon the sacred union of matrimony.

Ensign Long again took the platform, and referred to the solemnity of the occasion. He read selections from the Scripture upholding marriage as a holy state, and emphasing its sanctity.

Two more hymns were sung, and at 15 minutes to 9 o'clock, the event of the evening was celebrated. The bridal pair were given a royal reception when they arose. The applause was deafening, and it was some time before it subsided. Staff-Capt. McAmmond read the Salvation Army wedding service, and both the bride and groom vowed their fidelity to each other and the cause of the Army. The groom was in his regular bandsman's uniform, while his partner wore a blue dress with a white sash, the garb of a bride on such occasions.

Following the ceremony several speeches were made and the speakers all commanded Mr. and Mrs. Sargent on their step in life, and spoke of the numerous mutual advantages of the matrimonial estate. The groom spoke for himself and wife, and expressed the wish that the marriage should be to the advantage of both himself and his bride, and asked for the prayers of his listeners that their union might prove to be a blessing.

HAMILTON HAS GOT A CARPET FACTORY, TOO

Another carpet factory is about to commence manufacturing operations in Canada. The Hamilton Times of Saturday said:—

Some days ago the Times announced that the Canadian Axminster Company had purchased property and would establish a high grade carpet factory here at once. Assessment Commissioner Hall was able to give out particulars this morning. The company has secured a large tract of land 250x150 feet, immediately east of the Norton Manufacturing Company's works at the foot of Emerald street. The company is composed of gentlemen from the United States, who are investing American capital in the enterprise, and are satisfied that it will prove a great success. The first building will be erected at once, and will be a three-storey brick 50x56 feet, on the south side of the G.T.R. main line. This building will be added to later, until it covers the whole frontage, a yarn mill of the full size of the main building will also be built, and between these two large buildings there will be a number of smaller ones. The promoters expect to start manufacture before the year is out.

NARROW ESCAPE ON RICE LAKE

Mr. Charles Britton and Mr. James Walker had a narrow escape and an exciting experience Sunday. Both were in a boat in Rice Lake, when it suddenly swamped. They clung to the upturned craft, and after one hour and a half's exertion, reached the shore almost exhausted. They are able to be about to-day, but they would not repeat the experience for a good deal.—Port Hope Guide.

How to Start Off the Day

Students of Hygiene All Agree That the Right Kind of a Breakfast Is Essential.

Thinking people are giving more and more earnest thought as to how to start off each new day so as to put themselves in the best possible physical and mental condition for the work of the day. It is an interesting subject, so interesting indeed that it has attracted the attention of a host of the world's leading scholars and authors on hygiene and many different opinions have been written for the guidance of the people. On one point, at least, all are agreed. This is that the right kind of a breakfast is essential.

A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malta-Vita, that delicious, crisp, vitalising, whole-wheat food.

In making Malta-Vita the whole of the wheat, after being cleaned, is thoroughly steamed and cooked in absolute purity and then mixed with malt extract, a powerful digestive agent, which converts the starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar. Maltose is great food and the weakest stomach digests and assimilates it without effort. After being rolled into thin, wafer-like flakes the malted wheat is baked under such intense heat that it comes from the ovens crisp and brown—positively the most delicious, most healthful food in the world. Always ready to eat. All grocers, now 10 cents.

A Dastardly Attempt Made On Life Of Rev. E. R. Nicholls Sunday

A Would-be-Assasin Stabs Baptist Minister Near Bewdley—A Bailieboro Divine Who Had a Narrow Escape From Death—Stranger Ran Out From Thick Woods and Stabbed Him Twice ---No Clue as to Identity of the Scoundrel---Mr. Nicholls Well Liked in Community.

Examiner Special.

Bailieboro, June 20.—This village and community has never been so stirred up over anything as it is at the present time, the cause being an attempt made on the life of Rev. E. R. Nicholls, Baptist minister at Bailieboro, on Sunday afternoon last. The whole country-side is excited and should the guilty party be apprehended, the people are just now in a mood to take the law into their own hands, and administer a punishment which will be remembered by the one receiving it, for some time.

It appears that on Sunday last, while Rev. Mr. Nicholls was on his way from Bailieboro to Bewdley, where he preaches at 7.30 each Sunday. He was driving peacefully along the road, when upon reaching a thick woods near Sackville's Mill, near Bewdley, a man, whose features were strrange to Mr. Nicholls, rushed from the thick timber, and before he could escape had stabbed him twice in the body, one gash being made just below the shoulder blade. Fortunately for Mr. Nicholls the horse, frightened at the sudden appearance of the man on the road swerved to one side of the road, otherwise the blow would probably have struck Mr. Nicholls in a vital part.

As soon as he had committed the deed, the would-be assassin made off into the woods again, and Mr. Nicholls, not particularly anxious to meet him a second time, drove for home, where his injuries were attended to by a physician.

Fortunately they were not of a serious character, and he is now recovering nicely, no serious results being anticipated.

Mr. Nicholls is totally at a loss to understand the motive which prompted this deed; so far as he knows, he has no enemies, and the only feasible solution of the mystery is that it was performed by some demented creature.

The victim of this apparently attempted murder has been living in Bailieboro only since last October, and is a young man whom everyone respects. He has a young wife and one child, and the family is most popular with the whole community. During the few months that Mr. Nicholls has been living here he has done splendid work, and has shown a most commendable energy in his efforts to improve the spiritual condition of those to whom he ministers. It can hardly be believed, therefore, that the attack was a pre-meditated on upon Mr. Nicholls, or that it was the work of one in his right mind. Efforts are being made to get to the bottom of the matter, and to find out the identity of the would-be assassin.

Prospects Good For Government Grant

Mr. R. R. Hall Tells County Council They May Get $1000 for Keene Bridge—Asphodel Council Wants Help to Repair Road.

At the county council this morning a deputation from the township of Asphodel waited on the council. The deputation consisted of Reeve McNulty, Clerk Breckenridge and Councillor Francis.

Reeve McNulty addressed the council asking for a grant towards repairing Sargent's hill in Asphodel. This hill was quite steep, and their was considerable traffic over it. The township felt unable to undertake the entire expense, and he thought the county should assist them, and asked that the county grant $200, and the township would make a similar grant.

At the last time work was done on it, the contractor took the job at 13c a yard, which was a very low price.

Squire Breckenridge, clerk of the township, supported the request of the reeve. Mr. John Francis, councillor of the township, also asked the council to make the grant named.

On motion of Mr. Garbutt, seconded by Mr. Stinson, the matter was referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.

Mr. Shaw informed the council that he had spoken to Mr. R. R. Hall in reference to the prospects for securing a grant from the Dominion Government for the Keene bridge, and the latter had stated that there was good reason to believe that the Government would make a grant of $1000. He suggested that if the members of the council and Mr. McClellan, the superintendent of the canal, might take a steamer and go to the bridge and see for themthemselves the situation, and it was decided to take the trip on Thursday afternoon.

The council then adjourned.

He Straightens Cross Eyes With Glasses

The following is from a clipping taken from an Owen Sound paper:—

"Mr. Hutchinson of Keward, brought his little daughter, Margretta, aged 9 years, to Owen Sound on Saturday, Sept. 16, to have Dr. Montgomery, the 'shadow test' specialist, who is with Mr. J. J. Douglas, 'look into the eye' which was very badly crossed. This specialist measured the inside refraction of the crossed eye, put the proper lenses before the child's eyes, and exactly ten days after, which was last Wednesday, her father appeared at Mr. Douglas' store bringing his daughter, her eyes being perfectly straight. She had been fitted several times here in Owen Sound, but it was left to Dr. Montgomery to prove in this case (as he has in scores of others in the past three weeks) that his new discovery in sight-testing—the method he is teaching—is a boon to mankind, and a revelation to the optical world.

Now, if there is a child in this entire country suffering with crossed eyes, we wish the parents to come and test the skill of Dr. Montgomery, who is now at our store. The secret of his success is this:—"He looks into the eye."

Beaver Family Lives At Alnwick Reserve

But Johnston Paudash Does Not Know Anyone by Name of Frank—Indians Will Give Every Possible Assistance to Detectives.

Johnston Paudash, son of Chief Paudash, of the Mississagua Indians, was in the city yesterday and was questioned as to the whereabouts of Frank Beaver, who is wanted in connection with the alleged murder at Sharbot Lake. Mr. Paudash stated that in the section of the tribe at Hiawatha there were no Beavers at all, and that no Indians of that name had been noticed in Hiawatha. In Alnwick there is a family of Beavers, but as far as he knew, there were none by the name of Frank. One called by that name had died some months ago at Alnwick.

This section of the tribe is under Chief Paudash, who will, with his son stated, give every assistance possible to the police to locate the guilty person if he should be hiding in any of the Rice Lake reserves.

Use Of The Knife Cost This Italian Three Months

Antonio Lovergino Goes to Jail for Stabbing Michele Silvestro in the Forehead—Prisoner Pleaded Guilty to the Charge.

Antonio Lovergino, an Italian, who pleaded guilty to wounding Michele Silvestro, another Italian, on June 14, was this morning sentenced by Police Magistrate Dumble to three months in the county jail.

The prisoner elected to be tried summarily by the prisoner and pleaded guilty. He stated that Silvestro bothered him while he was eating. He did not strike him with anything.

Silvestro said that he did not know what he had been struck with, but the prisoner was the man who hit him. In answer to a question from Mr. Wood, witness said that Nicholas Ronretti had told him to swear that he had fallen down and hurt himself. Dr. McNulty gave evidence as to the nature of the wound in Silvestro's forehead.

The magistrate informed the prisoner, through Interpreter Miniola, that the Government of the country desired that Italians and others should not use knives, and that the sentence he was imposing was to teach others that the wrong use of a knife was a crime. He then sentenced the prisoner to three months in the county jail.

The Rural Schools Are Making Great Progress

Inspector Lee's Annual Report to the County Council—Cost Per Head of the Enrolled Attendance Was $10.04 —Teachers are Zealous and Earnest.

School Inspector Lees presented his first annual report on his inspection of the schools of the county yesterday afternoon at the session of the County Council.

The report reads as follows:—

To the Warden and Council of the County of Peterborough:

Gentlemen,—I beg to submit for your consideration my first annual report on the schools of the county.

Since reporting at your January meeting on the schools of the eastern division, I have visited the schools of the western division, consisting of 48 rural schools, and 5 departments in the village of Lakefield. One school, No. 6, Galway, I found closed at the time of my visit, May 1st, the trustees having failed up to that time to secure a teacher. It has since been opened for a six months' term.

I am pleased to report that here, as in the eastern division, most of the teachers are earnest, zealous and fully alive to the importance of their work, though a few are lacking in these qualities. Of the 48 teachers, in the rural schools, 14 hold second, 16 third, 6 extended third, 4 district, and 7 temporary certificates, 34 of them are doing work that is average or better, and there are 13 whose work is below average.

The remarks made in reference to grounds and premises in dealing with the eastern division apply with equal force to the whole. There is only one rural school house, No. 4, Smith, in the county that has adequate provision for ventilation. In a number of places, notably in all the four schools in the township of Ennismore, I found praiseworthy efforts being made to improve the condition and appearance of the houses and premises. After this year the grants to rural schools will be distributed partly on the basis of accommodation, equipment and suitability of school premises, thus affording some inventive to trustees and people to take an interest in keeping the school premises in such a condition as to be a credit to their respective communities.

The Village of Lakefield has a good building, an efficient staff, and the school there is doing excellent work. There being an unoccupied room in the building, I have recommended the employment of an additional teacher and the establishment of a continuation class. Should this be done, it will in some measure compensate for the want of a high school there, will give the young people of the village a chance to continue their education for one or two years after passing the entrance examination, and will be a great boon to the educational interests of the district.

It is with great pleasure that I report the establishment of an efficient continuation class in connection with section No. 4, Ennismore. This school has now been in operation for a year, with an average attendance of over 20, all of whom have passed the entrance examination. The people of the district are proud of the school, anxious to avail themselves of its advantages, and are to be congratulated on possessing in their midst so efficient and convenient a means of secondary education. Personally, I desire to express my appreciation of the energy, enthusiasm, and self-sacrifice that secured the establishment of this school, and my hope that it may serve as an example for other rural communities to emulate.

During 1905 there were enrolled at the rural schools of the county, 3,773 pupils, with an average attendance of 1,846, or about 49 per cent. In the villages the corresponding figures were 849 enrolled, 556 average, 62 1-2 per cent. The total expenditure was $46,216.80, being a cost of $19.25 per head of the average, or $10.04 per head of the enrolled attendance. In this connection it is interesting to note that the cost for the whole province was $12.48 in public schools, and $10.59 in Separate Schools, per head of the enrolled attendance. There are 101 school houses in the county, of which 52 are brick, 2 stone, 35 frame, and 12 log.

At the recent session of the Legislature many changes were made in the Public Schools Act. Section 29 deals with the question of teachers salaries, and the methods of raising school money. Owing to its importance I quote, it in full:

1. The municipal council of every organized county shall levy and collect by an equal rate upon the taxable property of the whole county (not included in urban municipalities or annexed to any urban municipality for school purposes) according to the equalized assessments of the municipalities, in the manner provided by this Act and the Municipal and Assessment Acts, a sum which shall be at least the equivalent of all special grants made by the Legislative Assembly to the rural schools of the county, and such sum shall be payable to the trustees of the respective schools receiving such legislative special grants in the same proportions as the said special grants are apportioned.

2. Where the assessed value of all the taxable property of the public school supporters in any township of an organized county is at least equal to an average assessment of $30,000 for each public school section therein, the municipal council of such township shall levy and collect by assessment upon the taxable property of the public school supporters of the whole township in the manner provided by this Act and the Municipal and Assessment Acts, the sum of $300 at least for every public school where a teacher or principal teacher is engaged for six months or longer; and the additional sum of at least $200 for an assistant teacher engaged for a whole year, exclusive of vacations, and a proportionate amount of such sum of $200 at least where an assistant teacher is engaged for six months or longer.

3. Where such assessed value is less than an average assessment of $30,000 for each public school section in any township, the municipal council of such township shall levy and collect as aforesaid the sum of $150 at least for every public school where a teacher or principal teacher is engaged for six months or longer; and an additional sum of at least $100 for every assistant teacher engaged for a whole year exclusive of vacations, and a proportionate amount of such sum of $100 at least where such assistant teacher is engaged for six months or longer.

4. The sums so levied and collected by the council of the township shall after the expiration of the present calendar year be applied exclusively to teachers' salaries.

5. In addition to the sum provided by the township council towards each teacher's salary the trustees of every rural school section shall, in the cases hereinafter mentioned, pay annually after the expiration of the current calendar year, to the teacher, where there is only one, and to the principal teacher, where there are more teachers than one, at least the sum hereinafter mentioned (subject only to a proportionate reduction, in case the whole year's salary does not become due) that is to say:

(a) $200 where the assessed value of the taxable property of the public school supporters in the section is at least $200,000.

(b) $150 where such assessed value is at least $150,000 but less than $200,000.

(c) $100 where such assessed value is at least $100,000 but less than $150,000.

(d) $50 where such assessed value is at least $50,000 but less than $100,000.

(e) $25 where such assessed value is at least $30,000, but less than $50,000.

And $100 to every assistant teacher whatever such assessed value is.

The said trustees in making their annual estimates and requisitions for school moneys to be levied and collected from the ratepayers, shall include whatever amount, considering their other sources of income, is necessary to provide for such payment or payments.

10. All moneys hereby required to be levied and collected and applied to the salaries of teachers shall be paid to the treasurers of the respective public school boards from time to time as may be required by the school trustees.

Five municipalities, Belmont and Methuen, Burleigh and Anstruther, Chandos, Galway and Cavendish, and Harvey, will come under the provisions of sub-sec. 3, and so will not be affected by the changes. In the other sections the minimum salaries will be as follows:

$325 in sections 6, Douro; 5, 9, 11, Dummer; 11, Otonabee; 12, Smith.

$350 in sections 7, 12, Asphodel; 1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, Douro; 2, 3, Dummer; 1, 2, 3, 4, Ennismore; 12, 14, 17, Otonabee; 8, 10, Smith.

$400 in sections 1, 2, 5, 9, Asphodel; 3, 9, Douro; 1, 4, 6, Dummer, 2, 3, 6 10, 16, Otonabee; 1, 2, 5, 7, 9, 11, Smith.

$450 in sections 6, Asphodel; 1, 4, 5, 13, Otonabee; 4, 6, Smith.

$500 in sections 7, Otonabee; 3, Smith.

This does not include North Monaghan, from which I have been unable to get any information.

In a few cases the salaries at present paid are above that required by the new act but in most cases it will mean a substantial increase in salary, and I have no doubt, a corresponding increase in efficiency.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

RICHARD LEES,

Peterborough, June 19, 1906.

Annual Outing Of The C.M.B.A.

The Trip Around the Lakes Yesterday Was a Delightful One.

Branch 30 of the C.M.B.A. held their annual excursion to beautiful Stony Lake yesterday and as usual the excursion was a most delightful one. Considering the day the crowd was a large one and the weather did not serve in any way to dampen the spirits of those on board the steamer.

The G.T.R. morning train carried the excursionists to Lakefield where they embarked on the Steamer Stoney Lake for the lakes. Burleigh Falls was the first point touched and here dinner was partaken of. The sail up through Bauchink Narrows to the head of the lake was the next on the route and here the beautiful scenery was the source of much delight. A few minutes were spent on shore at the quarry near the head. On the return voyage Mount Julian was visited for tea and the trip down the lake in the evening twilight was the most pleasant part of the day.

The committee in charge of the excursion was Messrs. P. Leahy, T. J. Doris, M. Connors and R. Sheahy and these are to be congratulated for the complete arrangements which made the annual outing of the C.M.B.A. in 1906, so successful.

'WE'RE MARRIED" WAS THE MESSAGE MISS JAFFRAY TELEPHONED

(Examiner Special.)

From the bridal suite in the Murray Hill Hotel this message was telephoned last night to Sunnyside, the country estate of Howard S. Jaffray, near Irvington-on-Hudson:

"Arthur and I are married and we are very happy."

The speaker was Mr. Jaffray's youngest daughter, Mabel E. Jaffray. At her side, chuckling audibly as his bride communicated the news to her parents, was Arthur W. Jaffray, her first cousin as well as husband. Bride and bridegroom are grandchildren of the late Edward S. Jaffray, a merchant, and founded of the family which for three generations has held the highest social position in New York, Newport and London.

There was much in the wedding, which the bride describes as "delightfully informal," that will long be the talk of the smart set. Young Mr. Jaffray said, "It is the best thing I have done in my career."

Skin Troubles of Babyhood
AND HOW PROMPTLY THEY ARE OVERCOME BY THE USE OF
Dr. Chase's Ointment

Your family doctor will explain to you, if you ask him, the mission of the pores of the skin, and will tell you of the dangers of using pore-clogging powders for the chafings and irritations to which babies are subject.

Any mother who has used Dr. Chase's Ointment for this purpose will tell you of how beautifully soft and smooth it has kept the skin, and of how quickly it cured the chafing or irritation.

Especially during the teething period children are likely to suffer from eczema, and unless it is promptly checked there is danger of it spreading to other parts of the body and becoming chronic.

There is no rival to Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for baby eczema, as it is usually called, and it can be used with positive assurance that it will not injure the most delicate skin, but, on the contrary, keep it soft and smooth.

Mr. Chas K. Moss, Berlin, Ont., states: "My child, six months old, was a terrible sufferer from itching sores on her body. The doctors called it salt rheum, but could not cure it. We also tried remedies recommended by the people, but they had no beneficial effect. Having read of Dr. Chase's Ointment, I decided to try it and am glad to say that it completely cured her before half the box was used."

"In July, 1903, my little girl took what the doctor called abcess on her cheek. The doctor lanced it but could not do it any good. By September it had become a running sore and though we had the doctor again he could do nothing.

"In December we began using Dr. Chase's Ointment which has made a complete cure. There has not been the least return of this trouble so we believe that the cure is permanent."
—Mrs. S. J. Saunders, Prospect, Lanark, Co., Ont.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is a necessity in every home where its merits are known, and is indispensable in the nursery; 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

AN OVERLOADED IMAGINATION

The Review, in conformity with the lofty style of journalistic ethos, which places a report of a defect in the Lift Lock embankment, under an obituary heading, criticizes the removal of ashes from the post office building. It is asserted that the carter employed to remove these ashes, with the object of making the job spin out, draws very small loads. The carter in question says that he delivers his loads to private citizens, receiving so much per load. They do not object to the size, and he thinks that if they are satisfied, the Review—which defended the purchase of two lots, to placate rival Conservative property owners, on which to place two government buildings, which should have occupied one site—has no mission in the interests of national solvency to constitute itself garbage inspector extraordinary to the Government.

Merry-Go-Round Proves Exceedingly Popular

New Attraction at Jackson Park Meets With Fancy of the Crowd—New Bill of Moving Pictures This Week.

The Jackson Park merry-go-round continues to attract the crowd. A merry-go-round is something like a circus in its power of separating money and its owners. There is nothing new in a circus; at least a circus with something new is an exception, yet you couldn't keep people from spending their money there if you tried. It is the same with a merry-go-round. Like a circus, a merry-go-round seems to attract old and young alike. Last night the crowd found great amusement in this pastime. It was amusing to watch the actions of some of the people who travelled on the wooden horses. The older people clasped the necks of their steeds like a drunken man seizes a telegraph pole, while the youngsters rode a la Nat Ray. The machine is a splendid one and is operated by electric power.

Counter-attractions did not seem to have any effect upon the attendance at the park. The band owing to its regimental engagement, was not present, but the moving pictures were greatly enjoyed. An entirely new bill is on this week, and the latest pictures seem to have caught the fancy of the crowd, judging from the amusement displayed last night. They are all of a humorous nature.

The street car service to the park is a good one, and no delay is experienced anywhere along the line.

The Tale Of A Hungry Cat And The Poor Canary Bird

A Police Court Case That Aroused Lots of Amusement—Cat Got the Canary But Was Too Greedy and is Now No More.

To-day was a kind of cat and dog day at the police court. A cat was a prominent character, in an indirect way, in a case which afforded much amusement to police court attendants. The story briefly told is as follows: Antonio Fabiano had a cat. Please note the "had," as the cat is now no more. A young man living next door had a canary, (again the past tense). Like the cat, the songster has departed from this life. The cat believing in the early bird experience, made a practical raid on the neighbour's house yesterday morning and carried off the five-dollar canary. In the evening the pet returned for more prey, this time turning its attention to the chicken coop. The young man of the house happened along, however, and a catastrophe followed. A gun was produced, with the result that the cat was obliterated from this vale of tears.

Fabiano sought revenge, hence the police court case. He charged the young man with firing a gun in the city limits. The magistrate was inclined to sympathize with the defendant, as he stated that he lost a canary himself recently. He thought, however, that the gratification of killing the cat was worth a dollar, and assessed the defendant that amount.

A vicious dog case was enlarged until to-morrow to allow a further opportunity to get additional evidence in regard to the character of the dog.

Reports From The Conference

Read at W. M. S. Meeting at George Street Church Yesterday.

The Women's Missionary Society of the George street Methodist Church met yesterday afternoon at 3.30 when the reports of the Bay of Quinte Conference at Port Hope, were read. Miss Davis read the Mission Band's report and Mrs. A. R. Campbell the report of the Auxiliary.

Miss Davis reported that the past year of the Band was the most successful in its history. The contributions to the funds of the Branch were over $1,000. There was also a great increase in membership. Miss Wilson the corresponding secretary gave some very helpful suggestions to increase the interest in the attendance. She recommended the institution of a cradle roll at each branch.

The George street Mission Band were successful in obtaining the banner this year for having the greatest increase in membership. This was presented by Miss Wilson.

Mrs. Campbell reported that the Auxiliary the past year was the most successful in the twenty-five years since its inception. The receipts for the branch during the year were over $900 in excess of the proceeding, although a special appeal was made then for the Extension Fund. The money sent in from the Auxiliary of George street was over $600.

News arrived during the convention that the Kitamaat Home, B. C., in charge of Mr. Raley, had been burned while the children and teachers were absent and they are now left homeless. The special effort for the coming year of the W.M.S. will be to provide funds to erect a new Home. The same officers were elected as officiated during the year just past.

The president, Mrs. Platt, of Paxton, in her annual address, remarked that the silver anniversary of the W. M. S. was the most encouraging and enthusiastic of them all and believed that in years to come would meet with still greater success.

Mr. Christopher Leary, accompanied by his grandson from Texas, drove up from Peterborough on Thursday. They are the guests of Mr. J. J. Mortimer of Anson. Mr. Leary's friends in this neighbourhood are delighted to see him looking so well, and all join in the wish that he may be spared to make many trips to this section.—Minden Echo.

A New Insect Destroys Grass

North Monaghan Farmers Complain of It.

County Councillor Garbutt, of Smith, was out in the township of North Monaghan yesterday and ran across what he considers a new and dangerous insect. Some of the farmers there were complaining that their meadows were being injured by some new destructive insect, which settles itself upon the blades of grass, the result being that the grass is killed. The hay crop, as a consequence, will, it is feared, be considerably shorter this year than usual.

VACCINATION AND DANDRUFF

There is as Sure Prevention of Baldness as There is of Smallpox.

It is now accepted that vaccination renders the vaccinated person exempt from smallpox; or at worst, he never has anything but the lightest kind of a case. Now as sure a preventive and cure for dandruff, which causes failing hair and baldness, has been discovered—Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the dandruff germ. C. H. Reed, Victor, Idaho, says: "Myself and wife have been troubled with dandruff and falling hair for several years. We tried remedies without effect until we used Newbro's Herpicide, two bottles of which cured us." Hundreds of similar testimonials. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10 c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, special agents.

THE TROUBLE OF THE SPOILS.

Some poet who had, evidently "been there" sang—"O what a tangled web we weave when first we practice to deceive." Premier Whitney must often recall these words as indicating the consequences which have come from a beginning at wrong doing. When he inaugurated—possibly urged there, to by the "graft" element of his party—the spoils system, he perhaps, in the first flush of joy, in swinging the headsman's axe, little thought what a "tangled web" he was beginning to weave. Grit officials heads have been rolling into the sawdust with gruesome iteration, but the "Madame DeForges" and "La Vengeances" of the Conservative rank and file are not satiated—they stick to their knitting and demand more heads so that there will be made places for their own heads. It is said that Premier Whitney's life is not worth living unless he takes refuge in the woods, out of reach of the post office or telegraph—where the office hunters must perforce cease from troubling him, unless by telepathic impulse. After all, it is not Premier Whitney and his colleagues who are directly working for their own undoing. One may fancy that they reluctantly practise the spoils system, doubtless they recognize the fact that it will bring its own retribution—that they, who use the sword shall perish by the sword—that the taste of spoils triumph may be in the mouth "sweet as honey" but bitter in the belly. Their sin consists in yielding to the demand of the spoilsmen, the office hunters, who seem to think, now that the sun in on their side of the hedge, the province and its resources should be theirs for the asking. It was to help the Government and make things easy for it that the Conservative Patronage Committee was organized. But it appears that this committee is the Government's greatest burden. It is pretty sad when the Mail and Empire, as pointed out by the Globe, gives tongue to the troubles the Patronage Committee is bringing, or will soon bring upon the Government. In the issue of June 18th, the Mail and Empire has the following:—

"The Patronage Committee is alleged to be nominating a person to hold the office of Provincial detective. It is help such as this that makes the work of the Government light at present, and heavy in the not distant future."

For a thick-and-thinner like the organ, this is tremendously strong language and presages the piling up of many troubles in the pathway of the Whitney Government, all coming from the operation of the spoils system. Premier Whitney might very justifiably fill vacancies occurring in the usual way in Government offices, by appointing his party friends. Indeed he would, according to our party system, be doing an injustice if he did not do so, but he finds, by the trouble that has come, and is looming up, that it was a mistake to sanction the spoils system, and in doing so to slaughter capable officials, and in order to do so to invent, or, have invented, a crime to fit the punishment.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Reports from Washington indicate that President Roosevelt is in danger of assassination. Does the Beef Trust intend to send him a tin of Chicago beef?

Lord Strathcona is always ready with a good word for Canada. Speaking at a banquet where the Colonial Agents-General were entertained, our High Commissioner said that Canada in a few years would be able to supply all the food stuffs required for the United Kingdom. This seems to be a most optimistic view to take especially when it is remembered that this year in the Northwest there are 500,000 acres more under crop than last year.

A German technical journal has taken a coal census and the result shows that the world is abundantly supplied with coal—enough to last several hundred years. According to the torrid theology now gone somewhat out of style, there is a considerable portion of the race which by removal to another world will have no reason to anticipate a fuel famine.

Will New C. P. R. Line Touch Peterborough?

Route of Short Line is Announced—Question as to Whether It Will Touch This City or Not Said to be in the Dark Yet—Will Go Near Omemee—Lindsay Also Will Get Connection.

The Toronto Star of yesterday had the following article, in reference to the new C. P. R. line from this city to the Georgian Bay:

Canadian Pacific Railway extensions are gradually being mapped out the latest for which tenders are called being the line from the Peterborough neighbourhood to Victoria Harbour, known as the Georgian Bay and Seaboard Railway. This line is ninety-seven miles long, as at present projected, but may be somewhat shorter before the final plans are complete. It practically parallels the Grand Trunk especially from the Couchiching Narrows to the Harbour.

Will It Enter Peterborough?

The advertisement calling for tenders locates the eastern terminus of the line at a point on the Canadian Pacific between Peterborough and Havelock. Thereby a tale is said to hang. Whether the railway will finally enter Peterborough is a matter of speculation, and there are those who affirm what the railway company denies. At any rate, this is a non-bonus road from beginning to end; no bonuses have been asked and none received.

Starting from the neighbourhood of Peterborough, the line goes over the hills to Mud Lake, and for ten miles or so in the immediate vicinity of the city it is somewhat snake-like in construction. Indeed the whole line is affected by the many hills: but this is most evident in the neighbourhood of the terminals, east and west. It will pass near the village of Omemee, a deputation from which recently urged the village's claims. It will go through Lindsay, and pass one mile east of Cambray, three and one-half miles west of Glenarm, two miles south of Eldon, through Brechin, through Uptergrove, through Atherly Junction to Orillia, thence through Coldwater and Fesserton to Victoria Harbour.

The new railway will cross the Couchiching Narrows on a drawbridge. The Talbot and Pigeon Rivers will also be crossed, and the Seugog at Lindsay.

An Acute Alec Has Head Broken

A Vigorous Young Lady Inflicts Summary Punishment Upon a Hoodlum.

Some young men, from whom it might not be expected are anxious for improving themselves—improving on nature's handiwork by making bigger fools of themselves than nature intended. Last night a party of young ladies passing along Charlotte street were overtaken by two or three young men. One of these in passing, when he came opposite this militant young lady, put his face down close to hers and made a kissing noise. Without hesitation the insulted damsel took her revenge. She laid her umbrella over the hoodlum's impudent head with such force as to smash the rain shedder. It is difficult to tell which was more surprised—the young man at the promptness of his punishment, or the young lady that her umbrella should be broken over so soft an object as the hoodlum's head.

In days to come when this plucky damsel comes to preside over a home and a husband, it will not be difficult to decide which will be head of the house.

Sore Feet And Bad Legs

Are Cured By Zam-Buk.

Now that the warm weather is with us, scores of people find themselves suffering from sore and blistered feet. These simple evils, if neglected, lead to something far worse.

All women who have to be on their feet all day understand the danger of complications of this kind. Bad ankles and ulcerated legs are diseases that often follow and that are hard to cure once they have been allowed to develop. Years may elapse until the case is well nigh incurable. The sufferer is unable to follow her daily round of duty, and the swelling and inflammation may produce agony unbearable.

Even when the disease has reached this stage, but if possible before, the affected parts should be liberally annointed with Zam-buk. Each ulcer or sore after being smeared with the balm should be carefully bandaged and if the dressings be duly persevered in, the patient is soon likely to be on the high road to recovery. Zam-Buk has frequently proved successful in the most obstinate and long-standing cases. It is a perfect cure also for cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, eczema, ulcers, abscesses, insect stings, poisoned wounds, festering sores, ringworm, sore or chafed patches, sore breasts, etc. Made from vegetable extracts, exclusively, it contains no irritating fats or mineral colouring matter, so common in most ointments. It may be called "Nature's Own Healer." Of all druggists at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, or from the Zam-Buk Co., Colborne street, Toronto, upon receipt of price. A booklet will be sent telling all about Zam-Buk if asked for.

Many presents testifying to the high esteem in which the young couple are held by their numerous friends in Peterborough were received by the young couple.

Petition For Holiday Is Being Largely Signed

Thursday Half-Holiday Movement is Progressing Favourably—Most of the Merchants Have Signed the Petition.

A petition is being circulated among the merchants of the city providing for a half-holiday on Thursday afternoons in July and August. This petition is being very largely signed and the success of the movement seems assured. A list of the merchants who have signed the petition will be published in the Examiner on Friday, when it will be seen that most of the George street merchants are in favour of the step.

The idea should certainly be hailed as a good one by merchants and clerks alike. No one will be the loser by the arrangement. The clerks will be brighter and able to do better work for their employers by reason of their respite from work during the warm weather. The merchants themselves will feel the benefit of a holiday and the enterprise should certainly be carried out.

The Committee also desires to commend the energy shown by our Dominion representatives in support of the application and of other benefits sought by the county.

Your Committee trusts that the position taken by the county regarding the Trusts of the Foley will will be sustained as it will free a substantial sum for distribution for charitable uses in the county.

Best Kidney Remedy Known To Science

For pain in the back—scanty urine—highly colored urine—irritated bladder—irregular bowels—bad stomach—there is nothing that will bring such quick relief and so certain a cure as FRUIT-A-TIVES.

These marvelous tablets are nature's natural remedy for irritated or weakened kidneys. They act directly on the kidneys—soothe the irritated membranes—clean, heal and strengthen the organs—and help them to new vigor with their work.

Often kidney trouble is not due to any organic defect in the kidneys. If the bowels are constipated—if the skin does not throw off the tissue waste of the body—then these impurities are carried to the kidneys. In a vain endeavor to rid the system of impurities, the kidneys are overworked—the blood vessels are dilated—the nerves inflamed. That causes a host of kidney troubles.

Fruit-a-tives

not only heal and strengthen the kidneys but they also increase the action of the skin, and act directly on the liver, thus curing the constipation.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are the natural and logical cure for all kidney troubles. They are made of fruit and tonics—are pleasant to take—and a guaranteed cure when faithfully used.

HUG, KISS YOUR GIRL WHENEVER YOU PLEASE SAYS A MAGISTRATE

(Examiner Special.)

New York, June 20.—Magistrate Finn, in Yorkville Police Court yesterday, gave advice to a young man arrested for kissing his sweetheart in public.

When John Duffy, who is 24 years old and lives at No. 204 East Thirtieth street, was arraigned, the magistrate asked:

"What is the charge against the prisoner?"

"He was hugging a girl this morning at 2 o'clock in the public street," replied officeman Flynn.

"Well, I don't see any crime in that. I have hugged many a girl myself," gayly remarked Battery Dan."

"But they refused to go home when I told them to," said Flynn, "and went on hugging harder."

"Well, it was harmless and perfectly natural if she was his sweetheart. They both evidently enjoyed it very much," retorted the magistrate. Turning to Daffy, he continued:

"You had a perfect right to hug and kiss your girl just as you please and when you please, but in future make it your business to do your hugging and kissing in private, for as you see, the police don't like it. Now get away to your girl as soon as you can."

FELL ON LOVER'S NECK; RESULT WAS YOUNG MAN DIED YESTERDAY

(Examiner Special.)

New York, June 20th. — James Condern, 25 years of age, of Summit, N. J., died yesterday in All Souls' Hospital at Morristown, from a broken neck after three weeks of treatment, in which every resource of modern surgery was exhausted.

Condern called on a young woman in Summit three weeks ago yesterday. The young woman, who weighs upwards of 250 pounds, was dressing, and he sat down on the stairs in the hallway to wait.

The young woman tripped near the top, and fell squarely on Condern, who was picked up unconscious and taken to his home, where the physicians found that his neck had been broken.

It was decided last Friday to take him to the hospital for an operation. Saturday it was discovered that his spinal cord had been injured, and the surgeons were unable to save his life. The young woman is prostrated through grief.

ALL THE CREEDS WILL BE A UNITED CHURCH SAYS DR. L. ABBOTT

(Examiner Special.)

Cambridge, Mass., June 20. — Dr. Lyman Abbott, of New York, in his baccalaureate sermon to-day to the Harvard seniors, predicted the speedy coming of a new age of fraternalism, by which term he interprets the usual significance of socialism. The age is already dawning, he said, in which men will do only what will serve his fellow-beings, when a common respect for every other man's rights exists, when the Protestant respects the creed of the Catholic, the Catholic respects the creed of the Protestant, the Jew respects the faith of the Gentile, and the Gentile that of the Jew, and every man says he sees a little part of the truth and that his neighbour sees still another part.

CHARGE $12 A TON FOR ICE ON A FALSE CRY OF A FAMINE

(Examiner Special.)

New York, June 20.—The American Ice Company, commonly called the Ice Trust, is preparing to raise the price of ice to consumers throughout New York to 50 cents a hundred pounds. This will mean $12 a ton for a commodity which costs often but 75 cents a ton to harvest, and which can be delivered at the wharf in this city, it is said, for as low as $1.50 a ton, cost of harvesting included.

A SOFT LITTLE KISS WAKES WHOLE TOWN OF RIDGEFIELD N. J.

(Examiner Special.)

New York, June 20.—Something will come to pass in Ridgefield Park, N.J., next Wednesday evening.

The village Board of Education will meet then and try, on the charge of conduct unbecoming a gentleman and a principal, George M. Lasell, supervising (principal of its public school. He is accused by Miss Olive King, a teacher, young and pretty, with having hugged her and with having kissed another teacher.

The charges were first heard at a meeting of the Board several days ago, when the question of re-engaging the teaching staff came up. Miss King, who was unexpectedly present, was informed that she was not to be on the staff next year, principally on account of her habitual tardiness. She wept and said:

"I am not the only one that has been tardy. And if the supervising principal expects subordination from his teachers he should first gain their respect. He has not treated me in a proper manner. One day last September he hugged me in one of the cloak rooms.

"Frequently he reprimanded the offence, once in the presence of Miss Edith Mehrhoff and Miss Celia Stackhouse, other teachers. On another occasion he called me, with other teachers, a fool. This happened in a private residence."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 20. — There was plenty of hold-over bullish enthusiasm at the opening to-day which was influenced by the higher London prices [illegible] short covering was manifest, [illegible] there was good buying all [illegible] the list. Norfolk was the feature, [illegible] from 89 1-2 to [illegible] 1-2 on sales of 6000 shares, a gain [illegible] one to two points, and holding most of the advance in the early trading.

There was a much better feeling in the London market all around while Americans continued the feature of strength with Norfolk up a point.

In the afternoon the market was inclined to heaviness until an announcement of an increase in the B. and O. dividend to 6 per cent. which caused shorts to cover and prices advanced quickly; Southern Pacific was the leader. Am. Locomotive common was also placed on a five per cent. basis, being the first dividend this stock ever received. The close was active and strong at about the best of the day.

The Junior C.L.A. game on Saturday between Oshawa and the Young Shamrocks should be a great contest and a bumper house should turn out to encourage the local "kids" who have shown that they are worthy of support. They must win to keep in the running and will put up a hard fight.

THE WEATHER

As remarked in the Examiner some days ago, it begins to look as if the beautiful halos around the sun that were visible on the fourth of the present month, and admired by hundreds, had something to do with the long spell of showery weather that we have experienced since that time. With the exception of a couple of days, there have been showers—some of them severe — every day since. The rainfall during this period has amounted to 2 inches and 68-100 on the level. During May only 2 inches and 8-100 fell; while the total for April was 1 inch and 28-100. If the continuous showery weather is but a coincidence, it is at least remarkable. Another old theory is that if it rains on Ascension Day—which it is said to have done this year—it will rain forty days in succession. Another superstition credits St. Swithin's day with this previous persistency.

BICYCLE AND MAN COLLIDE

Another bicycle accident occurred to-day shortly after 12 o'clock, at the corner of George and Hunter streets. Mr. Jas. Patterson, a pedestrian, was knocked down by a passing wheelman, but was not seriously injured.

School Inspector Brown, In His Report to County Council, Recommends Against It—Some of the Advantages of the New Half-Day Systems—Waste Acres of County Might be Made Profitable.

The report of School Inspector Brown presented to the County Council yesterday afternoon was as follows:

To the Warden and Members of the Council, County of Peterborough.

Gentlemen,—I visited, during the half year now closing, 63 schools and departments. In them I found 1,514 pupils. Of these, 386 were in the first part of the First Reader, 274 in the second part, 315 in the Second Reader, 277 in the Third Reader, 250 in the Fourth Reader, and 12 in the High School Reader. Five hundred and thirty-nine might be considered as in the Upper Public School, that is, in the third book and above, and 975 in the lower. I am sorry to have to remark that many in the upper school had been promoted prematurely, as was clearly shown in the results of the written examinations to which they were subjected. Many terms with which they should have been perfectly familiar were unknown. Perhaps it would be a good plan to follow the example of some other counties and prepare papers for pupils to write on for promotion.

When any subject is being taught its language should be made familiar. This is a pedagogic principle which a teacher should keep constantly in mind, and act in accordance therewith.

A convention of the teachers (chiefly of the west of the county) was recently held. It was fairly well attended, and considerable interest was manifested by the teachers in the subjects presented. The main features of the convention were penmanship and nature study. Mr. Pringle, of the Peterborough Business College, presented the subject of penmanship. He is himself a very superior penman and an excellent teacher of this useful art.

Mr. Elliott, vice-principal of the Provincial Normal School, Toronto, gave a most interesting and instructive address on birds, of which he exhibited a great number of stuffed specimens. In the evening Mr. Elliott also gave an illustrated lecture on Japan, a most interesting subject on account of that country becoming, as it were, at a bound, one of the leading naval powers of the world. I hope that writing will, in consequence of the convention, receive more thorough systematic treatment. Also, that a knowledge of birds and the benefits many kinds of them confer on the farmer and the gardener by their destruction of injurious insects, may lead to their better protection.

In many schools arithmetical problems are begun at too early an age. Children should be taught numbers themselves before beginning the simple rules. They should be taught to count, read, write, give position, distinguish odd from even, and compare numbers, and do all these readily before doing much at the simple rules. Then these rules are easily mastered. As a general thing, complex problems should not be given before the simple rules are understood and can be readily done.

In the matter of geography, there should be a cross on the floor, the arms of which indicate the points of the compass. A thorough knowledge of direction is an important part of the foundation of geography.

Little home work should be given. Children's time at home should be largely at the disposal of their parents. It should be employed chiefly in useful manual labour.

The half-day plan during the summer months, which was tried last year in two of the schools of Otonabee so successfully, is being tried in several schools this year. So far as I have heard, it is giving satisfaction to both teachers and parents, except in one case. A trustee, who gave his consent to its introduction, was convinced after two days' trial that it ought to be discontinued. His colleagues, however, were not of the same opinion, and it remains. At the risk of repeating what I have presented to you before, I will state what appears to be some of its advantages. 1, It gives to the parents in the country a considerable portion of the time of their children, to be employed in useful labour in the house and on the farm during the very busy season. This is a matter of importance, as hired help is scarce, dear, and, in many cases, unsatisfactory. 2, It gives the children mental as well as manual work each day. This conduces to a proper and harmonious development of the mind and body. It is questionable whether confining children to their seats and keeping them comparatively quiet for the greater part of six hours a day, is an ideal condition. 3. Each receives as much attention from the teacher as if at school all day. If anything, more. When all are in the room there are more sources of distraction to both pupils and teacher, than when only half. 4. It secures to the little ones their proper share of attention, at perhaps the most important period of their school life. They are then forming their opinions of what kind of place school is, and upon these opinions depends to a large extent their success in learning or otherwise. 5. The half-day plan would lessen the tendency to leave the farm, and drift into the city, town or village. Some people who keep their children out of school during the busy season are too exacting. They keep the young folks at home from early morn until late at night, thus unconsciously driving them from home to their own disadvantage, and the disadvantage of the general community. 6. The pupils would, if anything, learn more than if at it all day. It is not the number of hours, but the intensity of application that tells. Were children to really study in the right direction for two hours a day from the age of seven until eleven, they would be able to pass the Entrance Examination, and pass it well. As it is, they are often thirteen or fourteen before passing.

If I might be permitted to refer to matters outside education, I would call your attention to the large areas of waste land in this county, lands unfit for farming purposes, but which, if properly handled and protected, might be made, in the course of years, a considerable source of revenue to the county, or to its minor municipalities. In, I think, 1866, a very destructive fire took place in Burleigh. Before that Burleigh was largely covered with a fine pine forest. After that the most prominent features were bare rock and blackened, naked tree trunks. Since then, in many places, young pines have started and made considerable progress. Some are now, perhaps, thirty feet high. A somewhat similar state of affairs occurred in other parts. The county, or its township municipalities, should have some understanding with the Government concerning these lands, and should exercise such control over them as would lead to their being utilized to the greatest extent, for the growth of timber, and the conservation of a steady flow of water. Timber is getting scarcer and energy from water is in great demand.

Very considerable educational changes have recently been made, affecting chiefly the provincial University, the Education Department, and the Public Schools. Doubtless your clerk will lay before you the various documents from the Provincial Government and the Education Department bearing upon these changes. It is, perhaps, unnecessary for me to refer to them further.

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
J. COYLE BROWN,
P. S. Inspector.

Remains Of Miss Corbman Laid To Rest

The remains of the late Alice Corbman were laid in their last resting place yesterday afternoon. The floral tributes to the deceased young lady were very numerous, and most beautiful, testifying to the high regard in which she was held by many friends. A few of the floral designs were: Gates Ajar, the Anchor, the Sickle and the Star.

Rev. W. J. Jolliffe, of the Charlotte street church, conducted the funeral services, both at the house and grave. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Cecil Williamson, Douglas Doxsee, Leonard Naylor, Wesley Elliott, Leslie Tremeer, and Edward Skuce.

SUMMER FAG.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills the Best Tonic for Summer.

The long hot summer thins the blood, and leaves you weary, worn and wretched. Nothing can cure that summer fag except Dr. Williams' Pink Pills — because they actually make new blood and thus strengthen every organ and every tissue in the body. Every dose fills you with new strength, new energy, new life. Purgative pills only weaken you more. Common tonics only stimulate for the moment. But Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood, and nothing but good, pure rich red blood can brace you to stand the summer. That is why you should take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now. Mr. W. J. Norfolk, White Horse, Yukon Territory, says: "I am thirty-nine years of age and have been an athlete who scarcely knew the meaning of illness. Last year, however, my health gave way. I became nervous, did not sleep well and grew as weak as a kitten. It seemed as though I was completely worn out. I tried several so-called tonics, but it was only a waste of money, for they did me no good. Finally I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and they put me on my feet again, and gave me new health and strength."

Every weak and easily tired man and woman will find new health, new strength and new energy through a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They cure all blood and nerve diseases like anaemia, nervous exhaustion, headaches and backaches, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism and the special ailments that afflict most growing girls and women of mature years. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

No Motive Known For Sunday's Assault

Rev. Mr. Nicholls States He Could Not Identify His Assailant—Knows No Reason Why the Attack Should Have Been Made—Has Lived in Bailieboro Since October.

The Examiner was in telephonic communication this morning with Rev. E. R. Nicholls, of Bailieboro, the victim of the stabbing affray, an exclusive report of which was given in yesterday's Examiner. Mr. Nicholls stated that he had almost recovered from the effects of the wounds which his mysterious assailant inflicted. The injuries were on his left arm, and medical attention was soon procured to stop the flow of blood. The affair is a deep mystery to Mr. Nicholls. He can think of no earthly reason why the murderous attack should have been made. So far as he knew he had made no enemies since he had been living in Bailieboro, and he had experienced no trouble with anyone.

As to the identity of the fiend, he could say nothing. Asked as to whether he knew him, Mr. Nicholls could not say whether he did or not. Although it was not yet dark, the whole affair occupied such a short space of time that he could not see the face of the man who did the shooting.

Chief Bond, of Port Hope, was at Bailieboro yesterday looking up clues upon which to work to ascertain the identity of the minister's assailant, but the information upon which he had to work was so meagre that he had little hope of being able to trace him. However, he is working on the case, and will no doubt make every effort to locate him.

Mr. Nicholls has now almost fully recovered from his fright and from the effects of the wounds inflicted.

City Officials Inspect New Outfall Sewer

Contractor Bogue Had Everything in Excellent Order—Officials Pleased With the Outcome—The Contractor Hospitably Entertains the Company.

A tour of inspection was made this morning by city officials over the new outfall sewer which Mr. James Bogue has just completed from Hunter street east to Little Lake.

Among those present were Mayor Best, Ald. Hicks, chairman of Board of Works; City Engineer T. A. S. Hay, Superintendent Henderson, of Waterworks; Inspector Bartlett, Mr. Robison and Mr. Bogue.

Mr. Henderson, as well as the other officials, found the outfall sewer in first-class shape, and everything Mr. Bogue had done most satisfactory. The contractor received many congratulations on the very efficient work he had just concluded.

After the inspection tour the above-mentioned gentlemen, together with a number of East and West Peterborough citizens, partook of Mr. Bogue's hospitality on the lawn near the shore of Little Lake. Here was provided an excellent lunch by the genial contractor, who had everything set up in first-class style.

Altogether the tour was a most satisfactory one, and was brought to a happy conclusion.

$15,000 VOTED FOR THE TRENT CANAL WORK

In the supplementary estimates brought down in Parliament yesterday there is an item of $15,000 for improvements to the Trent aCnal, not including $8,300 for a wharf at Roach's—properly Mozing's Point, at the Serpent Mound and Turtle Mounds.

Accompanying these supplementaries is a further estimate of $85,340 for the current fiscal year. The biggest items chargeable to capital are: The Intercolonial Railway, $1,011,660; public works, $447,300; Dominion lands for surveys, $75,000; railways and canals, $214,550; public works, marine, $727,200. Appropriations chargeable to income are: Civil government, $22,451; legislation, $13,850; arts, agriculture and statistics, $155,000; quarantine, $109,975; militia and defence, $152,233; railways and canals, $71,277; public works, $1,233,800.

He Straightens Crose Eyes With Glasses

The following is from a clipping taken from an Owen Sound paper:—

"Mr. Hutchinson of Keward, brought his little daughter, Margretta, aged 9 years, to Owen Sound on Saturday, Sept. 16, to have Dr. Montgomery, the 'shadow test' specialist, who is with Mr. J. J. Douglas, 'look into the eye' which was very badly crossed. This specialist measured the inside refraction of the crossed eye, put the proper lenses before the child's eyes, and exactly ten days after, which was last Wednesday, her father appeared at Mr. Douglas' store bringing his daughter, her eyes being perfectly straight. She had been fitted several times here in Owen Sound, but it was left to Dr. Montgomery to prove in this case (as he has in scores of others in the past three weeks) that his new discovery in sight-testing—the method he is teaching—is a boon to mankind, and a revelation to the optical world."

Now, if there is a child in this entire country suffering with crossed eyes, we wish the parents to come and test the skill of Dr. Montgomery, who is now at our store. The secret of his success is this:—"He looks into the eye."

Left Prayer Meeting To Burn Building

Former Peterborough Girl Who Set Fire to Toronto Haven—Ethel Cunningham Reported to Have Attempted to Destroy Home for Women.

A Toronto despatch to-day says:—Stealing away from the prayer meeting in progress at the Haven, Sackville street, on Tuesday night, Ethel Cunningham, an inmate, went to the top flat, where she built a bonfire of clothing she found there. Fortunately the blaze was discovered in time, and practically no damage was done to the building. Her conduct was brought to the attention of the morality department yesterday morning, and Policeman George Chapman despatched the patrol wagon to the Haven for the young woman. Seeing the policeman coming, she opened a window on the third floor and leaped to the ground below. Her right leg was badly injured by the fall, and the police found it necessary to remove her to the General Hospital. Ethel Cunningham is 23 years old, and came here only a few days ago from Peterborough.

HALF-HOLIDAY MOVEMENT MEETING WITH SUCCESS

Those who are working up the movement for the Thursday half-holiday are meeting with splendid success, only a few of the merchants so far refusing to sign the agreement to close their stores for a half day each week. The clerks are hopeful for the success of the movement, and ask the lady shoppers to assist them in this work, which, they assert, is one which should have the active support of everyone.

The Dangers Of Little Lake

Two Canoeists Upset Yesterday—A Narrow Escape.

A correspondent handed in the following item to the Examiner this morning:

Yesterday evening the experience of two our popular city sports resulted in an incident not to be forgotten in the history of Peterborough waters. Shortly after five o'clock, Messrs. G. Austin and Stephen Payne (commonly known as "Bill") left the boat house intent on partaking of the canoeing pleasures of a fine evening on the Little Lake, but to their sad surprise while nearing the mouth of the canal their canoe upset, and for a while the occupants struggled in submarine regions. Finally they got their canoe turned back, and getting in, made for home, not much worse of their evening's fun. "Bill" says that if the canoe had been properly sanded their lives would not have been in any danger.

Was Stopped by the Concrete Sidewalk.

Last night while one of the C. P. R. freight trains was shunting beside the Central Flour Mill, one of the cars was driven off the end of the track. The wheels dug deeply into the clay, but it was not until it struck the concrete sidewalk on George street that the car was stopped.

Fortunately no damage was done and the car was drawn back on the rails again before midnight.

ORDERS ISSUED FOR TENTS FOR THE TRIP

After considerable hard work, Colonel Miller has been advised that orders have been issued to allow the 57th Regiment the use of tents and blankets for the Brantford trip. A special order is in force to the effect that no tents or blankets will be issued to regiments on trips unless frequently application had to be made to headquarters to enable the whole regiment to secure them on this trip. The help of Mr. Hall was enlisted, and the efforts were successful. As a result the men will be able to sleep comfortably in tents instead of in the agricultural buildings.

Labour Conditions In City Very Satisfactory

Ald. Johnston's Monthly Report to the Labour Gazette Tells of Unusual Activity in Local Labour Circles—New Industries Which Promise Well for the City.

The report to Ald. W. J. Johnston to the Labour Gazette for the month of June is as follows:

All classes of labour were well employed during May, and there were evidences that a scarcity of labour would be felt later, especially in the building trades, as the amount of house building exceeded by far that of any period last year. Most of the houses under construction are for workingmen who are paying excessive rents and who are investing in homes for themselves; others are for speculative purposes. There was great activity in real estate. Indications are that the city will see this year the greatest activity in land sales in its history. The repairs and regular work on the Trent Canal waterway is employing a large force of men, the monthly pay roll amounting to $5000. The city council has already started putting down concrete sidewalks and crossings, a large staff of men being employed for the whole season. This work is done by day labour. Sewer work has also been started and some of the contracts not completed last year are being finished. Indications are that this work will also be done by day labour, as on any contracts tendered for, the city engineer's tenders thus far have been the lowest. The plans for the new carpet factory are being prepared and in the course of a short time active work will be begun. Work has already commenced on the new fire hall. The Machine Telephone Company was busy putting in new telephones. The work on the new public school will be begun at once. A new company has been formed called the Rapid Tool Company, with a capital of $40,000, work to commence on July 1st on the manufacture of the Caldwell lightning auger bit. The initial output will be 1,000 bits per day. There is only one other factory of the kind in Canada. The city council has passed a bylaw fixing the assessment of the Canadian General Electric Company's works at $150,000, on condition that the company spends a further sum of $200,000, on extensions, which may be commenced this year. This would mean the doubling of the company's present staff of employees.

A new industry "The People's Bakery of Peterborough," capitalized at $50,000, inteads to go extensively into the manufacture of bread, both wholesale and retail, and later on to produce other lines of confections.

Owing to the scarcity of labour and the water being low it will be a slow and difficult matter getting the logs to their destination this season. The superintendent of the waterways has issued orders that the logs must be hastened over all dams in order that the water may be conserved for navigation purposes.

The J. J. Turner Company has decided to add another storey to its factory. The Central Foundry Company, a new industry, has entered into arrangements to locate in the town of Port Hope. The company agrees to spend $5,000 on improving buildings leased from the town, the plant including machinery to cost $75,000, it is to employ fifty men the year round, and the yearly payroll is to be at least $2,500. The Company is capitalized at $200,000, of which $165,000 is paid up.

The cost of coal per ton is now reduced to $6.00. Large shipments of wood are being brought by steamer and scows from the back countryy.

The Bell Telephone Company are preparing for laying underground wires on the principal streets of the city.

Large shipments of quarry stone are being brought by water from Stony Lake and shipped by rail to the Barber Paving Company of Toronto. The Dickson Lumbering Company has disposed of its limits for the sum of $600,000 to a syndicate of Canadian and American capitalists. Banks reported trade very brisk. The wholesale and retail trade was very active in certain classes of goods.

Moulders of the city have received an increase of 5 per cent. in wages. The former rate was $2.50 per day; they now receive $2.62 1-2. They asked for 10 per cent. increase.

The labour market was free from unrest.

Wages rates in the Village of Havelock will be for this year $1.50 for foremen; $1.25 for labourers, and $3 for teams per day. This amounts to a raise all round of 25 cents per day.

Condition of Local Industries.

Agriculture—Farmers throughout the district have completed seeding, and are getting ready for the planting of root crops. Fall grain has wintered well, and the country's appearance augurs well for future products.

Lumbering—All local mills are being taxed to their full capacity for the local trade.

Manufacturing — All industrial establishments of every class without exception were exceptionally active, running full time and employing full staffs.

Mining—Conditions were very active in most of the camps.

Railway Construction and Employment—The Grand Trunk Railway Co. is making extensive improvements in its yard at Lakefield, using 13 carloads of gravel per day for one week in levelling up the ground and putting in new sidings. The Canadian Pacific Railway Co. is laying new steel rails on the Peterborough division, about eight miles in all, and otherwise repairing its road.

Condition of Particular Trades.

Building—Bricklayers were busy on repair work until now brick is ready for use. All engaged in the building trades were actively employed.

Metal, Engineering and Shipbuilding—With one or two exceptions, all employed in these trades were busy.

Woodworking and Furnishing — Woodworkers, upholsterers, varnishers and polishers, wood-carvers, carriage workers, car builders, pattern makers and coopers were active.

Printing—All were well employed.

Clothing—Journeymen tailors, garment workers, hat makers, boot and shoe workers were active.

Food and Tobacco Preparation — Bakers and confectioners, butchers and meat cutters, and cigarmakers were busy.

Leather—All employees were busy.

Miscellaneous — Barbers, broom makers, clerks and stenographers, delivery employees, furriers, hotel and restaurant employees, theatre and laundry workers were all active.

Transport—Railway workers of all classes were busy. Street railway employees were active, and hackmen, carters, expressmen and cab drivers were very busy.

Unskilled—This class was busy.

District Notes.

The buying of live stock, especially hogs, cattle, sheep and calves for the local market was heavy. The cheese factories were all busy, and several of the factories will soon have cheese ready for the export trade. Market prices were about the same, except apples and hay, which have advanced considerably on account of the scarcity. Considerable building is going on throughout the district. Rural stores reported business good, and the several saw and grist mills were all doing a steady business.

Being Square With The World

If You Would Give and Get Full Value Here's A Suggestion.

Are you getting full value out of life? And is the world getting full value out of you? In matters of business and in our relations, man to man, we owe it to ourselves and to the world to do our best,—to make ourselves of full value. Do this and, in turn, you will get full value out of life.

You can't do full justice to anything unless you feel right. And you can't feel right unless you live right. Eating right is essential to living right.

Eat the right kind of food and you will not suffer. The right kind of food for you and your family, the weak and the strong, the sick and the well, the grown folks and the little folks, is Malta-Vita, that delicious, crisp, wholewheat food.

A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malta-Vita, and it's just as good three times a day. Being a pure grain product, without any foreign sweetening agent or other adulterative, Malta-Vita is rich in food elements—every nutritious element of the best white wheat and pure barley malt extract—intensely vitalizing.

Try Malta-Vita with cream or fruit. There is no other food "just as good." None that can take its place. And it's always ready to eat. No cooking. No inconvenience. All grocers, now 10 cents.

VARICOCELE NERVOUS DEBILITY CURED.

No Names Used Without Written Consent.

If you have transgressed against the laws of nature, you must suffer. Self abuse, late excesses and private diseases have wrecked thousands of promising lives. Treat with scientific physicians and be cured. Avoid quacks. E. A. Sidney, of Toledo, says: "At the age of 14, I learned a bad habit and at 19 contracted a serious disease. I treated with a dozen doctors, who all promised to cure me. They got my money and I still had the disease. I had given up hope when a friend advised me to consult Drs. K. & K., who had cured him. Without any confidence I called on them, and Dr. Kennedy agreed to cure me or no pay. After taking the New Method Treatment for six weeks I felt like a new man. The drains ceased, wormy veins disappeared, nerves grew stronger, hair stopped falling out, urine became clear and my sexual organs vitalized. I was entirely cured by Dr. Kennedy and recommend him from the bottom of my heart."

The Mission Circles Hold Annual Meeting

In Connection With Peterborough Association of Baptist Churches in Brighton—Report of Circles and Boards for Past Year Was Very Encouraging—Good Progress Was Made.

Examiner Special.

Brighton, June 20.—The annual meeting of the Mission Circles and Bands of the Peterborough Association of Baptist churches was held in the Brighton Baptist church on Tuesday, June 19th. Those representing the Murray street Circle were Mrs. (Dr.) Hunter and Mrs. (Dr.) Scott.

The president, Mrs. W. D. Scott, occupied the chair. In the absence of the director, Miss Walton, Miss Squires was appointed to act pro tem. and Miss Lila Webber was appointed secretary.

An excellent Bible reading, "The Watchman," was given by Mrs. (Dr.) Hunter, and much appreciated.

After devotional exercises and the minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved, the report of 12 Circles and 13 Bands in the Association was presented. The re- is as follows:—

Report of the Mission Circles and Bands of Peterborough Association for the year ending 31st March, 1906.

This summing up of a year's work is always a solemn task, for as we place on record things accomplished, there comes to our minds the very many things we might have done, and did not. The words we might have spoken in the interests of missions, the times we might have attended the monthly meetings and so encourage the officers, and did not, the times we might have dropped a few more cents into the treasuries to help send far and near the precious Gospel, and did not. It all comes back to us now, and we regret those lost opportunities, and we wonder if our Heavenly Father will forgive our lukewarmness, and our selfishness in keeping so much to ourselves the news of eternal salvation, that is meant for the whole world.

Following are statistics of work done:—

Thirteen Circles—Norwood received this year, and a Young Ladies' Circle organized in Murray street, Peterborough.

Women in churches where Circles exist, 777.

Contributors to Home Missions, 231.

Contributors to Foreign Missions, 163.

Money for Home Missions, $251.08.

Money for Foreign Missions, $301.15.

Money for Indian Missions, $15.19.

Total from Circles, $567.33, which is $15.02 less than last year.

Bands—13, same as last year; members on roll, 390.

Money for Home Missions, $74.30.

Money for Foreign Missions, $100.29

Total from Bands, $174.59, while is $20.81 less than last year.

Total money sent to Home, Foreign and Indian treasurers, $741.92, which is $35.86 less than last year.

No. of "Visitors" subscribed for, 294.

No. of "Links" subscribed for, 135.

Besides the above, Campbellford Circle sent away one box of clothing; Gilmour Memorial Circle sent a bale of clothing valued at $21, to a Home Mission Field; Belleville Circle sent a box to the Northwest; one of the Belleville Bands sent $10 to Mrs. Clute, India.

Several of the Circles and Bands report deep interest. One thing particularly noticed is that the Circles and Bands that are accomplishing the most year after year are those whose members are thoroughly in earnest and look upon this mission work as a solemn charge from God, not to be lightly taken up, and worked at according to the mood one is in, and discarded when it suits one to drop out. But when the real meaning of this work enters into the heart and soul of our women and children in all our churches, then there will be no more deficits to report, no more lost opportunities to regret, and each one will feel that precious souls are not hungering for the bread of life that we might have sent them. Oh, women and children! be intensely in earnest over this matter; the years are passing so swiftly—work to-day!

A model Mission Circle meeting was conducted by the president. In response to the roll call four short addresses were given by delegates on the work in our mission fields.

A solo, "Does Jesus Care?" was rendered by Miss Clara Kidd, of Peterborough, and was much enjoyed.

The convenor of the Nominating Committee (Mrs. Hunter) reported the recommendation of the following officers for the coming year:

Director — Miss Walton, re-elected.

President — Mrs. W. D. Scott, re-elected.

Vice-President — Mrs. Edmunds, Port Hope.

The report was unanimously adopted.

An expression of appreciation of the faithful work done by the director in the past, and regret at her unavoidable absence, was heartily received by the Association.

Soldier Boys In Cobourg Camp Are Hard At Work

Nearly 3000 Troops in the Tented City—Cobourg Scene of Unprecedented Military Activity—Camp Makes a Very Picturesque Sight—The Camp Routine Has Begun.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Cobourg Camp, June 20. — To-day was easily the liveliest day in the camp since the tents have been pitched and the troops put in a busy time. The weather, while a trifle cool was all that could be desired until about 5.30 in the afternoon when it commenced to rain, all manoeuvres and drills for the day having been completed previous to the rainfall, however. Several visitors were at the grounds during the afternoon, and watched with interest the troops being put through their facings. The large field adjoining the camp was bristling with the infantry volunteers who were all out in full force, drilling, marching and executing other military movements. The bands played while the troops marched and the scene was indeed an impressive one with hundreds of soldiers scattered over the field in many companies. The 49th of Belleville, supplied the only bugle band and it did excellent service. The country's defenders were thoroughly drilled and kept in action for the greater part of the afternoon. The camera fiends were on hand and caught some rare snapshots and in a little while picture post cards of the interesting scenes will be widely distributed. Conspicuous among those in camp, for their neat appearance and soldierly bearing, are the 24th regulars clad in kakhi from "A" Battery, (regulars) Kingston. They are in charge of Lieutenant Constantine.

3rd Dragoons.

The 3rd Prince of Wales Canadian Dragoons are camped at the extreme right hand end of the camp and have 280 officers and men under canvas all told. They have made a splendid impression and are conducting themselves most creditably. Col. W. W. Brown is Commanding Officer and Major Sawyer is second in command. The Dragoons drilled today for the first time and went through their movements with noticeable promptitude and preciseness. In the morning there was regimental and brigade drill, mounted, and in the afternoon sub-target practice. The regiment is comprised of four squadrons. A, being recruited from Cilborne, B, from Millbrook, C, from Peterborough and D, from Wellington, Prince Edward county. The turn-out is good and the officers and men well satisfied with their surroundings. The camp is one of the most striking of any on the grounds, the uniforms of the men, yellow and black, being very picturesque. The large number of horses tethered in long rows also adds interest to the scene.

Veterinary Captain Purdie informed the writer that the horses with the dragoons this year are well up to the average and that no serious ailment has yet affected any of them. He said the attendance at camp was rather encouraging, but noted the absence of Lieut. K. S. Clarry. The latter official should feel flattered at this special recognition and should find in it incentive to turn out regularly at all succeeding camps.

Yes, the Dragoons look good all through and none are more fit to assist in the defence of the Empire against its foes than the handful that the Electric City contributes.

About the 24th.

There's no getting over it the 24th's all right. It is perhaps not hardly the thing to praise local regiments too much but if there's anything ahead of the battery boys from the city on the Otonabee they have yet to be discovered. Although a new battery they drill with the precision and grace of veterans. They man their guns like warriors true, and always make it a point to be neat and clearly in personal appearance as well as in the camp. Sergeant R. A. W. Hay said to the Examiner man, "What do you think of them?" and the latter informed him that they were the most likely looking bunch in the whole camp. Whereupon the sergeant escorted the scribe to the lemon sour booth. But joking aside, they are certainly good, and are fit representatives of Peterborough and vicinity.

This morning the 10th Brigade, consisting of the 24th and 14th Batteries and under supreme command of Col. McNatchan, left the camp at 8.30 for the first mounted parade. They returned at about 11.30 and the officers in charge were more than satisfied with their work.

Officer's Mess.

Mr. W. Tremaine has charge of the officers' mess for the 10th Brigade, F.C.B.A., and it is not necessary to emphasize the fact that he caters to to their wants with true Epicurean-like sympathy. The very manner he has in naming over the delicious viands he prepares would make one's mouth water—let alone sampling them. A cottage consisting of three cosy rooms form the quarters of the mess and "Billy" and his able staff are giving great satisfaction in dishing up the grub.

It is raining pretty hard now and the wise ones who were prudent enough to dig trenches around their tents are listening peacefully to the rapid patter of rain drops on the canvas—those who were not, are loath to believe that "it's never too late to mend," and are out with pick and shovel getting well drenched, but determined to save their bedding and effects, if possible, from being saturated also.

Heard on the Lines.

Every volunteer says "our crowd is the best. I heard so and so, (mentioning some important officer's name) say so." And so the worst regiment shares with the best the opinion that it is the only one worth stopping to look at.

The Englishman was a brand new recruit and had never seen either fire-flies or military life of any kind. He was coming into camp at night and couldn't understand the lights. "You see we don't use incandescent lights as most camps do," said an accommodating sergeant, "but by a peculiar system get our electricity for lighting purposes from the ground. See for yourself," he added, and he drew the attention of the son of Albion to the numerous fire-flies flashing all over the camp.

"I believe it's more wonderful than wireless telegraphy," solemnly said the unsuspecting Cockney.

One band in camp has played the same tune since 1887. It keeps it up all day long, resting only for short intervals—the longest being meal time. It should have Sousa's band beat to death 10 years ago on this particular selection and yet the majority in camp are not so fascinated by it that they do not universally think "it's time for a change."

WEDDING BELLS

McWILLIAMS—McKEE.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized last night at 9 o'clock at the residence of Dr. Wightman, 315 Rubidge street, in which the principals were Miss Edith McKee, daughter of the late R. B. McKee, of Peterborough, and Mr. Theodore McWilliams, son of Mr. J. B. McWilliams, Peterborough. The marriage was performed in the presence of only the immediate friends of the bride and groom by the Rev. J. G. Potter. They were unattended. A number of beautiful presents testified to the high esteem in which the bride and groom were held. Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams will leave in a few days for French River, where they will spend the summer.

MUSGROVE—McGORLICK.

Belleville, Ont., June 20.—Frederick A. Musgrove, of Toronto, was married to-day to Miss Muriel Blanche McGolrick. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white chiffon jupe and lace over taffeta silk, with veil of tulle and orange blossoms. She was attended by her two sisters, the Miss Adeen and Miss Pearl McGolrick. Rev. Mr. Beamish, rector of St. Thomas, performed the ceremony.

Mr. Alfred Pearson, Park street, received word on Tuesday of the death of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Cameron, widow of the late John Cameron, at Little Falls, Minn. Mrs. Cameron is well known in Peterborough and her many friends will learn with regret of her demise. Death was attributed to heart failure. Surviving her are three brothers, Alfred and Frank Pearson, of this city, and William of Ottawa, and one sister, Miss Edith, of Ottawa.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the residence of her brother, Park street, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

LITTLE Bell BIOGRAPHIES

Bach

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH was born in 1685 and died in 1750, aged 65. From childhood he grew up, as all should grow, in an atmosphere of good music in the home. He made such rapid progress in his music lessons that he soon knew more, could play better and compose better than all his teachers.

Bach is the greatest musician that ever lived. He was the inventor; all who came after him were followers or imitators. He wrote nearly 1,000 compositions, founded modern orchestral music, perfected organ methods and choral composition, discovered most of the methods in instrumental composition, rearranged the 24 scales, making it possible to play in every key, and established the chief principles of modern piano playing. No one can hope to become even a good concert pianist who has not first mastered Bach's Inventions, Well-tempered Clavier and Fugues.

To practice or play on Bach had only the clavichord, an instrument small in dimensions, limited in scale, thin and weak in tone as a mandolin, and poor in construction as an old-fashioned melodeon. He had no such beautiful and marvellous instrument as

But seated at the sweet, rich, pure toned Bell Art Piano, with its greatest of modern improvements—THE ILLIMITABLE REPEATING ACTION—Bach would have brought forth music lovelier than any the world has yet heard. To all musicians the great Schumann's advice, had he lived in our day, would undoubtedly have been "Make Bach and the Bell Piano your daily bread."

BURY THE HATCHET.

The School Board may be technically correct in declining to pay Capt. Eastwood's bill for $135, in connection with the removal of the Separate School building from the lot on Murray street. But, while such an account may be non-collectable as a matter of legal right, by legal process, yet may it not be urged that the Board has a moral responsibility in respect of the expenditure made by Capt. Eastwood in behalf of the interests he represents? The School Board had the advantage of having so much of the work of demolition done. Besides, if there is anything in the statements made that a considerable proportion of the members of the Board personally advised, or suggested to, Capt. Eastwood that the removal of the building would not be objectionable to them, and that these members in their official capacity took an opposite view or remained non-committal at Board meetings, then another moral obligation to liquidate the bill seems to have been established. This obligation, if it is to be admitted that it exists, is further emphasized by the fact, if it is, as stated, that as far back as last winter several members of the Board privately took the position that the Board did not want the building, while at the same time the Board was negotiating in its official capacity with the military authorities for its acquirement.

It is unfortunate that the condition of friction between the military and educational authorities that seems to have obtained, should exist. The soldiers, as representing the military, and the scholars of the Institute, as representing the Board, will be near neighbours for all time, and if bad blood is engendered or permitted to continue to exist, there is bound to be friction, petty disagreements, petty acts of unfriendliness and petty reprisals, which will unfavourably affect the relations of the two parties concerned in a way to injuriously affect the interests represented by both. It would be a fitting celebration of Dominion Day, which commemorates the consolidation and harmonizing of the several provinces, to arrange some way to "bury the hatchet"—bride down.

Oddfellows Honour Departed Brethren

Decoration Day Was Fittingly Observed by Local Lodges Yesterday—Many Citizens Were Present and the Majority of the Graves Were Beautifully Adorned.

The members of Peterborough and Otonabee Lodges, I. O. O. F., yesterday observed, with appropriate ceremonial, the beautiful custom observed by Oddfellows all over the world of decorating the resting places of the departed members of the Order. The practice appeals not only to Oddfellows, but to the general public, as was shown by the large attendance at the cemetery. Everywhere throughout the silent city were seen tokens of tribute to the dead. Graves which have appeared forsaken were beautifully decorated yesterday. In some cases magnificent wreaths and other floral tributes were seen, in others the offering was merely a handful of field daisies. The sentiment was the same throughout, however, and the graceful tribute to the dead seems to have been universally observed by the general public as well as by the members of the lodges themselves.

The fact that no half holiday, except in the case of a few business places, was observed yesterday no doubt had its effect on the attendance. In spite of this, a very large crowd spent the afternoon in the beautiful cemetery, which never looked more beautiful than it did yesterday. The rain which came on in the latter part of the afternoon in some measure interfered with the ceremonial, as it had the effect of causing some of the addresses to be given up. Fortunately, however, the early part of the afternoon was fine, and the Oddfellows were able to finish the decorating of the graves before the rain came.

Shortly after 3 o'clock the members of Peterborough and Otonabee Lodges assembled at Central Park, and, headed by a detachment of the 57th Regiment Band, marched to the cemetery, whither many citizens had preceded them. The parade was marshalled by Col. Miller, P.D.D.G.M. The band played "Onward, Christian Soldiers" as a march, and on reaching the cemetery gates, "Adeste Fideles" was played while the Oddfellows entered. Outside the chapel, prayer was rendered by Rev. J. G. Potter, and the members sang "Nearer, My God to Thee," after which they were divided into four sections and proceeded to make a tour of the cemetery, placing beautiful bouquets on the graves of departed members.

This ceremony was hardly concluded when the rain began to fall, which necessarily curtailed address which were to have been given by several local clergymen. A platform had been erected for the occasion in the lower part of the cemetery.

The chair was occupied by Bro. M. W. Matchett, P. G. of Peterborough Lodge, who, in a few remarks, expressed his gratification at seeing so many people present. The speaker made a reference to the custom followed by the Oddfellows in showing reverence for the dead.

Rev. J. G. Potter, of St. Andrew's, was then called upon to give an address. He remarked that there were several lessons that might be learned from a flower. A botanist working at a flower would be able to tell all about it in scientific terms. A philanthropist would see it as a thing full of beauty, while a child would look upon it as a plaything. Christ had said, "Consider the Flies, how they grow, they toil not, neither do they spin." People couldn't come to the cemetery without feeling that while they were keeping in memory the dead, that they should believe in Jesus Christ. One should look on a flower as an evidence of God's providence, goodness and care. People should, like the flower, keep in touch with God's influences.

Some looked upon life as a bee on the flower to extract all the sweetness and luxury from it. The flower received nourishment from two great sources, said the speaker, referring to air and soil, from which it derives nourishment by means of its leaves and roots. People, should, like the flower, make use of the influences around them.

Rev. Dr. Crothers was called upon, but, after expressing his pleasure at being present, he stated that he would not detain the crowd any longer in view of the disagreeable weather. The gathering then dispersed and the ceremonial of one more Decoration Day passed into history.

IMPORTANT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY

A Clinical Preparation That Positively Kills the Dandruff Germ.

A most important discovery has been made after a year's patient laboratory work aimed in a certain direction—It is Newbro's Herpicide, a —preparation that prevents falling hair, and speedily and permanently eradicates dandruff. These evils are caused by a germ or parasite that burrows into the scalp, throwing up dandruff, as it seeks to sap the life of the hair at the root. There's no baldness without falling or thin hair, no thin hair without dandruff, and no dandruff if the germ is destroyed. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that will do the work. "Destroy the cause, you will remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Ormond & Walsh, special agents.

A TWICE-TRICKED WOLF

Can a wolf be tricked twice? The occasional trapping of a tailless wolf would lead to the conclusion that it can. In human beings, however, reason does what instinct can not do, and a man or woman who once pays good money for something which proves to be unworthy does not repeat the transaction. Bilcans for Biliousness are so widely used because once tried their superiority is appreciated. People who have once used them prefer them to any other household remedy.

Hence it comes about that now Bilcans are obtainable in Canada, letters like the following are every day being received at the Canadian headquarters: "I am pleased to find that I can procure your splendid remedy here. Having used Bilcans, both in England and in Canada I can speak with perfect confidence of them. Bilcans are an excellent remedy for all stomach troubles and I shall be pleased to recommend them to friends who need a household medicine. Yours, Mr. Stanley Richardson, Main street, Galt."

"I first tried your remedy four years ago in England. My ailments were indigestion and headaches, and I found Bilcans really excellent. Whenever I feel at all out of sorts I take a few Bilcans, and they soon put me right. (Signed,) J. Cox, Toronto."

Letters like the foregoing all tend to support the claims made for this great vegetable remedy. In Bilcans you have a purely natural remedy, free from alcohol, free from mineral poisons, free from the danger of setting up the pill-taking habit, and a medicine which has now been tried and proved superior by all classes of people in practically every civilized country in the world. For liver complaint, headache, biliousness, indigestion constipation, piles, wind, female disorders, debility, anemia, fagged, tired feeling, and for all ailments arising out of defective bile flow assimilation and digestion, Bilcans are unequalled. They are obtainable from all druggists at fifty cents a box, or direct from the Bilcans Co., Colborne street, Toronto, upon receipt of price. Sample and booklet will be sent you if you make written application and send your name and address with a one cent stamp to pay return postage.

Ontario Bank's Splendid Year

Annual Report Indicates a Satisfactory State of Affairs.

There is some local interest in the annual report of the Ontario Bank, published in to-day's issue. Perhaps in no branch of the bank has there been such expansion as in the local branch, two sub agencies having been established by the local manavor during the year, one on Rubidge street, corner of Townsend, and one in Warsaw. The report refers to these new branches. The report also shows a satisfactory increase in business, and an addition to the rest account of $50,000, which now stands at $700,000. The deposits have increased $634,040.25 since the last annual meeting, and now stand at $10,383,701.53 bearing interest, and $1,899,665.58 not bearing interest. The net profits for the year were $156,915.83, and there was a balance of profits carried forward of $66,801.62.

The sum of $5,000 was granted to the Officers' Pension Fund of the Ontario Bank.

The following resolution was moved and carried: That the thanks of the shareholders are due and are hereby tendered to the President, Vice-President, Directors, General Manager, and officers of the bank for the satisfactory manner in which they have discharged their respective duties during the past year.

Messrs. Geo. R. R. Cockburn, Donald Mackay, R. D. Perry, Hon. R. Harcourt, R. Grass, T. Walmsley and John Flett were elected directors. The new Board met, when Mr. Geo. R. R. Cockburn was elected President, and Mr. Donald Mackay Vice-President.

The prosperity of this bank is easily accounted for if all the local managers so closely associate the interests of the bank with the interests and convenience of the public as does the local manager, Mr. Crane.

Guild Excursion Was a Success

Splendid Crowd Took in Trip Around the Lakes.

St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild Excursion is always a success. This guild was the pioneer in this venture, and since the excursions around Stony Lake were inaugurated, those under the auspices of St. Andrew's have always been largely attended.

This morning the Lakefield train carried about 250 who were taking in the guild excursion, the largest crowd to go to Stony Lake on any excursion this year.

For once, the weather man was good and the sun was in evidence bright and early, promising a delightful day for the outing. At Lakefield the steamer Stoney Lake was boarded, and the trip around the lakes began. A good programme had been arranged for the day, and there was no doubt as to its success.

Recommends County System Of Roads

Mr. Wm. Anderson Advises The County Council to Take Advantage of Government Grant—Latter Bears One-third of Cost of County Roads—Reeve of Ennismore Applies for Grant for Roads.

The construction of a system of county roads, occupied the attention of the County Council at its brief session yesterday afternoon, when Mr. William Anderson, M.P.P., addressed the council, advising that body to take advantage of the offer of the Government to pay one-third of the cost of repairs to county roads, after a county system has been established.

The councillors took a deep interest in the matter, and it was decided to refer it to the Commitee on Roads and Bridges, where it will be further discussed.

The Reeve of Ennismore addressed the Council asking for a grant from the County Council. He felt that if any townships were given grants this year Ennismore should not be overlooked. There were two leading roads through the township, and considerable work would have to to be done on these roads.

Councillor Moloney explained that last year a conditional grant of $50 was made to the township, but the conditions were not met, and the request of the reeve was that the conditions on which this grant was made should be removed, in order that the money might be available for use.

County Roads

Mr. William Anderson, M.P.P., came before the council in reference to the establishment of county roads. He explained that a number of other counties had taken this matter up, and he had been told by the Deputy Minister of Agriculture that the county of Simcoe had drawn $100,000 from the Government towards the work of improving the roads in that county. Mr. Anderson explained the system adopted by the Government by which the county could secure the money from the Government. He stated his opinion that if this system had been adopted this year the the county could have secured from the Government about $4000 to help in the construction of the new bridges to be erected this year. He felt that the county would derive considerable benefit from the adoption of the system of county bridges.

On motion of Mr. Shaw, seconded by Mr. Garbutt, the question was referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.

COUNTY COUNCIL INVITED TO THE DOURO PICNIC

At the session of the County Council yesterday afternoon a letter was read from Rev. Father Keilty, of Douro, extending an invitation to the members of the council to attend the picnic held in that parish this afternoon. The council were very grateful for the invitation, and a resolution was passed thanking the reverend father for it, and expressing regret that business of a public character would prevent them attending the picnic.

Another assertion by Mr. White causes the mystery to further thicken. "There is a third party implicated," but he declined to say more.

THE OPPOSITION STRONGER

That Will Be Good For Both Parties—Liberals Carried Thirty-Three Out of the Thirty-Eight Seats — Conservatives Have Elected Five Members, But Two of Them Have Very Small Majorities.

Halifax, June 21.—Nova Scotia is still a bunch of grapes that hangs too high for the Conservative party. The Liberals have carried thirty-three of the thirty-eight seats in the House of Assembly by substantial majorities. The Consevatives have elected five members, but in two cases the vote is so close that these seats may still be classed as doubtful. The Government elected a supporter in every country in the Province, and, although the Opposition have apparently gained three seats, the verdict is hailed with the greatest satisfaction by the Liberal party. Every member of the Government holding a portfolio has been elected.

Rekindles Life In the Nerve Cells

AND BY INCREASING NERVE FORCE RESTORES VITALITY TO EVERY ORGAN OF THE BODY.

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Suicide, insanity, falling sickness, paralysis: These are some of the results of worn out nerves. No one would neglect a disease so dreadful in its results as nervous exhaustion, if the danger were only realized with the first symptoms.

The time to begin the restoration of the nerves by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is when you find yourself unable to sleep, suffering from headache or neuralgic pains, indigestion or weak heart action.

Loss of flesh and weight, growing weakness and debility, a tendency to neglect the duty of the day, gloomy forebodings for the future, are other indications of depleted nerves.

You cannot liken Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to any medicine you have ever used. It is a nerve vitalizer and tissue builder of exceptional power.

Naturally and gradually it rekindles life in the nerve cells and forms new red corpuscles in the blood — the only way to thoroughly cure nervous disorders.

Mrs. Barbara Bush, Dixon, Stormont County, Ontario, writes: "I suffered a great deal from dizziness in the head and numbness of the whole system, more especially the arms and hands, feet and legs. When I tried to walk my legs seemed to want to cross each other and I would be afraid of falling and grasp for a chair or table. I also had nervous feelings at times and suffered from a gnawing sensation in my stomach.

"I am pleased to say that I have derived a great deal of benefit from using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It has built up my nervous system and removed the miserable feelings from which I suffered. I am very grateful that I ever heard of this great medicine for it has done wonders for me. As I am seventy-three years of age my system was run down and this treatment seemed to be exactly what I needed I hope others will benefit by my experience."

MASSACRE AT BIALISTOK

Hapless Jews Hunted Down and Torn to Pieces — Police and Troops Urge on the Mob—Revolting Evidence of Savage Bestiality on the Part of Blood-Drunken Mobs — Awful Story Told by the A. P.

Gredno, Western Russia, June 21.—Owing to the refusal of the censor at Bialistok to permit the free telegraphing of the result of the investigation of the massacre of Jews there, the correspondent of the Associated Press came here. The anti-Jewish rioting at Bialistok is now ended. The troops are in full control, and in view of the outcry raised it is certain that the authorities will not permit a renewal of the horrors recently witnessed at Bialistok.

This entire region is greatly excited owing to fear that the Bialistok massacre was only the signal for a general attack on the Jews throughout the pale and in Poland, but if any such conspiracy existed it is too late to carry out the plans, as the most imperative orders to prevent further outbreaks have been issued to the governors and governor-generals from St. Petersburg.

Awful Savagery.

When the correspondent arrived at Bialistok Sunday morning the worst was already over, but on all sides there was revolting evidence of savage bestiality on the part of the blood-drunken mobs, which sacked and burned the Jewish houses, shops and stores. For seventy-two hours, with a slight abatement during the daytime, the mad orgie of blood and pillage went on unchecked. The inhumanity displayed would have done credit to the mongrel hordes of Genghis Khan in his conquests of China and Central Asia early in the thirteenth century. At first police and troops urged on the mob, but finally, when dismayed by the bloody deeds accomplished, they reluctantly sought to obey the orders of their superiors to put an end to the work of the rapacious bands of roughs, who were so far beyond control of the local forces that regiment after regiment had to be thrown into the city before order could be restored.

Like Wild Beasts.

During the rioting the Jews were hunted down by ferocious pursuers, who in the majority of cases were not content with killing more victims, but tore them to pieces like wild animals. And while this was in progress the troops either stood idly by or, as was more frequently the case, fired into the houses and shops where Jews were concealed, under the pretext that they believed them to be revolutionists, but really in order to make way for the murderers and plunderers who followed in the soldiers' wake.

While it is impossible to give the exact figures, the visits of the correspondent to the hospitals and cemeteries enable him to approximate the killed at one hundred Jews and twenty Christians and the wounded at one hundred and fifty Jews and seven Christians.

Origin of Massacre.

The question of the origin of the massacre was carefully investigated.

Although many of the Jews denied that a bomb was thrown at the Orthodox procession Thursday, in honor of Corpus Christi day, that a bomb was thrown the fact is established beyond a doubt. But the question of who threw the bomb remains unsettled.

The accounts of impartial witnesses, however, demonstrate that an insulting cry enraged the Jews, who attacked the religious procession. Then from one end of the city to the other the police spread the report of the attack, thus fanning the religious fanaticism of the Christians and setting loose the worse elements upon the Jews, on whom the crowds watching the procession had already turned.

Government Knew of It.

As proof of the charge that the massacre was prepared in advance, the Jews claim that the keepers of the Government wine shops received notice the day before the outbreak to remove their cash from the shops to safer places.

Soldiers Laughed.

The Jews at first fought with revolvers and bombs, and with these weapons the majority of the Christian victims were killed. But the Jews were soon overwhelmed and fled for shelter into cellars or attics. The soldiers watched this chase and butchery, sometimes laughing with indifference, but never failing to fire into houses where Jews, sometimes to the number of a hundred, were making a stand against their assailants.

A member of the Parliamentary Commission investigation says it has failed to find evidence that the massacre was planned at St. Petersburg, nor that the chief of police of Bialistok was a party, but the responsibility of his subordinates is proved. The thrower of the bomb is not yet discovered.

Rev. and Dear Sir,—I was requested by the members of Sherwood Forest Camp, Woodmen of the World, after returning to the hall on Sunday evening last, to express our deepest appreciation for the appropriate sermon which you preached to us at our annual church service.

The members that were present wish me to express their sense of sincere gratitude to you.

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 21.—Under the influence of higher London prices caused by the reduction in the Bank of England discount rate to 3 1-2 per cent. the market to-day at the opening showed advances all round. Heavy selling of U.S. steel on bad trade reports started a bad break in the early trading. The market gave way in all directions, the slump becoming general and with little or no support in evidence. Traders were very bearish and hammered the market without let-up catching numerous stop orders, accelerating the decline.

The afternoon market continued weak with little feature. A rally about 2 o'clock carried prices back about half way, but it did not hold, and prices sagged again. The close was heavy near the low. C. P. R. showed more strength to-day than for some time, advancing to 162 5-8 early, reaching to 160 1-2 and rallying near the close to 161 5-8, showing an advance of 5-8 for the day.

Had a Bad Leg.

"For twelve years I was a great sufferer with eczema on the inside of the leg. There was a raw patch of flesh about three inches square, and the itching was terrible. Dr. Chase's Ointment completely cured me, took away the itching and healed up the sore."—Mr. Alex. McDougall, Postmaster, Broad Cove, Marsh, N.S.

COUNTY RATE LIKELY TO BE SAME AS 1905

In spite of the unusually heavy expenditure in connection with the affairs of the county this year, it is expected that the county rate will be the same as that of last year, 2 4-5 mills. The clerk has prepared a statement of estimated receipts and expenditures for the year, and this will be submitted to the committee on finance. It may be changed somewhat, but it is not expected that any material changes will be effected. Taking the receipts and expenditures as estimated, the clerk figures that there will be a balance of $500 to meet emergencies.

Quakers Are Champions
---IN THE JUNIOR SERIES---
Of The Midland League

An Unbroken Chain of Victories—Lakehurst Beaten Yesterday by 3 to 1—Are Wearing the Smile That Won't Come Off—Game Was Played in Shower of Rain—Their Record.

Champions—is the word to designate the Peterborough Quaker Junior Football team. They returned home this morning from an extended trip to Lakehurst in the back country where they trimmed the Lakehurst eleven by three goals to one and thereby adding the eighth successive victory to their string and incidentally landing the championship of the junior series of the Midland League.

Not since the days the Y.M.C.A. won the intermediate honours has an association football championship come to Peterborough. The Quakers, too, have a record which has probably no parallel in the province. They have the brilliant record of having scored 70 goals, during the season to their opponents' 3. No team has yet succeeded in scoring more than one against them in a single match.

It was not the support of the public of the city, that was responsible for any honour they may have achieved, it was nothing but the hard and combined work of the team in getting out to practise when called upon and assisting the executive in all possible ways with their arduous tasks, and verily they have their reward!

As the Quakers were in the centre of four districts they have had the bulk of the games to play. They have been in eight matches while no other team has played more than three. However, although the journeys told heavily against the monetary situation of the club, these games which, of course, all ended in Quaker victories, have served to whet a deeper interest in football and also to give the boys the best of practise.

The first team the boys in red and white tackled was the Norwoodites. These gave them one of the hardest runs they ever had and they emerged the victors on the round by only four goals to one—the lowest of the scores. Norwood was an easy mark by 5 to 0 and with more favourable grounds at the Rice Lake resort the score would have been up a couple of notches farther. Omemee succumed to the Quakers attack on the round by 5 to 1, but Lakehurst proved the easiest of them all—8 goals to 1.

The Quakers played good football from the start of the season. They were picked by many—even non-supporters of the team as the winners of the Midland district and those who staked the long green on them were certainly not the losers.

The team has a record of which they may well feel proud; and it was this honour that kept their spirits together in passing over the rocky roads from Lakehurst to the city last night and during the early morning.

The Quakers left the city yesterday afternoon about 1.30 and after the weary some drive of 25 miles landed in Lakehurst about six o'clock amid a downpour of rain. This did not dampen their championship aspirations and in fifteen minutes were in uniform for the game. Although drenched through their jerseys they scored a goal in the first 10 minutes play and with the best of the game up to that time their spirits rose with the expectations of the silverware. This ended the scoring in the first half although Cundal was repeatedly called upon to save his team from a bigger lead.

In the second half the Lakehurst boys evened up after a pretty rush up the field by the whole forward line. J. Coons doing the trick. It was but a brief space of time that intervened before the visitors notched their second counter. Coons deliberately fouled in goal and Boycott took the penalty. He kicked to Crough who had a cinch and the Quakers again led by one goal. A few minutes after a neat rush by the leaders Coones kicked over his head to Cundal, but the latter couldn't embrace the greasy leather; Armstrong was right on the job and the ball went through for the third time and the scoring ended here.

The visitors played their customary brilliant game every man being aware of the responsibility placed upon him. Thomas stood between the stakes for the first time and played the position well. The water-soaked ball was difficult to grasp but he stopped all but one. Doris' and Evans' long punts were much admired by even the Lakehurst rooters.

The half backs Best, Archibald and Deforge who again had the biggest end of the defence work to do, displayed themselves creditably, their accurate shooting on goal being very annoying to the home team's defence. Crough and Baker both did excellent work on the right wing. Armstrong and Boycott on the left played the same old reliable and always got away from their checks. For the home team the stars were Cundal, Jacobs and Coones.

Wm. Milburn, of Peterborough, refereed satisfactorily for everybody and his decisions were undisputed.

The journey home was a very enjoyable one for the boys. They arrived in the city shortly after four this morning with the smile that won't come off.

The line-up of the teams in the game yesterday was as follows:—

Lakehurst.		Quakers.

GOOD WORK OF BOY CRICKETTERS

The boys of Trinity College School are dabs at cricket, as well as classics. They tied the Royal Military College team of adults, in a drawn game. Three Peterborough boys contributed to the result. Gordon Campbell clean bowled three of the sojers, and Allan put up a score of 8, while Eardly-Wilmott also added his tally to the total of runs. The boys' deadly bowling accounted for only five men making the total score, all others making ducks

First Year's Triumph Of Conservatory Of Music

Eminently Successful Closing Exercises—Well Presented Programme Testifies at Once to Proficiency of Pupils and Efficiency of Instruction—Almost Every Department of Music Represented.

At the Grand Opera House last night what was modestly termed the "Closing Exercises," of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, for for the season of 1905-6, were given with out-standing success—both as an exposition of the splendid result of the first year's work of this institution and as an entertainment furnishing the enjoyment represented by the presentation of an excellent musical programme. Mr. Gliddon the promotor and director as well as the faculty, the pupils, their parents and friends and the city and district of Peterborough are to be congratulated upon having a nursery of music, which in the short space of one year can show so splendid a record as that made last night. The programme presented showed that, for successful and satisfactory instruction in all departments of music and allied forms of culture a student of Peterborough or the surrounding district need not go further than the Peterborough Conservatory to acquire it.

The programme last night covered every ordinary form of musical performance, and the proficiency shown by the pupils was a practical demonstration of the skill of the several members of the faculty as well as of the fact that in Peterborough there is abundance of musical talent well worth the development which it can, and does, receive at the Conservatory, as was shown last night. Although only in existence one calendar year, the Conservatory has attracted a large number of pupils—some three hundred, from the city and surrounding country, villages and towns, and after the entertainment last night which so admirably demonstrated the first-rate capabilities of the institution for the successful study of music in all its branches, there is no doubt that next and succeeding years will be even more successful.

Though the weather was atrociously unfavourable, rain falling heavily between seven and eight o'clock, yet the Opera House was crowded in every part with not only the parents and friends of the pupils performing but with the musical culture and patronage of the city.

When the curtain rose it disclosed a stage with the Conservatory orchestra in position, backed by the chorus of one or two hundred children placed on rising tiers of seats, making a pretty, pretty picture.

MR. RUPERT GLIDDON,
Musical Director Peterborough Conservatory of Music.

It is not practicable to deal in detail with the several numbers, except as associated with the teachers. The first number was the overture to "Martha," performed very creditably by the Conservatory Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Gliddon, as were also selections from the Bohemian Girl in opening the second part of the programme. This tuneful opera of Balfe received excellent treatment by the orchestra though the strings were composed chiefly of young girls. Both these selections were artistically performed with the careful attention to shading, expression and crescendi which mark Mr. Gliddon's work.

The first number by the pupils was the English madrigal, "You Stole my Love," sung by the Conservatory Madrigal Club, composed of young ladies and gentlemen. It is much to be regretted that owing to the necessary curtailment of the programme the audience did not have the delight of hearing the Club sing "Now is the time of Maying," sung here by the Westminster Choir party. The madrigal being the highest form of unaccompanied melody and the Club having sung their first number so splendidly there was great disappointment in not hearing them sing a second time. Mr. Gliddon also conducted the chorus of children in the singing in a very finished way of Behrend's "Fairy Tales." A striking eight-hand pianoforte selection was performed by Misses Agnes Hall, Annie Sisson, Beatrice Stark, and Laura Edwards, pupils of Mr. Gliddon, as was Miss Sisson, who appeared in solo, playing Haydn's E Flat Sonata — the Allegro — with good taste and well marked execution. Mr. Van der Water's vocal pupils were represented by Miss Ida Sanderson, who sang with fair voice and emotional expression, Mendelssohn's "Here under the Trees. His pupils, Miss Daisy and Mr. Hague Sawers, sang with him Randegger's beautiful trio, "The Mariners," with splendid effect, each taking incidental solos in a manner to demonstrate the value of the instruction received. Mr. Field's pupils were represented by Miss Campbell, who performed, with facile execution and finish, a double number, Valse in A, Schubert-Liszt and McDowell's dance of the Fairies. Miss Pollock, a pupil of which the Canadian master may well be proud, played with artistic finish, virile tone, crisp touch, Mendelssohn's "Song without Words," in E, and Raff's Rigadoon. Miss Heath, elocutionist, received justice at the hands of Misses Leary, Pringle, Blewett, Tetterson and Oliver, who gave a very spirited presentation of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," and by Miss McCabe, who read with much feeling and finish "The Pastor of Saville." Mr. Wilhelmj's vocal pupils were conspicuously excellent. Mr. R. Norman Jolliffe's singing of Schubert's "Erl King," was marked by strong dramatic expression, fine phrasing, and generally good form. Miss Kate Miller of Toronto, another advanced pupil, sang the Santuzza Romance from Cavalleria Rusticana, and the valse from Gounod's Romeo and Juliet, in a voice of bright flexibility and coloratura quality, especially in the higher register. Miss Bretz, another advanced Toronto pupil, scored a triumph under adverse auditory conditions, by her full, rich voiced singing of a double number, Wilhelmj's "I Love Thee," and Bruhn's "Tis May." The duet sung by her and Miss Millar — Brahm's "Gypsies," was a gem. The pianoforte pupils of Miss Roger also reflected credit on her teaching. Miss Grace Taft, of Tweed, a young girl, in her performance of a Beethoven Sonata Adagio and Bendel's "Spinning Song," showed promising cleverness. Miss Aylmer gave with fine touch and good taste and execution Charminade's "Autumn," and Miss Gladys Seward played with the sangfroid and artistic execution of her late father, one of the best musicians ever resident in Peterborough, Thome's Papillons, Roses. She and Miss Grace Taft gave a fine performance of the duo, Charminade's "Le Matin." Miss Green, a pupil of Mr. Markle, played a Wieniawski Mazurka, "Kuiwak," with much ease and spirit, and the pupils of Mr. Markle were conspicuous in the orchestra work. Here it may be remarked, that it is to be hoped that the orchestra of last night may be continued, as the services of such an organization are in frequent demand. The Conservatory Mandolin Club, under the leadership of Mr. Mandel, played effectively, Thome's "Simple Aveu." Owing to the lateness of the hour, and the length of the programme, twenty-five numbers, many were omitted.

Altogether, the closing exercises of the Conservatory of Music, were a great success, especially as demonstrating the splendid facilities the Conservatory presents for the acquirement of a musical knowledge of the highest character. A capable faculty, embracing some of the best teachers on the continent, is available for ambitious musicians, at a moderate expense. Mr. Gliddon, director, the staff, and the pupils, are to be heartily congratulated upon the important contribution they are making to the promotion of musical culture and musical interest, of Peterborough, and district. It is not unreasonable to hope that at the next June closing exercises the record will be still better than that established last night.

Mr. Charles E. Milner, who has recently been added to the Conservatory faculty, in the organ and piano department, played all the vocal accompaniments last night, and acquitted himself in a most perfect manner, giving the best of satisfaction to both performers and hearers. Herr Wilhelmj paid Mr. Milner, a compliment, to be highly valued, coming from so high an authority. He said that he had never seen, either in Germany, or in this country, an accompanist so capable and satisfactory in every way as Mr. Milner.

Mr. Donald McIntosh Found Dead In Bed

Prominent and Respected Resident of Warsaw Dies Suddenly—Was for Twelve Years Stage Driver—Was Well Known in This City—The Particulars.

Examiner Special.

Warsaw, June 22.—The people of this quiet little town were greatly surprised and pained to-day to learn that one of the best known and highly respected residents of Warsaw had passed away suddenly during the night. Mr. Donald McIntosh had lived in this town practically all his life, and while he had been feeling slightly indisposed for some time past, neither he nor his friends dreamed that there was anything serious. He was around in his usual health yesterday working for Mr. A. E. Choate, and retired last night at the usual time, but was found dead in bed this morning by Mrs. McIntosh. He must have passed away quietly during the night, as his wife did not know that anything was the matter until this morning.

Deceased was 60 years of age, and for 12 years was stage driver between Peterborough and Warsaw, and was most obliging. He was highly esteemed by everyone who had any dealings with him. He was an elder in the Warsaw Presbyterian church and a prominent member of that denomination. Since 1896 he has not driven the stage, but has been engaged in teaming to Warsaw.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and one son, John, of Bromley, Sask., and one daughter, Miss Pearl, who lives in Peterborough. His brothers are Donald, of Palatka, Fla.; George, Brandon, Man.; Angus, Orillia; Albert, Fenelon Falls; William, Kirkfield; and the sisters, Mrs. W. Ulrick, Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. George Pough, Bobbington, Ont., and Mrs. John Doughty, of Peterborough. The funeral will take place on Sunday, and will be from the Presbyterian church, where service will be conducted by Rev. W. L. Atkinson. The interment will take place at St. Mark's cemetery.

1,000,000 Brick For The Canadian General

Curtis Brothers Said to Have Received Order for That Number From the C. G. E.--Means Probably That Extension of Works Will be Proceeded With at Once.

A statement was made to-day to the effect that the Canadian General Electric Company had placed an order with Messrs. Curtis Bros., brick makers, for one million brick. It was impossible to verify this statement at the office of Curtis Bros., Mr. Charles Curtis being out of reach of communication, and at the office of the Canadian General Electric Co. nothing could be learned, the information there being that the only place in the city where definite verification of the report could be obtained would be at the office of Curtis Bros.

There seems, however, no reason to doubt its truth, and if it is true, as is quite probable, it means undoubtedly that the extension of the company's works will be proceeded with at once.

Locomotive Hurled Timber At A Girl

Young Daughter of Norwood Station Agent Had Narrow Escape—Struck in Head by Timber Thrown by Passing Train.

A Norwood despatch says:—Last Friday morning, May, the six year old daughter of Mr. G. H. Niebel, C.P.R. agent met with an accident which might have proved very serious. It seems that the men who were building the addition to the platform at the station had left a large post lying across the main line. The little girl was on her way to school when a west bound freight train came thundering along and the locomotive caught the post and threw it up over the platform, striking her in the face and knocking her down. The wonder is the child was not killed as the post was about ten feet long and at least ten inches in diameter. Fortunately, however, she was not seriously injured, though her face swelled up so that she could hardly see out of her eyes and she will bear the mark for some days to come.

Edward Conroy Had An Exciting Encounter

Fought With a Wildcat in Middle of Ottawa River—Attacked by the Animal—Edward Conroy Attempted to Prevent Wildcat Landing and Animal Showed Fight in Middle of Stream.

A special staff despatch to the Ottawa Free Press dated from Bryson, where Mr. Ed. Conroy, of this city, has a contract for the construction of a bridge across the Ottawa River, tells of an exciting experience which he had recently. It says:—

Within view of many villagers, Edward Conroy, contractor for the improvements to the bridge across the Ottawa River here, had a lively encounter with a huge and ferocious wild cat in the middle of the river, a little above the village, last evening shortly before six o'clock.

Mr. Conroy saw the wild-cat enter the water and start to swim across. He despatched a couple of his men to the opposite shore, where the wild-cat would likely land, with instructions to prevent it doing so. In the meantime Mr. Conroy jumped into a canoe and paddled out in the river, where he calculated the current would carry the wild-cat on it being prevented from landing. When within a hundred yards or so of the canoe the cat swam violently away from it, but Mr. Conroy, being a paddler of no ordinary powers, gave chase. On getting within fifteen or twenty feet from the animal, the latter commenced to show fight and at once made for the canoe.

After an exciting tussle Mr. Conroy managed to kill the animal and towed it into shore. The dead cat was brought to the city this morning and given to Mr. Henry, of Bank street, to be dressed.

MR. HEATHCOTE TO INSPECT THE WIRING

The inspection of the city's system of electric wiring will likely be taken up in the near future. At the Board of Works meeting last night the chairman was given authority to arrange with Mr. W. C. P. Heathcote, who has agreed to co-operate in the inspection with Mr. Aikins, of Toronto. The chairman reported that he had been discussing the matter with Mr. Heathcote, who had agreed to undertake the work with such help as he could obtain here, after he had spent a few days with Mr. Aikins, and this seemed to the Board of Works, to be the only practicable plan. The chairman was of the opinion that it would be desirable to have some independent man in the city with a knowledge of the electric wiring system employed here, for emergencies in the future.

BIG ORDER COMES FROM WINNIPEG

This morning the Peterborough Cereal Company received an order from Winnipeg, where they have recently opened an office, for a carload of "Canada Flakes," about 650 cases, or 18 tons.

At the present time the company has on order 2000 cases of this popular food.

The Steamer Majestic Grazed The Lightship

Peterboro' People Were Among Passengers on the Liner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stratton, who sailed on the Majestic from New York, narrowly escaped an accident, the story of which is told in the following despatch:

London, June 21.—The White Star Line steamer Majestic narrowly escaped running down the lightship off Conningbee, on the Wexford coast, last night, when en route from Queenstown to Liverpool. The Majestic was steaming at half speed through a thick fog, when the lightship suddenly appeared immediately under her bows. The lightship was so close that the immediate porting of the steamer's helm alone prevented a collision. As it was, she grazed the lightship. A megaphone message from the latter vessel stated that she was not injured. The Majestic's passengers thereupon gave a hearty cheer. Capt. Hayes had instantly ordered boats manned to pick up the crew of the lightship if necessary.

Franklin Man Drank Liniment; Result, He Died

A Suicide at Franklin—Jacob Sisson the Victim.

The Millbrook Reporter says:—The community was stirred from the even tenor of its ways on Friday last by the death of Jacob Sisson, of Franklin, from the taking of an overdose of liniment, intended only for external use. He had been working in the country and came here on Sunday, staying at Mr. R. Shaw's, and treating with Dr. Snelgrove for rheumatism. He started drinking. He got a bottle of liniment, made up largely of wood alcohol, from a man and a woman who were selling it in town, and although it was labeled "For external use only," he took a big drink of it in spite of a warning from those around him. This was on Thursday, and Dr. Snelgrove was sent for, but although every effort was made to save his life by both Drs. Snelgrove and Russell, he died on Friday.

An Outing On The Otonabee

The "Mollie" Takes the George Street Choir For a Pleasant Sail.

Mr. J. J. McBain, who for a number of years has been accustomed to taking the choir of George street Methodist church up to Stony Lake for an outing, took them down the Otonabee yesterday evening instead, on his yacht, the Mollie. The boat left about 7.30 and returned home about 9 o'clock, after a very pleasant outing four or five miles down the river.

Miss Halliday Enjoyed Trip

Peterborough Lady Who Has Visited Europe Returning Home.

Relatives of Miss Amy Halliday, B.A., who for the past few months has been visiting in the British Isles, and the Continent, have received a letter from her, describing her delightful trip to the old land. Miss Halliday has been with Mr. R. M. Dennistoun's party, and has seen the sights of the Canterbury capital, and other famous cities.

A few days before writing, this young lady, while visiting Westminster Abbey, had her thoughts suddenly taken from the sights of that venerable edifice to friends at home. It seems that, without looking for such a link to acquaintances in Peterborough, she while looking through the south cloister of the Abbey, suddenly found herself standing beside the tomb of Muzio Clementi, the great composer, and who, as described on the stone covering his remains, was entitled "The father of the piano-forte." As is known to some of our readers, descendants of this celebrated musician now reside in Peterborough.

Miss Halliday will sail for home on the new C. P. R. steamer "Empress of Ireland," on her initial trip, leaving on June 29th.

KENNEDY'S

Annual Douro Picnic Favoured By Fine Weather Was Gratifying Success

Rev. Father Keilty's Parishioners Spent a Very Pleasant Day at the King Edward Grove—Attendance Was Very Large and the Popular Priest Should Congratulate Himself on His Picnic.

Favoured by beautiful June weather, Father Keilty's picnic in connection with St. Joseph's church, Douro, yesterday, if anything, surpassed the high standard of success established by the event in past years. The clerk of the weather has evidently a kindly feeling towards the people of Douro. For the past two weeks almost every day has seen a down-pour of rain which would have had a disastrous effect on any outdoor event. Yesterday, however, the weather was perfect. Bright sun and blue skies greeted the picnic, with a cool breeze that served to temper the heat of the sun and make the affair most agreeable from all points of view. The attendance under these circumstances was very large, in fact a bigger crowd never gathered on the picnic grounds than was present yesterday to participate in the festivities of the day.

The beautiful King Edward Grove was, as usual, the scene of the picnic. A more suitable spot could scarcely be found for such a purpose. The crowd gathered neath the foliage of the grove where the sun's rays were powerless to penetrate. Booths, platform and dining apartments had been erected for the occasion among the trees, and all were well patronized throughout the picnic. Early in the day the people began to come from all sides, and soon the road in the vicinity and part of the grove itself were lined with the horses and vehicles of the holiday makers. Visitors were present from Warsaw, Young's Point, Lakefield and Downeyville, as well as a large representation from Peterborough. The Douro picnic is an event that is looked forward to by many people of this city, and this was evidenced by the number that were present yesterday. All apparently enjoyed themselves. How they could do otherwise would be hard to understand in view of the boundless hospitality of Father Keilty and his parishioners, and their energetic efforts to see that the people present were pleasantly entertained. Rev. Father Phelan, Young's Point, was in attendance.

Dancing Was Popular.

One of the chief features of the day was the dancing platform, which was crowded throughout. A country picnic without dancing would be regarded as a distinct failure, and this sentiment is evidently shared by the people of Douro. The pastime was kept up all day, and until the picnic came to an end the grove resounded with the music of violins and with the various sounds evoked by the lively country dances. This feature of the programme was one that appealed strongly to the young people, but the oldest evidently found the spectacle entertaining judging from the crowd that constantly surrounded the platform. Splendid music was rendered by an orchestra composed of Messrs. Michael Sullivan and Patrick Doherty, violins, and Misses Lizzie Sullivan and Regina Doherty, organs.

The Dining Department.

The ladies of Douro parish are famous alike for their hospitality and their splendid meals, which are always a feature of the annual picnic. Yesterday the appetizing repast provided was made the subject of many congratulatory remarks from the visitors on the grounds. The long tables bore an array of good things that looked sufficient to provision an army, and the guests were made to feel at home at once through the kindly services of the ladies who made this department of the picnic the great success which it was. The open-air dining-room, as it may be called, was well patronized at dinner time, and even more people had supper there. The ladies who did so much in perfecting and carrying out the arrangements were Mesdames John Allan, Jas. McCiggott, T. Galvin, Ed. Allan, Wm. O'Brien, Wm. Barrie, P. Leahey, John P. Leahey, and Wm. Moher.

Two booths occupied a prominent position in the grove and did a land office business in the way of fruit and ice cream. One of these was in charge of P. G. Towns, assisted by Jas. McCiggott, and the other conducted by Jas. Barrie and G. Whibs.

The Adresses.

Towards the close of the afternoon several addresses were given which were eagerly heard and warmly applauded by the large crowd that gathered around the platform. Mr. Wm. Rudkins occupied the chair in his usual affable and effective manner, and seated on the platform were Rev. Father Keilty, Rev. Father McColl, Hon. J. R. Stratton and Mr. K. Eardley-Wilmot.

Mr. Rudkins, in his opening address, expressed the pleasure he felt at meeting the people of Douro at their annual picnic and to find them looking so well and prosperous. He then called upon Rev. Father McColl to address the gathering.

Rev. Father McColl.

The reverend gentleman stated that he had been accustomed to visit picnics ever since he had been living in the neighbourhood. He was glad to see that progress was being made. People like to see the country prosperous, and they also liked to see their own immediate neighbourhood going ahead. Father Keilty would congratulate himself and say that the picnic was progressive. Rev. Father McColl congratulated the people of Douro upon their church, which surpassed, he said, many in large towns. The building was a magnificent one, well accommodated for the work.

Rev. Father Keilty had given a great amount of time and labour, and the church should be a source of pride to everyone in the parish. He was pleased to see that the parish was going ahead, not standing still. New improvements were being made which he was certain would correspond with the beautiful church before which they were being built.

There were times, the speaker said, when it was good to see the people enjoying themselves. When they were prosperous it was only right to give a little to the good God who gave the good times. Reference was made to the necessity of giving willingly. He would not give a straw for a sacrifice that did not cost anything. He advised his hearers to do right in this respect and have the honour of handing down to their children a legacy worthy of their fathers. He closed by again congratulating Father Keilty and the people of the parish on the success of the picnic, and expressed the hope that the prosperity of the future would at least equal that of the past.

Mr. Eardley-Wilmot.

Mr. K. Eardley-Wilmot, manager of the Bank of Montreal, was next introduced, and laughingly remarked that he had not come to make a speech, but had been told that if he did not get up and say something he would be arrested. He added his congratulations to those of the preceding speakers, to Father Keilty and his parishioners. The Bank of Montreal, the speaker said, was interested in the farmer's business, and he had concluded during his drive, after seeing the crops, that the farmers were all right, and therefore the Bank of Montreal was all right.

Mr. Stratton's Speech.

Mr. Stratton said it gave him very much pleasure to be present at the annual Douro picnic. He had attended many, and looked forward to it each year as a farmer looks forward to seedtime and harvest. He was glad to be present for more than one reason. A drive through the country on a day in leafy June, through a beautiful and fruitful township dotted with grain fields was pleasant indeed. He was glad to meet again, as Father McColl had put it, "your venerable parish priest." He did not know that Father Keilty would take it as a compliment to be called venerable; most of us dislike admitting we are old—of course, excepting the ladies, who never grow old. Father Keilty had reached that age that he recently celebrated the jubilee year of his elevation to the priesthood—an honour which comes to but few men. He was glad to see him to-day still able still able for the duties of his office.

He was glad to be there to meet the farmers of Douro and their wives. He admired the farmers of Douro, and as to their wives, he would not say how much he thought of them, for their husbands might not be as friendly as they were, he hoped, to him now. He congratulated the farmers on their promising crops, which some thought they should be grateful for. The farmers of the whole township of Douro, by their industry and skill in agriculture, were doing their share to the production of the great prosperity that is flooding Canada to-day. The farmer is engaged in one of our most prosperous callings. With grass as high as a yearling heifer, with cheese at 11 5-16 cents per lb., why should they not be prosperous? That was the price paid for cheese in the Peterborough market on Wednesday. Just think what that meant to the farmer! He had noticed there were 4,776 boxes, which, at 11 5-16 cents per lb., amounted to the large sum of almost $45,000. Just think of that "big wad" slumping into the pockets of the farmers in the short space of about twenty minutes. Why should not the farmers of Douro and other townships be prosperous? Why should not the farmers of all Canada prosper, when this thing was going on all over the country? He had occasion, during the past few months, to travel from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and he was glad to be able to say that everywhere peace and prosperity seemed to abound. Everywhere there was sufficient employment to keep every man busy, and those who took a keen interest in the prosperity of the country were speaking of the great future before our land. Of course, there were whiners—no doubt there will always be dissatisfied people; there will always be those who cannot see the bright and sunny side of life, those who find no good in anything; but the great majority of the people throughout the length and breadth of the land feel that this is a time when Canadians can speak hopefully and glowingly of their country.

The farmers are growing rich. Mr. Eardley-Wilmot, representing the Bank of Montreal, could tell you, if he would, as all other bank managers could tell you, that nine-tenths of their savings bank accounts were accounts of the farmers. So much was this so that he was almost tempted to turn farmer himself, and he believed he would, were it not for the fact that the newspaper business was such an honest business that he hated to give it up; it was poor, but honest.

He hoped that Canada would continue to have good times, growing better and better every year. The building of the Grand Trunk Pacific was referred to, and the spending of a hundred million dollars to improve the transportation of the country. He drew attention to the five thousand miles of branch railway that was being constructed in the Northwest, costing nearly $20,000 a mile, which meant another hundred millions of dollars put in circulation in Canada. He had heard it stated that there were 500,000 more acres under crop in the West this year than last, making an addition of ten million bushels to the crop. With all these things in view, there was every reason for hoping, with the blessing of Providence, a wave of prosperity would sweep over this happy land for many years, and he hoped that the farmers of Douro, by their industry and skill, would reap their share of this great prosperity.

He congratulated them upon the beautiful day, upon the apparent realization of their expectations, and hoped to have the pleasure of seeing them on some future similar occasion.

Rev. Father Keilty.

Rev. Father Keilty finally addressed the gathering. He expressed his thanks to the speakers and referred to the benefits derived from the picnic by the intercourse of the people. He stated that he had been attending picnics for 27 years and had never got tired of them. The people, he said, couldn't see too much of each other and it was good to be among them and listen to their homely common sense. The people, he said, were nature's noblemen.

Three hearty cheers and a tiger were then given for the King and Rev. Father Keilty and the people of Douro, which brought the programme of addresses to a close.

In the evening an entertainment was given in St. Patrick's Hall by Mr. Jas. Stubbs, of Peterborough. The programme consisted of moving pictures and stereopticon views, which were greatly enjoyed. The audience was a large one, although the little showers of rain earlier in the evening no doubt had its effect on the attendance.

Rev. Father Keilty is to be congratulated upon the success which crowned his efforts to make the affair of yesterday the banner Douro picnic. Praise must also be given to those who assisted in making the picnic a great success.

He wished to thank all who had taken part. It was pleasing to see such large numbers present from distant parishes. He hoped all would enjoy themselves, and as the proceeds were to be devoted to a good purpose, they would all have the satisfaction of knowing that they were helping on a good work.

Give Fair Play to Zutoo

A really reliable remedy for headache —Zutoo.

If you have got it into your head that Zutoo Tablets will hurt you, you are mistaken.

It isn't fair to us for you to judge Zutoo by the drug cures.

It isn't fair to yourself to suffer from headache, when this really harmless vegetable headache cure is within your reach.

The fair thing for both of us is—to judge Zutoo on its merits—to test it.

If you find it does not cure your headache, sick, nervous or otherwise, in twenty minutes, and leave you feeling good every time—no bad after effects, then discard it.

But do not condemn it unfairly without a trial, and keep on suffering from headaches. You really do not have to, and one trial of Zutoo will prove it.

All we ask for Zutoo is fair play—that you give it a trial before concluding as to its merits or demerits.

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life.

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. M. J. Dabbruzz

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth.

When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary J. Dabbrus, of 150 Main Street, Winnipeg, Manitoba, writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a blessing to me through that delicate period known as the change of life. For six years it disturbed my entire system. I had hot flushes, was extremely nervous, became pale and debilitated, very irregular in the monthly flow, and the blood all seemed to be in my head. I had frequent palpitation and throbbing of the heart; in fact, my whole system seemed to be in disorder.

"I received no relief from the suffering incident to this period until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; but I date my relief from the time I took the first bottle. I gradually improved, nature took her course painlessly, and in due time I was a well woman."

Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

Court Stanley, No. 7680, Ancient Order of Foresters, will attend divine service on Sunday evening, June 24, to All Saints' church, when the Rev. Mr. Major will give an address. Members of sisters courts are cordially invited to be present.

Voluntary Offerings.

—Last month we gave statistics of the voluntary offerings of the church for her work in the United Kingdom. To-day we give some other statistics to show how little is given to God's cause and how much to self. — St. Luke's Parish Magazine.

Charming Wall Papers.

We are ready to re-decorate your rooms on short notice. You have choice of a very large stock of charming wall papers, the styles and patterns of which will commend themselves to all those seeking artistic and decorative results. A. H. Stratton & Co.

Telephone Magnates.

—The company which controls the American rights of the Lorimer telephone met at Toronto yesterday. The local men in attendance were Messrs. E. L. Gould, Dr. Hart and M. McPherson. Nothing of special local interest was done at the meeting.—Brantford Expositor.

Work Progressing.

—The Automatic Telephone Company now have their poles well started. Poles are being erected on Clarence street east along Dalhousie street. It is announced that work on the underground portion of the system will commence in two weeks. —Brantford Expositor.

By The Holiday.

—The officers of the Dufferin Rifles are very anxious that the clearing of the Fuller gore should be completed before July 1. An effort will be made to have the work done, so that the square will be clear entirely when the Peterboroughs regiment arrive.—Brantford Expositor.

Berries in Hastings.

—The strawberry crop in this district will only amount to about half what it was last year. A large number of plants were killed last winter by the frost, there not being sufficient snow for to protect them. At present strawberries are selling at two boxes for 25 cents.—Hastings Star.

No Flower Service.

—After consultation with the Sunday school superintendent, the rector has decided not to have a flower service this year. The interest on the part of the Sunday school children has been so little that a large of a few years will be very beneficial. Very often one does not appreciate a good thing till one has lost it.—St. Luke's Parish Magazine.

Penalty For Misconduct At The Cobourg Camp

Uniform Stripped From Lindsay Man for Imbibing Too Strongly--The Routine Manoeuvres of the Camp--The 24th Among the Best--The Y.M.C A. Corps.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Cobourg Camp, June 21.—The rain did not do as much damage at the camp last night as it was generally expected it would, in fact it did practically none, and to-day, with the exception of a few drops towards evening, the weather has been cool and fine, the grounds drying up quickly. All the regiments, as yesterday, were drilling on the green, and from now on the routine manoeuvres will be very much the same. Some interesting variations are planned, however, notable among which is a military tattoo on Tuesday night, which will be a very gay event, with troops promenading, bands playing, and with the ever-present fireworks lending their illuminating vivacity to the scene. It is expected that many of townspeople and visitors to Cobourg, among whom are a considerable number of Americans, will be present on the occasion of the tattoo, as well as on Thursday, when a big sham battle will be fought.

All the men encamped here are behaving remarkably well, and drunkenness is a very rare offence. The officers in all regiments have cautioned the men to be sober, under severe penalty, and the latter are obeying these instructions admirably. A rather severe, but, under the circumstances, not any too harsh, an example was made of a private in the 45th infantry regiment of Lindsay to-day, who came into the camp drunk. The commanding officer, previous to this misdemeanour, warned his men that he would take away the uniform of any "drunk" and dismiss him from the camp if he happened to notice him. The warning did not seem to have much effect on the man mentioned above, however, and he strolled into the camp with "all sheets to the wind." The officer, although he was reluctant in doing so, thought he was obliged, in view of this warning, to make an example. He deprived the offender of his uniform and told him his services were no longer needed. He secured a suit of overalls (coat and trousers) from a tinsmith in the town, and to-day "the man in the overalls" has been wandering about the streets trying to keep himself company. Such is the awful fate of the miscreant who disobeys orders.

Peterborough Pats.

C Squadron of the 3rd Dragoons left camp this morning at 8.30 and rode several miles. They were rigorously drilled, and returned between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The 10th Brigade had its usual drill to-day, and Peterborough's representatives, the 24th, showed good general drill efficiency and fine discipline.

Y.M.C.A.

The biggest tent in the encampment, 50 x 100 feet, is occupied by the Y.M.C.A. Corps, which are doing a much appreciated and useful work among the men. This grand organization has had a tent in the camp since 1871, and each year are finding greater favour with both the officers and men of the regiments. The Y.M.C.A. tent has become an institution, and now one is to be found in army camps all over the world. The purpose of the establishment of the tent is benevolent, and its uplifting influence is felt among the men.

In the tent is a "dry" canteen, which is liberally patronized. The postoffice for the men is also found under the Y.M.C.A. canvas, and up to date over 1,200 letters have passed through it. Current reading in the forms of papers and periodicals and stationery and pen and ink are supplied gratis. Meetings are held nightly, and much interest has been taken in them by those in camp. Last night there was a record-breaking attendance, the tent being filled to overflowing. Mr. A. Stokes, of Kingston, has charge of the religious work, and each night gives inspiring evangelistic addresses. He is a most convincing speaker, and excellently adapted for his present office. He has been engaged in the same capacity in the other military camps of the province this year at London, Niagara and Cobourg. Mr. G. H. Williamson, the popular secretary is actively identified with the work in camp, and is labouring hard in the interests of the Association. He looks after the post office department and leads in the song service in connection with the meetings, makes arrangements for the music, etc. He is kept busy all the time, but he is a hustler and fills the bill with no chance for fault finding. The assistant director of the Central Y.M.C.A., Toronto, is head of the physical department. He is a good gymnast and capable instructor and is doing much to boom this new section of the work for the institution of which Mr. P. K. Holmes, who at the time was physical director of the Peterborough Y.M.C.A., originated in Kingston last year. It is proving very popular and is one of the best branches in the Y.M.C.A. camp work. Many inquiries are being made for Mr. Holmes by those who met him in Kingston and he evidently was quite popular at the camp there. At a meeting of the officers, who co-operated with the Y.M.C.A., arrangements for a field day were considered and a schedule was drafted for the camp football league, which should provide lots of sport and exercise for the soldier boys.

General Lake and Commander Gordon and staff visited the tents this morning and were much pleased with the facilities and advantages offered there and also with the able manner in which the work was engineered by the competent staff.

"I'm glad to see you here. This is a good thing." These were the encouraging words of General Lake and considering where they came from were highly prized, for as a rule military men are not gushing in the least and generally do not give praise unless the object of their recognition deserves it. And this is particularly true of the officers of high rank.

Heard on the Line.

If is not all milk and honey this camp life—at least Sergeant R. A. W. Hay thinks not for his face is swollen to the size of a hundred "bee stings" from exposure to the merciless rays of the sun, which have little consideration for a man in a forage cap. He is badly sunburnt and every officer and man in the 10th Brigade earnestly hopes that no serious results will ensue.

"He's getting the bumps all right," heartlessly remarked one man, while another ventured the theory that the swelling was due to the fact that Sergeant Hay was eating too much. "I can't hear," invariably says the latter to such joking reference to his affliction. Everybody wants to see him relieved entirely of his trouble before long for he deservedly is one of the most popular officers in the 10th Brigade.

The men in camp have been good—very good. They have abstained from over indulgence in the "Irish milk," and have conducted themselves like gentlemen, but the other day one of the men was feeling just a trifle too good. He was not disorderly in the least, however—had just stepped a little too much over the "water mark." He was rambling over the grounds and going up to the tent of an officer of high rank, who was enjoying a quiet nap in his tent, said (it was about four o'clock in the afternoon):—

"This is a nice time of day to be sleeping; get up." And the officer did get up, and the man was very fortunate that he did not go down for a while, but they did not do more than reprimand him at the court martial, and he is now at his liberty—to be good.

A runaway took place this afternoon in the lines of the 3rd Dragoons. A gentleman and a lady from Cobourg were driving through the grounds when the horse became frightened at the noise and strange surroundings and broke away at a terrific rate of speed. The driver and his companion were thrown out and the vehicle rather badly smashed. The former was pretty badly cut and bruised and the services of a physician were called into requisition. The lady was not injured much, but suffered from the shaking up and shock.

Successful Band Of Love Concert

Held in the Salvation Army Barracks Last Night.

The concert at the Salvation Army Barracks last night under the auspices of the Band of Love, proved to be a very interesting event. A large and enthusiastic audience was present and listened to the lengthy programme, which was in charge of Sergeant Major Vincent. No time was available to dispose of the many encores, so these will be given next Thursday evening.

Mr. S. M. Braund occupied the chair, and presented the following programme:

Opening Song, "Bring Them in," children united.
Recitation, "Mice at Play," by Eva Stevenson.
Solo, "Come," J. Fowler.
Recitation, "The Backbone of the Army," W. Boorman.

Reading, "Whistling Bill," Pearl Lloyd.
Piano Solo, "The Evening Sabbath Chimes," Ethel Card.

Runaway Looked Very Dangerous

Mr. Fred. Darcy, of Young's Point, Stopped Horses From Dashing Into Locks.

A runaway that threatened to have serious results was averted by the timely action of Mr. Fred. Darcy at Young's Point on Wednesday. It appears that a team belonging to John Lane of Young's Point took fright at something and dashed towards the locks. The Steamer Sovereign was passing through at the time and it looked as though the flying team would dash into the lock in which case the result would have been disastrous. Mr. Darcy succeeded in stopping the team at great risk to himself.

BOUGHT HORSE FOR FIRE DEPT.

Yesterday Fire Chief Rutherford went to Lakefield and purchased a new horse for the fire department. The new animal is a fine chestnut horse and was bought from Mr. Robt. Allen. He is four years old and weighs 1350 pounds. He is from Green Mountain Morgan, and gives promise of proving a most valuable horse.

He is on the water cart to-day and in spite of the fact that this was his first introduction to city life, he did not shy at street cars or autos.

How Does a Mosquito Bite You?

She Carries a Set of Lancets, and Her "Bite" Is In Reality a Surgical Operation.

Perhaps up to this time you have been content to be bitten by Miss Mosquito—for only the female mosquito bites—and have never taken the trouble to find out how she does it. Sketch No. 1 will show you how the mosquito's head looks when greatly magnified. A to E are four sharp lancets. Upon settling on your skin, Miss Mosquito brings these lancets into one close bunch and presses their united points through your skin. Then she pulls out the lancets, puts in her proboscis, or trunk (D), and sucks up the blood. Not content with that, she inserts a drop of an irritating fluid, and it is this that causes the keen smarting and itching.

Mosquito's head highly magnified.

You see, therefore, that every mosquito bite is in reality a small cut, and that into every cut drop of irritating poisonous fluid is injected. Here is just where the value of Zam-Buk is easily demonstrated. Zam-Buk is not only a healing balm, which soothes, closes up and heals cuts, wounds, etc., in marvellously short time; but it is also an antiseptic. What harm may poison in a wound not do? It is well known that mosquitos spread fever by injecting their poison! Zam-Buk is good for insect stings, but it is good in a far wider sense. It prevents harm arising from poison in any wound, not only in the bites or stings of insects.

After a long series of experiments, testing the effects of Zam-Buk on harmful and poisonous bacteria and disease germs, Mr. W. Lascelles-Scott, the noted analyst, reported that "the antiseptic and bactericidal powers of Zam-Buk exceed those of the caustic carbolic acid of commerce." Think what that means! Everybody knows that crude carbolic acid will kill every disease-germ with which it is brought in contact. But nobody would dream of putting this powerful irritant on to a wound or sore. Yet Zam-Buk has more power to kill germs than this highly caustic substance, and still it can be applied to wounds, ulcers, bites, stings and skin diseases, and injuries of all kinds. When so applied it soothes the pain, while its antiseptic powers are in full operation. It stimulates the cells immediately under the epidermis and builds up new, healthy skin. It combines germ-killing power of the highest order with soothing and healing. While being one of the most powerful antiseptics yet discovered, it is so mild and so soothing that the skin of a newly born babe is benefited by its application.

"My baby had a rash on the skin something like eczema, writes Mrs. J. Rector, of Aurora. It was very troublesome and made the child very ill. I tried all sorts of ointments and salves, but no good came of their use. Then Zam-Buk was brought to me and the third supply cured the little one completely."

"I never saw anything heal so quickly in my life as a deep cut on my husband's chin healed when we applied Zam-Buk," says Mrs. H. T. Parks, of Wasago, Ont.

Mrs. J. F. Baker, of Aultsville, says: "I think Zam-Buk just fine for skin diseases. Having once proved it, I would not be without it in the house." The ex-champion wrestler of America, Mr. Hugh Lanson, says of it: "Zam-Buk heals cuts and bruises as nothing else does that I have ever met with. I had a piece of flesh badly torn on my arm, and anticipated being unable to use my arm for a long time. In two days Zam-Buk closed the wound and in a few days it was covered with new skin. I shall always give Zam-Buk a good name."

The Rev. W. C. Leeper, of Mallis Rectory, Suffolk, says: "For years I suffered from piles, but Zam-Buk cured me. I have great confidence in recommending it."

And so, wherever you may be, or in whatever station of life, you inquire, Zam-Buk is praised by all. It is made from vegetable essences and contains no trace of any animal fat or any mineral coloring matter. It is easy to apply, is always cleanly, never stains or dyes, and in all ways is an ideal healer. All druggists sell it at 50 cents a box, or you may obtain it direct from the Zam-Buk Co., Colborne St., Toronto, upon receipt of price. While of general service for all skin injuries and diseases, Zam-Buk is especially good for insect bites and stings, cuts, burns, bruises, eczema, pimples, running sores, spreading scabs, scalp diseases, poisoned wounds, festering sores, piles, ulcers, bad legs, abscesses, boils, ringworms, erysipelas, scrofula, psoriasis, barbers' rash, stiffness, rheumatism, and all injured, chafed, diseased or inflamed conditions of skin and tissue.

Gadfly (A), and one of his saw-like jaws (B), with which he saws through the skin to suck the blood.

SCANDALS PETER OUT.

London Advertiser.

The session at Ottawa is drawing to an end without the disclosures which the Opposition led its friends to expect.

The so-called Arctic "scandal" has collapsed, and the majority of the Conservative members of the investigating committee have so lost interest in it that they failed to attend the last sitting. Many Liberals, as well as Conservatives, at first thought there might be some excuse for the hue and cry over this affair. The itemized list of supplies for the expedition was rather impressive at first glance, and gave some colour to the charges of extravagance and graft. The Government very properly invited a parliamentary inquiry. Numerous witnesses were freely cross-examined by the Opposition members, and the evidence proved beyond cavil that the expedition had been honestly and properly conducted. The Arctic was provisioned for three years to forestall any emergency, and returned from the north with a large proportion of her original supplies. It was shown also that the prices paid for these were ordinary market rates.

The members of the Opposition were probably deceived by stories told by dissatisfied members of the crew. One of these, who had been fined for drunkenness, informed them before the inquiry, that some of the steamer's supplies had been exchanged for furs, which had been transhipped to the steamer Neptune. The inference was that the heads of the expedition had been appropriating furs paid for with Government stores. Major Moodie, the commander, disposed of this story by showing that the furs had been brought back by the Arctic and placed in the Mounted Police storehouse at Ottawa. These furs were shipped by returning members of the Mounted Police force at Fullerton, and had nothing to do with the Arctic expedition.

The North Atlantic Trading Company "scandal" also proved to be a chimera. Mr. Foster and some of his colleagues insinuated, if they did not openly charge, that Mr. Sifton and Mr. Preston had a financial interest in the contract between the company and the department of the interior, and it was even alleged that Mr. Preston and the company were One and the same. Mr. Sifton and Mr. Preston gave these accusations the most absolute denial. Sir Wilfrid Laurier ousted the Opposition by offering to furnish, in confidence, the names of the shareholders, who were reputable business firms in Germany, Belgium and Russia. Lord Strathcona also approved the contract, and declared that the shareholders of the company must be protected in the privacy which was necessary owing to the continental laws against emagration agencies.

The session closes with no cloud on the Government's record, and with brave proofs that its administration of affairs has been clean and progressive.

THE LESSON OF THE EMBALMED HAMS.

London Advertiser.

Apropos of the exposures made of the disgraceful methods permitted by some of the great meat-packing firms of the United States, a correspondent of the London Times states that the British firm in which he is a partner, bought from one of the biggest houses of the "packing combine," or "beef trust," as it is better known, a parcel of hams, called in the trade "short cuts." The goods to all appearance were in perfect condition, and were passed on to Great Britain as sound goods. In the course of a few days they were passed through the smoking-house of this big wholesale establishment, and distributed to the retail trade. Imagine the surprise of the firm when within a week it was inundated with complaints from buyers that their customers were unable to cook their hams. Their peculiarity was that they floated on the water. They would not cook, and when cold, after boiling, it was impossible to cut them with a knife, the texture of the meat representing as nearly as possible an india rubber sponge."

The hams had undoubtedly undergone the "embalming" process by the use of "formaldehyde." It is evident that such goods should never have been cured, and the writer to the Times declares that such a thing would not have been permitted in any English curing house. That they were put upon the market by the United States "beef trust," and given a certificate of quality by a United States meat inspector, shows how much the buying public are at the mercy of the unscrupulous men. This exposure gives fresh emphasis to the declarations made by Mr. Upton Sinclair, in his remarkable book, "The Jungle," which moved President Roosevelt to attempt to remedy the abuse of the packing industry.

It is unfortunate that inspection of meat is so lax as has been demonstrated, and if the result of the present well-grounded indictment of the "beef lords," is that its business is, least, for a time, much injured, the "barons" have only themselves to blame. The dishonest ought to be taught that cheating the public, although it may pay temporarily, will be a losing game. There are doubtless many honest dealers in the United States, of whom it can be said that their products are always what they are labelled to be. On the other hand there cannot be a doubt, that more "bogus butter," and "doctored cheese," and "embalmed beef" are annually put on the market by United States traders under false or misleading descriptions, than is offered for sale by any other nation in the world. It does seem to be difficult for our neighbours, with their conflicting state and national laws, to be able to effectively boatdown rascalities in food productions, especially when so many are interested in the swindles.

Canada's interest lies in vigilantly watching her importing points to prevent even as much as one dollar's worth of bogus or adulterated food stuffs from entering this country, and to see that by properly labelling of our products, after they have been properly prepared, they are in no way mixed up in the old world markets with products from the land of the wooden nutmeg, filled cheese and embalmed beef. Time was when it was possible for sharp Yankee dealers to label all their bad butter sent to Great Britain, as "Canadian." We had, too, doctored Yankee cheese marketted as "Canadian," and so exposed for sale in the Dominion. We, in Canada, had to protect ourselves against the manufacture, sale or importation of oleomargarine, a substitute for butter, and the result has been to raise the fame, as well as the price, of Canadian butter. And just in proportion to the vigilance we show in dissociating ourselves from all such fraudulent expedients as those which have been successfully laid to the door of the "beef trust" of the United States must be our success in preserving the family good name, and in securing for our products in old country markets all the consideration that is warranted.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Toronto mourns the serious illness of an unique citizen—"Holy Ann" a lady who is reported to know the Bible by heart. Her death will mean a great loss to the city, which will thus be deprived of a vicarious knowledge of the Bible which, judging by the life and actions of many Torontonians to the extent of their familiarity with the teachings of Holy Writ.

IN ALL WALKS OF LIFE

Herpicide is Used to Cure Dandruff.

E. H. Lyon, New York, N. Y., says: "I am very fond of Herpicide and enjoy using it. It is refreshing."

Dr. J. H. Bush, Toledo, Ohio, writes: "Newbro's Herpicide has given better satisfaction than anything I have ever used."

Mr. Borkey, of Chadron, Neb., says of Herpicide:

"It cleaned my head of dandruff and stopped my hair from falling out. It is the best remedy for dandruff I ever used, and I have used a great many."

R. S. Coleman, Ann Arbor, Mich., says:

"I have used two bottles of Herpicide and derived benefit therefrom."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich. Ormond & Walsh, special agents.

ONE INSERTION WAS SUFFICIENT

"I had an advertisement inserted in the Examiner yesterday—it was ordered in for three days, but it did its work in one day, and you may take it out." This is what a gentleman telephoned the Examiner this morning. He wanted a housemaid, and one insertion of an ad. in the want column of this paper did the work.

It's worth while putting the public know your wants through the columns of the Examiner.

More Concrete Crossings To Be Constructed

Board of Works Decides on This Course.

The Board of Works held a meeting in the City Clerk's office last night at which there were present, Ald. Hicks, chairman; Ald. McIntyre, Adams, Wilson, Elliott and Graham.

Street Crossings

A report from the City Engineer in reference to the concrete street crossings was read.

The report stated that thirteen crossings had been practically completed, at a cost of $683.85. The amount appropriated for this purpose was $700. The Committee decided that the work be continued, and that they be laid at the corner of McDonel and Stewart, east side, and one on McDonel on the west side of Aylmer.

A number of petitions for new granolithic walks were received, and a decision was arrived at to grant the requests.

Ald. Graham moved, seconded by Ald. Elliott, that the stone crusher sent by the Sawyer-Massey Company be accepted and that a cheque be issued to the Company for the cost of the machine, about $1100.—Carried.

Some Conflicting Stories Of Stabbing

Bewdley Mystery is as Deep as Ever—Rev. E. R. Nicholls Tells Some Further Particulars to Chief Bond of Port Hope—Says He Was Refused Use of Telephone, But This is Denied.

Nothing new has developed in the mysterious stabbing at Bewdley. The Port Hope Guide referring to the matter says:—

There is a deep mystery surrounding the whole affair, and from present indications the guilty party will never be apprehended. Chief Bond, upon instructions from Crown Attorney Corley, went out yesterday afternoon to investigate the case, but was unable to receive any information. He interviewed the Rev. Nicholls but he could not give the slightest description of the would-be assassin. Notwithstanding the fact that it was broad daylight he could not tell whether it was a man, woman or child who perpetrated the assault. He informed the Chief that after the affair he went to the telephone at Bewdley, with the intention of calling up Port Hope, but those in charge of the 'phone would not allow him to use it. The Chief, when returning to town last evening called at Mr. Sidey's where the telephone is installed and inquired why they refused to allow Rev. Nicholls to use the 'phone. Mr. Sidey's reply was, that the clergyman had not asked to use the 'phone, nor had he even called at their house.

Every effort will be made to get to the bottom of the matter, but just at the present time it is like a chinese puzzle to the chief. How the assassin could escape without being identified, and Mr. Sidey's denial about the telephone communication is more than Chief Bond can understand.

Union Carpenters In Amalgamation

Proposal to Unite the Brotherhood and the Amalgamated Society—Will Mean an Association of 408,000 Men—Local Carpenters Favour the Scheme.

A big scheme for a union of union men is in progress of formation, and it is probable that in a short time definite action will be taken in the matter. The proposal is nothing less than the union of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners.

Circular letters have been sent out to all the local branches of these two bodies, asking for a referendum vote on the proposal to merge them into one big Society. At the present time they are both working along the same lines, but it is felt that their separate existence is a source of weakness to each, hence the proposal to consolidate the two into one.

Instead of two sets of offices and two staffs of officers, one would do the work and the whole body of Union Carpenters in America would be under one jurisdiction.

It is expected that if the union is effected a Canadian headquarters will be established with an executive staff for Canadian business. In this country there are a great many members of both societies.

If the proposal is carried out, the new organization will have a membership of 408,000 men, the present strength of the United Brotherhood being about 152,000 and of the Amalgamated Society, about twice as many. The local union is a branch of the United Brotherhood, and it is probable that the members here will heartily endorse the proposed union.

Presented The Pastor With A Wallet of Gold

Rev. J. P. Wilson Honoured by Congregation of Bridge St. Church, Belleville.

Belleville, June 21.—The members of Bridge street Methodist congregation had a delightful function in their Sunday School rooms last night. They could not have had anything else, for they met to honour their pastor, Rev. J. P. Wilson, say kind things to him, and, by the presentation of a wallet of gold, express in that very tangible way how great was their appreciation of his services and deep their affection for him.

The chairman stated that for some time the congregation had intended to ask the pastor to take a holiday of sufficient length to enable him to cross the ocean and visit the British Isles and the continent, and that as now a most suitable supply could be obtained, one alike acceptable to the pastor and the congregation, Mr. Wilson had acceded to their request and would sail from Quebec on Saturday next, in company with some twelve others from Belleville. In the most spontaneous way the congregation had provided the funds for their pastor's trip and for his supply, and he now had much pleasure in presenting Mr. Wilson with a well-filled wallet of gold.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Organizer To Address Meeting

Mr. John Tweed, of Toronto, Will Speak to Carpenters.

The regular meeting of the local Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, No. 672 will be held on Monday night, June 25th, and at that meeting Mr. John Tweed, of Toronto, general organizer and superintendent for the Brotherhood in this Province, will address the members of the local union. Mr. Tweed is one of the best posted men on Union labour questions in Canada, and his address will no doubt be instructive and interesting. All members are earnestly requested to attend Monday night's meeting.

Five Young Lambs Weigh 450 Lbs.

Some Fine Animals Purchased by Mr. H. P. Kennedy.

Mr. R. Welsh, stock buyer of Hastings, brought into H. P. Kennedy's stock yard this morning, five extra fine young lambs, that surpass any handled this season. The actual live weight of the five lambs was 450 pounds. When it is considered that the average weight of a good lamb is between 50 and 60 lbs, the superiority of this lot will be apparent. One of the lambs weighed 115 pounds. It is comforting to reflect that when these choice specimens find their way onto the tables of our citizens these choice specimens find their etc., may be ignored. Such appetising and nourishing meals is what tempt the palate and builds up the family from the baby to the grand father.

He was leading the animal to pasture when it took fright at a car near McAllister's mill and bolted. The boy tried to hold it back with the rope attached to its halter and was dragged off his feet. He received a severe kick on the head from one of the horse's hind feet, fracturing his skull. Hope is entertained for his recovery, although the injury is a very serious one.

Excursion Was Best In History Of The Guild

Beautiful Stony Lake Was Visited Yesterday by St. Andrew's People—A Delightful Outing—Orchestra on Board—Large Number of Visitors on Board—Programme of Sports Run Off.

Of the eight annual excursions which St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild have held at Stony Lake, yesterday's was the largest and was unanimously pronounced the best.

The day was an ideal one for an excursion, and those on board the steamer spent a most delightful time and one which will long remain fresh in their memories.

The fame of the Guild excursions had travelled even as far as Springville, and thirty or more more that village drove to the city in the morning and joined in the day's enjoyment.

A large number from Lakefield also boarded the steamer and were participants in a pleasant voyage.

The regular G.T.R. morning train carried the party of 220 passengers to Lakefield, where they embarked on the big excursion steamer Stoney Lake for Kawarthadom. The boat sailed direct to Burleigh Falls, and here the heavily laden baskets were opened, and the eager appetites of those on board were settled. After a jaunt around the big rocks at the Falls, the passengers again boarded the steamer for Bosehink, and the head of the lake. Bel's Creek was visited for a short time, and then the homeward journey began. Mount Julian, Juniper Island and McCracken's Landing were the next points touched.

At McCracken's, on the lawn in front of the Victoria House, the sports were run off. These were watched with the keenest of interest and formed one of the chief features of the day. They were under the able management of Captains P. A. Kerr and Robert Barrowman. Supper was also served at McCracken's, after which the Stoney Lake left her moorings for Lakefield again.

An orchestra, consisting of four pieces, from the opera house orchestra, supplied excellent music on the trip and left nothing to be desired.

The financial issue of the excursion was most gratifying to the Guild as quite a large sum was left over after all expenses were paid.

The young men are highly delighted with the outcome of their efforts and wish to thank St. Andrew's people, the visitors from Lakefield and Springville, as well as the general public who attended and assisted in the enjoyment of the day. They also desire to thank Mr. Dorcey, proprietor of the Burleigh Falls house, and Messrs. Carveth and Freeman, of the Victoria House, for the excellent meals provided, and their kindness in giving the use of the houses.

The following is the list of sports, and the winners and prizes presented:

Tug of war, Captains T. C. Elliott and Thos. Richardson — Won by the latter.

Bachelors' 100 yards dash — Piece of statuary—W. A. Richardson.

Married ladies' race — Souvenir of Peterborough — Mrs. Alex. Waddell.

Married men's race — Gentleman's companion—P. A. Kerr.

Mixed race, gentlemen choosing partners — Two piece domestic utensils—Mr. Percy Blade and Miss Miller.

The committee on board in charge of the event, and to whose energy much of the success was due, was as follows: Messrs. P. A. Karr, R. Barrowman, W. A. Richardson, C. E. Anderson and W. S. Campbell.

Dogs Destroyed Three Hens And Eighteen Chickens

Wholesale Destruction in Mr. Wescott's Poultry Yard This Morning—Fowl Valued Over $15—Canines Were Followed Home and Owners Informed of Their Ferocity —Will Probably Forfeit Their Lives.

Mr. Routly Wescott, the local shoe merchant, on George street, is this morning mourning the loss of eighteen valuable chickens and three hens, as the result of canine depredations.

Two fox terriers visited Mr. Wescott's hen coops at his residence on McDonel street, in the early hours of the morning, and forced an entrance through the barbed wire fronts of the coops. This morning chickens, hens and feathers lay strewn over the yard. The fowls were very valuable specimens, the owner having but recently purchased the eggs from a party in Illinois, U.S.A. Originally they came from England, and are very rare in Canada. They were thoroughbred Golden Hamburgs and rose comb black Leghorns, and were valued at from $15 to $20.

Mr. Wescott heard the commotion in the coops but was some minutes too late to save his fowl. The blood-thirsty canines had just escaped when he arrived on the scene, but he followed them to their homes, and informed their owners of their destruction.

That was not the first time the dogs have cost their masters more than their value, and the canines will probably be executed at once.

The only loser has not been Mr. Wescott. Many other citizens complain of too many ferocious dogs running at large, and think that something should be done to alleviate such wholesale destruction to private property as that which occurred last night.

WEDDING BELLS

STROUD—JACKSON.

A wedding of considerable local interest, took place yesterday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage, in Kingston, when Rev. D. Laing, pastor of the Baptist church, in that city, united in marriage Mr. W. H. Stroud of Peterborough, son of ex-Ald. Stroud, of Ottawa, and Miss Daisy, daughter of Mr. R. H. Jackson, of this city. The wedding was a quiet one.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Stroud left on a trip to Montreal and Ottawa, in the latter city visiting the parents of the groom, ex-Ald. and Mrs. Stroud.

Upon their return they will reside in this city.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

In the weddings an account of which follows, from the Hamilton Times, one of the brides, Miss Mann, is the only daughter of the late Mrs. H. Mann, formerly of Bridgenorth, and is quite well known in this city:

"The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Mann, 132 Young street, was the scene of a happy event this afternoon, being the occasion of a double wedding, when Miss Mary J. Nosworthy, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Nosworthy, of Toronto, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Roberts, of the same city. The bride was attended by Miss Maggie H. Mann while the groom was supported by Mr. J. LeDrew.

"Immediately after this event the marriage ceremony of Miss Maggie H. Mann, sister of Mr. Charles H. Mann, and Mr. J. LeDrew, both of this city, was solemnized. The bride was attended by Miss Irene Harris, city, while Mr. Courtland S. Lambert ably supported the groom. Rev. S. W. Fallis, of Gore street Methodist church, officiating at both ceremonies.

"After the ceremony the parties and their friends sat down to a dainty repast, the balance of the afternoon being spent in music and congratulatory remarks. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts leave on the evening boat for Toronto, where they will reside, while Mr. and Mrs. LeDrew will leave on the G.T.R. train at 7.05 for points west. On their return they will reside in this city."

Did you ever inquire at a store for certain articles and get for a reply "We have something just as good"? Did it ever occur to you that "Something just as good" is something the dealer has been able to buy much cheaper than the articles you inquire for? This is true in drugs, fabrics, groceries, hardware, and in fact every line, including silver-plated ware. If you inquire for 1847 Rogers Bros.' Knives, Forks or Spoons, don't accept any bogus Rogers' stamp because your dealer tells you it's just as good.

1847 TRADE MARK ROGERS BROS

The above trade mark has been stamped on every article of the original and genuine Rogers Bros.' goods for over 50 years. Get this and you get the best that is made.

Was Sbarretti; Now Shearer, Says Premier

Sir Wilfrid's Effective Reply to Charges Against Him.

NO OUTSIDE INFLUENCE

Fair Progress Made With the Sabbath Observance Bill in the House — The Premier Urges a Spirit of Give and Take—Clause Prohibiting Games For Paid Admissions on Sunday Passed —Five Hours' Work.

Ottawa, June 22.—The spirit of compromise marked the House of Commons yesterday in a serious effort to make the Lord's Day bill a beneficial measure for all Canada. Five hours were spent on the measure, and representative government was seen in one of its most favorable aspects. The farmer representatives from puritan western Ontario yielded to the views of the French-speaking habitants of the St. Lawrence Valley, where Sunday afternoons are given over to enjoyment. Employes saw the justice of demands for employers, and as a climax Sir Wilfrid Laurier appealed for breadth of view and a spirit of give and take.

With Telling Effect.

The Premier was particularly effective in replying to critics in general when he said this was not the first time he had been charged with being influenced by outside dictation. "Last year it was Sbarretti; this year it is Shearer," he remarked with telling effect. The Bourassa wing of the Government side offer constant criticisms and objections, but there is no general attack on the Government from Quebec. The clause prohibiting games on Sunday at which admission is charged was adopted to-day, and one or two others of considerable importance. Some progress was made in supply last evening. The Lord's Day bill will not be taken up again before Monday.

Col. Hughes Moves Back.

The House again went into committee on the bill respecting the Lord's Day. Lieut.-Col. Sam Hughes moved: "That the bill be referred back to the select committee with instructions to amend it in many particulars."

Mr. Marcil ruled the motion out of order, but Col. Hughes promised to move it again when the bill was reported to the House.

In the morning Henry Bourassa submitted two amendments, making additional exemptions in favor of the driving of logs on Sunday and the saving of crops on Sunday.

Louis Lavergne offered another amendment to permit Sunday labor in the sugar bush.

Sunday Labor.

Mr. Aylesworth said that the bill was intended to give 24 consecutive hours of rest.

In the afternoon, Mr. Bourassa moved an hour-for-hour amendment.

Ralph Smith moved another amendment to provide that Sunday labor under two hours should not entitle the worker to a full 24-hour rest day.

Mr. Pringle (Cornwall and Stormont) offered a substitute. He allowed 24 consecutive hours of rest, but they might commence or terminate on Sunday.

Mr. Aylesworth said that the employer who required his employe to work on Sunday was compelled to give him a holiday during the week. But although the employer "must give" the holiday, the employe was not compelled to "take it."

Section four will stand for the present.

Parks and Games.

Section five, forbidding any parks to be open to the public where an admission fee is charged, and forbidding any game or contest for a prize or reward, aroused a double-barrelled opposition.

Mr. Rivet (Montreal) moved an amendment permitting parks to be open "where authorized by provincial or municipal authority."

Mr. Taylor (Leeds) moved an amendment forbidding any person to engage in any game on Sunday or to witness the same.

Mr. Bourassa said he would be prepared to accept Mr. Taylor's amendment provided he would insert a provision that each Province shall be allowed to continue existing customs and practices.

Was Sbarretti, Now Shearer.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier pointed out that the very nature of the amendments moved illustrated the difficulty there was in enacting legislation of this description. The measure before it was introduced was approved by all Christian denominations. It was impossible to have a measure of this kind become law under the conditions which existed in Canada unless the different elements were prepared to give and take, and to make mutual sacrifices. If every man, whether from Quebec, Ontario or elsewhere, insisted upon his pound of flesh, where would there be harmony? Unless the various Provinces arrived at some common standard they would have nothing but anarchy. This was not the first time he had been charged with submitting to outside influences and dictation. Last session it was Sbarretti, this session it was Shearer. Sir Wilfrid dwelt upon the necessity of a reasonable mutual understanding to pass a Sunday observance law. Everyone, he pointed out, had prefaced his remarks by a declaration in favor of a Sunday observance law, not for himself, but for his neighbor. Mr. Taylor wanted Sabbath observance laws, but along his own lines.

A Plea For Tolerance.

In the Province of Quebec the people had their own way of observing the Sabbath. He did not pretend it was better than anyone else's, but they had their own views; everyone went to church in the morning, and in the afternoon the young men had their own games. Under Mr. Taylor's standard it would be a high moral offence to play ball on the Sabbath, but the bill simply went to the extent of saying it shall be a criminal offence to play games for money, but that it would not be an offence if not played for gain. The Churches had accepted the clause. The clause would be sufficient to bring the strong arm of the law upon contests made for money or other consideration. Sacrifices had been made on both sides in order to obtain a bill. The Province of Ontario had made the sacrifice of consenting to the clause as it stood; the Province of Quebec had sacrificed the right to charge an admission fee for games or have contests for gain. Having considered both amendments, he could not accept them. He reminded his follower, Mr. Rivet, that the bill was for the protection of the workingmen in his riding, and assuring them a day of rest. He appealed to the House to realize that it was worth making some effort to secure a uniform law which would assure as far as possible for the workers a day of rest on Sunday. (Cheers.)

Mr. Bourassa's Criticism.

Mr. Bourassa critisized the Premier, whose name had always hitherto been associated with the advocacy of Liberal principles and the liberties of the people, and regretted that Sir Wilfrid's name was associated with the most illiberal and "Toriest" bill that had ever been proposed by any Government in any British Parliament. Mr. Bourassa took credit to himself for having displayed his fidelity and admiration for the Premier by criticising him when he made a mistake.

The amendments were voted down, and the section passed as reported by the committee.

Sunday Excursions.

Mr. Coames (Rainy River) opposed section six forbidding Sunday excursions.

Mr. Pringle said the bill as agreed upon by the committee only forbade "organized excursions." Why had this word been dropped in reprinting the bill? He insisted that Mr. Shearer had no objection to the amendment. Mr. Aylesworth refused to accept it.

Motion of Censure.

Upon motion to go into supply Mr. Ames (Montreal), offered a resolution of censure respecting the Moncton land deal, which he denounced as a glaring instance of the rake-off which followed all dealings between Matthew Lodge and Mr. Emmerson's department.

Mr. Emmerson said that at the time he purchased the land he believed that he was getting a splendid bargain. He made a sweeping denial of any corrupt action on his part.

Upon division Mr. Ames' motion of censure was lost—yeas, 46; nays, 89. Mr. Bourassa was not present. Mr. Verville voted with the Government.

Papers Go to the House.

Ottawa, June 22.—Mr. W. T. R. Preston was called again yesterday by the Public Accounts' Committee. Being examined by Mr. Barker he said that he was not aware that Mr. D. Somerville, who had endorsed the cheques, was Dorothy Somerville, wife of Roy Somerville. Witness said that when he told Lord Strathcona last April that he did not know the names of the North Atlantic Trading Co., he was candid with Lord Strathcona.

The papers in the Arundel Printing Co., the North Atlantic Trading Co., the Leopold affair, and the George T. Merwin matter were ordered to be reported to the House.

Paid Double For Tobacco.

Ottawa, June 22.—At the afternoon meeting of the Arctic committee, Capt. Bernier was again on the stand, and it developed that there was considerable ill-feeling between him and Major Moodie. W. F. Cockshutt (Brantford) testified that T. & B. tobacco was worth 67 cents per pound, including excise duty. The Government bought it for the Arctic at the rate of $1.34 a pound.

Port Colborne, June 22.—Jose Catalda, an Italian, aged 27 years, was drowned yesterday morning at Contractor Hogan's works, just outside the harbor. The man fell off a derrick scow.

Active Liver, Good Digestion

AND THERE IS NO MORE PROMPT AND CERTAIN MEANS OF KEEPING THE LIVER RIGHT THAN

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

In calling your attention to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills it is only necessary to point to their success in the past, for they are known in nearly every home.

By means of their direct and specific action on the liver—causing a healthful flow of bile—they regulate and enliven the action of the bowels and ensure good digestion in the intestines. At the same time they stimulate the kidneys in their work of filtering poisons from the blood.

This cleansing process set in action by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, means a thorough cure for biliousness, intestinal indigestion, torpid liver, kidney derangements and constipation.

It means a restoration of health, strength and comfort where there has been pain, weakness and suffering. It means a removal of the conditions which lead to backache, rheumatism, lumbago, Bright's Disease, appendicitis, and diabetes.

Mrs. Thomas Covert, Highland Grove, Peterborough county, Ont., writes: "I was a sufferer for years with stomach trouble and headaches and spent a good many dollars in medicine without receiving any benefit. Hearing Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills highly recommended I determined to give them a trial and did so with the most satisfactory results, as I was very greatly benefitted, and do not hesitate to recommend this treatment as the best obtainable for such ailments."

The New York Stock Market

(Furnished by J. R. Heintz & Co.)

New York, June 22. — To-day's opening prices were somewhat lower. Copper and steels were particularly under pressure. The disturbing factors were the talk of decline in the steel business suggested by the cut in prices by Southern mills and a report from Washington that action would immediately be taken by the Government against the Standard Oil Company.

At the decline some support was evident and the market rallied quickly. Southern Pacific advanced but the gains were held. The London market was weak and unsettled today. Crop news was very favourable.

The afternoon market was quiet but the tone continued strong. Southern Pacific was well bought, making a new high record, St. Paul and U.P. sympathized and the steels were firmer. C.P.R. was quiet at yesterday's figures, while Twin City sold off fractionally. The market became very active near the close which was strong at the best of the day.

Newmarket Objected To Ford Playing

With the Orillia Team—But President of C. L. A. Says It's All Right—Newmarket Won by 5-4.

Newmarket, June 21.—Newmarket lacrosse enthusiasts yesterday went to Orillia on a special train to witness the Talagoos cross sticks with the crack Orillia team, who are slated by northern sports for the intermediate championship. There was considerable excitement, and the Orillia supporters confidently offered four to three on the result of the game. Mr. J. C. Miller, President of the C.L.A., was considerable in evidence in the quarters of the Orillia team. The game was called sharp on time. A delay of ten minutes occurred, owing to the protest of the Newmarket Club against the playing of Ford, from Peterborough, by Orillia, who had arrived in Orillia at 12.45, and an hour before the game started had not signed a certificate. He was played, despite a protest, on written instructions by Mr. J. G. Miller, to Referee Quarrie, of Toronto.—The score was 5-4 in favour of Newmarket.

The line-up of the team was:—

Orillia—Goal, Aherns; point, Quinn; cover point, Hinds; first defence, Hanley; second defence, O'Brien; third defence, Grace; centre, Ramore; third, home, Donaldson; second home, Oliveson; first home, Curran; outside home, Ross; inside home, Ford.

Newmarket—Goal, Backus; point, McKim; cover point, Clapper; first defence, T. Doyle; second defence, Reeves; third defence, Manar; centre, Judd; third home, McKibbon; second home, Leadley; first home, E. Doyle; outside home, Doonan; inside home, Pinner.

FAST JUNIOR LACROSSE GAME SCHEDULED FOR TO-MORROW

The premier sporting attraction for to-morrow afternoon will be the lacrosse game at Riverside Park, between the Young Shamrocks and the fast Oshawa team. These teams appear to be very evenly matched and a short time ago played a tie game in Oshawa. Since then they have been practising faithfully and will be in shape to go the speed limit to-morrow. The game will undoubtedly be the fastest of the season and the boys should be greeted with a bumper crowd. The Shamrocks have a fast well-balanced team who should be encouraged by the lacrosse lovers of the city. They are the only lacrosse team in Peterborough and should receive the support of the citizens, generally. Eddie Hinds, of Orillia, will referee the contest which will be called at 2.30 o'clock.

St. Paul's Team Wins Easily

Guild League Contest Was a Very Loose Exhibition of Ball.

St. Paul's defeated George Street last night in a Guild League game of three innings last night by 13 runs to 7. The game was a loose exhibition of baseball and errors were very common. The contest started off well both teams playing good ball in the first innings. In the second however, George Street blew up after two were out and five runs crossed the plate before the side was retired. In the third St. Paul's anded seven more. George Street sent five runs across the plate in the last innings. Fred. Whiteroft gave good satisfaction as umpire. The line-up:—

St. Paul's.—Shaw, 2 b.; Gillespie, c.; Greene, s. s.; Fitzpatrick, c. f.; Dunford, 2 b.; Swanston, p.; Bruce, l. f.; Walkey, r. f.

George Street—Kendry, s. s.; M. Millar, 3 b.; Shaw, l. f.; Mann, r. f.; Pediar, p.; Curtis, c.; Weatherstone, 2 b.; Crane, 1 b.; Allison, c. f.

The old man, who is 86 years of age, is getting childish, and wandered over the Bay bridge, spending the night at Rossmore. He continued on his journey this morning and expects to reach his destination in two months. He has a splendid horse, he having come all the way from Kingston yesterday.

Parrot's Escape Causes Trouble

Mr. J. J. Turner's Valuable Bird Refuses to be Re-captured.

Mr. J. J. Turner, Sr., is experiencing the sensations of those who engage in the occupation of entrapping exhibits for the circus Zoos. A couple of days ago his white parrot escaped from a cage on the verandah, going to Jackson Park, and has not yet been recaptured, despite the strenuous efforts of Mr. Turner and others. Yesterday Mr. Turner had a man watching the bird armed with a big gill net. The parrot would settle on a tree or telegraph pole and the faithful watcher would sally up after it with the result that the bird would move on to a new perch. The parrot is a very valuable one and only the day before it escaped Mr. Turner was offered $100 for the bird. He is sorry now he did not take the offer.

Some years ago Mr. Turner was the owner of a white parrot and a sky-lark, which he brought from England. He was offered $25 for the sky-lark and $75 for the parrot, but refused to sell. Next day the parrrot escaped and the family cat devoured the sky-lark.

WILL CELEBRATE DOMINION DAY

There's nothing slow about Nanton, Alberta—the town in which the Dawson boys are located. It has a population of 400 souls, and yet they are going to hold a monster Dominion Day celebration on July 2nd. Literature has been received in the city advertising the event, and, judging by it, the people who take it in will not have a very slow time—there'll be doings. It is not always safe to judge the progressiveness of a place by its size.

Invitation To Local Officers

Attendance Requested at the Big Military Ball.

An invitation has been extended to a number of the local officers of the 57th Regiment to attend the military ball to be given by the officers of the 10th Brigade C. F. A., at the Arlington House, Cobourg, on Wednesday night next.

It is expected that some of the Peterborough officers will be present to join in the gaiety of this event.

At The Drill Hall To-night

Composite Companies Will Get Their Final Instructions.

Col. Miller requests the officers and men of the composite companies, to meet to-night at the drill shed to make the final arrangements for the trip to Cobourg on Tuesday next. It is understood that some changes will be made in the officers in charge of the two companies, but these have not yet been perfected.

Sunday School Excursion Here

Over 125 From Rice Lake Arrive on Steamer Monarch.

The steamer Monarch carried 125 excursionists to the city this morning from the shores of Rice Lake. The excursion was under the auspices of the Bethany and Fenelln Methodist Sunday schools, and called at Dunnett's and Curtis' landings and Harwood. The Monarch intended going over the lift lock, but on account of repairs going on there this pleasure had to be deferred.

The committee in charge were Rev. Mr. Dupraw, Mr. C. Telling, R. Ralls, D. Nill and T. R. Machlin.

Summer Season and Chuich Attendance

In an editorial in St. Luke's Parish Magazine, the following sentiments are given expression to:

We hope that during the summer holidays, or during the hot weather, the attendance at Church will not lessen. Of late many of our people have not been as regular at Church as they should have been, especially our friends in the country. The cause for this might not be difficult to explain. Either church-going is a mere habit, or a duty to God, and a privilege for the worshipper. In the first place the staying away from Church is not to be wondered at, and, very likely, does not give any trouble to the conscience of the practitioner. But, if church-going is a duty to God, and realized as such, and experienced as a pleasure and privilege, then no one who holds these views should stay away. We get in Church what we go for; if we go to "see Jesus," and worship Him we shall receive a blessing, and He will not be "ashamed to call us brethren." Therefore, a good many of our people need to take a retrospect and explain to themselves what the cause of their indifference and carelessness is. "Be not deceived. God is not mocked, for what a man soweth that shall he also reap." We fear that there are many who sow nothing but "tares," wealth that perishes, and forget to lay up treasures in heaven!

RECORD CROWDS AT JACKSON PARK

The crowds at the Jackson Park last night were about the largest of the season, and they spent an enjoyable evening. The merry-go-round had a busy night of it, and was apparently very popular with the younger people, especially. The moving pictures, as usual, were much enjoyed, while the programme rendered by the 57th Band was of a nature which caught the fancy of the public, as was evidenced by the generous applause which greeted each number on the lengthy programme rendered.

Rev. F. J. Scott Elected As The New Moderator

Will Preside Over Peterborough Association of Baptist Churches for This Year—Annual Meeting at Brighton Just Closed—A Successful Gathering—Many Peterborough People Took Part.

Examiner Special.

Brighton, June 22. — The 104th annual gathering of the Peterborough Association of Baptist Churches, met in the church at Brighton, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 19th to 21st.

The reports given in the ladies' meeting were very encouraging and hopeful, as well as expressing a great desire for increase.

There are 777 women in the churches of the Association; 231 of these subscribe to Home Missions, and 163 to Foreign Work; 294 Visitors are taken, and 135 Links, representing Home and Foreign work. A total of $567.33 was given to the work.

The reports from the Bands were very hopeful; 390 members gave $174.59 to Missions.

After a model meeting of a Circle was conducted by the president, Mrs. (Dr.) Scott, of Peterborough, in which many excellent papers were read, this session was closed.

Moderator's Address.

The evening session opened at 7.30, Rev. A. H. Brace, of Park street, Peterborough, Moderator, in the chair.

Hearty words of welcome were given by the pastor of the Brighton church, and the Moderator made a happy reply.

The Moderator spoke on the subject of Associational assets — "Our Children."

A number of new pastors were introduced, after which the church letters were read; most of them were in a hopeful strain and showed a substantial advance in all branches of work.

Mr. Scott Moderator.

The annual sermon was delivered by Rev. F. J. Scott, B.A, B.Th., of Peterborough, the subject being "Consecration." The address was timely and was given in a very eloquent and earnest way.

The Nominating Committee brought in their report, recommending the election of the following officers:

Rev. F. J. Scott, Moderator.
Rev. W. Quarrington, Clerk and Treasurer.

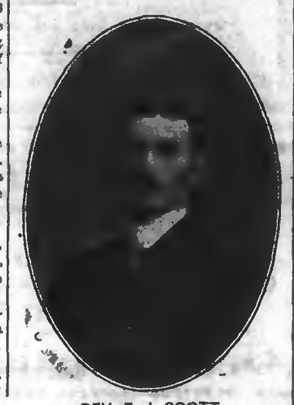
The report was adopted.

The Associational Secretaries for Home, Foreign, Manitoba and Grande Ligne Missions, all spoke in a hopeful way, and showed that the Association was not forgetful of the mission interests.

A splendid paper was given by Mr. Wilfred Shimer of Peterborough, on "Failure and Success in Young Peoples' Work."

"Forward Movement," by Rev. J. E. Trotter, was the next subject for discussion, and was entered into by many of the delegates.

"The Churches and Evangelism," was the subject of an address by Rev



REV. F. J. SCOTT,
Elected Moderator Peterborough Association of Baptists for 1906-'07.

James Dodson of Norwood. "The only excuse for the existence of a church is to save souls; this is the reason why we are Christians."

"Foreign Missions" was spoken to by Rev. John Craig, B.A., returned missionary from India, who told about idols, customs and conditions of the people in the Telegue country.

Illustrated Lecture.

An illustrated lecture on our Colleges and Schools by Rev. C. J. Cameron of Toronto, closed the evening session, and Rev. J. S. Lockie, pastor of the entertaining church, pronounced the benediction.

Compulsory Connection Is Suggested

Board of Works Discusses the Question of Sewer Connections.

The Board of Works, at its meeting last night, took into consideration the fact that a number of houses, principally terraces, in the central portion of the city, had no connection with the city's sewer system; and a discussion took place on the best method of dealing with a situation which was admirably detrimental to the public health.

Some of the aldermen were of the opinion that a bylaw should be passed directing that within a stated area in the centre of the city, all buildings should be connected with sewers, where this was possible.

It was impossible to decide on an area which would prove satisfactory to all the members of the committee, and, after discussing the matter for some time, the Board decided to allow the matter to stand for the time being, the chairman remarking that the discussion would have the effect of giving the members a better understanding of the situation.

Several areas, in which it was proposed that all buildings should connect with sewers, were suggested, and that most generally favoured was the district bounded by Dublin street on the north, Dalhousie on the south, Stewart street on the west, and lot one, east of Water street, on the east.

It was pointed out by some of the members, however, that this was altogether too extended an area, and that it would require at least three years to connect all the houses inside those boundaries; while others thought that it could be accomplished in a shorter period.

It was finally decided to take no definite action in the matter at the present time.

CARTAGE COMPANY HAULS BIG LOAD

One of the heaviest loads ever hauled on the streets of Peterborough was that which the Peterborough Fuel and Cartage Company yesterday afternoon hauled from the G. T. R. station to the Examiner office, the load consisting of 6 tons of box board, constituting part of a car load of cardboard ordered by this office to be used in the box-making department.

SOME WORK FOR THE BOARD OF HEALTH

The residents of East City, near the river, are complaining of the odour rising from the old raceway of the McAllister mill. It appears that some months ago the entrance to the raceway from above was stopped, and, since that time, the water has been stagnant, simply backing up from the river below. With the coming of the warm weather, a most offensive odour has developed, and the residents of that section of the city are making complaints. They think that the Board of Health might, with profit to the health of the city, take the matter up and provide a remedy, which, they claim, could very easily be done. As it is at present, it is neither healthy nor pleasant.

Amended Plans Approved Of Doctors' Association Held Meeting Yesterday Evening.

A meeting of the Peterborough Doctors' Association was held last evening in the Council Chambers to consider the plans of the Isolation Hospital. The meeting was not largely attended so that the business transacted was limited.

A resolution was passed to the effect that the plans presented as amended in the last meeting would be approved of by the Association.

Lightning Plays Strange Prank

Young Lady Struck and Rendered Unconscious.

A despatch from Stony Lake says: "There was a very strange freak of lightning here on Monday evening. A young lady went out of the house just as it was getting dark, when a very vivid flash struck her and knocked her down. She was unconscious for a few minutes and the rest of the evening complained of severe headaches, but on Tuesday morning she was all right. There was no thunder, and only the one flash of lightning, but that was very bright."

TRANSFORMER LEAK UP AGAIN

At the meeting of the Board of Works last night Ald. Graham complained that the transformer of the Peterborough Light and Power Company on Hunter street, referred to by Ald. Ball some weeks ago, was still leaking oil on the sidewalk, and he thought that the attention of the Company should be called to the fact once more. Ald. Adams reported that he had spoken to the manager and he had assured him that it would be attended to at once.

Britain Reaps Gold From The Americans

Scots Watch the Shower Gladden London and Pray That Very Soon it May Blow Over Their Way.

Edinburgh, Scotland, June 22. — Scotland is hoping for and expecting a generous overflow, of the extravagance of Americans now flocking to London.

American millionairesses are paying almost fabulous rates for the loan of famous houses in Mayfair, London. West End mansions belonging to noble English families are let for June and July at huge sums, the owners living elsewhere for the time being.

An American millionaire—a man from Philadelphia—walked into the Carlton Hotel and took a whole floor for his own use.

London is outrivaling Paris this season as the centre of gayety, and Americans are everywhere and spending money lavishly. Two social parties in one week cost fully $25,000 apiece. The flowers alone at one ball cost $10,000.

Golf and motoring divide the attention of the smart set. Private links enable learners to practise until they can appear at the fashionable courses. Long prices are being paid for automobiles.

Scotland is to see many well known American men and women this season. Mr. Carnegie is making a brief stay in England before journeying to Skibo Castle in Sutherlandshire, and has begun his usual holiday task of opening free libraries (which have been constructed at his expense). His engagement book is well filled for the next few months.

On the golf links this year in Scotland American foursomes will be prominent.

Mr. Rockefeller is expected to visit one of the more retired seaside courses when he arrives from the Continent.

The Duchess of Roxburghe and her mother, Mrs. Goelet, were at Dunbar, where the Duchess took lessons in golf from the society professional, little Ben Sayers, of North Berwick, whose list of titled clients is a very long one. Mrs. Goelet has just had built for her own use a motor boat. The designs for this small craft were prepared by the firm of which the late G. L. Watson was the head, and the boat is now ready in the builder's yard on the Clyde.

Americans over here will be in constant touch with their home country as soon as the new Scottish wireless telegraph station is in working order. A 450-foot high tower has been erected at Machribanish, famed far and wide for its golf links. This tower has a cap-like arrangement at top, all bristling with spikes, and the whole ground within the boundaries is covered with a network of wires. The National Electric Signalling Company of Pittsburg has leased the Ugadale estate for six years. The corresponding tower on the American side of the Atlantic is near Boston.

ENGLAND

A sensational story was related at Plymouth a few days ago by the passengers who landed from the P. and O. liner, Somali, which caught fire in the Bay of Biscay, whilst homeward bound with 80 passengers from Calcutta to London. On entering the Bay of Biscay one of the crew noticed smoke and flames pouring out of the rear fore hold. The crew were quickly summoned to the fire stations, but as they had been regularly exercised at once once or twice a week throughout the voyage, the passengers, who heard the bell, were not disturbed, imagining it simply to be a practice. The fire was found to be seated among the jute stowed in bales in the hold, adjoining which were the baggage rooms, the store room and the refrigerating chamber, all of which were attacked in turn, but fortunately a strong bulk head shut off the engine room from the flames. After a fierce struggle the fire appeared to be well under control, but whilst dinner was in progress it was noticed that there was a renewal of activity, and that the fire had extended to, and completely enveloped the store room, from whilst the officers had only time to take 12 tins of biscuits before the flames and smoke drove them from the place. Soon it was evident that the fire was raging more furiously than ever, and an increasing source of anxiety was the fact that the plates were getting red hot and there was reason to fear that the consequences might be most disastrous through the rivets dropping out and causing the side of the ship to collapse. In view of any emergency that might arise the boats were hoisted out and in them were placed the small quantities of provisions that were available, as with the store room and refrigerator in flames, there was comparatively little food to be spared. As it was, short rations were the order of the day, and it was as much to secure fresh supplies as to land the passengers that the Somali put into Plymouth.

Strange, unaccountable things are befalling in the neighbourhood of Lamberhurst, Kent. The villagers are convinced that they are sheltering one of the most audacious, enterprising and mysterious working ghosts recorded in the annals of the unseen. At the Furnace Mill, owned by Mr. J. C. Playfoot, a well-to-do farmer and hop grower the ghost has established his headquarters. Mr. Playfoot has not discharged anyone and the approach to the mill by any stranger would be disputed by two watchdogs that would not stand on any ceremony. Besides that Mr. Playfoot carries in his own pockets the keys of the mill, stables, hayrooms, and other buildings. Despite all these precautions, locked and bolted doors swing open, the horses are changed from stable to stable, are sometimes turned around in their stalls, so that their backs are against the mangers, and are often seen to run shivering and startled from their stables into the road. Mr. Playfoot describes this strangest "manifestation" of all. "About noon a few days ago," he said, "in the presence of my son, I locked and bolted every building on the premises and went into the house for dinner. Suddenly I heard a startled cry from the lad, and rushing into the yard saw the door of the drying room only ten yards away, wide open. Within the room I heard the shouts of the lad, but before I could reach him the door silently closed. I seized the handle. The door was locked! My son was a prisoner inside! The key of the room was in my pocket. I unlocked the door and entered the room. Nobody was there except my son, standing on the stairs, frightened and pale."

The voyage of the hundred boys from the training ship Warspite, who were drafted on to the four-masted sailing ship Port Jackson for a training cruise to Australia, commenced with the exciting adventure of a collision in the English Channel a few days ago. The Port Jackson was proceeding under sail in a thick fog between Beachy Head and the Owers Lightship, when the lookout suddenly observed a large steamer, which proved to be the Pyrgos, of Hamburg, bearing directly down on her. Every effort was made to avoid a collision, and they were so far successful that the blow from the steamer was received on the Port Jackson's starboard bow. The impact was terrific. The captain, with great coolness, gave orders for the Warspite boys to be mustered on deck in case of disaster, while the crew were told off to make arrangements for lowering the boats and getting out the life-saving appliances. The lads were formed up on the officers' instructions and stood to attention awaiting the next orders of the captain. It was a wonderful sight to see these lads coolly parading in this manner in the face of possible disaster.

A thrilling story of their experiences was told by the passengers of the Hamburg-American liner Graf Waldersee, when they landed at Dover recently. The liner arrived with her coal bunkers empty, so long had been the voyage owing to the severe weather. When two days out from New York the liner encountered one of the severest storms ever known on the Atlantic. Early in the storm the steamer sprang a leak, and the pumps were started and kept going continuously for 10 days until she arrived at Dover. There were 1,300 passengers on board, and for three consecutive days they were confined to their cabins on account of the danger on deck. Great seas often swept the vessel from stem to stern, the water surging up to the boat deck. The Graf Waldersee is of 13,500 tons register, but in spite of her size she rolled so violently that table and glassware flew right and left. Stewards who have been crossing for many years never knew a trip in which the breakage had been so great.

The Cunard Company recently performed the unusual office of trustees of a wealthy American named Theodore Kearney, who was taken ill while crossing to England on the Caronia, and died before reaching Liverpool. Just before he expired he summoned the commander and purser of the ship, and placed his papers in their keeping. When he died the papers were examined and they showed that he was a raisin grower of Fresno, California. His will was among the papers, and it provided for a bequest of all his estate, amounting to £150,000, to the University of California, for the purpose of establishing a viticultural station at Fresno. He also left instructions that his remains were to be cremated, and a few days ago the Cunards carried out this part of their trust at Liverpool. The ashes were placed in an urn, and they will be sent to Fresno to be deposited in a mausoleum erected by Mr. Kearney.

SCOTLAND

The funeral of a Glasgow man recently brought to light a most remarkable story. Eight or nine years ago a handsome Canadian carpenter, engaged at work in Sascombe, fell in love with a local barmaid. In the course of a few months they were married, and lived happily, but the young Canadian took a berth as ship's carpenter on a vessel sailing from the Mersey bound eastward. At Suez he obtained a lucrative appointment. He wrote to his wife, and regularly enclosed remittances for the maintenance of herself and a little son. Arrangements were made for the wife to join her husband, but the latter disappeared in a mysterious and inexplicable manner. Inquiries were made, but the efforts of officials were of no avail. The young Canadian had left no trace behind him. A few years of widowhood were passed, and the young wife believed her husband dead. Another admirer came on the scene, who succeeded in gaining the affections of the widow. They were married. One morning there was a knock at the door. The visitor turned out to be the first and legal husband of the woman, who had returned after an absence of eight years. There was an affecting scene, for the Canadian pleaded that his affection had not diminished. He, however, took a sensible view of the situation, and without much bother offered to leave the woman's future entirely in her own hands. He, in short, gave her the the privilege of choosing between the two, and she selected the man whom she had recently married. Evidently considerably affected by the decision the Canadian left the house, and has not since been heard of. The sad conclusion of this remarkable story is that the woman's second husband fell ill a short time ago, and died. The Canadian disappeared as completely as he did a few years ago.

A thrilling story is told by the survivors of the Glasgow steamer Carrick, which was run down and sunk off Loch Ryan, on the Wigtownshire coast, recently by the steamer Duke of Gordon. Six lives were lost. The Duke of Gordon suddenly sighted the Carrick looming close on the starboard bow. There was no time for the steamers to change their positions, and a moment later the Duke of Gordon crashed into the Carrick forward of the fore-rigging, and cut her right in two. Then followed a wild scene. There were 200 cattle aboard the sinking Carrick, and they stampeded and greatly impeded such endeavours as could be made to save the crew and passengers of the doomed steamer. Captain Leadbetter died a hero's death. He was on the bridge to the last superintending the issue of lifebelts to the passengers and crew. Just before he went down with the ship he refused to leave, but bade the chief engineer goodbye, adding: "I hope we will meet in Heaven." The fourteen survivors had a very trying experience. Some had to beat off with oars the maddened cattle wildly plunging in the sea and threatening to swamp the frail craft. Others had to use their caps to bale the water out of the leaking boat.

A remarkable and pathetic "human document" was read in the course of an inquest at Edinburgh on the body of a woman who was found drowned recently. The following letter was discovered on the body: "I write this to be opened when I am found, as a confession of my vile and wasted life. I have taken my life because I know I am a thorough waster, and I feel too vile to live with my fellow-creatures. I have had a visitation from God, and He has shown me what

The Two Vanrevels

By BOOTH TARKINGTON,

Author of "The Gentleman From Indiana" and "Monsieur Beaucaire"

Copyright, 1902, by S. S. McClure Co.

He was rather radical in his literary preferences and hurt the elder Chenoweth's feelings by laughing heartily at some poems of the late Lord Byron, offended many people by disliking the style of Sir Edward Bulwer and even refused to admit that James Fenimore Cooper was the greatest novelist that ever lived. But these things were as nothing compared with his unpatriotic defense of Charles Dickens. Many Americans had fallen into a great rage over the vivacious assault upon the United States in "Martin Chuzzlewit." Nevertheless Crailey still boldly hailed him, as every one had heretofore agreed, the most dexterous writer of his day and the most notable humorist of any day. Of course the Englishman had not visited and thoroughly studied such a city as Rouen, Crailey confessed twinklingly; but, after all, wasn't there some truth in "Martin Chuzzlewit?" Mr. Dickens might have been far from a clear understanding of our people, but didn't it argue a pretty ticklish vanity in ourselves that we were so fiercely resentful of satire, and was not this very heat over "Martin Chuzzlewit" a confirmation of one of the points the book had presented against us? General Trumble replied to this suggestion with a personal one to the effect that a man capable of saying a good word for so monstrous a slander—that a man, sir, capable of declaring his native country to be vain or sensitive, ought to be horsewhipped, and at this Crailey laughed consummately.

Trumble retorted with the names of Benedict Arnold and Aaron Burr. "And if it comes to a war with these greasers," he spluttered apoplectically, "and it is coming, mighty soon, we'll find Mr. Gray down in Mexico throwing mud on the stars and stripes and cheering for that one legged horse thief, Santa Anna! Anything to seek out something foolish among your own people!"

"Don't have to seek far sometimes, general," murmured Crailey from the depths of the best chair in the club, whereupon Trumble, not trusting himself to answer, went out to the street.

CHAPTER V.

MISS CAREWE was at her desk, writing to Sister Cecilia, whom she most loved of all the world, when the bells startled her with their sudden clangor. The quill dropped from her hand, she started to her feet, wide eyed, not understanding, while the whole town, drowsing peacefully a moment ago, resounded immediately with a loud confusion. She ran to the front door and looked out, her heart beating wildly.

The western sky was touched with a soft rose color, which quickly became a warm glow, fluctuating, and in the instant shot up like the coming of a full aurora. Then through the broken foliage of the treetops could be seen the orange curls of flame, three-quarters of a mile away though they were.

People calling loudly that "it was Carewe's warehouses" were running down the street. From the stable old Nelson on her father's best horse came galloping and, seeing the white figure in the doorway, cried out in a quavering voice without checking his steed:

"I goin' to tell yo' pa, Miss Betty. He in de kentry on lan' bus'ness. Go back in de house, missy!"

The other servants, like ragged sketches in the night, flitted by with excited ejaculations to join the runners, and Miss Betty followed them across the dew strewn turf in her light slippers, but at the gate she stopped.

From up the street came the sound of a bell smaller than those of the churches and courthouse, yet one that outdid all others in the madness of its appeal to clear the way. It was borne along by what seemed at first an indefinite black mass, but which—as the aurora grew keener, producing even here a faint yellow twilight—resolved itself into a mob of hoarsely shouting men and boys, who were running and tugging at ropes which drew along three extraordinary vehicles. They came rapidly down the street and passed Miss Betty with a hubbub and din beyond all understanding—one line of men, most of them in red shirts and oilcloth helmets, at a dead run with the hose cart, a second with the hand engine, the third dragging the ladder wagon. One man was riding, a tall, straight gentleman in evening clothes and without a hat, who stood precariously in the hose cart calling in an annoyed tone through a brazen trumpet. Miss Betty recognized him at once. It was he who caught her kitten, and she thought that if she had been Fanchon Bareaud she must have screamed a warning, for his balance appeared a thing of mere luck, and if he fell he would be trampled under foot and probably run over by the engine. But happily, she remembered, she was not Fanchon Bareaud.

Before, behind and beside the department raced a throng of boys, wild with the joy experienced by their species when property is being handsomely destroyed. After them came panting women, holding their sides and gasping with the effort to keep up with the flying procession.

Miss Betty trembled, for she had never seen the like in her life. She stood close to the hedge and let them go by. Then she turned in after them and ran like a fleet young deer. She was going to the fire.

Over all the uproar could be heard the angry voice through the trumpet calling the turns of the streets to the men in vain, upbraiding them and those of the other two companies impartially, and few of his hearers denied the chief his right to express some chagrin, since the department, organized a half year, hard drilled and this its first fire worth the name, was late on account of the refusal of the members to move until they had donned their new uniforms, for the uniforms had arrived from Philadelphia two months ago, and tonight offered the first opportunity to display them in public.

"Hail Vanrevel!" panted Tappingham Marsh to Eugene Madrillon as the two, running in the van of the "hose company," splattered through a mud puddle. "You'd think he was Carewe's only son and heir instead of his worst enemy. Hark to the man!"

"I'd let it burn if I were he," returned the other.

"It was all Crailey's fault," said Tappingham, swinging an arm free to wipe the spattered mud from his face. "He swore he wouldn't budge without his uniform, and the rest only backed him up, that was all. Crailey said Carewe could better afford to lose his shanties than the overworked department its first chance to look beautiful and earnest. Tom asked him why he didn't send for a fiddle," Marsh finished, with a chuckle.

"Carewe might afford to lose a little, even a warehouse or two, if only out of what he's taken from Crailey and the rest of us these three years."

"Taken from Vanrevel, you mean. Who doesn't know where Crailey's—Here's Main street. Look out for the turn."

They swung out of the thick shadows of Carewe street into full view of the fire, and their faces were illuminated as by sunrise.

The warehouses stood on the river bank, at the foot of the street, just south of the new "covered bridge." There were four of them, huge, bare sided buildings, the two nearer the bridge of brick, the others of wood and all of them rich with stores of every kind of river merchandise and costly freight—furniture that had voyaged from New England down the long coast, across the Mexican gulf, through the flat delta and had made the winding journey up the great river a thousand miles and almost a thousand more, following the greater and lesser tributaries; cloth from Connecticut that had been sold in Philadelphia, then carried over mountains and through forests by steam, by canal, by stage and six mule freight wagons to Pittsburg, down the Ohio and thence up to Rouen on the packet; Tennessee cotton, on its way to Massachusetts and Rhode Island spindles, lay there beside huge mounds of raw wool from Illinois, ready to be fed to the Rouen mill; dates and nuts from the Caribbean sea, lemons from groves of the faraway tropics, cigars from the Antilles, tobacco from Virginia and Kentucky; most precious of all, the great granary of the farmers' wheat from the level fields at home; and all the rich stores and the houses that held them, as well as the wharfs upon which they had been landed and the steamers that brought them up the Rouen river, belonged to Robert Carewe.

That it was her father's property which was imperiled attested to the justification of Miss Betty in running to a fire, and as she followed the crowd into Main street she felt a not unpleasant proprietary interest in the spectacle. Very opposite sensations agitated the breast of the man with the trumpet, who was more acutely conscious than any other that these were Robert Carewe's possessions which were burning so handsomely. Nor was he the only one among the firemen who ground his teeth over the folly of the uniforms, for now they could plainly see the ruin being wrought, the devastation threatened. The two upper stories of the southernmost warehouse had swathed themselves in one great flame, the building next on the north, also of frame, was smoking heavily, and there was a wind from the southwest which, continuing with the fire unchecked, threatened the town itself. There was work for the volunteer brigade that night.

They came down Main street with a rush, the figure of their chief swaying over them on his high perch, while their shouting was drowned in the louder roar of greeting from the crowd into which they plunged as a diver into the water, swirls and eddies of people marking the wake. A moment later a section of the roof of the burning warehouse fell in with a sonorous and reverberating crash.

The engine company ran the force pump out to the end of one of the lower wharfs, two lines of pipe were attached, two rows of men mounted the planks for the pumpers and at the word of command began the up and down of the hand machine with admirable vim. Nothing happened; the water did not come; something appeared to be wrong with the mechanism. As every one felt the crucial need of haste, nothing could have been more natural than that all the members of the engine company should simultaneously endeavor to repair the defect. Therefore ensued upon the spot a species of riot which put the engine out of its sphere of usefulness.

In the meantime fifty or sixty men and boys who ran with the machines, but who had no place in their operation, being the bucket brigade, had formed a line and were throwing large pails of water in the general direction of the southernmost warehouse, which it was now impossible to save, while the gentlemen of the hook and ladder company, abandoning their wagons and armed with axes, heroically assaulted the big door of the granary, the second building, whence they were driven by the exasperated chief, who informed them that the only way to save the wheat was to save the building. Crailey Gray, one of the berated axmen, remained by the shattered door after the others had gone and, struck by a sudden thought, set his hand upon the iron latch and opened the door by this simple process. It was not locked. Crailey leaned against the casement and laughed with his whole soul and body.

Meanwhile, by dint of shouting in men's ears when near them, through the trumpet when distant, tearing axes from their hands, imperiously gesticulating to subordinate commanders and lingering in no one spot for more than a second, Mr. Vanrevel reduced his forces to a semblance of order in a remarkably short time, considering the confusion into which they had fallen.

The space between the burning warehouse and that next it was not more than fifty feet in width, but fifty feet so hot no one took thought of entering there, an area as discomfiting in appearance as it was beautiful with the thick rain of sparks and firebrands that fell upon it. But the chief had decided that this space must be occupied and, more, must be held, since it was the only point of defense for the second warehouse. The roof of this

ARE

Fruit-a-tives are the marvels of modern medicine. They have accomplished more actual cures—done more good to more people—than any other medicine ever introduced in Canada for the time they have been on sale.

Fruit-a-tives are fruit juices. They are nature's cure for —CONSTIPATION

—BILIOUSNESS
—BAD STOMACH
—DYSPEPSIA
—HEADACHES
—IMPURE BLOOD
—SKIN DISEASES
—KIDNEY TROUBLE
—RHEUMATISM
—IRRITATED HEART

Fruit-a-tives are the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes. These juices are concentrated—and by a secret process, the juices are combined in a peculiar manner. This new combination is much more active medicinally than fresh juices—yet so perfect is the union that Fruit-a-tives act on the system as if they were in truth a natural fruit, medicinally stronger than any other known fruit.

To this combination of fruit juices, tonics and internal antiseptics are added, and the whole made into tablets.

These are Fruit-a-tives—sold everywhere for 50c a box or 6 boxes for $2.50.

Chemists and Physicians say there Can't be a Better Medecine for women

than Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets

Women who Have Taken Them Say So, Too.

Before we began making Health Tablets we submitted the formula to many physicians and chemists for their opinion.

We wanted to improve it, if it could be improved, as we were bound to have not only the latest but the best possible medicine for women.

But we found out it couldn't be improved.

A firm of chemists, known all over America, wrote to us:

"We cannot suggest a single change or addition that would improve the formula or make it more beneficial to women."

And the doctors to whom the formula was submitted said the same thing.

And better still, the remarkable results obtained from their use by women suffering from a run-down condition or some female weakness, prove that the doctors and chemists were right.

For after all, results speak louder than words.

We want you to take just one box of these tablets, and you will share the opinion of these doctors and chemists that outcrop would burn, which would mean the destruction of the warehouse, unless it could be mounted, because the streams of water could not play upon it from the ground nor from the ladders do much more than wet the projecting eaves. It was a gable roof, the eaves twenty feet lower on the south side than on the north, where the ladders could not hope to reach. Vanrevel swung his line of bucketeers round to throw water not upon the flames but upon the ladder men.

Miss Carewe stood in the crowd upon the opposite side of the broad street. Even there her cheeks were uncomfortably hot, and sometimes she had to brush a spark from her shoulder, though she was too much excited to mind this. She was watching the beautiful fiery furnace between the north wall of the burning warehouse and the south wall of its neighbor, the fifty feet brilliant and misty with vaporous rose color, dotted with the myriad red stars, her eyes shining with the reflection of their fierce beauty. She saw how the vapors moved there, like men walking in fire, and she was vaguely recalling Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, when over the silhouetted heads of the crowd before her a long black ladder rose, wabbled, tilted crazily, then lamely advanced and ranged itself against the south wall of the second warehouse, its top rung striking ten feet short of the eaves. She hoped that no one had any notion of mounting that ladder.

A figure appeared upon it immediately, that of a gentleman, bareheaded and in evening dress, with a brass trumpet swinging from a cord about his shoulders. The noise grew less, the shouting died away, and the crowd became almost silent as the figure, climbing slowly, drew up above their heads.

Two or three rungs beneath came a second, a man in helmet and uniform. The clothes of both men, drenched by the bucketeers, clung to them, steaming. As the second figure mounted a third appeared, but this was the last, for the ladder was frail and sagged toward the smoking wall with the weight of the three.

The chief, three-fourths of the way to the top, shouted down a stifled command, and a short grappling ladder, fitted at one end with a pair of spiked iron hooks, was passed to him. Then he toiled upward until his feet rested on the third rung from the top. Here he turned, setting his back to the wall, tilted the grappling ladder high over his head so that it rested against the eaves above him and brought it down sharply, fastening the spiked hooks in the roof. As the eaves projected fully three feet, this left the grappling ladder hanging that distance out from the wall, its lowest rung a little above the level of the chief's shoulders.

Miss Betty drew in her breath with a little choked cry. There was a small terraced hill of piled up packing boxes near her, possession of which had been taken by a company of raggamuffinish boys, and she found herself standing on the highest box and sharing the summit with these questionable youths, almost without noting her action in mounting thither, so strained was the concentration of her attention upon the figure high up in the rose glow against the warehouse wall. The man, surely, surely, was not going to trust himself to that bit of wooden web hanging from the roof! Where was Miss Bareaud that she permitted it? Ah, if Betty had been Fanchon, and mad woman enough to have accepted this madman, she would have compelled him to come down at once, and thereafter would lock him up in the house whenever the bells rang!

But the roof was to be mounted or Robert Carewe's property lost. Already little flames were dancing up from the shingles, where firebrands had fallen, their number increasing with each second. So Vanrevel raised his arms, took a hard grip upon the lowest rung of the grappling ladder and tried it with his weight. The iron hooks bit deeper into the roof; they held. He swung himself out into the air, with nothing beneath him, caught the rung under his knee, and for a moment hung there, while the crowd withheld from breathing. Then a cloud of smoke swirling that way made him the mere ghostly nucleus of itself, blotted him out altogether, and, as it rose slowly upward, showed the ladder free and empty, so that at first there was an instant when they thought that he had fallen, but, as the smoke cleared, there was the tall figure on the roof.

It was an agile and a daring thing to do, and the man who did it was mightily applauded. The cheering bothered him, however, for he was trying to make them understand below what would happen to the engine company in case the water was not sent through the lines directly, and what he said should be done to the engineers included things that would have blanched the cheek of the most inventive Spanish inquisitor that ever lived.

Miss Betty made a gesture as if to a person within whispering distance. "Your coat is on fire," she said in an ordinary conversational tone without knowing she had spoken aloud, and Mr. Vanrevel, more than a hundred feet away, seemed particularly conscious of the pertinence of her remark. He removed the garment with alacrity, and for the lack of the tardy water began to use it as a flail upon the firebrands and little flames about him, the sheer desperate best of a man in a rage doing what he could when others failed him. Showers of sparks fell upon him. The smoke was rising everywhere from the roof and the walls below and, growing denser and denser, shrouded him in heavy veils, so that as he ran hither and thither, now visible, now unseen, stamping and beating and sweeping away the brands that fell, he seemed but the red and ghostly caricature of a Xerxes ineffectually lashing the sea. They were calling to him imploringly to come down, in heaven's name to come down!

The second man had followed to the top of the ladder against the wall, and there he paused, waiting to pass up the line of hose when the word should come that the force pump had been repaired, but the people thought that he waited because he was afraid to trust himself to the grappling ladder. He was afraid, exceedingly afraid, though that was not why he waited, and he was still chuckling over the assault of the axes.

He swung himself out into the air

His situation had not much the advantage of that of the chief. His red shirt might have been set with orange jewels, so studded it was with the flying sparks, and, a large brand dropping upon his helmet, he threw up his hand to dislodge it and lost the helmet. The great light fell upon his fair hair and smiling face, and it was then that Miss Betty recognized the incroyable of her garden.

Will be continued next Saturday.

LITTLE Bell BIOGRAPHIES

J. Haydn

FRANCIS JOSEPH HAYDN, born at Rohrau 1732, died at Vienna 1809, was another of the 18th century musicians who became famous in their 'teens. His name is inseparably and popularly linked with that of George Frederick Handel in that mode of dramatic music called Oratorio. Handel is the composer of the incomparable "Messiah," and Haydn of the equally incomparable "Creation." This oratorio, written in his 60th year, is to-day as popular as 100 years ago.

Haydn's compositions comprise almost every form of vocal and instrumental music, yet his chief distinction is not in oratorio. His rank in the musical world is determined by his service to instrumental music. He fixed the form of the sonata and symphony which Beethoven (who called him "Papa" Haydn) perfected in beauty and expressiveness, for one thing substituting the light, gay Scherzo for Haydn's stately Minuets. As the musical father of Beethoven, Haydn is perhaps justly styled the father of classical instrumental music.

For the piano he composed 44 sonatas. The wonder is how in those days of the harpsichord, clavier and spinet—small and thin-voiced instruments—the composers could conceive and write sonatas the beauties of which could be revealed only by some such perfect instrument as

The Bell Piano

Distinguished in every mechanical device, and producing a full, rich Singing Tone, the Bell Art Piano enables the performer to overcome every technical difficulty and thus to express the pure music of the composer with the utmost perfection and beauty. The Latest In Fashion's Realm; Items Of Interest To Ladies

MOURNING MODES.

The Trappings of Woe Alluringly Becoming—White Crape a Fad.

All the pretty tricks of the manufacturers are resorted to in mourning materials. These fabrics are chiffoned and softened in a manner particularly adapted to somber fashions.

Black voiles and veilings for dressier wear and the new serges for hard service are the materials used in fashioning mourning frocks. For little dresses just removed from shirt waist suits black poncee is a favorite fabric, as is soft dull silk.

"Best" mourning gowns are made of crepe de chine, trimmed either with self tucks, shirrings and plaitings or with a little dull jet or chiffon.

White crape is considered very chic and smart mourning for evening wear, with never a touch of black.

Sleeves on mourning costumes are generally of three-quarter length rather than the popular elbow, and long sleeves appear upon many of the handsomest confections.

SERGE MOURNING COSTUME.

Mourning hats are coquettish and display the all prevalent tilts, and sharp lines are softened with quantities of tulle. Some of the lightest and prettiest of the summer mourning hats are made entirely of malines. Crape makes attractive little toques laid in soft folds when adorned with rosettes of the same material.

Buttons and braids in mourning are all of dull finish, and the ribbons used should be grosgrain. For girdles black and white belting is much liked.

The mourning gown illustrated is of black serge. The skirt has a triple hip yoke, from which the material gracefully falls at sides and back in soft lines. The front width is in panel effect. Narrow braid trims the skirt and bloused jacket. The smart neck trimming and collar are of crape.

BEAUTY HINTS.

To Ward Off Wrinkles.

The skin should be perfectly clean before the massaging of the face is begun. Use the complexion brush, with warm water and pure soap. When rubbing in a cream always have the motions upward and outward. Send the flattened palms from chin up to the ears. Move the finger tips about in little circles, pressing inward gently and being careful not to push the flesh up into tiny lines. Do this always at night and every morning bathe the face with cold water, drying with gentle pats and an old soft towel.

For the Complexion.

In caring for the complexion it is well to remember that what may be good for one skin may prove injurious to another.

Glycerin, for example, agrees perfectly with some and burns others. Benzoin cannot be applied to some and smoothes others, and so on.

That is why it is best for a woman to use discretion in the selection of her lotions and creams and also why one complains that such and such a cream brings pimples and blotches, and directly after another woman extols the identical article as having improved her skin wonderfully.

Many times it is in the method rather than in the article itself that the difference lies. One woman will give her face the cleansing needed to relieve the congestion of the pores caused by the accumulation of dust and other particles that form blackheads; then she will rub in the cream recommended, the result being a great improvement. The other woman will carelessly rub a wet cloth over the face and neck, leaving the grime all on. When the cream is applied it is exactly like a coat of paint over a dirty window or door frame. The dirt shows through and looks worse than before.

How to Brush the Hair.

There is a right and a wrong way of brushing the hair, as there is of doing everything else. First, part down the center above the forehead and give it twenty brisk strokes on either side.

Divide it down the back and repeat the same process. Next brush it back from the ears, giving it always the twenty strokes. Persevere with this treatment, and your hair will soon become soft and glossy and repay the trouble taken with it.

Massage to Strengthen Muscles.

Massage is good for double chin and to strengthen relaxed muscles. Rub the chin night and morning for ten minutes, beginning under the chin and rubbing up toward the ear, doing both sides at once. Never rub down. A lotion to use instead of cold cream is made of one-quarter of an ounce of oil of rosemary, a dram of oil of lavender, fifteen drops of oil of petit grain, two drams of tincture of tolu, one-quarter of a pint of rosewater and three-quarters of a pint of spirits of wine. Use freely, letting it dry in.

Ointment For Eyebrows.

Ointment for scant eyebrows: Two and a half ounces of cologne, one and a half ounces of glycerin, two drams of fluid extract of jaborandi. Agitate the ingredients until thoroughly incorporated. Apply to the eyebrows with a tiny brush. This preparation can be used for the eyelashes as well, but it must be applied very cautiously, as almost anything in the form of oil or alcohol will irritate the eyes.

plait the fronts and back. A tiny frill of dainty footing edges the front box plait.

The picture shows one of the latest blouse fancies. It is fashioned of sprigged net, and the salient features of the style are the shoulder straps, into which the material both back and front is gathered. The sleeves are formed of puffs to the elbow, or rather a trifle above it, and are set into the arm with three rows of gathers and finished at the elbow with a frill of lace. At the top are epaulets of lace, a becoming addition to the otherwise flat shoulders. The vest is made of tiny lace ruffles. Graduated bows of velvet ribbon hold the fronts in place.

TENNIS GOWNS.

Gingham Dresses In Vogue For Sports and Morning Wear.

For tennis and golf as well as for general morning use gingham dresses have returned to vogue for summer wear. So far the gingham gowns are all simply made, but attractive colors are selected, and there is considerable style to all the dresses that have so far been made up in this material. Not only for the country are gingham dresses to be worn, but there are many fascinatingly pretty traveling shirt waist dresses now made up in the darker shades.

For tennis a gown should be simple, and now that the only shirt waists permitted must needs be so fine and so expensive, a more serviceable style of dress must be found for general wear. Gingham wears well and keeps its color, and besides these advantages it is considered cooler than linen. The prettiest gingham dresses are of the check and plaid material. The check can be of any size, but the small design is generally most becoming. The gown must be simply made, that is, it must have only just sufficient lace and tucking to make it becoming. If one is regardless of sunburn and freckles a pretty tennis gown can be worn with a low flat lace collar with a large ribbon bow at the throat, while the sleeves are elbow length with a turned back lace cuff. Across the shoulders and down the back are one-inch tucks. The skirt is of course quite short, finished simply about the hem with some tucks or folds of the material. Either a leather or a ribbon belt may be worn with this frock, or else a wide belt of the material fastened in front with a large gold or metal buckle will carry out the simplicity of the costume.

KEEP CHILDREN WELL

In thousands of homes throughout Canada there are bright thriving children who have been made well and are kept happy by the use of Baby's Own Tablets. In many homes parents say this medicine saved a precious little one's. Dr. A. Dennis, L.D.S., Riviere du Loup, Que., says: "At the age of five months we thought our little girl was dying. Nothing we did for her helped her until we gave her Baby's Own Tablets and only those who have seen her can realize what a change this medicine has wrought in our child. She is now about eighteen months old, eats well, sleeps well, and is a lively, laughing child, and weighs 27 pounds. We always keep the Tablets in the house now for we know their great value." If mothers wish to feel absolutely safe we would advise them to keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house always. They cure all the minor ailments of children, and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

If You Are—Er—Plump.

The stout woman who dresses to her figure rather than to fashionable models is always more charmingly gowned than she who wears what is fashionable in itself rather than what is suitable.

Don't use frills of any kind on a gown if you are stout. Use flat trimmings.

Don't wear wide belts.

Don't trim a skirt except at the bottom.

Don't wear a sleeve that is full below the elbow.

Don't wear an Eton coat. Always have the coat line extended as far below the waist line as possible.

Don't wear a tight fitting coat.

Don't wear bow ties. Wear something small and narrow if a tie is required.

Don't wear fluffy things around the neck. Let the neck finishing be as flat as possible.

SMART SUMMER FROCKS.

Fine Materials Used and Yards and Yards of Lace.

Exquisitely fine materials are used for summer frocks made up with equally fine lace, yards and yards of the lace most beautifully appliqued on to or inserted into whatever is chosen—batiste, veiling, lawn or even silk.

Skirts are wide and long, and often there is so much lace used in them that at first glance it seems as though there were more lace than material. So arranged as to form squares or in lines, always flat and often with two or three kinds of lace used together, the effect is charming. The lining may be white or colored, as desired, but whether white or color be used the pattern of the lace always stands out against the silk lining. All white is always smart, and exclusive models indicate that again this summer, like last year, color in some way or other must be introduced. The wide girdles of plain or flowered ribbon, the broad sashes, the tiny knots and bows of ribbon—all give opportunity for the introduction of color, and often of more than one, for among the new fads is the bodice or girdle of two shades of color.

The embroidered linens and muslins, hand and machine made as well, furnish an apparently endless supply of patterns—and prices. Fortunately for the great majority the imitation or machine made cannot always be distinguished at first glance and is far less expensive. At the same time there is an immense amount of hand embroidery not of a very fine quality that is effective and attractive and quite inexpensive.

MODES FOR MEN.

Smart and Comfortable Negligee Suits For Hot Days.

For the hot days a special style of suit has been designed, which, although termed the "outing suit" is being generally adopted as proper for the heated term, whether it be spent at the seaside, in the mountains or in town.

This suit is designed for negligee wear and consists of coat and trousers, the waistcoat having been eliminated, as the suit is designed for wear with the soft bosomed negligee shirt. These garments are built for comfort, but there is a grace of outline and a beauty of finish about them which is pleasing to the eye and comforting to the mind. The suits for 1906 are roomy garments, the coat hanging from broad, well shaped shoulders and the trousers being broad in the legs and shaped for comfort. The coats are either quarter lined or skeleton finished, thus making them as light as possible. Either single or double breasted styles may be selected. The trousers are finished with belt loops and are turned up at the bottom.

The outing suit may be obtained in a great variety of materials, such as tropical worsteds in plain and mixed effects, blue and gray serges, light weight flannel cassimeres and homespuns and imported flannels. The latter is a pleasing material and is shown in a number of effective patterns such as stripes and overplaids. A flannel outing suit is very pleasing to wear and gives good service.

The real outing suit, the one which is worn on the golf links and tennis court, is a very negligee costume indeed, and it is designed for comfort, with style a secondary consideration. A blue serge coat of either single or double breasted pattern and trousers of white flannel are the principal garments. A negligee shirt worn either with a stock or a fancy colored handkerchief tied loosely about the neck, white canvas shoes and a white duck tennis hat completes the costume which is affected by the young man who goes in for outdoor athletics with the idea of thorough enjoyment. As an additional precaution against cold when not in action, a knitted jacket which has replaced the sweater is worn. This jacket is put on like a waistcoat and fits snugly to the figure. It is made of highly colored material, reds, greens, blues and grays being the colors mostly worn.

At the seaside the outing dress chiefly follows the style set by the yachtsman. Duck trousers with wide turn up bottoms, canvas shoes, double breasted blue serge reefer and yachting cap make up the costume.

A Trifle Better.

Professor—Pray excuse me for keeping you waiting for a few minutes, gentlemen. Unfortunately I have come without the manuscript of my lecture, but I have sent my little boy for it. Walter Wellman's Perilous Trip In Search Of The Pole

The Famous Flight of Newspaper Correspondent Will Start Soon—Preparations for the First Stage of the Journey Nearly Completed—A Description of the Novel Craft—Members of the Party.

Several months have passed since Walter Wellman, the newspaper correspondent, received the startling assignment to go to the north pole in an airship. The preparations for the trip have nearly been completed, and once more the attempt will be made to locate that elusive point, the search for which has cost so much hardship, suffering and even loss of life.

This expedition recalls to mind the exploits of Andree, the Swedish explorer, who, nine years ago, left Spitzbergen and never returned.

What actually happened to him and his two companions, Strindberg and Frakel, has never been absolutely established, but the report most credited is that they were killed by savage Esquimaux.

Nothing daunted by the supposed fate of his predecessor and profiting by the discoveries which have been made since the former's unsuccessful attempt, Mr. Wellman believes most thoroughly in his ability to succeed where others have failed.

The Wellman airship, now almost completed, has been built by Louis Godard of Paris. It is 164 feet long and 52 1-2 feet in diameter, and will have a capacity of 224,344 cubic feet of gas, sufficient for an ascensional force of about eight tons. The weight of the balloon, steel car, motors and machinery complete, is 6,000 pounds; the weight of the crew, instruments, wireless and other apparatus and gasoline is put at 2,400 pounds. Of this amount, 5,500 pounds are contributed by the gasoline to be carried. The cost of the balloon will be about $75,000. The airship will be made of three thicknesses of fabric, two of cotton and one of silk. This combination gives the greatest possible strength with the least weight.

An especial effort is being made in construction to diminish as far as possible the loss of gas, which in varnished silk balloons amounts to from two to three per cent. daily.

Four automobile sledges, each weighing 710 pounds, will form part of the equipment, and a light metallic boat—Mr. Wellman calls it his "return ticket"—will also be carried for emergency use.

The Wellman airship will have a capacity of gasoline sufficient to carry the ship eighteen hundred miles. Provisions will be taken for ten weeks, though the head of the expedition figures upon making the trip in a fortnight.

A novel feature outlined in the plans of the expedition is the intention of Mr. Wellman to maintain wireless communication, and for this purpose wireless telegraphic stations will be established at Hammerfest, Norway, and [illegible] Bergen, points about 600 miles apart.

The members of the expedition will assemble shortly at Tromsoe, Norway, where they will join the steamship Frithjof. The Frithjof will probably sail for Spitzbergen the last of this month. Here the party will at once proceed to erect headquarter buildings and a shed large enough to house the inflated airship. The expedition will comprise about forty-five men, including the scientific staff, engineers, aeronauts, mechanics, sailors and workmen. The principals will include Maj. Henry B. Hersey, of the United States weather bureau; Maxwell J. Smith, a wireless telegraph expert; Dr. W. N. Fowler, surgeon; Gaston Herviou, engineer; Alexandre Liwenthal, who was associated with Count Zeppelin in the famous airship experience in Switzerland and Germany, and M. Colsaradu, who will have charge of the motor sledges.

The Women's Institute Held Annual Meeting

A Most Successful Gathering Was Held in Warsaw on Monday—A Good Programme Given at the Meeting—Fishing Season Begins With the Usual Stock of Stories—Other News.

Examiner Special.

Warsaw, June 19.—The annual meetings of the Women's Institute were held in the town hall yesterday.

Although the weather was unfavourable, and not what might have been expected, considering the number of fall-belows and millinery creations with which it had to negotiate, the fair sex were out in large numbers to attend the afternoon meeting, which proved to be a record-breaker in the way of attendance.

The Government delegates to the meeting were, Mrs. D. McTavish, North Bruce, and Miss Lillian Sheffield, of Toronto; the former speaking on (1) "Kindness and Economy in the Home." (2) "Means of Preserving Health," and the latter on, "Methods of Cutting and Fitting Waists and Skirts." These addresses were ably prepared, and were delivered in such a manner as to render them comprehensible to every hearer; especially this may be said of the demonstration given by Miss Sheffield, which included the cutting and fitting of a waist and skirt.

At the conclusion of the meeting and preceeding the serving of lunch the members repaired to the lawn where a group photograph was taken.

The concert in the evening was well patronized and apparently much enjoyed. The programme rendered consisting of songs, recitations, addresses, and instrumental music was well received, each number calling forth its merited applause. Special mention must be made to the recitations of Mrs. O. Mowry, of Peterborough, whose numbers were vociferously encored. During the intermission ice cream and cake were served and much appreciated by the audience. The programme was as follows:—

Instrumental duet—Mrs. N. E. Bell, Miss Julia Choate.
Vocal selection—Mrs. E. Hamblin.
Vocal duet—Mrs. M. S. Kelly, Miss Doris.
Address—Mrs. D. McTavish.
Vocal selection—Mr. McClennan.
Recitation—Mrs. O. Mowry.
Vocal selection—Mrs. W. W. Isbister.
Address—Miss Adah Payne.
Song—Mr. Hal. Choate.
Instrumental duet—Miss Dora and Mr. Luther Payne.
Vocal selection—Mr. H. F. Battersby.
Vocal selection—Miss Julia Choate.
Recitation—Mrs. O. Mowry.
Vocal selection—Miss Dora Payne.
Song—Mr. Roland Kidd.

The proceeds, which went towards the liquidation of the piano debt, were very encouraging.

ARE YOU ONE OF THE WEAK WOMEN

To Become Bright, Happy and Healthy?—Use Ferrozone.

Modern life makes demands on every woman's strength that seem impossible to meet. Only the robust and strong can stand the strain. The weak, with their delicately balanced organisms, must fail. Blood gets thin, it's innutritious. Nerves go to smash, vitality declines, and then follows misery and suffering caused by interference with certain functions upon which the very existence of every female depends.

Don't let your condition grow worse. Check the decline of vital force before it is too late! The one sure remedy is Ferrozone—not a temporary stimulant—but an uplifting nutritive tonic that contains the kind of building material a weak body requires.

FERROZONE revitalizes the system by putting new life into the blood. Not only does it nourish the ordinary blood supply—it does more, it makes new blood, the rich, red kind that denotes health.

Energy is reinforced, strength is steadily and surely rebuilt. Keen appetite, strong nerves, more restful sleep, buoyant feelings, all tell of the enormous good Ferrozone invariably accomplishes. For restoring the weak, the pale, the despondent, there is no treatment so instant and permanent in effect as Ferrozone. A trial proves this. Won't you use Ferrozone yourself? It will surely make you well—its effect is instant.

BUILT UP HER STRENGTH

Mrs. M. E. Etherington, a well known merchant's wife, of Troy, writes: "I am quite willing to give a public testimonial for Ferrozone, believing it to be a tonic of superior excellence, and one that will rapidly build up strength and supply new energy to anyone not feeling well. Last Spring I was in a very poor condition of health. I was nervous, felt tired and completely worn out. No doubt it is quite a common complaint with ladies of my age, but I placed great reliance in Ferrozone, and took it for several weeks. It made me quite strong, and, in fact, I have been in better health ever since. I can heartily recommend Ferrozone."

Ferrozone Assures Good Health!

WARNING! Beware of the substitutor who urges you to accept something "just as good." Only FERROZONE can cure satisfactorily—see you get it, and nothing else. School Girls Play Baseball In Keene

A Team Representing That Village Defeats Hastings—The Score Was 23-22—It Was Fast Baseball, Too.

Examiner Special

Keene, June 20.—A wag has been unkind enough to make the remark that it was agricultural baseball that the Keene and Hastings public school girls played here on Wednesday, when the annual public school excursion from Hastings was held to this village. The score 23-22, might lead the uninitated to think that there was some ground for this assumption, but it is unwarranted. The game was won by Keene, but it was a narrow squeak. The teams and the number of runs scored by each are as follows:—

Hastings.—M. Murray, catcher, 3; K. Graham, pitcher, 3; A. Orshaw, first base, 3; L. Graham, left field, 3; A. Fowls, right field, 3; A. Murray, second base, 3; C. Lajoie, third base, 3; M. Lymn, centre field, 1; E. Tate, short stop, 1. Total 23.

Keene.—Bessie Read, first base (Capt.) 3; Susie Moore, pitcher, 3; Maggie Wallace, right field, 1; Clara Hore, left field, 3; Mary Moore, short stop, 3; Katie Wallace, catcher, 3; Katie Skinner, short stop, 3; Flora MacLachlan, third base, 3; Nellie Read, centre field, 1. Total 23.

Mr. Anderson, Principal of Hastings Public School acted as umpire and gave excellent satisfaction to both teams.

An excursion will be run to Hastings from Keene on July 2nd, when a good programme of sports will be provided.

The Hastings public school held their annual excursion on Wednesday, June 13th, coming to Keene. A large crowd, consisting principally of the children and their parents, attended. Arriving at Keene a programme of sports was run off, including football and baseball games, and races. In a baseball match between the Hastings public school and the separate school, the public school team won. Keene public school defeated Hastings in a football match by a score of 4—0. The Keene boys are improving and played a good game. This is the third victory for Keene juniors this year. P. T. Pilkie of Keene umpired the game.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the king of all diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted; so while it may not be a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, itchiness of the skin, eruptions or blotches, ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "cold logy" treatment—beware of mineral poisons—beware of Quacks and Fakirs. OUR NEW METHOD TREATMENT is guaranteed to cure this disease, never to return. Bank Bonds will protect you. Our treatment is not injurious in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poison from the system. The symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood becomes pure and enriched, the whole system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared anew for the duties and the pleasures of life. Mr. W. F. Payne Replies To Certain Criticisms

He Explains the Circumstances in Connection With His Action in Cutting Tree on the Road—Did Not Anticipate Any Objection to Removing an Obstruction.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—With reference to some items appearing in the local press, I beg leave to make the following corrections, and, also, to lay before the public some of the facts in the case:—

It has been stated that Wm. Crowe, who is plaintiff in the case, was a road commissioner, but as far as I know he has never been one, or a member of Dummer Council, either. In one of the papers it says also that the tree grew in front of Wm. Crowe's place, but, instead, it grew in front of my farm, about 11-8 miles from where Mr. Crowe lives, and he does not live on the 2-d line of Dummer where the tree grew, either. Then it was stated that I misrepresented the matter of cutting the tree to Mr. Miles the Commissioner on this division, from whom I bought the tree for 25 cents; which he said was all he thought the tree was worth, when he looked at the tree before I paid him. I did not misrepresent the case to him; but I told him the real reasons why I wanted to have the trees removed. It was mutilated and unsightly and it was an obstruction, it caused the snow to blow off the road in winter and it obstructed the view along the road in front of my farm, which were the true reasons. I did not expect that Mr. Miles or I would get into any trouble over the matter, as there was only one resident on the beat whom I expected to object and he said nothing to me in about one and one-half months from the time I applied to him as pathmaster for permission to cut the tree, until it was cut down, and he objected very little, if any, to its being cut when I saw him about it then, but told me he had not authority to give me permission. This was as well as I can remember 2 or 3 weeks before I bought it from Mr. Miles. Then a few days after I bought it, I saw Mr. N. Payne, another councillor and road commissioner and he said not one word against it. So I concluded that if those two councillors were favourable that those who probably never saw the tree would not object. Also, it was customary for commissioners to sell small lots of wood or timber in their respective road divisions without specially consulting the whole council.

The general feeling of the public in this locality seems to be that it is a public benefit to have the tree removed, as it was about twelve feet from the fence and the branches, which were low, reached almost to the wheel track, scraping hay off loads in passing. Then it was nearly a month from the time I bought the tree until I cut it. The reason, I feel satisfied, why a few people were opposed to it, was, not because of their regard for the public benefit or their own welfare, but because of personal ill-feeling on the part of 3 or 4 men, without just cause in the case of any of them, except, perhaps, Mr. J. J. Crowe, who, possibly, resented a joke played upon him by a number of people, I among the number, which I afterwards regretted taking part in, and wrote a letter of apology for it. During the past year a beautiful maple shade tree on the roadside on the 3rd line, about two miles south of here, was cut down for firewood and no complaint was made that I know of. Also, a beautiful shade tree was cut down on the 3rd line about a mile north of here a few years ago—one of the most beautiful trees in the township. Neither of these trees interfered with the passing of vehicles on the highway, but nothing was done to those who cut them. Other cases might be mentioned but enough has been said with regard to this. I have reason to believe, as well as many other people that the prosecutor was urged on by 2 or 3 other men to do the work for them, so that the blame for it might rest on him, but the people in this neighborhood are not so easily misled as they suppose and will know, where to place the responsibility for this lawsuit. The fine being $30 and the costs amounted to about $60 additional.

Yours respectfully,
W. F. PAYNE.

Growing Boys and Girls

While it is very gratifying to parents to see their boys and girls grow rapidly, it should not be forgotten that this is a very critical period. There is danger that they may outgrow their strength; there is also danger that the development may not be uniform, that one part of the system is being built up at the expense of the rest, that the bone may not be developing properly, that nerve and brain may lack tone or the muscle may be soft and flabby.

To ensure proper, all round development it is absolutely necessary that the food should be entirely suitable and contain the elements necessary to develop every part of the system.

The ideal food for this purpose is which contains, in proper proportions, the very essentials of life and development, viz: Fat, Iron and Phosphorus. Fat to develop flesh and muscle; Iron for the blood; Phosphorus for the bone, nerve and brain.

If you want your boys and girls to have strong lungs, robust frames, well developed muscles, strong nerves, vigorous brains and rosy cheeks give them FERROL. They will like it, and FERROL never fails.

ASTONISHED THE DOCTOR

Mrs. Eaton Recovering, Although Her Physician Said She Might Drop Dead at Any Time.

MRS. ROBT. EATON

"The Doctor told me I had heart disease and was liable to drop on the street at any time," says Mrs. Robt. Eaton, of Dufferin, Ont. "My trouble began four years ago with a weak heart. I was often afraid to draw my breath, it pained me so. I was bothered with nervousness shortness of breath dizziness, loss of appetite, smothering and sinking spells, and I could not sleep.

"Sometimes a great weakness would seize me and I would have to lie down to keep from falling. My hands and feet would seem to go to sleep and a sort of numbness would come all over me and perhaps immediately after the blood would rush to my head and a series of hot flashes would envelop me.

"I took all kinds of medicines, but kept gradually growing worse until about eight weeks ago, when I began using Dr. Leonhardt's Anti-Pill. From the start I improved, until now my appetite has returned, I can sleep well, and have no nervousness, dizziness, palpitation, faintness or any of my other troubles. They have all entirely disappeared. I feel much stronger, look better, and altogether Anti-Pill has made a new woman of me.

"I am entirely cured and cannot say too much for this wonderful remedy. I would most heartily recommend Anti-Pill to anyone suffering as I did."

How Do You Know That You Are Not Crazy?

Some of the Many Evidences of Insanity—Majority of People Possess One or More of Them—Cat-Fear One of the Forms—Night-Mare Another Form—Some Tests Which Anyone May Apply.

STATEMENT BY DR. GRAEME M. HAMMOND

All the ordinary signs which point to insanity are cumulative. A person may have one or several, and yet be perfectly sane. I am not one of those who believe that the slightest form of eccentricity is a sign of insanity.

In the case of the Terranova girl there was plainly a case of anaesthesia, or lack of insensibility in certain portions of the skin. There is a sign of hysteria, and and hysteria is a disturbed or abnormal mental condition. A person, however, could have anaesthesia, without having hysteria; and a person could have hysteria without being insane. Therefore, I may say that all tests and signs are cumulative.

A person, for example, may say she heard voices, and be shamming. We have to take many other tests into consideration as well. But if we may have many other symptoms at the same time, it is fair to assume that the hallucinations are present as well. It is only by putting many different tests together that we may make sure of sanity or insanity.

Anaesthesia alone would not necessarily indicate insanity. With other symptoms it almost certainly would.

How do you know that you are not crazy? Nobody bothered whether or not pretty seventeen-year-old Josephine Terranova was in the slightest way mentally unbalanced until she drew a knife and slew her uncle and her aunt. Then experts of the highest rank went on the stand to testify that she was insane before and after the crime. As many others swore, she was perfectly normal.

How did either know?

Simplest thing in the world. They made tests of her brain — tests that anyone can try. It requires no special medical training to make the ordinary ones—you can try them on yourself.

To begin with alienists are not all agreed as to where sanity leaves off and insanity begins. The dividing line between the two states of mind is hard to draw. Is an eccentric person insane? Is a man unbalanced who crosses his fingers when he sees a cross-eyed person? Can you call a woman crazy because she believes in ghosts? Are believers in witches or spiritualism or signs, insane?

Not even the scientists can answer these questions, because hardly two of them agree. One expert will tell you that everybody is insane, more or less; another will laugh at this and really have person who are so eccentric as to really seem out of their mind, as not at all mentally diseased.

Cat-Fear a Form of Insanity.

For instance, nearly every one knows some person who is afflicted with what is popularly known as "cat-fear." The great Napoleon had cat-fear — he was more afraid of a harmless tabby than he was of an army corps. You have seen persons trembling with fear at the sight of a cat in the room; you have possibly seen a well-balanced woman go into paroxysms because she felt the presence of a cat without seeing it.

Now, Napoleon wasn't crazy; neither is the average person who has cat-fear. Yet this is a form of insanity. But the person who has cat-fear is perfectly responsible for his acts and is pefectly normal on other subjects.

Have you ever felt a desire to jump from a height, or to leap out of a window high above the street? That is a form of insanity—did you know it? Have you ever turned out the gas, gone to bed, and then risen to see if you had really quite turned it off? That is a form of insanity which the French savants call "folie de doute," literally the folly of doubt. Have you ever felt an irresistible desire to touch every lamp post you pass, or to run your hand along the palings of a fence? that is another form of mental eccentricity — "folie de toriche"—folly of touch. Have you ever walked along the sidewalk without stepping on a crack? Of course you have. Well, that is a sign of mental aberration. Of course in 999,999 cases out of 1,000,000 it doesn't go any further, yet that is a sign that you are not absolutely balanced. It doesn't mean that you might kill somebody the next minute, or that you will ever be any more eccentric, but it does mean that your mental processes are just a bit unbalanced.

Josephine Terranova had hallucinations of sight and hearing. She heard voices commanding her to kill, she saw the spirits of her uncle and her aunt after she had obeyed the voices.

Is there anybody that hasn't had hallucinations? An hallucination is hearing or seeing one thing when it really is another. Who hasn't mistaken a mosquito's singing for a trumpet far off, or the rattling of a wagon over a planked road as thunder? Who hasn't asked, "Where is that music?" when he heard something wholly different.

Josephine was blindfolded carefully and a lighted match was held against her face on the right side. She felt nothing. Insane persons have been known to have their limbs burned on hot stoves or in fires until the bones were charred without feeling the slightest pain, though perfectly conscious. That state is called anaesthesia. It is a sign of hysteria, and hysteria is an abnormal mental state. In many cases it is a sign of absolute insanity.

Tests for Anaesthesia.

When the girl was blindfolded they pinched her right cheek and then her right side. She felt nothing. It hurt when they tried the left side. If she had possessed normal sensibilities she could not have concealed evidences of pain.

A wire to which had been affixed a damp sponge was attached to an electric light. The girl gave no evidence of having received any shock when the sponge was pressed to her right side. She jumped and twitched when the sponge touched her left side.

Her right cheek was pricked with a needle. It was insensible to pain. But when her left cheek was pricked she jerked back her head and cried out at the sudden and unexpected pain. Her left ankle was tapped sharply with a piece of steel; there was no sign of feeling. This proved anaesthesia and anaesthesia proved hysteria, and hysterria is one sign of insanity, and there you are!

But there are hundreds of other tests just as simple.

Some of them were tried on Josephene. They tested her for failing memory; they asked if she had headaches. They asked if she ever heard the sound of bells or voices. They made long and exhaustive tests to see whether she had the normal sensibility to heat or cold, and whether she felt the same degree of either on both sides of the body. They examined her eyes, nose, ears, throat and tongue—all show signs when a person is insane.

Have you tried any of them on yourself?

For instance, stick out your tongue. Is it in a straight line? Many insane persons stick out their tongues crooked. There is what alienists call "the insane ear." It is hot, swollen, red, misshapen. An insane person's nose is drawn in very often under the nostrils. The throat is apt to be abnormally small.

If you should try them all you would probably feel as if everybody in the world were more or less insane. Many alienists say everybody has been unbalanced either for an hour, or a day, or a week or a month, or a year, or a life-time.

A nightmare is a form of insanity. Many of the insane have terrifying dreams. Have you ever been pursued in a dream by a horrible monster and found that you couldn't run? That is a sign that for that particular moment you were not mentally balanced. Have you ever been delirious during some severe illness? Then you were temporarily insane.

Many insane people eat voraciously—that is a frequent sign of approaching insanity. Others see double — that is either oncoming lunacy or serious eye trouble. The pupil of the eye is almost a certain test of the mental state. If it be too diluted or too contracted for the amount of light at the time that shows insanity.

Another sign is loss of weight without apparent cause. Extreme peculiarousness when one is well to do, is another test. This was a test applied to Mrs. Strong, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, who had long been regarded as merely eccentric. She scrimped on everything and made her children's clothes out of the cheapest materials, when the wealth of croesus was at her command. Her continual plea was that she feared the approach of poverty.

On the other hand, if a person spends money far beyond his means it is almost a certain sign of coming lunacy. Most paretics have this feeling of great wealth, and talk in millions.

Profuse perspiration often indicates insanity. So does a yellow skin. If you burn yourself and feel no pain see your doctor at once. It is a bad sign. Insane people can stand intense cold — cold that would chill to the marrow a person in health. Occasionally you see a person who boasts that he can gaze steadfastly at the sun without being dazzled. Just thank your stars that you cannot;—it is a sign of mental unsoundness.

Of course any person could slip up in trying to say "Shoes and socks shock Susan," without being deemed unbalanced, but there are other words and phrases that are tried on those who are suspected of oncoming insanity. If you can say "Third cavalry brigade" or "truly rural" you are not suffering from approaching general paralysis. No paretic could say these phrases without tripping up!

Can you close both eyes and stand still without swaying? Can you close one eye and seize an object close at hand at the first attempt? Those who can have no sign of paresis. Many insane persons also drag their feels.

The insane have a general type of handwriting. It shows itself in many ways. Some write the last letter of the last syllable of a word illegibly; other write whole words illegibly. There is a certain tremour about it which is easily distenguishable. Of course, when a person writes to persons he doesn't know about things of which he has no knowledge, or joins dowrd words in any order, which make no sense, then there is absolutely no doubt that he is insane.

Of course, many persons from childhood have written syllables illegibly or have had a trembling hand—these are not insane. It is those who wrote legibly or whose hands did not tremble before to whom this test is applied.

The Symptoms of Paresis.

Paresis sends its warnings before and very plainly. Even the layman can distinguish them: Loss of memory, intense emotion at trivial occurrences, continual irritation, loud talk, inappropriate use of words, feeling of well-being and personal importance, smallness of the pupils of the eyes, thickness of speech. The disease is an absolutely fatal one, and progresses constantly. No one has ever been cured. The disease is from two to five years.

Of course all these tests can be made by any one. There are plenty of scientific ones, too, upon which it is not necessary to dwell. Then, too, there are other unmistakable proofs of insanity which even a child could distinguish—mania, delusions, illusions, attempts at suicide, self-reproach for having committed imaginary wrongs, grandiloquence, a feeling of persecution, imagining one's self an animal or a thing, calling one's self the Deity, or some person dead and gone—any one can recognize these forms.

But it is the little things which are most difficult to tell. They show themselves nearly always before a person is thought to be insane. Is there any one who hasn't shown at least one of them?

Is everybody more or less crazy then?

Nervous and Worried.

Mr. Archibald Sutherland, Principal South Bur School, Sydney, N.S., writes, "I was greatly troubled with nervous dyspepsia, and after meals I often felt like vomiting, and my stomach was sore. I was nervous and worried, frequently had headaches and shortness of breath. When several doctors failed I decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it has entirely cured me. I shall be glad to be the means of bringing this medicine to the notice of any one who is suffering as I did."

Mr. W. H. Wood, sr., walked to town again on Saturday last his eighty-second birthday. A tramp of nearly five miles did not tire him a bit and he is as fresh as a boy half that age. He threaded a needle without the aid of glasses. Many more years of vigor to our old resident.—Millbrook Register.

Sunshine Furnace

WHERE DOES YOUR HEAT GO TO?

The science of furnace-building is the utilization of all the heat units.

The "Sunshine" furnace utilizes all the heat and sends none up the chimney.

You can't put your hand over the chimney when some furnaces are in use, because so much heat goes up the chimney. Your hand would be burned. That is heat wasted, time wasted, because it takes so much more firing up when a large part of your heat is lost.

The "Sunshine" Furnace is built to extract all the heat units from the fuel and distribute them through the house. It does not waste heat like common furnaces.

Neither Indian nor Ceylon tea alone produces the Red Rose flavor

TO produce a tea with the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea from either Ceylon or Indian alone is impossible.

Neither Indian nor Ceylon in itself possesses the Red Rose flavor, but combined in proper proportions they produce the "rich fruity flavor" that has made Red Rose Tea famous—that makes Red Rose Tea the only tea used in any home where it is once tried.

OLD WORLD MAIL NEWS

I am, and now I know myself, and I am too vile to live. I am dirty, lazy, untidy, ungrateful, unsympathetic, unkind, selfish, and unthoughtful for others; there never yet lived a more forward woman. God alone knows how vile I have been, and how I have wasted my life. All my life I have been a sluggard and a fool, never seeking knowledge troubling myself about a thing, or doing anything I could possibly get out of. I have never lived my life, I have sneaked through it. Everybody I meet I feel and know is better than myself; they have some good trait in their character or done some good in the world—I have neither. I have never cared for any of God's creatures or anything he has made, or admired all the beauties of the earth and been glad and thankful. I do not love even little children. I have lived only for myself, without a care for anything or anybody. Why I was born so vile I cannot tell. My mother was one of the best of women, good, industrious, self-sacrificing, bearing all her burdens with a Christian spirit, and never complaining. My sisters are all good women; my brothers are good men. I have slept nearly all my life away."

A novel bequest has recently been made to the poor children of Glasgow. The school board have received intimation from the executor of the late Mr. Hugh McGurk,, who died recently in Durban, that he has bequeated the whole of the estate to them, for administration purposes. The annual revenue from the estate is to be used to provide boots and stockings for poor children attending schools under the board. It is impossible to say until the estate is realised, how much it will amount to, but it is expected that the total sum will be between 2000 and 3000 pounds. It seems that Mr. McGurk used to travel to fairs and markets, and left this country for South Africa about twenty years ago. He visited Glasgow about two years ago, and was greatly impressed by seeing so many children running barefooted on the streets. Having been born poor himself his sympathy for the little ones was aroused, and his generous benefaction is the result.

The authorities in the Hebrides are confronted with a housing problem which, it is said, can only be solved by a money grant from Parliament. In the large island of Tervis the condition of affairs is desperate. Houses cannot be built as money has been exhausted by poor and school expenditure. It has been found impossible to drain the district of Arnol without moving nearly every house from the mud hollow in which they stand. Of the deaths from infectious diseases in the county of Ross during the year seventy-eight occurred in Lewis, which contains about one-half of the county's population. In a house at Islay containing three apartments, one of the apartments was occupied by an old man while others were used for housing his cattle.

IRELAND

A peculiar story has been revealed in connection with the suicide at Belfast of a lady recently. At the inquest no evidence was forthcoming as to the motive, but further inquiries show that for a considerable time residents of a fashionable district have been inundated with postcards making allegations and insinuations of a very objectionable character against a clergyman and another lady in the neighbourhood. Eventually the postal authorities were appealed to to stop the delivery of the cards, and a London a detective was especially engaged to investigate the affair. He suggested that the half-penny stamps sold in the post offices in the neighbourhood should be marked, and by these means, it is alleged, the deceased lady's name was mentioned in connection with the affair, and proceedings were about to be taken when the suicide was reported.

Spooks have reduced a number of people in Clonmel, Tipperary, to a state of nervous prostration, and large crowds gather around two houses where the trouble exists. The tenants of both houses, on hearing loud noises and cries in a woman's voice, complained to the police, but though the police investigated the affair, they could find no trace of the shouting woman accepting that they could hear her voice. In one of the houses, a business establishment, it is asserted by the owners that goods were flung about in the cellar, furniture upstairs was overturned and food was taken out of a locked meat safe. Doors that had been locked were immediately afterwards found open, and windows, after being secured, were raised. One of the occupants of the house asserted that she saw a person going out through a top-window at midday.

A broken telephone wire at Lucan, Dublin, a few days ago, severely injured a man and a girl, and in addition killed a horse and a dog. A horse and cart was being driven by Brian Daly. As it was passing Ballydown, near Lucan, at a point where the telephone wires were being repaired, through an accident a wire slipped, and falling across the electric tram wire, transmitted the strong current. It touched the horse which was instantly killed. The driver had a terribly narrow escape and sustained a severe shock. A girl who witnessed the occurrence went to Daly's assistance. She instantly came in contact with the wire and was injured by the shock. A dog which accompanied her was frisking and prancing around and also touched the wire. The animal was electrocuted and died instantly.

The old saying, "truth is stranger than fiction," is exemplified in the case of the Earl of Shannon, who has just been celebrating his 40th birthday. When his father died, in 1890, he was believed to be in Klondike, but when his family wrote to him they could get no answer. They made every effort to trace his whereabouts, but failed, and it was thought that he was dead. His younger brother was asked to succeed to the vacant peerage, but he was not convinced of his brother's demise, and declared he would yet find him. He started out on his hunt, and from the Yukon, traced him with difficulty to Idaho, where he found him and informed him that he was Earl of Shannon. The two brothers returned home together, the elder to claim the honours he owed to the younger's loyalty.

The town of Loughrea, Galway, was in a state of wild excitement, a few days ago, over the eviction, at the instance of Lord Clanricarde, of a shopkeeper named Ward, who is the secretary of the local branch of the Town Tenants' League, which has been formed for protection of town tenants on the lines of the old land league. A large force of police had to protect the bailiffs, who, when they approached the premises, were met with boiling water and stones. One stone knocked the spike off a police officer's helmet, a sergeant was wounded, and both the bailiffs and the police who attempted to enter by the front door were driven back by those who had shut themselves up in the house to aid Ward.

The Registrar-General for Ireland, giving evidence before the Royal Commission on the care of the feeble-minded, in Dublin, recently said that Ireland occupied the unhappy position of having by far the highest proportion of insane people in its population. Scotland came next, whilst England and Wales stood third in the list. A considerable factor in the large increase of the insane in Ireland, it was shown at the last census, was the return of Irish emigrants who had lost their health and reason. They were now supporting a considerable number of mentally unfit drawn from the large Irish population in America.

Although it is but a few weeks ago that the first sod of the great Irish International Exhibition in Dublin was cut, already the construction of three of the main halls is far advanced, while the excavations for the fourth have been completed. All the buildings will be in the Florentine style of architecture. There will be an artificial lake, 700 feet in length and 100 feet wide, an art gallery on classic lines, and a welcome club, and the concert hall will be capable of seating 2,000 people.

On going to work recently at a collier near Belfast, a miner told the manager that during the night he had twice dreamt that a serious accident had occurred. The manager in consequence warned the miners to be careful. Five hours later, while the men were erecting an additional support to the roof, a "bump" occurred, and 15 tons of coal fell on the men below, three being killed. The man who had the dream was close by and had a narrow escape.

Some curious scenes were witnessed in Belfast recently in connection with the dispute in the linen trade. Hundreds of women and girls on strike marched through the principal streets, many of them wearing paper caps of gaudy colours and others carrying newspaper contents bills. There was a good deal of boisterous horseplay, and when a constable tried to address the strikers he was suddenly seized and carried shoulder high amid roars of laughter.

Will The Radial Railway Reach Mount Pleasant?

People in That Section Want the Railway—Will Facilitate Shipping Produce to This City—Cavan Swamp Drain Matter May be Delayed.

Examiner Special.

Mount Pleasant, June 20. — Our Street Commissioners have been very busy for several days past at work on the sidewalks. The safety of pedestrians is guaranteed and our village assumes a gay appearance well worthy to be called a summer resort for those wishing to breathe a bracing atmosphere.

The absence of Reave McNeil may delay the making of the Cavan Swamp drain for a short time, as the tenders received have not been satisfactory as to the sort of making the drain. The owners of swamp land will not be satisfied to have their taxes increased above the sum named in the law passed by the Local Legislature at the last Session.

Two automobiles passed through the village last week.

It is hoped that the Peterborough Street Car Company will extend their road out through this section of the country so that farmers can avail themselves of the privilege of attending the Peterborough market daily. The city should have branch roads roads running into it.

Mr. A. P. McLean and family made a short visit to the paternal home, Mr. Hurt Fee, of the Bank of Toronto, at Peterborough, has been removed to their branch in Keene.

Farmers are rejoicing at the prospect for good crops this season. The fall wheat is changing its colour, and will soon be ready for the reaping machine. The fruit crop appears to be a failure in comparison to that of last year. Grape vines and tender shrubs have been nearly all killed during the winter.

Correspondent's View Of The Guelph Trip

A Norwood Writer Who Accompanied the Excursion to Model Farm—Some of the Incidents of the Trip.

The Examiner has received the following report of the Farmers' Excursion to Guelph on Thursday, from a Norwood correspondant, with a request for publication:

Before the sun had begun to cast its golden rays upon the beautiful green landscape, a group of young men began a three days' outing. It was the 14th day of June, 1906, that two carriages conveyed the party to the neighbouring village of Hastings, to catch the G. T. R. special, leaving the McGregor House, Norwood, at 4.30 a.m. We arrived in Hastings at 5.40, feeling rather cool, as the sun had not as yet pierced the dense fog enough to cause much warmth. It was a very promising morning. Toot! toot! toot! and our eyes were cast in an easterly direction to see if it was our train that was pulling into the station. We were soon convinced that it was, and she was not long as the station until a goodly number found seating room in her coaches. The conductor gave the signal, the engineer blew the whistle, and we were off.

It was a beautiful ride; the sun was beginning to chase the shadows from the gloomy vales who birds were pouring forth their morning melodies, and the leaves and grass of the beautiful trees and fields, were sparkling like crystal. We glided along rapidly and smoothly, picking up at each station still a few more, who were anxious to share in the pleasant trip. We arrived in Peterborough about 6.50, and while waiting there to lengthen our train by adding two more coaches, we could see the women, girls and men hustling on their way to employment.

About seven o'clock we moved steadily away drawn by two engines. The long train of ten coaches was well filled with passengers from all points along the line. The trip was very interesting; we ran along, up and down grades, across streams and over valleys, sometimes at thirty and sometimes at fifty miles per hour. We ran by way of Port Hope, at which place we had two more coaches added to our train. About ten o'clock, to look far ahead in the distance we could see the great clouds of black smoke pouring forth from the many large smoke-stake of the great manufacturing establishments of the beautiful Queen City of the West, Toronto. We stopped at the union station, and while waiting to change engines, had time for refreshments. We were soon on our journey again, and with the exception of a few short stops, lost but little time until we reached Guelph.

At the station the street cars waited our arrival, and soon, filled to their utmost capacity, conveyed us to the experimental farm. We wended our way up a beautiful gravwalk, with beautiful lawns and green trees on either side, to the great Gymnasium Hall, where we did ample justice to the provisions brought before us. We soon satisfied the inner man, and after listening to a few remarks from Professor Creelman, proceeded to view the farm and buildings.

While passing through the stables the remark was heard, "If you or I had the same backing as this institution, I guess we could have everything just as handsome," and it seemed quite appropriate.

At four o'clock we went to the stables and saw the milking machine in operation. This of course was interesting, especially to the ladies. After going through the dairy we boarded a street car and went down town, had tea and took the 5.50 train for Toronto, reaching there at 8.10 p.m., spending the evening in amusements at Hanlan's Island, and then came back to the city and slept soundly until the morning.

On Friday we visited some of the principal points in the city, and called on some of our relatives and friends. In the evening some of the group went on the I.O.O.F. moon-light excursion to Burlington Beach and Hamilton per Steamer Turbinia.

We left Toronto at 7.50 a.m., Saturday morning, and coming via Blackwater Junction and Lindsay, arrived in Peterborough at 11.45 a.m. Here we had dinner and spent the afternoon in the city. In the evening we boarded the C.P.R. local for Norwood, arriving on time at 8.12 p.m., rather tired but feeling well satisfied with our three days' trip.

Do Not Scold The Girl Who Has a Real Good Time And Enjoys It

Should girls who work and earn their own money spend it as they go along on pretty clothes, books, theatres, vacations, fripperies and the thousand and one other things that cost but are dear to young hearts. Or should they always keep an eye out for the rainy day, dress plainly, deny themselves many pleasures, and start a snug bank account against the time which is coming when they will be no longer counted among the wage-earners?

All around you, you see exponents of both ways of doing. Girls to whom the present is enough are as numerous as buttonflies in summer. Pretty clothes are as essential to them as food and raiment, and pretty clothes they will have. Perfumes and bon bons they count as absolute necessities, while if they cannot get to the theatre once a week they feel they have been aggrieved.

Then there is their social club; a party or two, which, of course, demands a dainty party gown; boating in the summer and skating in the winter; trolly rides, trips to the park, and, oh, dear me, no one could count how many sodas and sundaes a week they feel obliged to consume. Some way or other their salary goes, they never know how, and it is certain no bank could tell them where even the smallest portion of it is stowed away.

By-and-by their health gives out, perhaps, and the doctor says they must take a vacation. There is no money ahead and for a minute the girl looks grave. Then she brightens up, for if she hasn't a home in the country to go to, there is always some man who has been hanging around for months past proposing on the average of twice a week, so she just decides that she really intended to marry Jack some day, anyway, and thus she takes her vacation.

On the other hand, there are just about as many serious-minded girls who have a big eye for the future, and consequently a little bit of worry always lurking around. They buy the plainest and most serviceable clothes, and wear everything two seasons at the least, in order that they may save a little for a bank account. Pleasures that cost are counted out except, perhaps, once in every six months. They spend their spare moments in the library poring over books and magazines because they can't afford to buy them, and they don't go out socially, because it costs so much to go, and then entertain.

Of course they have their reward, a bank account.

But which girl shows the most wisdom? The first, we are in the habit of advising to take a lesson from the ant; but after all who can blame her if she feels that youth is the time to enjoy life? It is but natural that she should want pretty things, and having the money to get them, is she so great a sinner for gratifying her desires, providing no one is dependent on her? Moreover, if she is a ready girl she expects to be married some day and have someone to take care of her in her old age so why should she bother to save money against the day when she can no longer work?

She has her good times as she goes along, makes a host of friends, and finally does marry just as she expected to, and keeps on having a good time because she is used to it.

On the other hand the girl who is always denying herself never really enjoys life. She lives always in the future, a bad thing to do, and plans to have her good time to-morrow. "When I save this $100," she thinks, "then I will stop and enjoy life a little." But she doesn't. When the first $100 is saved she wants to save another, and so it goes on until when she has time to rest she has lost the power to enjoy. Her friends are few, she never had time to make any, and her offers of marriage are a minus quantity, because as she never had time or money for social life she never met any men.

Let the girls enjoy life, then. They are given to the world to make it brighter and more livable, so don't find fault with them if they try to do it.

Talented Soloist, St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, London, Ont., writes of the New Scale Williams Piano

It gives me great pleasure to express to you my high appreciation of the excellent qualities of your New Scale Williams Piano. The evenness of scale throughout impresses me strongly, and its beautiful, mellow, sustaining tone is especially adapted to supporting the voice. I can unhesitatingly say that those who buy one of your pianos will get one of the very best instruments on the Canadian market, and in my opinion it has few equals.

Most sincerely yours,

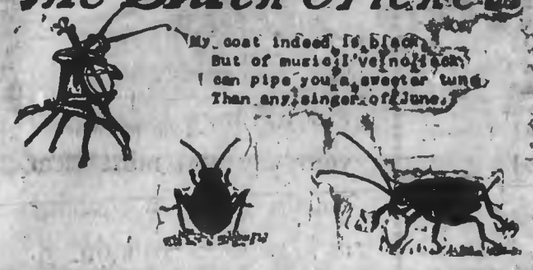
The Black Cricket



My coat indeed, is black,
But of music I've no lack;
I can pipe you a sweeter tune
Than any singer of June.

HAPPIEST and most contented of all the field musicians, I sit in my doorway beneath the flat stone and play to the sun as he sinks behind the hill. I chirp merrily to the first star that twinkles in the evening sky, and when I am tired of making music I go marketing. Grass, roots, fruit and vegetables I gather to keep my cupboard well filled against a rainy day. Vegetarian though I am, once in a while my mouth waters for the taste of a juicy worm or a spicy bug. Then, indeed, I have to be spry and catch my nimble meal.

Watch, now, while I fiddle for you, and raising my short wing covers rub them together lengthwise and fill the twilight with a flood of sweet music.

MARGARET W. LEIGHTON.

How to Draw the Body

SO MANY boys and girls, like Polly Evans, are enthusiastic over drawing that you will all be interested in the following hints on drawing the human body, given us by a very successful artist. Says he:

Give your first attention to the movement. There is a suggestion of motion even in the standing pose; no one stands gracefully in the attitude of a soldier in the ranks.

The weight of the body is thrown on one foot, the hip on that side is raised, the shoulder lowered, the spine curved, the head bent a little to the opposite side. But, of course, there are a thousand variations of the attitude. So the first thing to do is to draw a perpendicular line in your mind's eye through the figure you are about to sketch and note how much the figure varies from the perpendicular.

Unless you sketch out the natural attitude of the figure at the very first you will surely lose it, as it disappears as soon as the figure's muscles weary and become limp.

Draw very lightly a perpendicular line down the middle of the paper or to one side if the figure's arm is extended. Mark the middle of the line and then measure all other distances from this centre — the distance of height on the line, those of breadth FROM it. Use the length of the head, from crown to chin, as your unit of measure.

In the average adult man the height of the body, from crown to sole, is from six and a half to seven and a half times the length of the head. From chin to a little below the centre of breast is usually a head's length; from the centre of breast to top of hips another head's length; from there to middle of thigh, another; from middle of thigh to knee, another; from knee to sole of foot, two heads' length.

The arm is usually a little more than three heads' length. From shoulder to shoulder is usually two heads' length, from hip to hip one and a half.

The hand is usually three-quarters of a head's length; the foot is usually a trifle over a head's length.

A horizontal line drawn from pupil to pupil divides the head into almost exact halves.

Now for the eyes.

Beginners usually make the eye in profile too long. Study these diagrams to see where you have made your mistakes. In the first diagram you see the full eye in perspective. The slant of the lid is abrupt.

In the second diagram, which gives a three-quarter view of the eye, also in perspective, the highest point (centre) is withdrawn from the extreme limit marked in the profile more toward the actual centre.

In the last diagram, showing the full eye, the highest point is in the actual centre, there being no foreshortening.

Note the perpendicular lines drawn on the first two diagrams, which show how much the eye retreats from view according to the respective turns of the head.

Don't forget that very few people are harmoniously proportioned, most people having shorter legs than they ought to have. So you will have to judge by your eye just what their actual proportions are. And then, of course, you will always have to look out for the necessity of foreshortening here and there in your sketch.

It will help you to know that usually the fork of the legs is a little less than half the height of the body and that the trunk (to the chin) may be divided into four heads.

Usually when a figure is standing at rest the line of balance or equilibrium passes through the head and neck, but not through the legs. It falls in front of them, about through the insteps.

In a well-built figure the chest is well forward, the body thrown forward on the legs and the head held a little back as a balance.

On Her Vacation

The Romance of a Red Haired King

IF YOU are big enough to do lessons and learn history, you will know that there was once a King who was called "Rufus," because he had red hair.

But I don't suppose you have ever heard of a King who was called "Carrots"—for the same reason. None of the history writers seems to have mentioned him.

King Carrots hated his hair and hated his nickname. Whenever the court barber called his hair beautiful, he scowled. And when one day some one in the crowds on the streets shouted "King Carrots!" he was very angry, and on his return home immediately sent for the court barber.

"Your Majesty s-s-sent for me?" inquired the barber, who was a stutterer.

"Yes, attend to my hair."

"Y-your hair, your Majesty?" (for the King's hair had already been nicely trimmed).

"My hair, yes! Dye it!"

"D-dye y-your b-beautiful hair?" stuttered the astonished barber.

"Beautiful! it is hideous!" shrieked the King. "I'll not have carrot-colored hair another day. Dye it dark brown."

The barber had no choice but to obey, of course. So he got the dye, and in a few minutes lo! he beheld in his glass a dark brown head of hair instead of a carrot-colored one, and he was so delighted with his altered appearance that he decided at once upon a magnificent journey to the neighboring kingdom, whose Queen he had long desired to marry, but had not dared to ask for fear of her refusal on account of his red hair.

But, alas! when he asked her hand in marriage, she glanced at his hair and said "No."

"I'm sorry," she added, kindly, "but your hair is not my favorite color. I always imagined —. Why, surely, you used to have red hair?"

"Y-yes," faltered the King. "I had red hair, but I had it dyed brown because I thought you preferred it."

"Oh, I am sorry, but I hate dark men, and I cannot marry you because you are dark."

The discomfited King hastened back home and summoned his barber.

"Dye my hair yellow!" he commanded.

"B-but, your Majesty," interposed the barber, "it is never w-w-wise to m-mix dyes. Your Majesty's hair would probably turn green."

"Take off this dye first, then."

"B-but it won't come off!"

"Then shave the hair off, and I can wear a yellow wig!"

So it was done, and in a few days the King reappeared at the Queen's court wearing a yellow wig.

But, looking at his hair, she shook her head sorrowfully and said, "No."

"I'm so very, very sorry," she went on, pityingly; "but, though your wig is very becoming, I do not like fair men, so I simply cannot marry you."

This time the King went home angry, for he was sure the Queen had been making game of him.

He did not summon the barber this time. It was no use. The Queen apparently would not have him, dark or fair, so he sulked.

And while he sulked his hair grew; and after a while he discarded the wig altogether. That very day the barber begged for an audience, and, on being admitted, excitedly exclaimed:

"Your Majesty, I've heard that the Queen, whom you are said to love, although she hates dark men and fair men alike, admires those who have RED hair, for it is her favorite color."

The King sprang to his feet, called his courtiers to horse and hastened off to the court of the Queen; and this time she looked at his hair, smiled, and said "Yes."

They were married, and on their arrival at the King's palace they gave a handsome present to the barber.

After that the King liked his hair and liked to be called "King Carrots."

Tom Tit's Experiments

Optical Illusion.

HERE is a rather curious illusion, showing how easy it is for the eye to deceive the judgment. At first sight which dotted line—the horisontal or the vertical—would you suppose is the longer?

Now take a measure and test the accuracy of your eye's estimate.

Raising Soda Water Straws.

ALL of you boys and girls who live in the country or suburbs, where you have an acre or so of ground around the house, will be interested to learn that there is said to be considerable money in raising rye for soda water straws.

A lady who lives in the country tells how she and her little boys and girls came to make the discovery and what they accomplished from a crop of rye straw grown in a patch 50 by 200 feet in extent. She says:

"I had occasion to go into the city. It was a spasmodically hot day in July, and I stopped to take a glass of orange phosphate. As I sipped the cooling beverage through nice, clean, fresh straws it could never bear to use the miserable pasty stems now so commonly in use), I thought: These straws are very much like ours, except hardly so nice, and they must cost something. Why cannot the children and myself prepare some fine ones from our rye patch?

"I asked at once if I might speak to the head of the establishment, and was introduced to a very pretty young woman. She displayed her straws in bulk, and told me she paid $1.25 per 1000, put up in little bundles of 100 each.

"I went home quite elated, and the two children and myself set to work with a will. The rye was just beginning to whiten—hardly ripe enough to cut—and every morning my husband went out and brought in to us quite a large bunch of the ripest. From this he would take the heads, with about one and a half feet of the stalk, that was much too small for our purposes. The children then clipped out the joints with scissors, skinned off the outer coverings, and then turned them over to me. I measured up and cut into exact lengths all that were perfect, and counted them out in little bundles of 100 each. We slipped little rubber bands on either end of each bundle, and they were ready for the market.

"Only about two joints can be used from each stalk—the second and third (the first joint, growing nearer to the ground, is always spoiled in cutting). These we carefully cut into two lengths—the longest about fourteen inches, and the shorter seven inches. The straws must be cut into exact lengths, and the ends should be clipped, with sharp scissors, obliquely; because, if cut straight across, they will be considered only "machine-cut." We selected the straws, so far as possible, of equal size for each bundle; the lower joint made short straws, and generally ran a little larger than the joint above, which we used for the longer straws.

"We sold our first 1000 straws to the woman at the ice cream parlor for $1.25, and she engaged 1000 per week; but we found that we could prepare about 3000 or 10,000 per week, working, approximately, five hours per day, except on Saturday, and so we sold all that we could cut every week to a large wholesale house, which furnished supplies for salons, soda water fountains, etc., and, at the end of about six weeks our receipts were $40 in cash, with scarcely any expenditure. Of course, if we had retailed them all, we should have made a much larger profit, but that was not practicable.

"The rye should be cut a little under-ripe, and not tied in bundles. When too dry, the straws split in cutting, but we found that by putting the straw into a cellar overnight this was prevented. If the straw could be procured and kept under cover in good condition, the season would be much longer, as the wholesale supply houses seem willing to buy an indefinite quantity at almost any season of the year; and, even at 50 cents per 1000, it yields a big profit."

Trick With a Rule.

THERE is nothing like a "catch" which trips the cleverest, as well as the stupidest. Here is one for you to master first. Then try on others. Hand some one a rule—one of the four-folding sort. Make sure that the two ends are away from him. Now ask him to open out the folds three times away from himself. He will find it impossible to do from his position. After he has tried and failed, take the rule yourself, keeping the ends toward you, and under, as you see in the picture.

Now, with your right hand, raise three folds (this is the point to remember; if you forget, your "catch" will catch the catcher). Then open out the middle hinge, and, after it, the last fold.

All your moves are made away from you, remember. But, the uninitiated people's moves are made toward themselves, you purposely handing them the rule so that the ends are away from them.

Don't you see how this is sure to confuse them?

Torches and Jacklights.

THIS is the season for the appearance of fireburs. And, at the same time, a good many of us feel the desire to make a little light in the world.

Have you ever made yourself a jacklight or torch?

A good way is to wind a length of a limewick on a crotched stick. Saturate the wick in kerosene or some other fluid that will burn till it has absorbed as much as it will hold. Having done this, lock up the can of gasoline or whatever you have used, and under no circumstance take it along with you, for, if you do, a burning catastrophe or explosion is almost sure to happen.

Another light—and a safe one—can be made by placing a number of candles in a glass-front box, with a tin reflector in the back part to enhance the brilliance of the candlelight. This jacklight is a fine thing, for while it casts a brilliant light ahead, it casts an equally heavy shadow behind, effectually concealing those who carry it.

A Hunter's Cabin

BOYS who live close enough to some woods to be able to make frequent trips there will find it jolly to put up a hunter's cabin for permanent use.

Make it in two sections, arranging your forked sticks for the campfire between the sections.

At the extreme inner end of each section you can arrange a locker, to serve also as cupboard and safe for your kettle, dishes and other valuables.

Mister Fly

WHAT a sharp little fellow is Mr. Fly;
He goes when he pleases, low or high.
And can walk feet as well with his feet to the sky
As I can on the floor.
At the window he comes
With a buss and a roar,
And o'er the smooth glass
Can easily pass,
Or through the keyhole of the door.

He eats the sugar and goes away,
Nor ever once asks what there is to pay.
And sometimes he crosses the teapot's steam,
And covers and plunges his head in the cream;
Then on the edge of the jug he stands
And cleans his wings with his feet and hands.

This done, through the window he hurries away
And goes a-buss, as if to say:
"At present I haven't a minute to stay,
But I'll peep in again in the course of a day."
Then again he'll fly,
Where the sunbeams lie,
And neither stop to shake hands
Nor bid good-bye.

Such a strange little fellow is Mister Fly,
Who goes as he pleases, low or high,
And can walk on the ceiling
Without ever feeling
A fear of tumbling down "sky-high."

Your Pets in June

IF YOU have canaries in your house you will be interested to know that if the hen canary gives signs of laying again before her first brood have been reared, you should not delay providing her with plenty of nesting materials, or she will very likely commence plucking the feathers from her young to line the new nest.

If she is seen doing this the young ones must be at once moved from her reach and placed in a separate compartment, or another cage, with the cock, who will undertake the duty of feeding them.

If you are having trouble with your pigeons, perhaps you will be helped by this piece of information: That 95 per cent of the ailments of pigeons are due to drinking impure water. Fresh, soft water should be given every morning and the drinking vessels cleaned thoroughly every day.

Remember this about your dog: That hot food is not good for dogs; it is unnatural for them and weakens their digestion. In very cold weather it may be given with the chill off, but not at this time of the year.

There is no doubt that cats have a regular language of their own. Champfleury, the great French authority, says pussy's cry "Miou!" is uttered in countless different ways, and he has been able to distinguish sixty-three distinct sounds. Each means something, and is never used except for that particular thing.

May Rain Healthy.

In Germany, during the month of May, hundreds of children run about the street without hats on when it rains; as it is generally believed that May rain is most healthy, and that when it falls on their bare heads the children will grow quicker and gain in strength.

Gain in Gold Output.

The production of gold in the United States last year was 4,178,853 fine ounces, valued at $86,387,700. This is a gain of about $6,000,000 in value over the output for the calendar year 1904. The gain comes largely in Alaska, while of the other large producers California alone shows a reduction.

Story About Dominoes

WITH regard to the game of dominoes there is a very interesting story connected with its origin; it runs thus: There were two monks who had been committed to the penalty of a long seclusion, and were condemned to keep absolute silence. To relieve the monotony they played a game by showing each other small flat stones marked with black dots. By a well-understood arrangement the monk whose hand was used at first informed the other player by repeating in an undertone the first line of the vesper hymn, "Cantate Domino" ("Sing unto the Lord"). In time the monks completed the set of stones and formulated the rules of the game, so that by the time they were free to come out from their punishment they had found the game so interesting that on teaching it to the other members of the monastery it became a favorite and lawful pastime. It soon became popular all through Italy and from there extended to the whole world. The first line of the vesper hymn which the monks had used as a signal was reduced to the word domino, and the name as you know has stuck to the game ever since.

Plays Violin Without Hands.

Frank Clawson, of Atlanta, Ill., is a handless violinist. Many years ago he was caught in a blizzard, and his hands were frozen so badly that amputation was necessary. For a long time his violin was silent, but his love for the instrument inspired him to experiment, and he now is able to play it as well as when he had two hands. Mr. Clawson made a bent wire contrivance to fasten on to the stumps of his arms, and by the use of these and holding the violin between his knees he is enabled to use the instrument with great skill.

A Needle-and-Thread Tree.

The Mexican maguey tree furnishes a needle and thread all ready for use. At the tip of each dark green leaf is a slender thorn needle that must be carefully drawn from its sheath; at the same time it slowly unwinds the thread, a strong, smooth fibre attached to the needle and capable of being drawn out to a great length.

SOLDIERS WHO TO CHRIST BELONG

Soldiers who to Christ belong,
Trust ye in His word, be strong;
For His promises are sure,
His rewards for aye endure.

His no crowns that pass away,
His no palm that sees decay,
His the joy that shall not fade,
His the light that knows no shade;

His the home for spirits blest,
Where he gives them peaceful rest,
Far above the starry skies,
In the bliss of Paradise.

Here on earth ye can but clasp
Things that perish in the grasp;
Lift your hearts, then, to the skies;
God Himself shall be your prize.

Praise we now with saints at rest
Father, Son, and Spirit blest;
For His promises are sure,
His regards shall aye endure.

THE SIGN OF SLAVERY.

There are times when it is a duty to make money; but the man does not live whose chief duty it is to make money, nor whose chief attention can safely be given to money-making. If one gives money-making first place, both his work and his judgment are undermined and unreliable. If he lets the opportunity to make money be the usual determining factor in his decisions, he is building character on about as stable a foundation as that man used who heard Christ's words and did them not. In at least nine cases out of ten there is a better reason for or against any given course of action than a money-making reason. Those who will not believe this soon come to be recognized by their fellows as branded by the dollar mark. And such a mark is the sign of a slavery which robs life of all its real richness.

BREAKING THE FALL.

Being a Christian does not mean that a man will never again fall into sin. It means that when he falls, he will have an Almighty hand to help him regain his feet. "Though he fall," says the Psalmist, "he shall not be utterly cast down; for Jehovah upholdeth him with his hand." Your little stumbling child, clinging to your hand, loses his foothold and falls. The shock of the fall is less because your clasp is strong, and holding fast to your strength he struggles to his feet frightened, stained, bruised, but confident of you and your ability to help him. "Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down;" and no more are we who through weakness and weariness stumble into sin. It is a Father's hand that breaks the fall, a Father's strength that puts us on our feet.

GROWING TOWARDS THE SUN LIGHT.

All the flowers in meadow, field and garden lift their pretty heads just as high as they can in an effort to grow toward the sun. Even the helpless, tender vines, which cannot raise themselves from the ground by their own, unaided effort, reach out clinging tendril fingers to find some means of support by which they, too, may climb higher and ever higher. And the brightest blossoms are always found at the top.

Don't be outdone in ambition by the humble flowers of the wayside. Reach out toward the highest and best things in life. Lift up your head, and grow! Don't be satisfied with standing still; for all life, if rightly lived, is a steady, upward growth.

LOOKING FOR THE BLESSINGS.

Begin to-day with the determination to find blessing. His tender mercies are about us on every side. Be on the lookout for them and you will find them. "The more we look for them, the more of them we will see. Blessings brighten when we count them. Out of the determination of the heart the eyes see. If you want to be gloomy, there's gloom enough to keep you glum; if you want to be glad, there's gleam enough to keep you glad. Say, "Bless the Lord, O my Soul, and forget not all His benefits." Better lose count in enumerating your blessings than lose your blessings in telling over your troubles. 'Be thankful unto Him and bless His name!'"

THE SHADOW OF THE CROSS.

We so often think that if only we are trying to be on God's side we have a right to be exempted from temptations, from coldness in prayer, and from evil imaginations. Why should we think so? God's love does not exempt us, any more than it did Christ, from trials and sorrow. "Great are the troubles of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of all." The shadow of the Cross we must expect to fall on those nearest and dearest to Him.

DO NOT WORRY.

God requires you to keep your bodies as far as possible fit for the transferring of His power into work here below. To do that you must have some knowledge of its functions and structure. Nothing is of greater value than a quiet, healthy, staple mental condition, which will enable you to shine for your Master, at all times to trust and not to worry, to be, under God, masters of your work, and not to let your work have the mastery of you. —Dr. Herbert Lankester.

INFLUENCE.

Every step of inward progress makes us worth more to the world and to every cause with which we may be identified. The road to influence is simply the highway of duty and loyalty. Let one press nearer to Christ and open his nature more widely to admit the energy of Christ, and, whether he knows it or not—it is better, perhaps, if he does not know it—he will certainly be growing in power for God with men, and for men with God.—Bialkec.

THE STAR OF LOVE.

O, help us, Jesus, to conform
Our spirits, thoughts And life to Thine!
Beyond this earthly strife and storm,
O, make Thy star of love to shine!
When we are sinking in the brine
Of doubt and care—O, come that we
As Peter did, may safe resign
Our sinking helplessness to Thee.

—C. D. Halpine.

FIRST PRINCIPLES OF HOLINESS.

It is a fatal mistake to suppose that we cannot be holy except on the condition of a situation and circumstances in life such as shall suit ourselves. It is one of the first principles of holiness to leave our times and our places, our going out and our coming in, our wasted and our goodly heritage entirely with the Lord. Hare, O Lord, hast Thou placed us, and we will glorify Thee here! — T. C. Upham.

THE BEST PREPARATION.

Christianity best prepares men for the future by making them fit to do their duty to God and man in the present. True Christianity in its present form does not mean separation from the world, but it does mean separation from its corrupt influences.

—Rev. J. G. Beauchamp.

LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE.

Look on the bright side of all things. Believe that the best offering that you can make God is to appreciate to the full, what He sends of good, and bear what He allows of evil, like a child who believes in all his father's dealings with it, whether he understands them or not.

Norway's New King Crowned Amid The Nation's Rejoicings

Haakon Takes Throne and the Country is Once More Ruled by a Monarch of Its Own.

A Brilliant Scene at Norway's Capital—A Blending of Grandeur and Simplicity Marks Event.

His Queen a Daughter of England's King — Another Tie Which Binds Great Britain.

Examiner Special

Trondhjem, June 23.—King Haakon was crowned shortly before noon today, and when the venerable bishop placed the diadem upon the head of him whom he had just anointed in the name of the Lord, lights blazed in the ancient cathedral, beneath the floors of which the bones of Norway's early kings repose, the trumpets blared, the chimes pealed, the great guns boomed distantly, and the harmonized acclaim of the choir within the sacred edifice was taken up boisterously by the waiting crowds outside.

Grandeur and simplicity were curiously blended in the ceremonies. The spirit of the affair was plain and democratic, although the costly gowns and jewels, and the showy uniforms of distinguished personages, high officials of the kingdom, the church and the army, and representatives of the people and the municipalities furnished a brilliant stage setting.

The Procession.

Long before the King and Queen started for the cathedral, every possible inch of standing room on the line of march was taken up, and the newly-decorated streets were full of bustle and life. Stiftsgaarden Palace, naturally, was one of the principal objects of interest, and it was the starting point of the procession. Crowds assembled there in immense numbers, and the first hearty cheer of the day went up when the King and Queen, the latter looking particularly radiant and happy, emerged, through the palace gates.

The route of the pageant led through the Munkegaarden, which was lined on both sides with immense throngs of spectators, among them visitors from many parts of Europe and America, as well as delegations from all the Provinces. At the head of the procession marshed the lower court and state functionaries. The King was in a general's uniform and, besides other decorations he wore a plaque of St. Olaf. The Queen's dress was magnificent. It was of cloth of silver, veiled with ivory white tulle. It finished in a high, transparent collar of old lace, edged with silver. The long train of the gown, heavily embroidered with silver, was borne by three maids of honour. The procession was nearly an hour in passing, and all along the route there were manifestations of genuine enthusiasm on the part of the crowds.

At the Cathedral.

An hour before the time set for the coronation, those who were privileged to witness the ceremony had begun to take their places in the cathedral. The galleries of the nave were lined with distinguished foreign envoys from many parts of the world. The show of colour there, in harmony with the cathedral decorations, was rich and pleasing. MRS. CASSIE CHADWICKS GEMS SOLD AT AUCTION MANY AFTER THEM.

(Examiner Special.)

Cleveland, June 23.—Cassie L. Chadwick's personal effects, her wardrobe and a great variety of furniture were sold at public auction for $4,625. The purchaser was A. G. Creeley, who expects to sell the articles as souvenirs.

Those who attended the sale were surprised at the magnificence of the articles. There were scores of gowns bearing the mark of the most famous Parisian costumers, seal, sable, marten, astrachan, beaver and mole capes, jackets, long coats, muffs, collars and even suits.

One Vernia Martin bed alone cost Mrs. Chadwick $1,800, a brass bed $1,000. Two vases cost $2,000 each. There were mahogany beds and dressers, cabinets and chairs. Over the beds were strewn hundreds of yards of priceless lace, dresses, lingerie, hats, what not. An ivory-handled parasol cost $400.

Salvation Army Band Get Their Grant of $100

W. J. Green Appointed Permanently Tax Collector and Salary is $1,000—Other Business.

The Finance Committee of the City Council, at a meeting held last night, decided to make a grant of $100 to the Salvation Army Band. The matter was discussed at some length. Ald. Ball said that the Salvation Army Band was an excellent one and deserved liberal support from the city. The estimates had, however, already been struck, which would prevent giving as much as the Council would like to give. Ald. Wilson also spoke along these lines. It was moved by Ald. Ball, seconded by Ald. Elliott, that a grant of $100 be made to the Salvation Army Band.—Carried.

Tax Collector W. J. Greene waited upon the committee to ask that his remuneration be changed from a straight salary of $850 to a commission of one per cent. on the cash collected, and that his appointment be made permanent.

The plan of changing the method of payment was not approved by the committee, but they agreed that he should have a permanent position.

It was moved by Ald. Ball, seconded by Ald. Elliott, that W. J. Greene be appointed tax collector, his office to be permanent, at the pleasure of the Council, and that his salary be increased to $1,000 a year, said sum to cover expenses and assistance.—Carried.

City Treasurer Felix Brownscombe applied for an increase in salary. His present remuneration is $700 from the city and $700 from the Water Commissioners, out of which he pays his assistants.

The question was left over until another meeting, but the committee apparently agreed that the officials should get an increase. Mayor Best thought that the clerk and treasurer should both get an increase.

There were present: Ald. Mason, chairman; Ald. Adams, Elliott, Wilson, Ball and Mayor Best.

MANY MEN —ARE WANTED FROM— THE ARMY

Adjt. Jennings States Demand Has Never Been So Strong as at Present Time.

25,000 to 30,000 Men Will be Sent Out to Canada During Year 1907.

Brig. Howell Will Go To England in Short Time to Complete Arrangements for it.

Adjutant Jennings reports that the demand for men at the present time, is greater than at any time this year, and considerably exceeds the available supply. It is impossible to fill an application for men inside of a month at present, while previously it required but a few days.

The fourth trip of the Kensington will be the last of the special trips for the Salvation Army this year, though it is expected that during the whole season parties will be brought over on all the sailings of the Dominion Line.

The Adjutant says that it is probable that in 1907, the number of immigrants that the Army will bring to this country from England, will be in the neighbourhood of 25,000 or 30,000. Brigadier Howell will leave in a few days for England to make arrangements for the next year's operations in this department of work, which is assuming gigantic proportions.

Most satisfactory results have characterized the activity of the Army in this particular line this year, and they are encouraged to embark more extensively in this work in the future. According to Adjt. Jennings, who has had charge of this work, in the eastern part of the province, and has shown much executive ability in dealing with many difficult problems which have arisen during the tenure of office.

REGATTA —WILL BE HELD— AT GROVE

Johnston Paudash is Making Great Progress in the Arrangements.

Illuminated Canoe Parade Will be an Attraction for the Evening.

Strong Committee Has Been Selected in Peterborough to carry out the Work.

Mr. Johnson Paudash is energetically working to ensure the success of the regatta, which it is proposed to hold on some Thursday in July at Crawford's Grove. A strong committee has taken the affair in charge, and it promises to be one of the most interesting events of its kind ever held in Peterborough. It is the intention to have races both in the afternoon and evening. The course will be illuminated with Chinese lanterns placed on buoys, and at night should present a very pretty appearance. There will be an illuminated canoe parade in the evening, and prizes will be given for the best decorated canoes, as well as for the best dressed lady.

There will be professional singles and doubles, amateur singles and doubles, and similar events for ladies and boys. It is expected that Indians will attend from all reserves in the vicinity, particularly from Chemong and Hiawatha. This will mean that some of the best paddlers in the county will be on hand, and the events should go much to arouse an interest in canoeing in Peterborough and vicinity.

The following committee has taken charge of the affair: Messrs. E. S. Clarry, chrman; W. S. Davidson, R. M. Roy, R. M. Glover, H. McBurn, H. Rye and Ald. Elliott.

MOULDERS —OF TORONTO— VISIT CITY

Big Excursion From the Queen City Arrived in Peterborough This Morning.

Over Seven Hundred Visitors Were Brought Here by Special C. P. R. Train.

Welcomed by the Local Union and 57th Band and Escorted to the Oval.

One of the biggest excursions that ever came to Peterborough was that held by the Ironmoulders and Coremakers of Toronto, which reached here about 9.40 this morning, by a special train. Over 700 people were on board, and a happy, prosperous looking lot they were, too. The local union marched in a body to the station, headed by the 57th band, and received the visitors. A parade was formed and marched directly to the Oval. Several hundred mouldders were in line, and the procession was an imposing one.

This afternoon a programme of games and sports will be held at the Oval. Among other things there is a baseball match between Peterborough and Toronto.

The officers of the committee which had the affair in charge, are Chas. H. Woodward, chairman; W. M. Skimerton, secretary; and R. Emmett, treasurer.

Many old Peterborough boys were noticed among the visitors.

For the Cobourg Trip.

The members of the Composite Companies are requested to meet meet again on Monday night at the drill hall when they will receive water bottles and leggings for the Cobourg trip. Any wishing to join the Companies may do so on Monday night.

Early Notes From Some Of Peterboroughs Many Pretty Summer Resorts

Many People Are Already at Chemong Park, Which Will be Very Popular This Season.

Fishing Everywhere is Reported as Excellent, and the American Visitors Are Having Fine Sport.

Interesting Items From Stony Lake Points—Season Will be Probably the Banner One at This Resort.

Peterborough's summer resort season is now fairly under way and before long the rush to the lake and river points will begin in earnest. The warm weather and the beginning of the fishing season have already had their effects and many visitors from the other side of the border as well as from Canadian points are already quartered at the various resorts. While the majority of Peterborough people the season proper does not open until the last of June when schools are closed and children have an opportunity of forgetting lessons and study among the many delights of a visit at one of the near-by summer colonies. Fishing is reported good all along the line of lakes and some stories of splendid catches are recorded.

CHEMONG WILL BE MORE POPULAR THAN EVER THIS SEASON

(Examiner Special.)

Chemong Park, June 23.—Chemong Park threatens to be more popular than ever this season both with the people of Peterborough and with visitors from more distant points. Already a number of cottages are opened for the season. Although enough rain has fallen, there has been much fair weather and the cottagers are having an enjoyable, although as yet, quiet, time. A feature of the park this year as last, will be the sailing on the lake. Last year many trials of speed were held which created a great deal of interest among the amateur skippers who frequented the lake. To the list of speedy craft which form the Chemong fleet will be added two dinghies which have been purchased by Messrs. Carrier and Easton. The building of the pleasure house has given an impetus to affairs at the park and already a number of rooms there have been secured for the season.

The fishing at the lake is continuing good and a large number from the park are daily engaged in raids on the finny tribe.

A new feature this year will be the automobiles which hitherto have been unknown here. Mr. D. J. Lundy's auto makes frequent trips.

N. G. Bell, of Bridgenorth, has completed the contract of a cottage for Mr. D. J. Lundy. It is a handsome building and adds greatly to the appearance of the park.

The steamer Ogemah started her regular trips on Monday last. The automobile which is coming from Bellaire will give connections with the steamer.

The Methodist Epworth League of Bridgenorth held their annual excursion to Sturgeon Point on the Kawartha on Friday last. Several summer visitors took in the trip.

A KIDNAPPED BRIDE'S THRILLING ESCAPE FROM HER CAPTOR'S ROOMS

(Examiner Special.)

Omaha, June 23.—Held a prisoner against her will for six months, after being chloroformed and kidnapped from her parents' home, Mrs. Dora West succeeded to-day, according to her story, in escaping from her captor. The man followed her to the street, beat her into insensibility and started to carry her back to his rooms, when a crowd gathered, and he dropped her and run. Clay West, the husband of the woman, is an actor, now away on a theatrical engagement. William McDonald, a boarder at the Wests, became infatuated with the young bride.

On January 7, Mrs. West declares, while she was playing the organ in the parlour of her home, McDonald placed a handkerchief saturated with chloroform over her face, and she became insensible.

When she regained consciousness she found herself, she says, in a house on the outskirts of Beatrice, forty miles from her home, held prisoner by a woman.

WILL DOMINION GOVERNMENT AID THE COUNTY COUNCIL TO BUILD NEW BRIDGE AT KEENE?

The Cruise of the Rob Roy Was to Find Solution of This Question—County Councillors Personally Visit and View the Situation in Relation to Government Co-operation.

Yesterday the members of the County Council held a floating session—took a business excursion to Keene, where a new steel bridge to span the Indian River, is under contract to Messrs. Conroy & Son. The primary object of the visit, which was a business one, was to gain by personal observation an intelligent idea of the somewhat peculiar situation, and to confer with the superintendent of the Trent Canal system, as representing to the extent of that capacity, the Dominion Government, which the members of the Council are of opinion is invested with considerable responsibility in respect of contributing something to the expense of erecting the new bridge, which will cost in the neighbourhood of $7,000. It is claimed—and a view of the situation tends to strengthen the claim—that the raising of the dam at Hastings has so raised the waters of the Indian River at Keene, and so broadened the stream that the bridge will require to be considerably longer and therefore considerably more expensive than would be the case if the waters of the river were at their natural level and flow.

The new bridge will consist of two spans of 70 feet each, a total of 140 feet, as against about 90 feet, which the Examiner is informed, is the present over-water span of the nine steel and three or four wooden County bridges crossing the Indian River in the 35 miles from Stony Lake to Keene.

The members of the County Council, accompanied by County Solicitor Peck, County Treasurer and Clerk Elliott, County Engineer Belcher and Mr. J. Harris McClelland, Superintendent of the Trent Canal, boarded the trim, taut and speedy steam yacht, the Rob Roy, at the Wolfe street wharf, with Mr. R. M. Roy as skipper, supercargo, captain, pilot and wireless, rolled into one, at 9.16 yesterday morning and a delightful and speedy steam was made down the sinuous Otonabee, between shores shaded and steeped in the lush and luxuriant green of June at its brightest. After reaching the mouth or near the mouth, of the river, the waters of Rice Lake, churned into lively choppiness, by the stiff, but refreshing breeze, were ploughed around the verdant shorelines of Sugar Island, to the Indian River which leads to Keene, which was reached at one o'clock the Rob Roy having handily covered the thirty-five miles in three hours and three-quarters, a nine mile an hour clip.

At Keene the contractors for the substructure of the new bridge — Messrs. Conroy & Son—the Hamilton Bridge Company having the contract for the steel work—were found busy with a gang of men making ready to begin operations.

The members of the County Council, the Engineer and Superintendent, made a careful study of the situation, and to the latter, after a thorough personal observation and inspection and discussion of the situation, the manner in which the raising of the water and the widening of the stream added to the length and consequent cost of the bridge, was pointed out, and the responsibility of the Government in this connection suggested and emphasized.

The Council seems quite justified in asking the Government to bear a proportion of the cost of the new bridge; for two reasons. First as a matter of fair responsibility, and secondly, the desirability of lessening to the ratepayers the very heavy bill of cost of erecting and maintaining the numerous bridges that have to be assumed by the county. Comparatively few persons have any clear idea of the number and expensive character of county and inter-county bridges under charge of the County Council of Peterborough. There are fifty-nine county and nine inter-county bridges, aggregating a length of 16,600 lineal feet. At an average cost of $3,000 each, the total cost of these bridges is $395,000, and the average cost of maintenance per bridge of 360 each yearly brings up the annual cost to $2,950.

In regard to the county bridges spanning the Indian River it may be pointed out that between Stony Lake, to source of the river, and Keene, there are nine steel or iron bridges, and three or four wooden ones, as follows:—Payne's bridge, six miles from Stony Lake; a mile and a half south of that is Spencer's bridge, wooden; three miles below Payne's bridge is the Douglas bridge, and another at Warsaw. Three miles south of Warsaw is Burn's bridge, and two miles south of that Sullivan's bridge. Three miles south of that comes the boundary bridge between Douro and Otonabee. Three miles below that, with a wooden bridge intervening, is Evans' bridge, and three miles below that, with another wooden bridge intervening, is Armstrong's bridge. Then comes Allendale bridge, then the wooden one at the Grand Trunk station, with Keene bridge at the end of about twenty-five miles from Stony Lake.

The average length of span of these bridges, as stated, about eighty feet, while at Keene, the span, owing to the raising of the waters, expands to 140 feet. Herein consists mainly the argument of the county councillors in favour of the Dominion Government assuming a fair proportion of the cost of the Keene bridge. The waters have been raised in the interests of navigation and, that purpose having been admirably subserved, a compensation problem seems to be naturally presented to the Government for solution.

While the party was at Keene, there was quite an assemblage of the residents at the Government wharf, and from some of the older it was learned that the first bridge crossing the Indian River at Keene, was erected about 1830, by, or through, the efforts of Dr. Gilchrist, who also built the mill, situated a few hundred yards above the bridge. This original bridge which was built upon "bents," was situated a short distance south of the present structure, which was erected between the years 1852 and 1856, by Jos. West. The great flood of the spring of 1870 shook up the piers of this bridge so badly that it was rebuilt about 30 or 35 years ago, by Mr. Jas. Shaffer, at present a resident of this city. The present bridge, though so long standing, is in fairly good condition for ordinary traffic, but it is by many not considered safe for heavy vehicles, such as traction engines.

The party, on arrival at Keene, partook of an excellent dinner at the Victoria House, and after attending to the business for which they made their mid-summer cruise, and after Mr. Roy had taken a photograph of the party grouped in front of the old bridge, soon to disappear—it will be sold by tender—embarked, at 3.15 on board the Roy Roy. The return voyage was very pleasantly made in good time, 4 1-2 hours, against stream, and also a brisk head wind. Before reaching the city, at a little special meeting, in the forward saloon, Mr. E. A. Peck, in a neat speech, referred to the debt the party was under, for many courtesies, and a most delightful day, to Mr. Roy, in placing his beautiful and comfortable yacht at the disposal of the party, and proposed three cheers, which were heartily given.

Fine Programme Given At Weekly Band Concert

Biggest Crowd of the Season Gathered in Victoria Park Last Night—Band's Playing Was Most Effective—Several Very Fine Numbers.

The biggest crowd of the season gathered in Victoria Park last night when the 57th Regimental Band, under the leadership of Mr. Gliddon, rendered their usual weekly concert. It seemed as if half the population of the city was gathered on the slopes of the park.

The programme rendered by the band was almost a repetition of that given last week, and was most enjoyable. The band was in splendid form, and the music was thoroughly appreciated. Each number was warmly applauded, and in several cases an encore had to be given.

The opening number was the splendid march, "Avec Aplomb," which was rendered most effectively. Suppe's immortal overture, "Poet and Peasant," followed. It is a number that never grows old, and is always popular. The catchy cake-walk, "Happy Heine," interpreted last week, and repeated last evening and its lively strains were very popular. The old favourite, "My Old Kentucky Home," introducing solos for various instruments, was also heard again, and was splendidly interpreted by the band. A portion had to be repeated to satisfy the crowd.

The double number (a) "Killarney" (b) "Baby's Sweet Heart," made another big hit, last night, the second part being especially popular.

Perhaps the finest musical gem of the evening, from a musical standpoint, was the comic opera selection, "Carmine." This grand music was rendered by the band most effectively.

The programme was brought to a close by the sacred number, "Religious," the strains of which were splendidly

Prince Henry of Prussia and the Crown Prince of Denmark, both of whom were accompanied by their suites in brilliant uniforms, was the American envoy, Charles H. Graves. With Minister Graves was Lieutenant Commander John H. Gibbons, of the United States navy.

The time of waiting was relieved by music. The chief features of the musical programme were the processional, composed for the occasion by Ole Olesou, and a cantata by Halvorsen, the latter being sung by a chorus of 300 voices.

The Ceremony of Coronation

A roar of cheers announced the arrival of the royal procession shortly after 11 o'clock. The King and Queen entered by the northern doorway of the cathedral, walking up the steps on a strip of red velvet, under a canopy bearing the arms of Norway, and proceeded along the nave.

The King was received by the Bishop of Trondhjem, supported by the Bishop of Bergen and the Metropolitan of Christiania, and surrounded by numerous clergymen. After several short prayers the King was accompanied to an arm-chair, placed on the right of the altar, and the bearers of the imperial banner and the royal insignia ranged in a semi-circle about him. The Queen was received in like manner and placed in a chair opposite the King's. When all were placed, the organ ceased playing, and the King and Queen knelt in prayer in solemn silence. When they regained their seats the royal insignia were placed upon the altar, divine service began, and after several hymns and brief prayers, the Metropolitan of Christiania preached a short and appropriate sermon.

Then the King rose and went to the royal throne placed upon temporary steps in front of the altar. The princely mantle was taken from his shoulders, and the royal mantle, with its gold embroidered crowns upon purple velvet and with borders of ermine, was put upon him.

Again the King knelt, and the anointing ceremony followed. The Bishop of Trondhjem dipped a finger in the anointment horn and made the sign of the cross on the King's naked breast, saying as he did so: "May the Almighty, Eternal God pour over you His spirit and grace, that you may, with wisdom and strength and good will, so rule over us that the name of the Lord be glorified, that right and truth prevail, that the weal of the land and of the people be furthered and confirmed."

The administration of the oath followed. Standing before the King's chair, Premier Michelsen asked: "Sir, is your Majesty willing to take the oath?" The King answered in firm, strong tones: "I am willing," etc., his replies being easily heard in the most distant parts of the marble-pillared cathedral.

The crown was then placed on the King's brow, and he received the scepter, the globe, and the sword, according to the programme. When all these ceremonies, each accompanied by an appropriate sentence, were over, the king-at-arms lifted up his staff and exclaimed: "Now, King Haakon VII. is crowned King of Norway, he, and nobody else."

This announcement was greeted with cheers, flourishes of trumpets, and the royal salute of 112 guns. As the acclamations died away, the clanging of the joy bells, the noise of guns, and the shouting of the people outside, penetrated into the cathedral, where the King still sat, motionless, his dazzling crown on his head and his scepter held firmly in his hand.

Crowning of the Queen.

After another prayer had been offered, the King rose from his throne and returned to his chair in the nave. Then the Queen was conducted to the throne and the same ceremonies were gone through with. Her Majesty, accompanied by her entourage, proceeded to the altar steps, where, under a pall of cloth of gold, she was quickly crowned by the Bishop of Trondhjem. She was then led to the chair beside that in which the King sat, and her enthronization was accomplished.

The Queen bowed to King Haakon, and both walked to the altar and received the communion. All present knelt. The whole spectacle was most impressive, and was made more brilliant owing to the surroundings. Neither of their Majesties returned to their thrones after the communion, but remained at the altar. The service, which was concluded with the singing of the last verses of the Halvorsen cantata, written especially for the coronation, was brought to a close without a hitch.

Scenes of Enthusiasm.

A few minutes later the King and Queen emerged from the cathedral, still wearing their crowns and carrying scepter and globe. As the King passed beneath the entrance arch, those in the body of the church commenced to cheer. The sound grew in volume, the whole vast throng rising and hurrahing at the top of their voices. Until the last man in the royal procession had disappeared without the entrance the cheering was continued.

The departure of the King and Queen from the cathedral was signaled by another salute, the massed bands playing the national anthem. The entire route of their Majesties' return to the palace was marked by scenes of great enthusiasm.

The King and Queen.

With the accession of King Haaken VII. to the throne, Norway begins a new epoch of her history, a return after hundreds of years, to the condition of a separate kingdom. On June 7 of last year Norway declared its independence, and in October the Parliaments of Sweden and Norway ratified a treaty providing for the peaceful separation of the kingdoms. Prince Charles of Denmark was asked to become a candidate for the throne of Norway. On November 12-13 an election was held and Charles was chosen King. Upon assuming the throne on November 25 he took the name of Haakon VII.

King Haakon is the second son of Frederick of Denmark. He was born August 13, 1872, at Charlottenlund, the summer residence of his father. He was trained for the navy and made several cruises aboard Danish warships.

Queen Maud is the daughter of Edward VII. of England. Her childhood was spent at Sandringham, the favourite home of the English royal family. It was during the visit of the princess and her sisters, Princess Victoria, to their grandparents at Copenhagen, that the friendship between Charles and Maud was begun. There was considerable opposition to the marriage, as Maud was the daughter of the future King of England, and Charles was only a Danish prince. No one then dreamed of the great events that were destined to soon come into the young prince's life.

The wedding took place in July, 1895, in Buckingham Palace chapel. Prince Charles was well received in England. His father-in-law became much attached to him and often employed him in delicate and important missions.

The royal couple have one son, Prince Olaf, now heir-apparent to the Norwegian throne. He will be three years old week after next, having been born at Appleton House, Sandringham, on July 2, 1903.

Editor Post Card Column:

What are the city police doing that they allow tagless dogs to roam about the streets? Are some citizens to be treated differently from others in this respect? In recent issues of the city papers, I have noticed big headings remonstrating against the poisoning of dogs. Probably some of these did not deserve the treatment but there are certainly too many vicious dogs in the city running at large and destroying private property. At anyrate dogs without tags should be more closely looked after by the police.

HOW OCEAN GREYHOUNDS GROW IN SIZE AND SPEED

Sixty-six years ago, the Cunard Company, had on their Atlantic route four steamers — the Britannia, Columbus, Arcadia and Caledonia. Then, as ever since, the Cunard steamers were never far behind the foremost, and, therefore, it was an ingenious method of suggesting the progress achieved during two thirds of a century to prepare as a memorial of the launch of the Lusitania a comparative picture of her and the Britannia. In it the top of the mast of the older vessel barely reaches the height of the promenade deck of the present-day liner, and the disparity between them is similar in other respects.

The motive of the Lusitania and her sister boat as an enterprise was to "win back the blue ribbon of the ocean," at present held by Germany, and in order to encourage the Cunard Company, a loan and a subsidy were authorised by Parliament. The minimum speed of the two vessels is to be from twenty-four to twenty-five knots, equal to from twenty-eight to twenty-nine miles an hour. By comparison with the speed of a fairly-fast railway train some idea of the rapidity with which the Lusitania will move through the water, may be obtained. She is the first steamship to exceed the Great Eastern in width, and in all dimensions she breaks all previous records. She is the first vessel to be fitted with four screws, and is the largest to be turbine-propelled. The tops of her four funnels are one hundred and fifty feet above the keel, and are so wide that two locomotives could pass each other inside of one of them. She will have accommodation for upwards of three thousand people, including a crew of eight hundred, five hundred and fifty first-class passengers, five hundred second-class, and thirteen hundred third class. She is expected to make the transatlantic passage in not more than five days.—The Globe.

An Oriental Vacation

Canadian Pacific Service to Japan and China.

A holiday spent in Japan, "The Land of the Rising Sun," land of romance and mystery of quaint customs and costumes, tea houses and temples, is one that no one could look forward to without a thrill of pleasurable anticipation, and yet one that is only too often regretfully abandoned because of the "distance" and "cost."

It may accordingly surprise the reader to learn that with only sixty days to spare, Japan may be comfortably visited, and that giving twenty-five or more ashore. Yokohama, Tokio, Nikko, Kobe, Osaka, Kyoto, and all the most interesting and charming spots in the Island Kingdom, can be covered in twenty-five days by steamship and rickshaw and train. The cost of this delightful sixty day trip would not exceed that of the ordinary trip of the same length through America. And think of the difference! The voyage over the calm waters of the mighty Pacific is alone worth the time and money.

The famous "White Empress" fleet of the Canadian Pacific Railway, maintaining service between Vancouver, China and Japan, has a reputation for excellence that is known the world over. The three "Empresses" are each 485 feet long, 5000 tons, fitted with 10,000 horse-power engines, making 18 knots, without pushing," and for richness of cabin and saloon fittings and decorations, they have yet to meet their compeer upon the Pacific. They are splendid sea boats, and the staff of deft Chinese "boys," and a prince among cooks, help to make a trans-Pacific voyage one to carry pleasant memories for many a long day.

The "Empress of China" sails from Vancouver on July 3rd, and the "Empress of India" on July 23rd, making Ykohama in fourteen days; thence to Hong Kong by way of Kobe, the beautiful inland sea, Nagasaki and Shanghai.

The C. P. R. has also three intermediate steamships upon this service, the "Athenian," "Monteagle" and "Tartar." These boats make the same ports of call as the "Empresses," but do not carry first class passengers. The passage rates by these steamers are considerably lower than by the "Empresses." The table service and cabin accommodation are surprisingly good, and their speed and seagoing qualities are of that standard of excellence expected when the red and white house flag of the C. P. R. is at the main.

The "Athenian" leaves Vancouver for the Orient on July 20th, and the "Monteagle" on August 20th.
